Zoustar colt comes up trumps for Rothwell Park

Segenhoe's O'Brien goes to $410,000 for mature foal on day one of Magic Millions Weanling Sale

Lot 879 Zoustar - Miss Husson colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

Peter O'Brien, with the backing of Segenhoe Stud owner Kevin Maloney, put his stamp on day one of the Magic Millions National Weanling Sale with the purchase of a $410,000 Zoustar (Northern Meteor) colt as buyers zeroed in on foals deemed to be of the highest quality.

The session-topping son of Zoustar was one of 11 weanlings to make $100,000 or more at the Gold Coast yesterday in a shortened session which started in subdued fashion before some banner colts and well-bred fillies took centre stage to help improve the figures and, more importantly, push the clearance rate to an acceptable 71 per cent.

Segenhoe Stud Australia principal Kevin Maloney gave general manager Peter O'Brien the go-ahead to back his conviction that the top-priced colt could develop into a big money spinner early next year.

"I saw him at Rothwell about two months ago and I loved him then and he's just improved from then on," O'Brien said from the Gold Coast yesterday.

"We had a meeting about him this morning and, speaking to Kevin Maloney, I said, 'he's the one for me at the sale.'

"He obviously cost a little bit more (than I expected) because I thought he'd be $350,000-ish but you've got to buy the one you want.

"He's a beautiful horse by a stallion we love and we'll bring him back here next year and hopefully double (our money)."

Pinhooking is a speculator's market at the best of times - let alone during a pandemic that has caused economic chaos around the world - but O'Brien had confidence in the colt and past sale ring glory to justify the optimism.

"We have had a lot of luck buying weanlings and pinhooking them," he said.

"He comes from a great farm. Scotty (Irwin) does a great job and we're delighted to get him back to the farm.

"He's all there now - he's a very mature horse, very correct and I've just got to try and make sure nothing goes wrong."

One of nine weanlings sold by day one's leading vendor Rothwell Park, the Lot 879-catalogued Zoustar colt is the second foal out of the stakes-placed Miss Husson (Husson) who was bought by Yulong for $360,000 during the broodmare sale earlier this week.

Miss Husson, who is from the same family as Group 1 winners Outback Prince (Desert Prince) and Hotel Grand (Grand Lodge), was sold by Rothwell Park in foal to Arrowfield Stud's first season sire The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice). Yulong also paid $215,000 for Miss Husson's first foal, a colt by Sebring (More Than Ready), at last year's weanling sale.

"He is so fluent with his movement, as was the mare we presented a couple of days before. Those genetics come through. It was a lovely package, with the Zoustar influence in there and it has paid dividends," Rothwell Park principal Scott Irwin said.

"He was very, very busy and he never put a foot wrong. Considering we got up here on the 10th and he's been here 19 days and hasn't had the chance to go out and express himself in the yard, he's done a great job.

"The whole draft has handled it well and it's a credit to my staff the way the horses have been educated, it really is." Continued on page 4>>

Lime Country and Bester combine on Written Tycoon filly

Lot 868 Written Tycoon - Matildare filly

MAGIC MILLIONS

Earlier in the session, the familiarity with a family nurtured by Makybe Stud's Tony Santic for more than a decade convinced Lime Country Thoroughbreds to launch a considered plan to dig deep for a well-credentialled Written Tycoon (Iglesia) filly.

Lime Country's Greg Griffin, who outlaid $230,000 for the Aquis Farm-consigned Written Tycoon filly on the advice of agent James Bester, hopes to bring the filly who features Starspangledbanner (Choisir) in her pedigree, back to the Magic Millions sale in January.

"We know the filly well through the Makybe guys and selling for them before," Griffin said.

"We thought we would take a bit of a different tack and in that if we were going to spend some decent money, we would try on a filly as it gives us another option and hopefully we stay away from the big colt wars."

