Alabama Express secures place at stud with impressive Orr success

Moroney hopes son of Redoute's Choice can stand in New Zealand but knows money talks

LATEST NEWS FROM THE WEEKEND'S RACING

Alabama Express SPORTPIX

BY TIM ROWE AND CHRIS HUMPLEBY | @ANZ_NEWS

Paul Moroney, who identified yesterday's impressive C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) as a yearling, believes the three-year-old is the stallion prospect New Zealand desperately needs.

But the bloodstock agent admits Alabama Express, who is trained by his brother Mike, may go beyond the price reach of his home country's leading studs if the colt continues his rapid progression throughout the campaign.

Owned by a syndicate that includes Arrowfield Stud, Alabama Express - a Listed winner in October who landed a Flemington handicap on his return last month - increased his value exponentially with a first Group 1 success in yesterday's $500,000 feature at Caulfield. Continued on page 3>>

"Before we bought him, if he made the reserve and we got him, Arrowfield said they would keep a leg," Paul Moroney told ANZ Bloodstock News of the colt he picked up for $280,000 at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale in 2018.

"They honoured their agreement and they are now in the driving seat as far as a stallion career is concerned. Whether they need another son of Redoute's Choice, who knows? They probably can't get enough of them.

"Personally, I would like to see him stand in New Zealand. I think he's ideal for New Zealand right now and I'd love to put a partnership together and get him there and include Arrowfield in it."

Commenting on the suitability of Alabama Express for New Zealand, Moroney added: "John Messara (Arrowfield Stud principal and author of the Messara Report) has been a backer of the New Zealand industry recently and the industry at home is struggling a little bit.

"A cracking colt like this would do the New Zealanders the world of good. But the numbers are big - he's worth a lot of money after today - and it's just whether New Zealand can weather the storm of standing a colt like him."

Ridden by Michael Dee, $11 chance Alabama Express came with a sustained late surge down the outside of the 12-runner field to fend off Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) by a long-neck, with a further short-head back to Kings Will Dream (Casamento) in third.

Scales Of Justice (Not A Single Doubt), who returned to the $2.80 favourite, eventually finished sixth having enjoyed a box-seat challenge on the turn for home, while fifth-placed Avilius (Pivotal) made eye-catching late headway having been left with plenty to do.

A jubilant Paul Moroney made comparisons with Alabama Express' sire, late Arrowfield flagbearer Redoute's Choice (Danehill), when discussing why the colt was so highly-prized as a youngster.

"He was almost a mirror-image of his dad. He had so much quality about him and, to be fair, we were actually quite surprised we could buy him," Moroney said.

"He clearly escaped a few other people at the sale - we thought he was our number one colt and we were hell-bent on getting him, if he could fit into the right price range."

"We thought at $280,000 he was a very good buy. We thought we got him for unders and we were quite surprised."

Having described yesterday's success as a 'huge thrill', Moroney believes the future is bright for Alabama Express.

"I'd be very surprised if there isn't (more to come)," he said. "He's very lightly-raced and he's untapped at this stage, really.

"He's improved as he's got older, but then again he had that setback (hock surgery) he had to get over, so his career was held-up.

"It's all ahead of him now and he's proven today he's right up there with the best current older horses at weight-for- Continued on page 5>> age, at least in Victoria - and some of the opposition came from other parts of Australia.

"So it's onwards and upwards. He's a very talented horse from anywhere between 1100 metres to 1600 metres. He had the toughest run in the race today and I think it's a credit to his ability that he saw it out and forged to the line and held on."

Alabama Express (3 c Redoute's Choice - Lago Ovation by Encosta de Lago) has now won four of his seven starts for prize-money of $534,750.

In winning yesterday, he became the 37th individual Group 1 scorer for Redoute's Choice, who was euthanized last March at the age of 22.

Alabama Express is one of four named foals, three of whom have raced and all of whom have won out of Lago Ovation, a once-raced daughter of Encosta de Lago (Fairy King) who herself is a half-sister to the Group 2-placed Rekindled Power (Redoute's Choice) and Group 3 runner-up Shuffle Up (Redoute's Choice).

Alabama Express' second dam, Rekindled Applause (Royal Applause), was Listed-placed in Italy, while this is the family of four-time Hong Kong Group 1 winner Designs On Rome (Holy Roman Emperor).

Anaheed impresses in Rubiton return

Anaheed (Fastnet Rock) paid further credence to the quality of the three-year-old crop by setting herself up for a tilt at the Oakleigh Plate with a first-up success in the Rubiton Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) earlier on the Caulfield card.

<< Continued from page 5 Royal (All Too Hard) a further half a length back in third. However, this result was settled quickly by the daughter of Fastnet Rock (Danehill), who shortened into the TAB's $5 third-favourite for the $500,000 Oakleigh Plate - run over the same track and distance on February 22.

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Anaheed joins exalted company regarding the Rubiton's recent roll of honour, with Nature Strip (Nicconi) having landed the spoils last year, while Chautauqua (Encosta de Lago) was successful in 2015 and Lankan Rupee (Redoute's Choice) 12 months prior.

Peter Snowden cut a delighted figure in the post-race debrief and expects plenty of improvement from the three-year-old moving forward.

"I was really surprised how well she won - she was coming in off one trial and a really soft trial at that," Snowden said.

"I was thinking she was maybe not quite as forward as I hoped she would be but she showed her real class today.

"She was probably only 90 per cent there and she still won, so I'm really happy. She'll definitely improve off that run."

Looking ahead to the Oakleigh Plate, Snowden added: "She gets nothing on her back and she would have to be a lightweight chance in a race like that."

A Sheikh Mohammed Bin Khalifa Al Maktoum home-bred, Anaheed (3 f Fastnet Rock - Rostova by Testa Rossa) has now won five of her 12 starts, placing on another two occasions, for prize-money of $1,488,650.

Shark sizzles in BCD Group Sprint

Three Group 1 races during the Sydney autumn carnival await high-profile New Zealand banner horse Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) who yesterday produced a dominant first-up performance in the BCD Group Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) at Te Rapa, his first victory at the highest level.

Trainer Jamie Richards now plans to avenge a "what could have been" Australian spring campaign in which Te Akau Shark was runner-up in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and third in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m).

He has earmarked the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on February 29, the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) on March 21 and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on April 11 for Te Akau Shark's immediate future.

The five-year-old gelding came from at least six lengths off the lead turning for home to collar The Mitigator (Master Of Design) and score by two and three-quarter lengths with a withering closing sectional.

The in-form Kiwi Ida (Squamosa), who was aiming for a fourth successive win, was a further three-quarters of a length away in third.

Jockey Opie Bosson, Te Akau's number one rider, was left in awe of Te Akau Shark after his first-up performance.

"I'm so happy for him as the monkey is off his back now and there are plenty more Group 1s to come for him," Bosson said.

"I hit a little bit of a flat spot turning in but once he changed legs, I thought wow, what a turn of foot, and I had a heap of horse under me.

"It's exciting as I didn't knock him around and the improvement that will be in him will make him a horse to watch out for.

"He is right up there with the best I've ridden."

