Denman colt tops off strong Premier return for Stockwell Thoroughbreds

Becker confident about future of state's breeding industry after Book 2 of Inglis Sale concludes

Lot 720 Denman - Red Magnum colt

INGLIS

By Tim Rowe

Brodie Becker of Stockwell Thoroughbreds believes Victorian stud farms are doing their bit to increase the pool of quality stallions in the state and he is confident about the future of the local market after experiencing a buoyant Inglis Premier Yearling Sale in Melbourne.

The Victorian studmaster's comments came after selling the highest-priced lot, a Denman (Lonhro) colt, for $115,000 to Aquis Farm during the second Book 2 session of Inglis Premier at Oaklands Junction yesterday.

On Tuesday, Inglis managing director Mark Webster called on Victorian vendors to support the number one sale in Melbourne and Becker has also urged stallion operators in the state to help increase the number of quality sires on offer for breeders.

"We tried to steer away from stallions because that market got quite hard but stallions have been our business forever, so when Gooree offered us Rock Sturdy (in 2016) we jumped at it and it has just carried on from there," Becker said.

Morning Briefing Nine in Randwick Guineas

The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) remains the red-hot $1.50 favourite with the Tab for Saturday's Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) after nine runners accepted for the race yesterday. Chris Waller's colt has drawn barrier four and will be ridden by Kerrin McEvoy, while his rivals include last weekend's Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner and runner-up, Nakeeta Jane (So You Think) and Fundamentalist (Not A Single Doubt). Madison County (Pins), Vegadaze (Lope De Vega), Aramayo (Poet's Voice), Diplomatico (Snitzel), Purple Sector (Pins) and Miss Fabulass (Frankel) complete the line-up.

Baker tepid about eclipsing Sun

Co-trainer Murray Baker has issued a realistic bulletin ahead of Madison County's Randwick Guineas assignment. The dual Group 1 winner, who ran third in the Karaka Million 3YO Classic (RL, 1600m) in January, is a $16 chance with the TAB. "I wouldn't think he'd have the class," Baker told Racing.com on Wednesday. "He's a pretty good horse but I don't know if he's got much chance. We've run out of races in New Zealand. Hopefully he can run on into the placings and we can look to going to the Rosehill Guineas with him." Morning Briefing page 7

Last year, Stockwell Thoroughbreds acquired Artie Schiller (El Prado) and this week announced it would stand the former Aquis Farm-based stallion Al Maher (Danehill) in 2019.

"It is going onwards and upwards and we are always looking for the right stallion and where it is heading now we are trying to bring proven sires back to Victoria," Becker continued.

"You can see with (Swettenham Stud's) Adam Sangster getting Akeed Mofeed we are trying to pick up the stallion market and get something proven down here.

"We hope that it all pays off. It is never an easy deal but we think Al Maher is going to be suited down here and it is exciting being under the Stockwell banner."

The Becker family-run Stockwell Thoroughbreds at Diggers Rest sold four yearlings in the Book 1 sale and averaged $43,286 from seven lots sold in the Book 2 auction.

"We have averaged $105,000 in Premier 1 over four horses and we are doing pretty well in P2 (Book 2)," he said.

"This is a genuine sale. It doesn't matter what day you put it on if you have got the right stock. Inglis has done a great job in getting the buyers here. If you have got the right horse then people have got the right money for it.

"I think (the sale) has been pretty strong."

The colt, who was bred by Doug North and Andrew Margan, was consigned by Stockwell Thoroughbreds as Lot 720. He is the second living foal out of the unraced mare Red Magnum (Domesday), who hails from the same family as Group 1 winner Benfica (Lonhro) and Group 2 winner Veranillo (Medaglia d'Oro).

"(North and Mangan) said to me coming in that it would be nice to get some good luck. All the people we thought were on him followed us through and it was good to see strong breeders getting a result," Becker continued.

"It just shows that P2 is really strong. I am really happy with the way the whole sale has gone.

"We worked out pretty early that we had some nice horses, this one in particular, as he has been busy from day one. Every day he has been out just as many times as the Premier 1 horses and that is reflected with the price."