The filly, who was catalogued as Lot 868, is the first foal out of the three-time winner Matildare (Rothesay), who in turn is a half-sister to the stakes-placed Gold Anthem (Made Of Gold), the dam of the Group 1-winning, Rosemont Stud-based, sire Starspangledbanner.

Aquis Farm paid $350,000 for Matildare carrying the Written Tycoon filly at last year's Magic Millions National Sale.

"She has a pedigree with genuine upside and we'll look to bring her back, all going well, but if not if there is some hiccup we have a back-up plan," Griffin said.

"She has a little bit more scope than many of her family that we've had. We bid on the mare last year in June and got beaten, so it was nice to get the filly."

Aquis Farm sold eight weanlings yesterday at an average of $65,250 and chief executive Tony "Tubba" Williams was pleased with the way the draft was received, particularly with the Written Tycoon filly and a Spieth (Thorn Park) colt who was bought for $50,000 by Simple Bloodstock Services' Merrick Staunton for New Zealand's Hallmark Stud.

Staunton also purchased an Aquis Farm-consigned Deep Field (Northern Meteor) colt for Hallmark Stud's Mark Baker for $120,000.

"I don't mind saying, we were all very pessimistic coming into the sales - none of us were expecting the sales to be as good as they have been," said Williams, who returned to Australia late last year after a three-year stint running UK auction house Goffs.

"We're really lucky in Australasia to have a lot of international money in the market, whether that be Coolmore spending $10 million on mares in the past couple of days or Yulong spending a lot of money on mares, those two groups are extremely strong in the market.

"The high-end horses are now seemingly making more money. There's a lot of people on those high-end horses, but there's also perfectly nice horses in the middle market that can be overlooked.

"But across the board, for Magic Millions to achieve the results that they have over the past four days, it's testament to the resilience of the thoroughbred breeding industry. I hope it will hold up going forward in 2021. Time will tell but the reality is I think everyone would be extremely pleased with how the market has been."

Newgate Farm stud manager Jim Carey was also active yesterday, securing a Dundee (High Chaparral) colt, the third highest-priced lot of the session, for $200,000 from Phoenix Broodmare Farm. The colt is the second foal out of the winning mare Marquise Da Rossa (Testa Rossa).

Meanwhile, Victorian agent Suman Hedge was able to land a Lonhro (Octagonal) colt for $150,000 early in the day for the Grant Bloodstock partnership.

Bidding strategically on the phone via Barry Bowditch while watching on from the back parade ring at the sales complex, Hedge and Silverdale Farm general manager Rob Petith landed the Sledmere-consigned colt.

"We try to mix it up a little bit, so it's not so obvious. Sometimes we do that, but I'm not sure if it makes any difference and it makes us feel better," Hedge said.

"You tend to find that the same people are on the horses and that was the case again here. The people that we were bidding against in Sydney recently (for a Not A Single Doubt filly) were under bidders and that was the case again here. It's fun and games."

The colt is the fifth foal out of La Parisienne (Commands), a placed half-sister to Rothesay (Fastnet Rock) and fellow stakes winner Sensei (Dream Ahead). He was catalogued as Lot 841.

Hedge will keep an open mind about which sale to place the colt in next year.

"At the end of the day he was just a really high-quality colt and he was a pea-in-a-pod to Lonhro - he was almost his copy," he said.

"He had a lot of quality and most of them are controlled by Darley, so there's not that many of them in the market. Continued on page 6>>

Sledmere also sold a colt by first season Yarraman Park Stud sire Hellbent (I Am Invincible) out of Queen Of Kandy (Magic Albert) for $160,000 to Scott Darby's D R Pinhook, the prominent syndicator's new venture which was launched at the recent Inglis Australian Weanling Sale.

Thirst for quality on day one

After a tentative first hour of selling, where buyers and vendors were treading warily given the economic outlook heading into next year's yearling sales, the market picked up and the clearance rate (71 per cent) continued to improve.