Te Akau Shark had not raced since his Cox Plate performance last October, with Richards indicating the gelding had returned in great order this campaign.

His confidence was boosted after a stirring exhibition gallop on Karaka Million night at Ellerslie on January 25.

"He's a naturally fit horse and doesn't take a lot," Richards said.

"He was pretty ready for today and we know what he is capable of.

"I'm really looking forward to getting him back to Australia and to knock off one of those good races as I really think he deserves one."

Te Akau Shark (5 g Rip Van Winkle - Bak Da Chief by Chief Bearhart), who was bought by David Ellis for NZ$230,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale of 2YOs, has won six of his 11 starts and prize-money of NZ$1,014,468.

He is the best-performed and first stakes winner from three to race for the Group 2 scorer Bak Da Chief, who is a half-sister to Bak Da Princess (Danske), herself the mother of Pondarosa Miss (High Chaparral) and Ecuador (High Chaparral).

Bak Da Chief has a yearling colt by Redwood (High Chaparral), who is catalogued as Lot 343, at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, and was in to foal to Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) last year.

No heartbreak this year for Herbie Dyke Stakes winner Tiptronic

There were more than a few nervous moments for connections but their fears were allayed when the judge yesterday determined that Tiptronic (O'Reilly) had won the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), a year after being denied in the same race.

Trainer Graham Richardson admitted he thought Tiptronic had been beaten again after finishing behind On The Rocks (Alamosa) in 2019, but thankfully for the trainer the photo finish went the way of the Jason Waddell-ridden gelding.

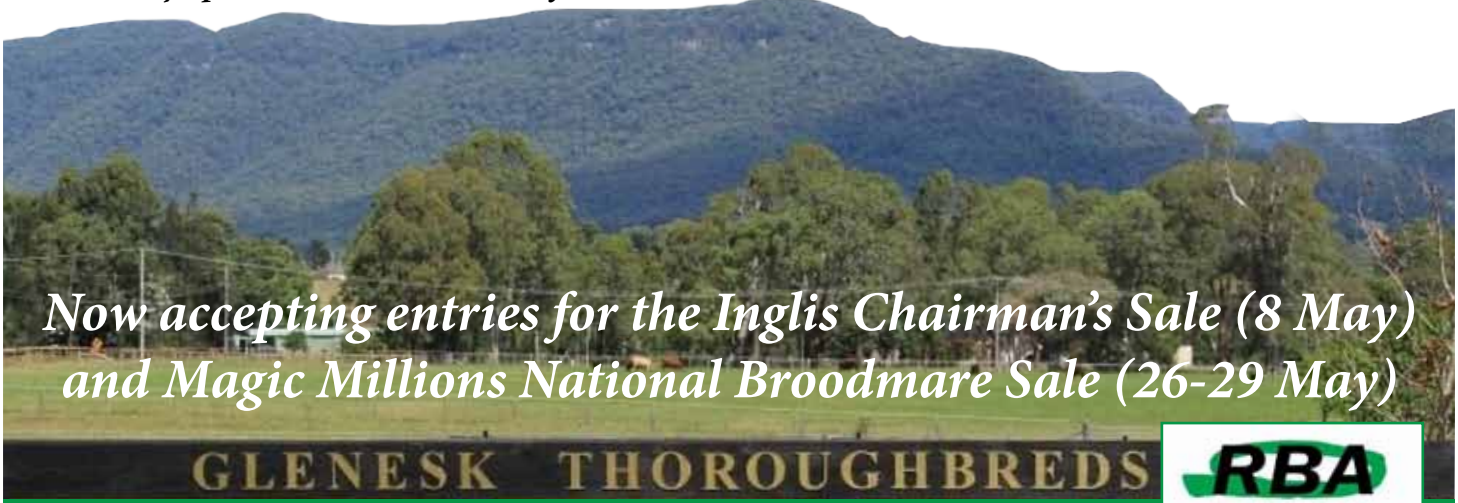

Tiptronic defeated the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained True Enough (Nom Du Jeu) by a nose, with race favourite Rock On Wood (Redwood) a further half a length away in third.

deserved it," Richardson said.

"He's always been the underdog so it's a perfect result.

"Actually, I thought he had run second again but it was a great ride by Jason as he worked it out.

"I couldn't be happier for the owners and especially for the horse."

Richardson was delighted with how the six-year-old has bounced back to his best this season after his form had plateaued following last year's Herbie Dyke Stakes.

"He was just growing and had had a couple of hard runs," he said.

"He's just so casual about things and takes it all in, but sometimes they go through a season like that and need a good break before they come back.

"I don't know what's next for him but if we can keep fresh legs in him then we will be happy."

Richardson is now considering a start in the Bonecrusher New Zealand Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Ellerslie on March 7, but wants to ensure that Tiptronic has recovered from his maiden Group 1 victory before committing to a start.

Waddell was understandably delighted to ride a Group 1 winner.

"Congratulations to Graham and Rogan Norvall (assistant trainer) and their whole team, as the horses are prepared magnificently and trained right down to the second," Waddell said.

"I got into a lovely spot, right where I wanted to be, and geez, we had a good battle down the straight and it's not often you out-tough one of Murray's (Baker), so I'll take great pleasure in doing that."

A NZ$100,000 New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale purchase by Richardson, Tiptronic (6 g O'Reilly - Tiptoes by Pins) is the 15th Group 1 winner and 95th individual stakes winner for the late Waikato Stud sire O'Reilly (Last Tycoon). The six-year-old has now won six races from 30 starts for prize-money earnings of NZ$492,700.

Out of Tiptoes, he is one of four winners for the Pins (Snippets) mare, who is the sister to dual Group 1 winner Legs, herself the dam of stakes winner Wolfwhistle (O'Reilly), and a half-sister to WATC Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Guyno (O'Reilly).

Tiptoes was in foal to Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) last year.

37 for Redoute's Choice

Late Arrowfield Stud flagbearer Redoute's Choice (Danehill) sired his 37th individual Group 1 winner yesterday when classy three-year-old Alabama Express (3 c ex Lago Ovation by Encosta De Lago) got the better of his elders in the C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield. The Mike Moroney-trained colt produced a sustained late surge to defeat Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) by a long-neck, with a further short-head back to Kings Will Dream (Casamento) in third. Redoute's Choice was euthanized at the age of 22 last March having covered 45 mares, at a fee of $137,500, during his final breeding season in 2018. He left a legacy that includes last year's outstanding three-year-old and current Arrowfield resident The Autumn Sun, while he is set to be represented by one youngster at next month's Inglis Premier Yearling Sale. She is catalogued as Lot 438.

98 for Snitzel

Snitzel, Arrowfield's champion sire and a son of Redoute's Choice, enjoyed a red-letter day at Caulfield yesterday, siring a stakes double. Letzbeglam (2 f ex Miss Charming by Forestry) initiated proceedings when she took out the Blue Diamond Prelude (F) (Gr 2, 1100m) to make it two victories from as many starts. Muntaseera (I Am Invincible) ran second, beaten two and a quarter lengths, while there was a further head back to Geist (Medaglia d'Oro) in third. Later on the card, Sylvia's Mother (4 m ex Found the One by Bel Esprit) made the breakthrough in Group company with a triumphant return in the Bellmaine Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). The Hawkes Racing-trained four-year-old stormed home from a midfield position to claim a last-stride win from News Girl (Magnus) by a head, with Invictus Salute (Exceed And Excel) another length and three quarters away in third. Snitzel has three lots catalogued in the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, which gets underway today.