Aquis Farm chief executive Shane McGrath said the colt had made an impression from the time he first inspected him last week.

"Peter O'Brien and I both looked at him last Thursday and we knew after ten yards that he was a stand out," McGrath told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"Sebastian Hutch, who has been a good friend of mine for a long time, handled the bidding for me on the phone and I was delighted to be able to secure him.

"Inglis should be commended for the sale because anyone with a good horse was well paid for them and that is the way it should be. It was a fair market and the facilities at Oaklands are fantastic." Continued on page 4>>

<< Continued from page 2 Maluka Thoroughbreds also sold an Unencumbered (Testa Rossa) colt to Gundaroo Stud for $110,000 yesterday. He was catalogued as Lot 757.

The Book 2 session started on Wednesday with a Tornado (High Chaparral) colt and a Better Than Ready (More Than Ready) filly both making $135,000.

Warren hoping lightning strikes twice with 'Banner filly

Also at Oaklands Junction yesterday, Jason Warren was on the look out for a Super Vobis-eligible yearling and yesterday he found her after going to $90,000 for the Starspangledbanner (Choisir) filly who is by the same sire as the trainer's exciting juvenile Brooklyn Hustle.

The Mornington trainer signed for the Woodside Park Stud-consigned filly, one of four lots to make $90,000 at the Book 2 session yesterday.

"We really took a shine to her because she is in a similar mould to Brooklyn Hustle," Warren told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"She has a similar style - a big backend on her, a good length of rein, a deep girth and a good shoulder, while she has short cannon bones."

"I wanted another Super Vobis filly and she fitted the bill really well.

Lot 640 Starspangledbanner - I'm Too Sexy filly

She has made her right price and probably could have made a little bit more if she had been offered two days earlier."

The filly is the second living foal out of the juvenile-winning mare I'm Too Sexy (Reaan), who in turn is a half-sister to the Group 2-placed Stralia (Stratum) and the Listed-placed Mr President (Xaar). She was catalogued as Lot 640.

Warren said the best-credentialed horses at Inglis Premier had come under strong competition from multiple potential buyers, leading to a competitive market.

"I think the nice horses have made their money. We have found a lot of horses who have failed their x-rays unfortunately, so that knocked a few out," he said.

Meanwhile, Warren confirmed yesterday that the Rosemont Stud-owned Brooklyn Hustle had been sent to the paddock for a break.

The two-year-old, who defeated Yes Yes Yes (Rubick) at Moonee Valley in December, will not head to the Sydney Autumn Carnival after finishing fifth in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on February 23 at her third start.

"She went to the paddock (on Tuesday). We gave her a week (at the stables) to get over the run and to see how she recovered," Warren said.

"We have decided against going on, so we have her back in plenty of time for the spring."

The Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield in October shapes as a likely target for Brooklyn Hustle.

"Given she raced in December she didn't really have a spell before this prep, it was only a freshen up, so we decided to give her a conservative prep," he said.

"I think she's a top-liner, she just didn't get around that turn at Caulfield drawing off the track. She might get around that turn over a mile (in the Guineas)."

Victorian trainers lead way at Book 2

Victorian trainers Luke Oliver and Robbie Griffiths made the most of the Book 2 session, buying five yearlings each, with the latter spending $256,000 in the process.

In total, there were 166 yearlings sold in the Book 2 sale for an aggregate of $5,809,000 at an average of $34,994. The clearance rate closed at 73 per cent.

"We worked very hard to bring the very best buying bench we could to the sale and prior to the sale vendors expressed their delight as to the diversity of people they had seen before the sale," Hutch said.

"Fortunately it materialised that those people bid and bid very strong. The feedback through P1 and P2 was that it was hard to buy the horses they want, with many of them far exceeding their reserve, which is always demonstrative of a healthy market."

Since the 2018 Great Southern Sale, Inglis spent $8 million upgrading the Oaklands Junction complex and Hutch said the new-look facilities had also had a positive impact on the Premier Sale.

"The changes to the auditorium have had a very positive effect on the atmosphere," he said.