At the close of the 120-lot afternoon session (where 87 were offered), 62 weanlings were traded at an average of $57,581 and a median of $36,000.

- BARRY BOWDITCH

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch reiterated other industry stakeholders who suggested the top-end of the market was vibrant.

"There is plenty of money around and I think looking at the results today there is an insatiable thirst for quality," Bowditch said.

"When there are a lot of unknowns, and there are a lot of unknowns in the world right now, I guess picking the eyes out of them is key, but I think there are a lot of quality horses that are slipping through the cracks or going to the keeper that are well worth people's consideration."

With that in mind, Bowditch expects a full day's selling today to be brisk.

He said: "I think vendors will come back (today) with a realistic frame of mind and I think it is a market that there will be plenty of opportunities to be had for the guys that are either here or looking for information on these horses to play, because there are plenty of nice horses."

Magic Millions' bloodstock staff managed to get some passed in lots sold after the short selling session and Bowditch predicts the clearance rate to continue to improve over the next 24 hours.

"I think the depth of the sale is really good, the feedback we have had on the catalogue has been really positive," Bowditch said.

"I am also thrilled that Scott and Rothwell have seen some good results today. They have been a big supporter of this sale for forever and a day.

"They have stuck solid again this year and I was thrilled they got some good results today including the top price."

AUSTRALIA

First for Complacent

Mapperley Stud's Complacent (Authorized) recorded the perfect start to his stallion career when his first ever runner, Calm Seeker (2 c ex Attention Seeker by Fast 'n' Famous), won on debut at Ipswich yesterday. The Matt Kropp-trained Calm Seeker was sent out as $5 third favourite. Settling midfield over the 1350 metres, he improved steadily throughout, rolling up towards the leaders and then sprinting nicely to defeat Amore Primus (Love Conquers All) by a length and a quarter with a long neck back to favourite Sienna's Choice (Love Conquers All) in third. Calm Seeker was offered as a weanling by Curraghmore at New Zealand Bloodstock's 2018 May Sale, selling for NZ$10,000; he was then sold again at Karaka Book 2, fetching NZ$52,500, before he was purchased for NZ$170,000 by owners Roland and Sharon Hovey at last year's NZB Ready To Run Sale. Complacent, winner of the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on the track, will stand at Mapperley Stud for NZ$4,000 (plus GST).

O'Brien stable stars bound for Geelong exhibition

Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War) and South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) victor Russian Camelot will step out in an exhibition gallop between races at Geelong today. Trainer Danny O'Brien told RSN927 yesterday morning that he was giving both horses a long lead-in to their first spring run, slated to be the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in mid-September. "We're taking Russian Camelot and Vow And Declare into Geelong races tomorrow and they'll have a gallop between races there," O'Brien told

AKTINS PHOTOGRAPHY

RSN927. "And then we've got a set of trials at Flemington on the 10th of August where a lot of our spring horses will have their first little stretch of their legs then."

Group 1 winners to trial at Randwick

A handful of Group 1 winners will step out on Randwick's Kensington track this morning, kicking off their spring campaigns. The Group and Listed trials were rescheduled after Tuesday's Randwick trials were switched to the Polytrack following days of wet weather in Sydney. Group 1 winners Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy), Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock), Kolding (Ocean Park), Kings Will Dream (Casamento), Probabeel (Savabeel), Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) and Melody Belle (Commands) are among entries, while others of note include Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) placegetter Mamaragan (Wandjina) and Arrowfield 3YO Sprint (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Splintex (Snitzel).