Next season the focus for Letzbeglam

Winning rider Brett Pebble was taken with the performance of Letzbeglam (Snitzel) at Caulfield yesterday, although he questioned if the promising filly has the mental capacity to be a player in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), for which the TAB cut her into $9. Commenting on the daughter of Snitzel, who made a successful debut over 1100 metres at Werribee on January 21, Pebble suggested she has "Classic" potential looking ahead to Guineas contests as a three-year-old. "She got great benefit out of Werribee today and she might be able to take that next step," Prebble said. "She has shown from an early age that she has plenty of promise but is not really a precocious two-year-old. She's got a high cruising speed, but that nervous energy makes her a bit goofy out there as today she was floating until the 250 metres. She's still a real baby but has a good motor and the makings of a nice three-year-old."

Newmarket possible for Sylvia's Mother

An audacious tilt at the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) could be on the agenda for Sylvia's Mother following her Bellmaine Stakes success, but co-trainer Wayne Hawkes was simply delighted the mare is now a black-type winner. "Now she's a Group winner, so it's job well done, so whatever she does for the rest of her career is now a bonus," Hawkes said. "It was a good effort when you see how windy it is now. She certainly did it the hard way and is a good mare going somewhere." Looking ahead to the Newmarket, which is run up the Flemington straight on March 7, Hawkes added: "Sometimes the Newmarket is not the strongest race but it is a massive, massive jump, but in saying that she is good up the straight. When you know they can run up the straight, it's a big, big plus."

Three from three for Hanseatic

Hanseatic (2 c Street Boss - Itameri by Exceed and Excel) tightened his grip on favouritism for the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) when he stretched his unbeaten record to three with an impressive performance in the Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G) (Gr 3, 1100m) at Caulfield. After being shuffled back through the pack, the Anthony Freedman-trained colt powered down the outside to edge out Randwick debut winner Rulership (I Am Invincible) by a neck with Rathlin (Fastnet Rock) a further neck away in third. Assistant trainer Sam Freedman was understandably delighted with the effort. "He had to be very good to win from where he was on the turn," Freedman said. "He's just got a brilliant turn of foot. There's yet to be a two-year-old that can match it with him at the moment, so hopefully he can produce it again in two weeks." Hanseatic's performance saw his odds for the Blue Diamond on February 22 shaved to $2.50 (from $3.50).

Currie sweet on Hanseatic, Snowden expects Rulership improvement

Winning jockey Luke Currie insisted he wouldn't swap Hanseatic for any of his rivals in the Blue Diamond. "He got shuffled back but I preferred to come back and just trust his turn of foot rather than be bailed up and be an unlucky runner," Currie said. However, Peter Snowden, co-trainer of runner-up Rulership, is relishing a rematch with the winner in a fortnight's time. "Hopefully in the Diamond, in a bigger field with more speed in the race, we can have the opportunity to ride him the way we'd like to ride him, and hopefully he's good enough on the day to beat that horse (Hanseatic)," Snowden said.

Microphone impresses with Autumn win

Last season's champion two-year-old Microphone (3 c Exceed And Excel - Sung by Anabaa) recorded the first win of his three-year-old campaign when landing the Autumn Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield yesterday. Banquo (Written Tycoon) ran second, beaten a neck, while Adelaide Ace (Savabeel) was a further three-quarters of a length back in third. Winner of the Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) last season, Microphone ran sixth in the Australia Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Moonee Valley last month, but trainer James Cummings was confident the son of Exceed And Excel (Danehill) was back to his best following a recent piece of work. "He put in a beautiful gallop during the week and he really gave us an indication he was bang on," Cummings said. "He worked well enough during the week to run him in the C F Orr. Whilst that was very tempting, he's done a very good job to achieve a win as a three-year-old, his third run as a three-year-old, after being champion two-year-old colt last season. It's a pretty satisfying achievement for the stable."

Options open for Microphone

A first crack at 1600 metres could be on the agenda for Microphone following yesterday's heroics, but Cummings insisted all options remain on the table for the high-class colt. "We've got him in the Australian Guineas, which is in three weeks," Cummings said. "We've got him in the Randwick Guineas, so whether we take him home to Sydney for the Hobartville in a fortnight, we'll see. There is also the Futurity Stakes here, and a Group 1 win against older horses would look fantastic on his resume, so there are options for him. We'll take our time, reflect on his performance today, and enjoy it."

24 for So You Think

So You Think COOLMORE

Miss Siska (6 f So You Think ex Sing Hallelujah by Is It True) returned to action with an important first win in stakes company when she posted a hard-fought success in yesterday's Carlyon Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Caulfield. The Grahame Begg-trained six-year-old, who is half-sister to champion sprinter Hay List (Statue Of LIberty), scored by a length and three quarters from Odeon (Zacinto) with Guizot (Tertullian) a further three quarters of a length away in third. Miss Siska's win, her seventh in 25 starts, provided her sire So You Think (High Chaparral) with his 24th individual stakes winner. So You Think stands at Coolmore for a fee of $38,500.

Siska's sights set to be raised

Following her Carlyon Cup victory yesterday, Miss Siska is now being set for the Peter Young Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) at Caulfield on February 22 before her main goal of the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington a fortnight later. "Her form at 2000 metres at Flemington is very good," Begg said. "She's been beaten a head in the past two Matriarch Stakes and we've got a fit horse on our hands and that's the way we're going to aim." Reflecting on yesterday's victory, Begg added: "That horse was in her comfort zone today. The main thing was she was in a good rhythm. We needed to get a stakes race win for her and she's ticked that box now."

First for The Wow Signal

Late Swettenham Stud shuttler The Wow Signal (Starspangledbanner) sired his first stakes winner yesterday when How Womantic (3 f ex Banderilla by Delzao) maintained her unbeaten record in the Kevin Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. The Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained filly finished a long-neck in front of the James Cummings-trained Enfleurage (Exceed And Excel), with the runner-up's stable companion Aquitaine (Exceed And Excel) a further neck away in third. Owned by Al Shaqab and a resident of Haras de Bouquetot in France, The Wow Signal shuttled to Swettenham for one southern hemisphere breeding season, covering 43 mares in 2015. The sire of just ten runners worldwide, five of whom have won, The Wow Signal was plagued with fertility problems throughout his truncated time at stud. He died from complications as a result of laminitis in 2018.

Group 1 tilt a possible for How Womantic

Co-trainer David Eustace said the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), run at Randwick on February 29, could be the next step for How Womantic, who recorded her fourth consecutive success when winning yesterday's Kevin Hayes Stakes. "She is obviously a good filly," Eustace said. "Not many win four from four. She is still working things out a little bit. There's some big targets now in mind for her and she's only going to improve." Contemplating the Surround, Eustace added: "She doesn't strike you as a filly who you want to suddenly lob into a Group 1 going the other way (clockwise). If it was Melbourne way, you'd say 'let's go'. But the race is there and 1400 metres is probably what she is looking for now." Considering alternative future plans, Eustace continued: "She's a Group 3 winner now. She's got the option of the Kewney Stakes in Melbourne, which makes her a Group 2 winner if she wins that, or going into Group 1 level. We're very lucky we've got a smart filly on our hands and we can just work out where we go."