"At various stages during the sale there was a tremendous atmosphere in the auditorium, and that was a hugely contributing factor to the sale doing well."

Australia

First for Gingerbread Man

Yarradale Stud stallion Gingerbread Man (Shamardal) was provided with his first stakes winner yesterday courtesy of Achernar Star's (4 g ex Morine by Danetime) victory in the Bunbury Stakes (Listed, 1400m). The Simon Miller-trained gelding beat Tellem We're Comin (Blackfriars) by three quarters of a length, with Vital Silver (Wanted) a further quarter of a length back in third. This was a well-deserved maiden stakes victory for Achernar Star having placed in stakes company eight times previously. Gingerbread Man stood at Yarradale in Western Australia for a fee of $4,400 (inc GST) in 2018.

Four for Deep Field

Newgate first-season sire Deep Field (Northern Meteor) was provided with his fourth debut-crop winner yesterday when Dig Deep (2 g ex Lucky Ana by Lucky Unicorn) ran out an impressive winner of the Owners Only Maiden 2YO Plate (1100m) at Bunbury. The gelding came home a length and a quarter clear of Marcee A Lady (Safeguard), with Warbler (War Chant) a further half a length back in third. Dig Deep, a $100,000 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale purchase by Pearce Racing, joins Hawker Hurricane, Roman Wolf and Cosmic Force as first-crop winners for Deep Field, who also boasts three stakes performers to date.

Million dollar colts fight out Kensington finish

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Stronger (Not A Single Doubt) was awarded the No Nay Never Yearlings Handicap (1100m) on Randwick's Kensington card yesterday following a successful protest. The original winner and fellow expensive yearling purchase Dresden Green (Snitzel) was demoted to second after the pair flashed across the line upsides one another. Stronger was purchased by James Harron for $1,050,000 from the Arrowfield Stud draft at the 2018 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale, while Gai Waterhouse, Blue Sky Bloodstock and Kerri Radcliffe parted with $1.2 million for runner-up Dresden Green at the same auction.

Newnham has faith in Nakeeta Jane

Mark Newnham, on the other hand, is much more upbeat regarding the claims of Nakeeta Jane. "You have a Randwick mile, you've got the best colt, I think I've got the best filly, so you put them in a contest with some other chances and you get a good race," Newnham said. "Generally the fillies don't run but the ones that do, run well. They haven't been tested much in the race but this year's group of fillies is exceptional and they've generally had the better of the colts when they've met, bar The Autumn Sun. Nakeeta Jane did a little bit of work this morning, she's eaten well and she looks exactly the same as she did last week. Her blood is good and there's no reason not to run."

Shoals to resume in Canterbury Stakes

Dual-acceptor Shoals (Fastnet Rock) will make her seasonal return in the Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m) at Randwick on Saturday as opposed to the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington on the same afternoon. Shoals missed her intended reappearance in last month's Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) on account of an imperfect blood picture but the four-year-old is one of eight acceptances for the Canterbury Stakes, with the market headed by $2.90 favourite Trapeze Artist (Snitzel).

Pierata returns for Group 1 mission

Talented sprinter Pierata (Pierro) is reportedly in fine fettle ahead of his return to action in Saturday's Canterbury Stakes at Randwick, with trainer Greg Hickman confirming the TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) would come later in the autumn as connections look to secure the entire's career beyond the racetrack. "His work has been quite sharp, although he's a lot cheekier to work with," Hickman said. "He'll run in the TJ Smith and he'll run in the All Aged Stakes as well. During the sales, James Ferguson brought a lot of the stud people over to look at him and I'm sure something will be done by the end of this preparation."

No Canterbury Stakes for Ardrossan

Cambridge-based trainer Stephen Marsh has ruled Waikato Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) third Ardrossan (Redoute's Choice) out of the Canterbury Stakes. "He travelled over on Monday night and had a bit of a temperature and his blood wasn't 100 per cent," Marsh said. "It doesn't look to be major. The vets are pretty confident he is going to bounce back really quickly. He will now run in the Maurice McCarten Stakes at Rosehill next Saturday with James McDonald on. It will be a pretty decent assignment first up in Australia this time in, so it looks a lot easier next week."