Nature Strip to step out on Tuesday

Likely Australian Horse of the Year Nature Strip (Nicconi) will begin his campaign towards the world's richest turf race, The Everest (1200m), when he trials at Rosehill on Tuesday. Part-owner Rod Lyons told Racing.com that he was pleased with the reports coming from trainer Chris Waller. "They are really rapt with him," he said. "James McDonald had a ride on him on Tuesday and said he felt fantastic. He said you could ride him on a piece of cotton at the moment as he's putting his head down and bowling around as there are no worries at all, but we all know he does suffer a bit from white-line fever. He's trialling on Tuesday and they said he really seems content and relaxed and I suppose the big test comes when he gets to the barriers because he really switches on there. He's had six or eight weeks' pre-training through the hills and they say he's so quiet it's unbelievable. So, fingers crossed, that he's come back with a bit more maturity. He can relax a bit and go when he's told to go."

Japanese import to step out for Preusker

Admire Winner (Workforce) will make his debut for Paul Preusker in a 1600-metre handicap at Moonee Valley tomorrow. The Japanese Group 2 placegetter has been in Australia for more than two years but has only had two starts, finishing down the track in both the Ladies Day Vase (Listed, 1600m) at Hawkesbury and the ATC Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Rosehill late last year. "He had a bit of a leg issue but he's been given plenty of time and did a lot of rehab work which has all been ticked off," Preusker said. "This will only be a look and see, a nice trial and a nice day out for him. He's a really nice horse and I would be thinking that we'll be looking out for something with him a bit later on in the spring. He's a horse that will be looking for a bit of a firmer track, but the mile is a nice starting point for him and I don't think we'll see the best of him until he gets up to at least 2000 metres."

Santa Catarina set for Melbourne debut

Santa Catarina

TRISH DUNELL

Former Kiwi mare Santa Catarina (Savabeel) will have her first start in the hands of trainer Michael Moroney when she lines up in a 1200-metre handicap at Moonee Valley tomorrow. The Listed winner, owned by Lib Petagna, had two starts in Sydney as a three-year-old when trained by Stephen Marsh, finishing well back in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m). However, she may be on borrowed time with the breeding barn potentially beckoning this spring. "Lib Petagna and I race quite a few horses together," Moroney said. "I trained his first Group 1 winner for him, a mare called Clean Sweep and he had a share in Tivaci, Alabama Express, so I've always trained for him. He wants to send her over here and possibly go to Alabama Express so for that reason she came to Melbourne, but they were open to how she is racing. She could go to stud this year or she could race on. It just depends on what sort of form she's in in her next couple of runs."

Sabkhat aims for greybeard club

Sabkhat (Reset) will be out to join an elusive group when he contests a 1400-metre handicap at Eagle Farm tomorrow. Sabkhat turns 10 tomorrow, with very few horses aged 10 or older winning metropolitan open company races in Queensland since 1990: Supersnack (Lunchtime), Ollie Vollie (Belong To Me) and Irish Constabulary (Flying Spur). "He has now won ten races and more than $460,000 in total so he has been a good trier," trainer Steve O'Dea said. "We have to keep him interested and come up with something new in training such as putting him over the jumps."

Tactics no issue for Apache Chase

Promising youngster Apache Chase (Better Than Ready) will face just the three rivals in tomorrow's Eagle Farm opener, the first three-year-old race of the new season anywhere in Australia, with trainer Desleigh Forster confident that he will be her stable star before too long. Apache Chase has led at each of his three starts but Forster is keen to try and ride him from behind. However, she believes it may be difficult in the small field. "I put a shadow roll on him to help him settle last start and he led easily," she said. "As the races get longer I would like to see him ridden with cover. But when you get a race like Saturday you want to take the risk out of it. If you are in front you know he should be out of trouble."

Crafty Cruiser to retire

Veteran Crafty Cruiser (Good Journey) will be retired tomorrow as he reaches the age of 13, but whether he retires with one more run to his name will be determined by trainer Bryce Stanaway this morning. A two-time Listed winner as a younger horse, Crafty Cruiser has had 159 starts since his debut in September, 2010, recording 13 wins and 41 placings. However, Stanaway is worried about the firm surface for his stable stalwart. "He probably won't run because I think the track will be too firm for him," Stanaway told Racing.com. "I'll make a decision in the morning. It's disappointing because he's jumping out of his skin and he's the soundest he's ever been. It was a funny feeling for the kids (staff) this morning when he came off the track because it was the last time he'll ever work. He's been here longer than any of them."