Vanna Girl sets out on Oaks path

The Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m), run at Eagle Farm in May, is set to be the long-term target for Vanna Girl (Husson) following her length and a half success in a 1600-metre handicap at the track yesterday. The Toby and Trent Edmonds-trained three-year-old took her record to three wins from five starts under Matt McGillivray, who was completing a double on the card following the victory of Hancora Field (Deep Field). "Vanna Girl is by Husson so you would think she can get further than 1600 metres," Toby Edmonds said. "When you have a three year old filly getting out in distance you dare to hope for an Oaks filly. I suppose we will be having a look at the Queensland Oaks." Edmonds said the winner would press on for a few more runs before being eased for the winter. "If she can win a few more it can increase her rating which will be a help in the carnivals," he added.

Fresh Ryan's Fender scores

Ryan's Fender (Helmet) returned to winning ways when a change of tactics resulted in the Matt Cumani-trained five-year-old posting an all-the-way win in the The Big Screen Handicap (1800m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Fred Kersley, Ryan's Fender fought off King Of Leogrance (Camelot) by a head with Toryjoy (Street Cry) another three quarters of a length away in third. Assistant trainer Andrew Bobbin said: "We did some analysis on his last run and he got to the front and dropped anchor. If you assess the way the horse goes he's got a really high-cruising speed, so Fred kept the tempo solid and he was too strong for them."

14 for Snippetson

Scenic Lodge resident Snippetson (Snippets) sired his 14th individual stakes winner yesterday when Gemma's Son (2 c ex Princess Gemma by Dr Fong) took out the Magic Millions WA 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at Pinjaara. Trained by David Harrison, Gemma's Son preserved his unbeaten record on his first outing in stakes company, quickening two lengths clear of Surveillance (Safeguard) in second, with a further length back to Watch Me Dance (I'm All Talk) in third. Gemma's Son won his first two outings over 1000 metres at Perth and improved for the step up to 1200 metres yesterday, joining the likes of Fast Clip and My Poppette as stakes winners for Snippetson, who covered 65 mares at a fee of $6,600 last year.

First for My Admiration

Later on the Pinjaara card, Cryptic Wonder (3 g ex Abitcryptic by Bletchley Park) atoned for a short-head defeat on his last outing at Perth when making a successful transition to black-type company in the Magic Millions WA 3YO Trophy (RL, 1200m) to become the the first stakes winner for Westbury Park Stud resident My Admiration (Encosta de Lago). Tommy Blue (Gingerbread Man) was beaten half a length into second, while Wine Night (Playing God) was a further length away in third. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Cryptic Wonder has now won two of his three starts. My Admiration covered just 11 mares at a fee of $4,950 last year.

Inglis Millennium rescheduled

The $2 million Inglis Millennium meeting scheduled for Warwick Farm was yesterday postponed because of heavy rain with more forecast. Two of the feature races - the $2 million Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) and the $1 million Inglis Sprint (1100m) - have been added to Wednesday's Warwick Farm card. The Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1000m) will take place at Randwick next Saturday, while a decision on a new timeslot for the Eskimo Prince Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) has yet to be decided. Racing NSW stewards conducted an inspection of the surface yesterday and found two sections near the 1200 metres and 1400 metres unsuitable for racing. "Unfortunately, we have walked the track and while the majority of the track is actually in very good condition considering the rainfall we've had, we're not able to proceed today on the basis that a section of the track near the 1200 metres and also the 1400 metres is not quite right," chief steward Marc Van Gestel told Sky Racing.

Oliver sits it out

Champion rider Damien Oliver was forced to give up his rides on yesterday's Orr Stakes card at Caulfield and will miss the inaugural Rapid Racing meeting at Flemington today after suffering a minor injury at Moonee Valley on Friday evening. Oliver's knee was jammed against the barriers before a race and although he was reporting soreness in it yesterday, his manager Mark Vantriet said he expected Oliver would be given the all-clear to resume riding at Sandown on Wednesday.

Trainers fined for late arrivals

Trainers Lindsey Smith and Chris Waller both found themselves in trouble with the stewards for presenting horses late at Caulfield yesterday. Warrnambool-based Smith incurred a $300 penalty due to Autumn Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) runner Adelaide Ace (Savabeel) arriving 45 minutes past his deadline, while Waller was also fined $300 for Kings Will Dream (Casamento) and Night's Watch (Redwood) not arriving on course three hours before the C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). Racing Victoria stewards require all horses engaged over the next five Saturday meetings to be on course three hours prior to the advertised start time of their respective race, excluding the first two races, which remain at two hours.

NEW ZEALAND

Second for Rip Van Winkle

Windsor Park Stud resident Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) sired his second Group 1 winner yesterday when Doncaster Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) placegetter Te Akau Shark (5 g Bak da Chief by Chief Bearhart) gained a deserved top-flight success in the BCD Group Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) at Te Rapa. The five-year-old came from at least six lengths off the lead turning for home to collar The Mitigator (Master Of Design) and score by two and three-quarter lengths with a withering closing sectional. The in-form Kiwi Ida (Squamosa), who was aiming for a fourth successive win, was a further three-quarters of a length away in third. Former Coolmore resident Rip Van Winkle stands at Windsor Park Stud for NZ$12,500 (plus GST) and Te Akau Shark joins Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Dick Whittington as the sire's other elite-level scorer.

15 for O'Reilly

The Graham Richardson-trained Tiptronic (6 g ex Tiptoes by Pins), who finished second in last year's renewal of the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), went one better yesterday when prevailing by the minimum of margins in a photo finish. Triptonic defeated the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained True Enough (Nom Du Jeu) by a nose, with race favourite Rock On Wood (Redwood) a further half a length away in third. In doing so, Triptonic became the 15th individual Group 1 winner and 95th individual stakes winner for the late Waikato Stud sire O'Reilly (Last Tycoon). The four-time champion sire died in 2015.

Illicit too good in Waikato Guineas

Two Illicit (3 f Jimmy Choux - Gemini by Tale of the Cat) continued on her steep upward curve and stormed into the reckoning for the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) when thumping her rivals in the Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m) at Te Rapa yesterday. The Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained three-year-old stormed seven and a half lengths clear of Travelling Light (El Roca), with a further six lengths back to Pimlico (Proisir) in third in what proved a well strung-out field. Two Illicit has now won four of her six starts having also landed the Royal Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day.