Tenley out to showcase Slipper credentials

Godolphin will look to further their stranglehold on the juvenile division when stablemates Exhilarates (Snitzel) and Tenley (Medaglia d'Oro) line up in the Reisling Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick on Saturday. While Exhilarates has already shown her Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) credentials with victory in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m), James Cummings believes her unbeaten stablemate Tenley should not be overlooked. "This is a filly who has done nothing wrong and would be a serious player if she continues to improve as a competitive chance in the Reisling Stakes on Saturday," Cummings said. "If she's able to mix it with those good fillies on Saturday then she's going to be another horse in the mix for the Slipper as well, because she looks like she might have a little bit of that x-factor that's required."

Lees launches three-pronged attack in Newmarket

Kris Lees will be triple handed in Saturday's Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) with last-start Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner In Her Time (Time Thief), dual Group 1 winner Brave Smash (Tosen Phantom) and Group 1 placegetter Graff (Star Witness), but the trainer feels the latter is marginally his best chance of landing the $1.25 million sprint. "Graff is the one of my three that's probably in pretty well," Lees said. "The other two have got their right weight, I'd suggest, but Graff is in quite well. You can't deny In Her Time anything. She will carry her weight and it won't be an issue for her. Graff just meets her better at the weights. And Brave Smash was unlucky the other day in the Futurity and I think if he gets exposed late and gets the right run he could really let fly at them."

Dalasan earns shot at VRC Sires' Produce

A pair of fast-finishing wins in Adelaide over distances expected to be short of his best have earned unbeaten two-year-old colt Dalasan (Dalakhani) an interstate trip for the VRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington on Saturday. Trained by Leon Macdonald and Andrew Gluyas at Morphettville, Dalasan won over 1000 metres on debut last month before again finishing strongly to win over 1100 metres on February 16. "We were going to give him a couple of runs and probably give him a break until his three-year-old days, because he's by Dalakhani out of a stout mare (Khandallah)," Macdonald said. "He's probably more of a Derby horse than a short-course horse. He's always showed me a bit but to win a 1000-metre race I thought was a bit extraordinary. He'll be much better suited at 1400 metres."

Moroney hoping to turn up the Sound in Cup

Mike Moroney is hoping to learn a little more about German import Sound (Lando) when he makes his return in the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington on Saturday. The Group 2 winner, who came to Australia last spring as Sound Check and was unplaced in the Caulfield (Gr 1, 2400m) and Melbourne Cups (Gr 1, 3200m), is being aimed at the H

E Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) on March 30 and the following month's Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Randwick. "He's a horse we work by himself, not in company, so he is hard to get a line on, but he's a real stayer and does things like a stayer," Moroney said. "We need to get him going to head towards Sydney so there was only this race and the Stony Creek Cup and I'd rather keep him closer to home."

Blinkers on Angelic Ruler

Angus Armanasco Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) runner-up Angelic Ruler (Universal Ruler) will be equipped with first-time blinkers when she tries to justify $3.60 favouritism in the A.V Kewney Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington on Saturday. The three-year-old has won five of her ten starts, including the Rangeview Stud Classic (Listed, 1400m) on her penultimate outing. "She just seems to spit the bit out from between the 600 and 400 metres when the pressure comes on so we're trying to fix that," co-trainer Ben Pearce told Racing.com. "We think the blinkers will sharpen her up a little bit and make her hold her position a little bit better."

Le Romain to stay in Melbourne

Multiple Group 1 winner Le Romain (Hard Spun) remains stabled in Melbourne with the possibility he could sneak into the inaugural running of the All-Star Mile (1600m) as an emergency. The Kris Lees-trained gelding failed to gain enough votes to make the top ten slots automatically granted an All-Star Mile spot, while he also failed to receive one of the four wild cards into the $5 million contest, to be held at Flemington on March 16. "He's still in Melbourne," Lees said. "I'd suggest with Almandin and Rekindling running on Saturday in the Australian Cup, he's probably first emergency for the All-Star Mile." Le Romain will run in the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) should he not make the All-Star mile field.