Bowman suspended for six weeks

Jockey Hugh Bowman will miss the opening weeks of the spring carnival after he was suspended for six weeks on a careless riding charge yesterday. Bowman was charged after Racing NSW stewards reconvened an inquiry into a fall at Rosehill last week which saw the Danny Williams-trained Hot 'N' Hazy (Snitzel) euthanised and rider Andrew Adkins seriously injured. Bowman pled not guilty to the charge but was found guilty by stewards, with acting chief stipe Wade Birch saying that the starting point for such an incident was three months. Taking into account Bowman's safety record and the number of feature meetings through August and September, the penalty was reduced to six weeks. Bowman will begin his suspension immediately and will return for the September 12 meeting at Rosehill, featuring the Theo Marks Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m), the Run To The Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and the Sheraco Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

Pike booked for first Melbourne Cup ride

German import Schabau (Pastorius) is not yet guaranteed a run in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), but the Listed winner already has a jockey locked in with champion Western Australian rider William Pike to take the mount. Schabau's part-owner Geoff Evans was quick to snap up Pike when he knew that the Perth champion was to be based in Melbourne for the spring. "It's very nice and great to be able to secure a ride in a race like that this early," Pike told Racing.com. "The Perth ownership had spoken to me a long time ago, and I kept an eye on it. I know the owner well and we've been to lunch a few times. I knew about the horse and kept an eye on it. Once they got wind that I was going to be over that way, well then he said, 'If you're there then I'd like you to ride it'. It probably wasn't a lot of chasing on anyone's behalf, it was just good timing." Pike's grandfather Ron was the cousin of Jim Pike, who famously partnered Phar Lap (Night Raid) to victory in the 1930 Melbourne Cup.

More surgery for Clenton

Apprentice Samantha Clenton is facing further surgery next month after an old back injury flared up earlier this year. Clenton's injury, suffered in a fall at Scone in 2016, was aggravated when she partnered promising juvenile The Bopper (Nicconi) to win the Inglis Challenge at Scone in May. A specialist's visit on Wednesday was not promising for a return to the saddle before October. "He is going to give me an injection on August 9 but the chances of it fixing the problem are slim," Clenton told Racing NSW. "If that is the case, he will shave the disc on August 23. He is confident of success and so I can return to race riding in early October." Clenton rode 89 winners this season.

Sky awarded Queensland broadcast rights

Racing Queensland's 12-month process to determine broadcast rights for its three codes has seen the state's organising body stick with Sky Racing, securing a 10-year deal. The Brisbane Racing Club had already signed an agreement with Sky, but the Racing Queensland contract will see the broadcaster cover all of Queensland's thoroughbred, harness and greyhound TAB meetings until 2030. "The Queensland racing industry has laid the foundations for a prosperous future by signing a new long-term agreement with Sky Racing," Racing Queensland chairman Steve Wilson said. "There were a number of outcomes we were determined to achieve - most notably increased distribution, showcasing and revenue - and that's exactly what we've been able to secure for our clubs."

Queensland stewards appeal Currie penalty

The Queensland Racing Integrity Commission (QRIC) yesterday announced it had appealed decisions handed down by the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT), reducing the sentences given to disqualified trainer Ben Currie. QCAT handed down its judgements on July 2, reducing Currie's sentences for two separate offences from six months for each count to no penalty and a $5,000 fine respectively. Appeals against QCAT are heard by a board within QCAT's structure. No date has been set for the appeals, while Currie remains on the sidelines ahead of facing criminal charges.