Delighted James considering Derby route with Two Illicit

Co-trainer Roger James cut a delighted figure following the victory of Two Illicit. "I think we saw something a bit special," he said. "I'm just thrilled that she has fulfilled what I thought she could. When she worked last Sunday, it gave me goosebumps. I said to Robert (Wellwood) that I've been lucky enough to have some good three-year-olds and I reckon this filly will rank right up with them. It made me nervous when I looked at the racebook when I got here today as I've won the race three times before and twice with fillies that have gone on and won the Derby." Those two fillies were Silent Achiever (O'Reilly) in 2012 and Tidal Light (Diagramatic) in 1986 and of the likelihood of Two Illicit emulating that duo, James added: "She's got big shoes to fill but the more I do with her the better she gets. We don't try to make decisions on raceday but you'd have to say after that she is a pretty strong contender for the Derby."

Dragon Leap misses Guineas

An elevated temperature forced the scratching of New Zealand Derby favourite Dragon Leap (Pierro) out of yesterday's Waikato Guineas. The three-year-old was using the Te Rapa contest as his main lead-in race to the Derby at Ellerslie on February 29 but trainers Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott took the decision to save him for next week's Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) instead. "He had an elevated temperature this morning and had left a bit of feed," O'Sullivan said. "We take their temperature every morning and our vet seems to think that once we run his bloods during the week that he would be surprised if he wasn't ready for the Avondale Guineas next week. From when we left him this morning it had actually come down a little later on, but it would be suicide running him as he would perform way below his best."

Progressive Eccles takes out Classic

New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Jennifer Eccles (3 f Rip Van Winkle - Platinum Elle by Elnadim) secured her second Group 2 victory when taking out the Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 2000m) at Te Rapa yesterday. The Shaune Ritchie-trained three-year-old quickened two and a half lengths clear of Showbeel (Savabeel) under Jason Waddell, with a further three and three-quarter lengths back to Loire (Redoute's Choice), who beat Jennifer Eccles in the Guineas. Jennifer Eccles has now won two of her nine starts for prize-money of NZ$205,900.

Eccles Oaks-bound following Te Rapa win

Ritchie was pleased with the way Jennifer Eccles relaxed yesterday with a view to her stepping up to 2400 metres in next month's New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). "I feel a lot better about it (the 2400m) after today," the winning trainer said. "She did get a very economical trip but I liked the way she relaxed down the back and she didn't appear aggressive at all. She will almost certainly go to Hastings now and we have to have a crack at the Oaks as well." Following yesterday's win, Jennifer Eccles now heads the table in the New Zealand Bloodstock filly of the year series with 24.5 points, ahead of Loire on 20.5. Her next target will be the Lowland Stakes (Gr 2, 2100m) at Hastings on February 26, the eighth event in the filly of the year title race.

INTERNATIONAL

Iridessa sold on for breeding career in Japan

Four-time Group 1 winner Iridessa (Ruler Of The World) has reportedly been retired after sustaining an injury and has been sold on for a breeding career in Japan. Owned by Chantal Regalado-Gonzalez, the Joseph O'Brien-trained four-year-old has been a flag-bearer for her sire, Ruler Of The World (Galileo), taking out the Fillies' Mile (Gr 1, 1m) as a juvenile and then at three beating Magic Wand in the Pretty Polly Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f) and Hermosa in the Matron Stakes (Gr 1, 1m). She rounded off a busy 2019 by taking the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf (Gr 1, 10f) at Santa Anita. EBN quoted a spokesperson for the owner as saying Iridessa suffered a tendon injury on Thursday prompting the decision to retire her, and her subsequent sale, to be made.

Group winner I Am Immortal to stand at Swettenham Stud

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

I Am Invincible's (Invincible Spirit) only dual stakes-winning juvenile I Am Immortal will stand at Swettenham Stud later this year, but not before the Anthony Freedman-trained colt embarks on a Group 1 autumn mission aimed at enhancing his record.

The three-year-old returned from a spell with a first-up second in last week's W J Adams Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield as a precursor to the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) later this month.

Swettenham Stud principal Adam Sangster last night confirmed the deal to buy the Dream Thoroughbreds-syndicated I Am Immortal to complement the farm's diverse stallion roster in 2020.

"On type, I Am Immortal is 16.1hh, he has got a beautiful head on him, he has a lovely walk and if you were to draw the ideal stallion to look at, he is exactly in that mould," Sangster said.

"He is similar to Toronado where you look at him and think, 'geez, he is a good-looking horse.' You just can't fault him.

"From our roster, we've got a son of High Chaparral (Toronado), a son of Galileo (Highland Reel) and a son of Shamardal (Puissance De Lune).

"We've got all those major sirelines except for Invincible Spirit, that is the only one we were missing.

"I Am Immortal has colonial two-year-old speed and I couldn't think of a better horse in Australia at the moment who has that."

I Am Immortal immediately demonstrated his talent at two by winning last year's Blue Diamond Preview (C&G) (Listed, 1000m) and Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G) (Gr 3, 1100m) at his first two starts, and Freedman believes the colt is deserving of a home at stud.

"I Am Immortal was a very fast, precocious two-year-old (who is) easily one of the fastest horses I have trained," Freedman said.

I Am Immortal SPORTPIX

"He's an imposing, attractive colt, very much in the mould of his sire I Am Invincible, and he races in a similar manner. I believe with all his attributes he is an exciting stallion prospect."

I Am Immortal could head to The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) at Rosehill next month providing he runs well in the Oakleigh Plate on February 22.

Sangster believes I Am Immortal will offer breeders the ideal Danehill (Danzig) outcross stallion option.

"There were a few people looking at him as a stallion prospect themselves, so there won't be too many people who aren't interested in the horse," he said.

"He has racing upside, he has pedigree being out of the best-performed Ad Valorem mare ever (Meliora), a Group 2 winner that Peter Moody trained. She was speed on speed, he was an early two-year-old with speed, and he is a nice type. There is a lot going for him."

I Am Invincible has seven sire sons at stud in Australia, including Group 1 winners Brazen Beau and Hellbent, as well as the multiple stakes-winning trio of Super One, Santos and Overshare.

Dream Thoroughbreds' David Azzopardi was delighted to strike a partnership with Swettenham Stud.

"The opportunity to stand I Am Immortal with one of Victoria's most successful farms in Swettenham Stud is fantastic and I believe he will be the ideal Super VOBIS stallion – sure to get early two-year-olds that train on at three and four," he said.

I Am Immortal, a $200,000 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale graduate, is out of the Angus Armanasco Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m)-winning mare Meliora (Ad Valorem), who was also successful as a two-year-old. She is also a half-sister to the Toby and Trent Edmonds-trained dual stakes-winning sprinter Whypeeo (I Am Invincible).

I Am Immortal's two-year-old half-sister Melisende (Hinchinbrook) ran third on debut for Freedman last month, while his brother was bought by Japan's Katsumi Yoshida for $650,000 at last month's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

A service fee for I Am Immortal has not yet been determined.

Industry participants to fund working group to investigate equine welfare plan

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Leading trainer Tony McEvoy has thrown his support, vocally and financially, behind a thoroughbred industry-led taskforce that has been established to develop a national equine welfare strategy.

Former Victorian Premier Dr Denis Napthine will chair the Independent Working Group (IWG), which has been put together by Thoroughbred Breeders Australia (TBA), the Australian Trainers' Association (ATA) and the Australian Jockeys' Association (AJA) alongside prominent participants who include top trainers Chris Waller and David Hayes as well as McEvoy.