Land Of Plenty to Dubai

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Land Of Plenty (Stratum) has been invited to contest the Dubai Turf (Gr 1, 1800m) on the Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) card at Meydan on March 30. The five-year-old, who numbers among his six victories a length and a quarter success in the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield in October, is set to run in the Ajax Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill on Saturday week, after which connections will reach a decision regarding Dubai. Michael Rodd has been booked to partner the entire in his next assignment.

Mick Price to train in partnership

Michael Kent Junior, son of multiple Group 1-winning trainer Michael Kent, is set to train in partnership with Mick Price. Kent Jnr is currently working for his father having formerly held a jockey's license prior to spending stints in the UK working for trainer William Haggas and bloodstock agent Dermot Farrington. He will join Price on Monday, with the arrangement to be formalised subsequently. "He is very well regarded in the industry and I've already spent time with him at studs looking at yearlings – he is an intelligent, polite and respectful young man and a great thinker on racing," Price told Racenet. "While my stable is very efficient I want to improve it and a training partnership allows me to do that."

TAB trader Sally Snow warned off

Sally Snow, a senior fixed-odds trading manager for the TAB, has been warned off by Racing NSW for failing to produce her mobile phone in relation to an investigation and inquiry into betting activities. Snow refused to produce her mobile for imaging on the basis that she wished to assert her common law privilege against self-incrimination, while she also indicated she would not provide any information or evidence at any inquiry. "Racing NSW has zero tolerance for those that obstruct and hinder the maintenance of the integrity of thoroughbred racing in New South Wales," Racing NSW CEO Peter V'Landys said. "We have set a precedent in warning off, and/or excluding from participation, those persons that jeopardise the integrity of racing and it is important that we maintain that strong stance."

Fine for using nose twitch overturned

A controversial $400 fine imposed on Cairns trainer Trevor Rowe for using a twitch on race day has been overturned by the Queensland Racing Integrity Commission. QRIC Commissioner Ross Barnett said following representations from peak industry bodies, he had overturned the decision to fine Rowe for use of a twitch at Cairns on February 11. "There is no intention of QRIC stewards to alter the use of nose twitches, which in many instances are used by veterinarians and those who handle racehorses to subdue them, and any adverse ruling in this case may have conveyed the wrong message," he said. "While all cases of suspected animal cruelty are of the utmost importance, in this case the charge was deemed to be inappropriate and it has been overturned."

Seymour meeting transferred to Echuca

Next Tuesday's Seymour meeting has been transferred to Echuca to allow additional recovery time following a recent track renovation. Jockeys at the track's most recent meeting on Tuesday reported additional kickback, prompting the Seymour Racing Club and Racing Victoria to transfer next week's fixture, which will be staged two days after Echuca holds its Cup meeting. The SRC will monitor the track in a bid to race there on March 27.

Bogenhuber cleared after Toowoomba fall

Jockey Skye Bogenhuber has been cleared of serious brain damage after a fall in a jump-out at Toowoomba. Bogenhuber was taken to Toowoomba Hospital after Tuesday's fall and tests revealed she had a small bleed on the brain. Specialists from Brisbane then examined the jockey on Wednesday after further CT scans. "The further tests have revealed there is no swelling on the brain and the small bleed has stopped," a Racing Queensland spokesman said.

VRC to pay tribute to Les Carlyon

Flags will fly at half-mast at Flemington's Newmarket Handicap meeting on Saturday as part of a tribute to renowned journalist, author and historian Les Carlyon, who died on Monday aged 76. The Victoria Racing Club said that in addition to the lowering of the on-course flags, a tribute would be played on screens around the course. The VRC said Carlyon would also be recognised in Saturday's race book while the club considers a more permanent tribute.