Dryden fined $4,000

Canberra trainer Keith Dryden has been fined $4,000 after an inquiry was completed yesterday into a positive sample returned by Wichita Warrior (All Too Hard) after he won at Goulburn in May. Dryden pled guilty to presenting Wichita Warrior to race with a prohibited substance in his system - 4-hydroxy xylazine, a metabolite of xylazine hydrochloride. It was established that the stable had administered xylazine hydrochloride, a routine sedative, to Wichita Warrior prior to him being clipped five days before he raced. Dryden was fined, with his good record - a first breach of the rule in 39 years of training - and the circumstances taken into account. Wichita Warrior was disqualified, with the Amanda Turner-trained Reoffender (Snitzel) promoted to first.

Seymour meetings transferred

Racing will not return to Seymour until October at the earliest, with the next two meetings on August 15 and September 17 transferred to Tatura and Echuca respectively. The track is widely considered to have performed below standard after racing returned to the course in May and the Seymour Turf Club acknowledged that the surface needed more time to mature. "Whilst the track was deemed safe for racing by Racing Victoria Stewards at the July meeting, some areas did not perform as expected due to its immaturity and some ongoing challenges the SRC is facing around damage to the surface caused by birds," the Seymour Turf Club said in a statement. "Seymour underwent major track renovations last summer which involved full resurfacing with kikuyu grass and a subsequent oversow of rye grass in autumn to provide year-round performance and stability. Given the nature of kikuyu grass, both Racing Victoria and Country Racing Victoria are confident the racing surface will continue to improve as the weather warms up and that the track will benefit greatly in the long-term from a summer of growth and consolidation."

NEW ZEALAND

Champion jockey Allpress rules out defending title

Lisa Allpress has ruled herself out of the race to add a fifth New Zealand premiership title to her record next season. The jockey goes into today's Awapuni meeting with 95 wins to her credit for the season, 17 clear of nearest rival, apprentice Kozzi Asano. That will give her a fourth national jockeys' premiership title after earlier wins in 2011-12, 2015-16 and last season. "It wasn't on my radar at the start of the season," Allpress said. "I just wanted to go out and support the people who have supported me from the start." However, Allpress' momentum will soon come to a halt with the jockey set to be sidelined for at least two months after she undergoes hip replacement surgery next month. "I'll be having surgery on August 23 for a hip replacement on my right side. That will keep me out for a couple of months but I'll be back and pain-free hopefully. The pain has been quite bad and restrictive. I certainly haven't been feeling the greatest riding at some meetings. So I definitely won't be winning another premiership next season but who knows after that? I'm not ready to finish yet."

Exhibition gallop for Supera, Princess Kereru

Supera

TRISH DUNELL

Group 1 performers Supera (Savabeel) and Princess Kereru (Pins) will take centre stage early as racing returns to Matamata for the first time since the Covid-19 lockdown tomorrow. Matamata trainers Ken and Bev Kelso will give the pair an exhibition gallop after race one as they prepare for upcoming spring features. Ken Kelso said both Supera and Princess Kereru had pleased them as they prepared for a likely return in the Foxbridge Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Te Rapa on September 5. "It's a good opportunity to give them a nice hitout on the course before they head to the trials," Kelso said. "They are both coming up really well. They'll head to the Group and Listed horses trial at Taupo on the 12th and then they'll probably both go to the Foxbridge Plate. Supera will miss the first day at Hastings and then target the Group 1 races on the middle and last days. We'll see how Princess Kereru goes in the Foxbridge and then make up our mind what we do with her. They will both go to stud this year, probably getting served after the Foxbridge Plate."

INTERNATIONAL

Mehmas has Supremacy at Goodwood

Supremacy

RACING POST

Supremacy (2c ex Triggers Broom by Arcano) became an appropriate first Group winner for freshman stallion Mehmas (Acclamation) with a terrific performance for familiar connections in the Richmond Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Goodwood on Wednesday. Last seen losing his maiden tag at Windsor, the youngster stretched four lengths away from Yazaman (Kodiac) and Lauded (Acclamation). Jockey Adam Kirby and trainer Clive Cox, who bought Supremacy for £65,000 from Owenstown Stud at last year's Goffs UK Premier Sale, had teamed up to land last year's renewal with subsequent Group 1 sprinter Golden Horde (Lethal Force). Mehmas, who stands for €7,500 (approx $AUD12,400) at Tally-Ho Stud, won this very race during his sole juvenile campaign four years ago.