Ciaron Maher, Gai Waterhouse and Bjorn Baker, and studs such as Newhaven Park, Attunga Stud, Godolphin, Sledmere and Widden Studs, are also among the heavyweights to get behind IWG.

The IWG will be funded by the significant industry groups - trainers, owners, breeders, jockeys and individuals - who are financially supporting the initiative that was officially announced yesterday.

The group will review the current welfare landscape in the Australian thoroughbred industry, look to world's best practice, consult with participants in the industry, and draw upon the learnings from other animal industries.

Dr Napthine will oversee the IWG panel that also includes Dr Bidda Jones, chief science and strategy officer for RSPCA Australia, Dr Ken Jacobs, a director of the Australian Veterinary Association, and Jack Lake, a senior advisor on agriculture in the Hawke, Keating and Rudd governments.

They will focus on horses exiting the thoroughbred industry, whether as retired racehorses or unraced animals, through to end-of-life management.

McEvoy, speaking to ANZ Bloodstock News at Inglis' Riverside Stables complex yesterday, said those invested in thoroughbred racing and breeding were the ones who needed to lead the overhaul of horse welfare.

Tony McEvoy SPORTPIX

"Welfare is a major issue and I like the way it is being managed now. This new initiative to put these people in place to manage it is going to help everybody and I am a supporter like almost everyone is," McEvoy said.

"I am very happy to invest in it. It will be better for everyone and, most importantly, it will be better for our horses."

McEvoy said the calibre of the IWG panel members gave confidence to the industry that an adequate outcome will be forthcoming.

"I am sure they have thought long and hard about who to put on this board and these people are there for a reason," he said.

"They are good people and they are going to give it the time that it requires. I support it."

The establishment of IWG comes after last year's ABC 7.30 programme that aired claims of cruelty to thoroughbred and standardbred racehorses at knackeries in Queensland and NSW, as well as airing other alleged welfare concerns.

Tom Reilly, the chief executive of TBA, said the panel members were targeted to ensure the group's independence.

"The challenges of the welfare, rehoming, retraining and end-of-life for thoroughbreds are national issues that are of concern to all participants in the industry," Reilly said.

"We have to acknowledge that if we can improve outcomes in these areas, it is our responsibility to do so.

"Too often our industry is fragmented along state lines. This initiative will facilitate a national discussion with the aim of finding national solutions. Everybody who I have asked for support has been happy to give it and get behind this."

The IWG will produce a report outlining a practical policy framework for a national horse welfare regime, which will be the basis for a wider discussion with industry stakeholders and federal and state governments.

Andrew Nicholl, chief executive of the ATA, said: "It is important that participants from across the thoroughbred industry work together on what is a challenging issue."

A steering committee, which will include Waller, will sign-off on the terms of reference for the IWG, which is expected to provide its recommendations later this year.

Waller said: "This initiative is an opportunity to start building a national approach to welfare in racing and all industry players should grab it."

Racing Australia, the national body that is comprised of all the state racing regulators, said it "welcomed" the initiative and that they shared a "common aspiration of elevating the quality of equine welfare in Australia."

Preciousship shines as Yiu bags three

BY DECLAN SCHUSTER | HKJC_RACING

Preciousship (Iffraaj) capped a hat-trick for Ricky Yiu with a gritty success in the Class 2 Choi Wan Handicap (1600m) at Sha Tin yesterday afternoon.

The trainer's treble ended a 35-race run of outs that stretched back to January 15, but the blossoming Preciousship's fourth score at his sixth start this term catapulted Yiu back to the top of the premiership, two ahead of Francis Lui who had edged into the lead on Wednesday night.

"He has acclimatised now with that full season under his belt, as well as being gelded – he is now on the right track. He's a horse that loves to race, he enjoys it – it's not often you find a horse that loves to run," Yiu said.

The gelding broke cleanly to settle midfield but encountered trouble on the turn for home. Yiu was full of praise for Vincent Ho's patience atop the Irish Listed winner.

"It was a little bit bumpy in the run but Vincent (Ho) did the right thing, he took a sit and he caught a second breathe so he could accelerate again and when he does that you're almost certain that he will give everything," Yiu said.

"He's a lovely horse to train, he's a lovely horse to ride in the morning and as well for the jockey in a race, he has a good temperament and he's a lovely horse in his box – it's a piece of cake to train him!"

The Aga Khan Studs-bred gelding rocketed to a rating of 93 ahead of this race, having risen 23 points since he banished his Hong Kong maiden tag five starts ago.

"We'll see how his rating goes – he's 93 now, so if he does stay under 100 he'll carry a fair bit of weight now, but he's done well, so we might give him a little break to freshen him up," Yiu said.

Preciousship's success followed a victory two races earlier for Ho and Yiu, with World Famous (Reliable Man) who snared the Class 3 Lok Fu (1800m) Handicap.

Preciousship HKJC

Yiu went on to seal his three-timer when Lone Eagle (Zoffany) ground his way to a breakthrough triumph in the Class 3 Kai Yip Handicap (1200m, dirt) under Derek Leung.

"He's a morning star working on the dirt, he tries very hard, he goes like lightning," Yiu said.

"He had a bad draw today but maybe it helped him because he didn't have any kick-back."

Gold Chest steals it in a thriller

The day's other Class 2, the Choi Hung Handicap (1200m), went to Gold Chest (War Front) who scored a thrilling success to halt Duke Wai's (Per Incanto) streak at four.

A stalking ride from Matthew Poon saw the wide-finishing winner pip Duke Wai by a nose. The latter, like the victor, ran on from deep but a near-perfect ride from Karis Teetan was not enough this time.

"He missed the kick a bit but he wasn't too far away and I could see the favourite (Duke Wai) was very close to me, so I just tried to stay with him and I was very lucky – it worked out so well!" Poon said.

The win makes it two this season for the Richard Gibson-trained gelding, who arrived in Hong Kong having won a Listed race at Newmarket in Great Britain.

"He travelled very well during the race, I was happy to let him settle behind that horse Duke Wai, before getting clear over the last 200 (metres), and I had a light weight," Poon said after nailing his 14th success this term and his first for Richard Gibson this season from 11 pairings.

Teetan was pleased with Duke Wai's gallant effort in defeat despite failing to make it five wins in a row.

"It was so tight, I'm still very happy with my horse's run, he ran a great race again," Teetan said.

Meanwhile, Voyage Warrior (Declaration Of War), who lugged top-weight and raced prominently, showed that he should still be a force in higher grades in time as he finished sixth, only three-quarters of a length behind the front two.

1700 for Moore

Hong Kong's most successful trainer John Moore notched his 1,700th Hong Kong win when Savvy Seven (Sebring) broke through for his first in the Class 5 Wang Tau Hom Handicap (1800m).

"1700 wins – that's a very important milestone in my life and also in Hong Kong," Moore said. "But, getting back to the horse that did it, the enigma – Savvy Seven! He's been trying so many times to finally win a race."