New Zealand

Group 3 test for Luvaluva

Sydney trainer John Sargent is expecting a solid showing from New Zealand-bred mare Luvaluva (Mastercraftsman) when she competes in the Aspiration Quality (Gr 3, 1600m) at Randwick on Saturday. The Group 2 winner heads into the race off the back of an unplaced run in the Millie Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m) and Sargent is looking forward to stepping his mare up in distance. "I think she will go well," he said. "It was a good first-up run, but well short of her best. We are well in at the weights at 53.5 kilograms. She's won over a mile at Randwick before, I think it should suit her nicely. She's about 20 kilos heavier than she was in the spring. In the last couple of months she has probably matured a lot more."

SPORTPIX

Thurlow aiming for Auckland Cup glory

Waverley trainer Bill Thurlow is hoping Glory Days (Red Giant) can continue her good run of form in the Auckland Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Ellerslie on Saturday. The six-year-old has won five of her last seven starts, including the Wanganui Cup (Listed, 2040m) and the Avondale Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) at Ellerslie on last start. "I'm really happy with the way she is going," Thurlow said. "On her work, the way she finishes her races off and the way she settles, we are pretty confident she will get it [the 3200 metres]. We are really happy with her. She is fit enough and she is well enough. The way she races, she doesn't pull, she should just lob along at the back and I would think she would get it, but until you try you don't know."

Hong Kong Derby field finalised

Waikuku

HKJC

The final field of 14 for the Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m), which is set to be run at Sha Tin on March 17, was released yesterday. The line-up is headed by the John Size-trained Waikuku (Harbour Watch), who has won his last four starts, while Frankie Lor has a trio of representatives in Furore (Pierro), Dark Dream (All American) and Mission Tycoon (Written Tycoon). "The signs are good that this year's BMW Hong Kong Derby will live up to its billing as a race that produces the champions of the future," Andrew Harding, executive director of the HKJC said. "Able Friend, Designs On Rome, Ambitious Dragon and Hong Kong's current brilliant standout Beauty Generation are just some of the stars that took the Derby route to the very top and it is looking likely that this year's crop will produce another worthy hero."

Santa Anita closed indefinitely

Racing and training at Santa Anita has been cancelled indefinitely to evaluate the safety of its main track following 21 equine fatalities in ten weeks. Lets Light The Way (Dunkirk) was fatally injured training on the Santa Anita main track on Tuesday morning, becoming the 21st equine fatality related to racing or training at Santa Anita since its meeting opened on December 26 and the fourth fatality related to training on the main track since February 23.

The decision to cancel racing comes just days before the Santa Anita Handicap (Gr 1, 10f) and Frank E. Kilroe Mile Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) were due to be run at venue. Los Alamitos racecourse owner Ed Allred said his track will step in to help with training and stabling if needed.

March Sale catalogue released

The catalogue has been released for the Tattersalls Ascot March Sale - a mixed-offering involving 140 horses plus wild cards, which is scheduled to take place on March 21. The catalogue features over 50 winning and placed Flat horses, while Godolphin are set to be the biggest consignor with 14 lots catalogued. They include an unraced daughter of Exceed And Excel (Daneshill), named Poetic Smile, who is from the family of champion Fantastic Light (Rahy), and an unraced daughter of Ifraaj (Zafonic), named Serenading, who is out of a winning half-sister to Flying Childers Stakes (Gr 2, 5f) winner Wunders Dream (Averti). ## Mystic Journey becomes only the second three-year-old filly this season to rate 120 or better

THE HOME OF WINNERS SINCE 1948
RACING AND SPORTS

Mystic Journey

SPORTPIX

Tasmania's star filly Mystic Journey (Needs Further) [120] became only the second three-year-old filly of the 2018-2019 season to achieve a Timeform rating of 120 or better after her brilliant win in Saturday's Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington, writes Ken Boman.

Mystic Journey now sits just one pound under the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) winner Arcadia Queen (Pierro) [121], while those top-rated fillies are only being led in the three-year-old rankings by Cross Counter (Teofilo) [125] and The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) [126].

Now the winner of her last five races in succession and unbeaten in three runs this preparation, Mystic Journey won decisively by just over two lengths from Hawkshot (Fiorente) [117], with the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Amphitrite (Sebring) [112] a long-neck away in third.