Mighty Mogul makes his mark

The immaculately-bred Mogul (3c ex Shastye by Danehill) supplied a 697th worldwide stakes win for his record-breaking sire Galileo (Sadler's Wells) when grinding out victory in the Gordon Stakes (Gr 3, 1m4f) at Goodwood yesterday. A Group 2-winning juvenile, Aidan O'Brien's colt was on a comeback mission after his sixth in the Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) but hit his stride in the closing stages under Ryan Moore to deprive Highland Chief (Gleneagles) and front-running Subjectivist (Teofilo). The winner was bought for 3,400,000gns (approx $AU6,525,000) by MV Magnier of Coolmore at Tattersalls Book 1 and he is part of an outstanding dynasty from breeders Newsells Park Stud as a brother of elite performers Japan and Secret Gesture. Galileo remains in service for a private fee at Coolmore Stud in Ireland.

Nassau glory for Fancy Blue

Fancy Blue (3f ex Chenchikova by Sadler's Wells) furthered the impact of her late sire Deep Impact by notching her second top-level victory in the Nassau Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f). Donnacha O'Brien and Coolmore's filly had already become Deep Impact's 47th Group 1 scorer when she collected the Prix de Diane (Gr 1, 1m2f) at Chantilly at the start of July. Tackling a very different track, Fancy Blue and Ryan Moore came under severe pressure from O'Brien's father Aidan's decorated Magic Wand (Galileo) but it was another Irish raider in One Voice (Poet's Voice) who came with the final challenge to push her to the line. Breeders Coolmore used Deep Impact as a regular outcross for mares before the Shadai Stallion Station resident's death a year ago.

Aquis confirms NSW stallions will stand at Lincoln Farm

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Aquis Farm's NSW stallion roster, headed by first season banner horse Pierata (Pierro), will relocate to Lincoln Farm just weeks after announcing that the operation would vacate Emirates Park and move their bloodstock to Gooree Park Stud.

Divine Prophet (Choisir), Spieth (Thorn Park), Invader (Snitzel), Jukebox (Snitzel), Brave Smash (Tosen Phantom), Bellevue Hill (Pierro), Santos (I Am Invincible) and Group 1-winning sprinter Pierata will all now cover their 2020 books from the Nick Posa-owned Blandford property.

In a letter to clients and equity partners in the Aquis Farm stallions, chief executive Tony "Tubba" Williams confirmed the move to Lincoln Farm.

"The original plan was to relocate the NSW stallions to Gooree Park Stud in Mudgee, however, after consultation with numerous clients and industry participants, we have listened and the right thing for our clients, shareholders and the stallions is to keep the stallions in the Hunter Valley," Williams wrote.

"You have my assurance that the team at Aquis and myself personally will be doing everything, in what will be a very tough season, to give each of these stallions every opportunity.

"Our general manager (farms) Tony Scott, our NSW operations manager Alex Scott and our stallion manager Ejaz Hussain will all relocate to Lincoln Farm with the stallions."

The initial decision to shift its roster and broodmare band away from the breeding heartland of the Hunter Valley and to the Central West of the state was necessitated by the fact that Aquis Farm's three-year lease on the Emirates Park property at Murrurundi expires today.

It led to a number of job losses as a result of the agistment of broodmares at Gooree but it is understood that the vast majority have since found employment.

"It was a commercial decision to move with the (impending) finality of the lease," Williams told ANZ Bloodstock News last night.

"I am very comfortable with the decision of having our stock at Gooree and other farms as a commercial customer and then standing the stallions just as Aquis Farm Operations and having Aquis Farm managing them.