Moore has been a record-breaking trailblazer in Hong Kong since gaining his licence in 1985. He is Hong Kong's longest-serving and winning-most trainer, netting an all-time record prize-money haul of HK$2.03 billion (A$387 million) since taking over from his legendary father George Moore.

"It'll go down in folklore," he said, before adding, "I was lucky enough to start training at 35 years of age which is where I had the big advantage."

The seven-time champion trainer's lengthy honour roll of winners includes training the last six Horse of the Year winners, and a hatful of Group 1 wins including four overseas, notably Sterling City's (Nadeem) victory in the Dubai Golden Shaheen (Gr 1, 1200m).

But it was in lowly Class 5 that the Australian handler hit his latest milestone. Savvy Seven, a 22-start maiden before yesterday, got home by a neck under Frenchman Alexis Badel.

"To do it with a Class 5 winner, especially the enigmatic Savvy Seven – it's amazing he could never win a race, and I got totally fed-up with all the expectations around (him), but then he goes and does it today to put my 1700th win on the board," said Moore.

"I'll have to go back and give the horse a big kiss and bucket full of carrots," he laughed.

Moore outlined his ambitions for the second-half of the Hong Kong racing season, which includes a hoped-for second big-race win at Meydan.

"To win Group 1s and hopefully go to Dubai and win a Group 1 there," Moore said when asked.

John Moore HKJC

The 69-year old has three horses entered for the Dubai World Cup meeting in March, with reigning Horse of the Year Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) in the Dubai Turf (Gr 1, 1800m) and Sha Tin 1000-metre track-record holder Aethero (Sebring) in the Al Quoz Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) his big hopes.

Schofield's winning return

Chad Schofield returned from an eight-meeting suspension with a winner as Circuit Three (Savabeel) cruised to an easy success in the Class 3 Lei Yue Mun Handicap (1400m).

"I knew he had a good finish and I knew dropping in weight would make his finish just as good, even up in grade, but today he really impressed me – he really let go quickly and quite hard. It's good to get a win back and also for Tony Cruz – hopefully there is more to come," Schofield said.

Chad Schofield HKJC

The Tony Cruz-trained gelding burst clear at the 200 mark to score and make it two wins from three starts this campaign. The five-year-old was sold at the 2018 Hong Kong International Sale and is now a three-time winner from 11 attempts.

Joao Moreira racked up a treble, kicking off aboard Excel Delight (Exceed And Excel) in the Class 4 Ngau Tau Kok Handicap for John Size. He followed that with a dashing run from the rear aboard Fantastic Show (Not A Single Doubt) in the Class 4 Sau Mau Ping Handicap.

The championship leader made it three in the nightcap and took his tally for the term to 72 as Beauty Loyal (Darci Brahma) held on ahead of a wall of challengers in the Class 3 Lei Yue Mun Handicap (1400m). Race favourite Farhh Above (Farhh) was squeezed for room in the straight but let down for an unlucky dead-heat fourth.

Champion jockey Zac Purton was on the mark in the opener as El Jefe (Bernardini) stormed down the stands' side rail in the Class 4 Lok Wah Handicap (1000m).

Analysis: Second in this race last year, Tiptronic got there by a nose after a tough, stride-for-stride battle through the last 100m for his sixth career win, making his maiden stakes win a Group 1 success. He was four wide, close to the pace early then dropped into fourth, one out, starting the back straight. While the pacemaker Camino Rocoso streaked away by a dozen lengths Tiptronic remained fourth before losing a couple of spots past the 800m. He accelerated short of the home straight and took the field up to the tearaway before grabbing a narrow lead at the 200m. Bravely, he kept the lead, holding off the nearest challenge in a great tussle and hung on by a nose at the line. True Enough led the chasers down the back, still second at the 600m and third turning in. He matched strides with the winner from the 200m and these two fought neck and neck to the line, but he just could not get his nose in front. Rock On Wood was last at the 1000m, passed a couple at the 600m and then switched ground several times in the straight before finding room next to the rail, finishing strongly for third. Gino Severini was fourth rounding into the home straight, dashed through to third at the 300m and kept on gamely for fourth, while On The Rocks had to find his way out of traffic before running on well for fifth. Then followed: Fifty Stars (IRE), Avilius (GB), Scales Of Justice (AUS), Begood Toya Mother (AUS), So Si Bon (AUS), Hey Doc (AUS), Ringerdingding (AUS), Night's Watch (NZ) & Mirage Dancer (GB), last.

Analysis: The Mike Moroney-trained colt Alabama Express staged a very good effort in taking out this Group 1 feature when having his seventh race start. Winner of the Gothic Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at this track last season and a good winner when resuming at Flemington in a 3yo (1100m) on January 18, he settled nicely in fifth place but trapped three wide. He moved up well rounding the home turn, took the lead at the 200m and then fought back gamely for a very good win after his wide trip. Fierce Impact raced in sixth place, between runners, eased deeper and into clear running at the 300m, and then kept making ground for a very good second in a smart first-up run. Kings Will Dream, also resuming, raced in seventh place, commenced his move on straightening and continued to make ground for third. Fifty Stars settled in eighth place on the rails, got between runners at the 200m, and then ran on nicely for (1.6 lengths) fourth in a promising first-up run. Avilius settled back in third-last place in the 12-runner field, got into clear running at the 200m and then ran on quite well for (1.7 lengths) fifth. The favourite Scales Of Justice tracked the leading pair (Hey Doc and Be Good Toya Mother), moved up at the 200m but just battled from that point to finish (1.8 lengths) sixth, performing below his best form. Then followed: Avantage (AUS), More Wonder (NZ), Volpe Veloce (AUS), Enzo's Lad (AUS) & Endless Drama (IRE), last.

Analysis: Once balanced in the straight Te Akau Shark swept past the leader for an easy win, his sixth win and his first at Group 1 at start 11. He began with them but soon dropped back through the field to settle third-last, one out approaching the 1000m. Still third-last inside the 600m, rider Opie Bosson asked for an effort and his mount crept forward but turned in four wide. While the pacemaker was four lengths clear, Bosson balanced him then he settled down to his work from the 200m. Lengthening stride, he caught the leader at the 100m then drew clear for an impressive two and three quarter length victory. The Mitigator was game in defeat, leading from the outset and breaking clear from the top of the straight. Although the winner caught him, he put up a strong effort to hold second. Kiwi Ida was last at the 1000m and still last at the 600m. She tried hard to latch onto the winner's back and kept going strongly for a top third from Avantage, who from second last at the 350m, threaded between runners and finished quite well for fourth. Then followed: Riverina Storm (AUS), Clean Machine (AUS), A Beautiful Night (AUS), Unstoppabelle (AUS), Diamondesque (AUS) & Fresh (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Brent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained filly Letzbeglam stepped up quickly in class after winning a 2yo fillies' maiden (1100m) at Werribee on January 21 on debut to take out this Group 2 in impressive fashion. She was smartly away from her outside barrier (9), and then travelled at a quick tempo, being widest of three vying for the lead. She went to the front at the 200m and then went on the score decisively in a very smart performance. Muntaseera was slowly away, was near last early on but soon recovered along the inner to settle in fifth place. She was briefly held up on straightening, got a split at the 200m and then battled on well to take second, without threatening the winner. Godolphin-raced filly Geist settled in sixth place (three wide with a trail) before moving up on turning for home. She went to second at the 100m and kept battling on nicely for third. The Lindsay Park-trained filly Riverina Storm raced in second-last place and then ran on in promising fashion when clear over the closing stages for (3.6 lengths) fourth in a nice effort at her second race start. Clean Machine fought on well for (4.1 lengths) fifth, while A Beautiful Night (sixth) appeared to have every chance. The favourite Fresh (last) faded after contesting the early lead. [KB]

Then followed: Pineapple Girl (AUS), Coco Baci (AUS), Brahma Sunset (NZ) & Hakuna Matata (NZ), last.