The victory, her ninth in 12 starts, also provided Mystic Journey with a new Timeform career-peak, her 120 rating being four pounds superior to her 116+ previous best, which was achieved when winning the Fillies' Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley on October 27.

At Randwick on Saturday, champion Winx (Street Cry) [129] took her winning streak to 31 with a brilliant victory over the free-running leader Happy Clapper (Teofilo) [129] in the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m).

Her 129-rated win was three pounds superior to her first-up win in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Randwick on February 16, suggesting Winx is on track for a perfect farewell in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on April 13, a race she won last year when she matched her 134 career-peak.

Happy Clapper's bold bid for victory saw the brave runner-up post a rating of 129, which equalled his 129 career-best, firstly achieved in winning the 2018 Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick.

The Surround Stakes (Gr 1, Gr 1, 1400m) was taken out by the late-finishing Mark Newnham-trained Nakeeta Jane (So You Think) [114], which gave the talented filly a new Timeform peak two pounds superior to the 112-rated third she achieved in the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in September.

Nakeeta Jane, who has now raced five times for three wins and two placings, came from ninth at the 600 metres to claim victory by a half-head from the Lindsay Park-trained filly Fundamentalist (Not A Single Doubt) [113], with El Dorado Dreaming (Ilovethiscity) [113] only a head away third.

The Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) saw the Godolphin-raced colt Microphone (Exceed And Excel) [114+] consolidate his claims for the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 23 - his impressive win also giving him a new peak.

Microphone's 114+ rating was two pounds better than his prior best of 112, taken in winning the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Flemington on February 16.

The rating was also four pounds above the 110 winners' average rating for the Skyline Stakes for the previous five years.

Harley's High Five as longshot delivers a Hong Kong first

By David Morgan

@anz_news

Martin Harley

HKJC

Martin Harley broke his Hong Kong duck at Happy Valley yesterday with an accomplished ride on the Tony Millard-trained longshot High Five (Time Thief).

"It's a big relief, for sure – it's definitely not easy here," the Irishman said after driving the 87/1 chance to a short-head success in the Class 3 Fenwick Handicap (1200m) over the fast-finishing Alcarí (All Too Hard).

Harley had endured a sparse run of outs since arriving in town at the beginning of February. On Hong Kong's hard-nosed circuit, securing race rides is difficult enough, and the new arrival from Britain managed only 14 before this evening, third-place being his best return.

A two-meeting suspension hadn't helped his cause either. But Harley had caught the eye of the in-form Millard, and, as good as his word, the South African handler gave the jockey his chance.

"I've been annoying Mr Millard a little bit for a winner because I've seen that he's well able to train them. He said he'd give me a winner and fair play to him – thankfully, my first one is for him and hopefully he supports me going forward," Harley said.

Despite the limited opportunities and back door finishes, Harley feels he has learnt plenty so far.

"The first few rides have been a good learning curve. It's not like English racing, you can't stay jollied up to the furlong pole and then expect them to go – you have to keep the rhythm up here," he said.

"High Five is the best horse I've ridden by far since I came here and he proved it by winning. He was an 80/1 shot or whatever but he's been in Class 1 company before and ran well, so it wasn't a big shock to me."

And, with a win in on the board, he is keen to kick on and put his lean first month behind him.

"That's a good confidence booster tonight. It's a big relief to get my first winner and it's proven that I can ride a winner or maybe more in Hong Kong."

Sanna's plan rules

Ruletheroost

HKJC

Alberto Sanna, too, has found horses with chances tough to find in recent months, let alone winners, so the hard-working Italian made sure his planning was impeccable before heading out on Ruletheroost (Redoute's Choice) in the Class 4 Jaffe Handicap (1650m).

Tagged on to the tail of 2/1 favourite Happy Warrior (More Than Ready) in a three-deep alley, Sanna tracked Zac Purton's mount when the champion jockey made a mid-race advance from midfield to the lead. Once in the straight, Ruletheroost responded to Sanna's determined drive, edging past Happy Warrior to score by a neck.