"Yes, it was probably a bit rushed leading into the season, but we've just got to get it done, so once the decision was made - and it was an amicable decision - we're more than happy to be changing the direction of the business and the commercial aspects of it."

The agreement for Aquis Farm to operate its NSW stallion division from Lincoln Farm is, at this stage, on a one-year basis.

"Certainly we will be looking at establishing a permanent Aquis base in the future (in the Hunter Valley)," he said.

Trainer Gerald Ryan, the man who guided Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) throughout his Group 1-winning career, has become renowned as something of a master at preparing the champion sire's progeny.

If he strikes the same success with sons and daughters of Rubick (Encosta De Lago), a horse he prepared to win two Group races in 2014, it will be another feather in the cap of the Rosehill handler.

The Face became Ryan's third winner by Rubick, joining The Face's brother Mr Mosaic and three-year-old filly Amica, when he took out an 1100-metre maiden at Gosford last Saturday.

A winner of two barrier trials, including an impressive hit out where he finished a length and a quarter ahead of the highly-touted North Pacific (Brazen Beau), The Face was sent out as the well-supported $1.55 favourite in a field of five.

Ridden by James Innes Jnr, The Face jumped away smartly before settling outside leader and main market danger Hurt Money (I Am Invincible).

He put pressure on the leader around the turn, showing a good turn of foot to put a margin on his rivals halfway down the straight.

Despite showing signs of greenness in the straight, including ducking out near the line - which some pundits put down to the big screen in the centre of the track - he had a margin of three lengths over Hurt Money at the line, with a half-length back to Bondi Blue (Lonhro) in third.

Bred by Noorilim Park Thoroughbreds, The Face is out of the Elusive Quality (Gone West) mare Crazy Quality, an Ipswich maiden winner from six starts. She has produced six named foals, all having raced for five winners.

Rubick

She herself is out of two-time Listed winner Crazy Neaux (Raveneaux); in addition to The Face, Crazy Neaux is the second dam of Group 2 winner La Bella Dame (Royal Academy) and Listed victor Galvanized (Rubiton), both who have produced stakes winners themselves.

After having a year off in 2017, Crazy Quality visited Rubick once more in 2018, while she is currently in foal to Japanese shuttler Mikki Isle (Deep Impact).

Rubick will stand at Coolmore Australia for $33,000 (inc GST) this year.

VERDICT This looks a fine opportunity for ONE MASTER to return to winning ways. She beat males to win the Group 1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp last October and returned to form with a close fourth in the Group 1 Falmouth at Newmarket last time out. Agincourt, Breathtaking Look and Valeria Messalina could also go well but perhaps the main danger will be Invitational, who ran well for a long way in front over 1m at Royal Ascot. BETTING FORECAST: 4-5 Khaloosy, 7-2 My Oberon, 9-2 Tilsit, 11 Mystery Power, 16 Repartee.

VERDICT This is far from being the most competitive of renewals and it's a very good opportunity for the highly promising KHALOOSY, who looked more than capable of winning at this level when easily taking the 22-runner Britannia Handicap at Ascot last time. My Oberon and Tilsit are promising colts who have to be respected but Group 2-winning 2yo Mystery Power did enough when runner-up in a Listed race at Newmarket last time to suggest he may be the one for second. Perhaps he can better that latest effort now that he's back in some form. [Mel Cullinan]

VERDICT Even under a 5lb penalty BATTAASH is a class apart and, having done it well for a third Group 1 win of his career at Ascot on last month's return, he really ought to win this for the fourth year running. Indeed, the first two of his three wins in this race were spectacular so his liking for the track has to increase confidence. Liberty Beach, a Group 3 C&D winner at this meeting last year who ran so well behind Battaash at Ascot, is next best ahead of Glass Slippers, who was a fair way further back in the Ascot race, albeit racing away from the favoured near side.