Analysis: Stepping up to the 2000m, honest Jennifer Eccles showed her class in the closing stages for a comfortable victory, her career second (both Group 2). She was a handy fourth (rails) with a circuit to run before improving to third with cover starting the back straight. Leaving the back straight she kept in touch and covered no extra ground to just short of the straight entrance. On straightening she moved out, challenged for the lead, took over at the 250m then slipped them. Jockey Jason Waddell had time to look over his shoulder at the 100m but she was travelling too well and had two and a quarter lengths up her sleeve at the line. Showbeel sat fourth, one out from the 800m, crept closer inside the 600m and went four wide at the top of the straight. She mounted a good challenge from the 250m but the winner was too good. Loire was sixth of the seven runners off the back straight, ran widest turning in and kept on solidly for a distant third. Pineapple Girl tracked the winner into the home straight and then battled on for fourth. Then followed: Lady Lupino (AUS), The Holy One (NZ), Legion Of Merit (NZ), Zero Doubt (AUS), Wedgetail (AUS) & Savvy Lad (NZ), last.

Analysis: The Godolphin-raced colt Microphone, last year's runner-up in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and winner of the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), returned to the winner's list with a game performance here. Having his second run back, he settled in fourth place on the rails for Damian Lane, got into clear running at the 200m and then came with a strong late bid under his top-weight (59.5kg) to grab victory nearing the post. Banquo tracked the free-running leader (Lady Lupino), looked the winner when he went to the front at the 200m, only to be caught in the final few strides to finish second. Adelaide Ace raced back in third place, one off the rails, put in a challenge nearing the 200m and then fought well for third in a nice effort at his second run this preparation. Lady Lupino showed her customary speed as she set a smart tempo until overtaken at the 200m. She then battled on to just hold (3.2 lengths) fourth from The Holy One who made late ground for (3.3 lengths) fifth. [KB]

Then followed: Platinum Road (AUS), Peloton (NZ) & Sword Of Freedom (AUS), last.

Analysis: A hugely impressive effort from Two Illicit who bolted clear for a special win, her fourth in six starts including back-to-back Group 2s. She was fifth (rails) of the six runners with a circuit to run and held there starting the back straight. There was no change in the order leaving the back straight but at the 600m she took off and around them, breezed up into second and then took over the lead as soon as they straightened. She raced clear from the 300m and full of running kept adding to the lead and cleared out for a massive unchallenged seven and half lengths cruise at the line. Travelling Light sat a clear last down the back straight, tacked onto the field at the 600m before accelerating to be just behind the eventual winner but was left standing, yet six lengths ahead of third at the line. Pimlico was third at the 600m, fourth at the top of the straight then battled away for a distant third from Platinum Road who ground away for fourth. FASTNET ROCK

COOLMORE AUSTRALIA

Analysis: The well-supported filly Anaheed scored a smart first-up win. Having her first run since a good third in the Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Moonee Valley in October, she began well and then tracked the leader (Sartorial Splendor) who was setting a quick tempo. She moved up on straightening, dashed clear at the 200m and then went on to win well, her fifth win and her fourth at stakes level from 12 starts. Bold Star, winner of the Kensington Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington on January 18, raced back in second-last place in the nine-runner field, went deep on passing the 300m and then made good ground for second. All Too Royal settled in fifth place, one off the rails, improved rounding the home turn, went to second at the 100m and then fought well to hold third from Causeway Girl who made late ground from seventh at the home turn for (2 lengths) fourth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNNG GRADUATE
Inglis Est 1867

Analysis: After taking out a 3yo maiden (1100m) at Geelong on debut on December 13, progressive filly How Womantic advanced to record her first stakes victory here and remain unbeaten after four starts. She was smartly away from her good barrier (2), and settled a handy third on the rails, tracking a solid tempo. She moved up on turning for home, got the upper hand at the 50m, and then went on to win well in a quick time (1.08.80).The Godolphin-raced filly Enfleurage showed good early pace and held a narrow lead, (outside of joint-leader Satin Socks). She crossed to the front 600m, held a break on straightening and fought gamely when challenged for a good second after running a bold race on the pace. Her stablemate Aquitaine settled in fifth place, between runners, got a split to be in a challenging position at the 200m and then kept battling on well for a close-up third. Acting settled in fourth place, moved up rounding the home turn and then kept fighting on well to hold fourth place, beaten just over a length. Then followed: Tagaloa (AUS), Glenfiddich (AUS), Tanker (AUS), Winsum (AUS), Valaquenta (AUS), Jabali Ridge (AUS), Hard Landing (AUS), Spirit Of Giving (AUS) & Southern (AUS), last.

Analysis: Hanseatic stamped himself as a high-quality colt in overcoming difficulties here to remain unbeaten after three starts. He began well from his good barrier (2), and was settled in sixth place between runners but was shuffled back nearing the home turn. Luke Currie eased him widest of all on straightening and the colt produced a brilliant late sprint to grab victory in a very good performance. Rulership, an impressive winner of his only prior start at Randwick on January 25, again went to the front. After working a bit in the early stages to find the lead, he then steadied the pace, looked the winner when he grabbed a break at the 200m, only to be overhauled by the talented winner nearing the post for a very good second. Rathlin settled in seventh place on the rails, improved along the inner nearing the home turn, got through on the rails from the 200m, and then fought on well for a close-up third. Tagaloa was handily placed between runners to the home turn. He got a split at the 300m and then kept fighting on nicely for (1.5 lengths) fourth, just in front of Glenfiddich who fought on really well for (2 lengths) fifth after challenging on straightening. Tanker also went well in making ground for (2.8 lengths) sixth after racing deep, just beyond midfield, while the Ken Keys-trained colt Winsum caught the eye on debut in running on from last to finish (3 lengths) seventh. Analysis: The Grahame Begg-trained mare Miss Siska staged a very good first-up effort in winning here. Having her first start since finishing second in the Sandown Classic (Gr 2, 2400m) in November, she settled in third place, albeit trapped three wide. But Damian Lane had her travelling comfortably and he rode a well-judged ride before commencing his move with the mare on straightening. She then dashed to the front at the 200m and went on to score easily. Odeon had a nice trip in fifth place, between runners, eased into clear running at the 200m and then ran on nicely for second. Guizot raced in fourth place on the rails, was held up on turning for home, got clear nearing the 100m and then battled on well for third from Harlem who ran on nicely from seventh at the home turn to finish fourth in a promising first-up effort.