"This is my own speed map," Sanna said afterwards, pointing to notes made on a piece of paper. "Here, this is me, sitting behind Zac and I was sure he'd sit back here, not forward. My plan was to follow him – actually, I planned that he would be two deep and I'd follow but he couldn't get in so I followed three deep with cover."

"But on the last corner, he left me three wide with no cover, so I wasn't happy but actually it was the horse's first time here, he saw the corner and he was a bit unhappy at first but then he kept cornering well and in the straight he fought on well."

The rider had partnered the Frankie Lor-trained maiden in barrier trials and all of his six previous races and was eager to see that work pay off for connections.

"I was really happy to win on this horse because I always ride him and the plan was to run next week but I was booked on another horse so Frankie changed it and he gave me this chance. That means a lot to me because he's a good trainer and he was willing to change the plan to work with me. Not many do that."

Sanna was registering only his second win since returning from a hip fracture in December.

De Sousa up and down

Silvestre de Sousa dismounted Mr Darthvegar (Lope De Vega) after passing the post eighth behind Ruletheroost. The rider, whose mount reared in the gate, was taken to hospital with lower back pain.

That came after the Brazilian sealed his 40th win of the campaign in section two of the Class 4 Johnston Handicap (1200m) on the Millard-trained Gift Of Lifeline (Pierro).

The night's finale, meanwhile, was expected to be a shoot-out between two young gun sprinters, Country Star (Starcraft) and Music Addition (Your Song). Both misfired as the Riky Yiu-trained Flat Heaven (French Fifteen) skipped through a gap and scored at odds of 47/1 under Matthew Poon.

"He's a very honest horse and he's really acclimatised quickly even though he's from France – you seldom see a horse from there win second start," Yiu said.

Helene Charisma (Air Chief Marshal) has descended far since the day in 2016 when he won the Grand Prix de Paris (Gr

1, 2400m). John Moore's charge finally broke his Hong Kong duck at start 28, having dropped to Class 3 and a rating of 74. Purton guided the 2.5 favourite to a two and a half-length win over horses of markedly inferior innate ability.

First season trainer Jimmy Ting has developed a knack of winning the first race on a card. When Chad Schofield drove Dragon Warrior (Haradasun) home in the Class 5 Lockhart Handicap (1800m) it was the tenth time this term that the handler had taken a fixture's opening race, and that haul includes the first race of the season and the first of 2019.

Trainer Peter Ho collected a double thanks to Very Rich Man (Reset) in race two and Sumstreetsumwhere (Highly Recommended) in race five. The former scored under apprentice Dylan Mo, while the latter gave Ho's former apprentice Ben So his second success of the campaign.

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin on Sunday March 10.

Margins: 0.8 lens, 0.3 lens. Time: 1:23.24 (last 600m 35.60).

Betting: $4.80, $12.00, $4.50.

Then followed: Celebrity Dream (NZ), Variation (AUS), Alpha Sky (AUS), My Greek Boy (AUS), Pushin' Shapes (AUS), Rebel King (AUS), Falcon Crest (AUS) & Delicate Miss (AUS), last.

Analysis: Achernar Star followed his good first-up second in the Pinjarra Classic (Listed, 1300m) on February 24 with a good win here. He was smartly away from his outside barrier (11) before Damien Oliver eased him to settle in fifth place, one off the rails, tracking a good tempo. He moved up well rounding the home turn, hit the front in the closing stages and went on to win well. Tellem We're Comin settled at the tail of the 11-horse field, went between runners at the home turn and came with a late run when fully clear for second. The in-form Vital Silver was deep early on before racing outside the leader (My Greek Boy). He got to the front at the 200m and then held on well for third after working most of the way. Celebrity Dream raced back in ninth place, improved between runners at the home turn and then ran on nicely (wide out) for fourth, beaten two lengths.

Analysis: Team Hawkes-trained filly Amangiri followed her second on debut in a three-year-old maiden (1400m) at this track on February 6 with a really smart win here. She was fifth early on before making a quick move to take the lead at the 800m. She drew clear at the 300m and then went on to win easily by just over three lengths, running the 1550m out strongly and looking suited to further. It was a very good effort and she is a filly to watch.

Analysis: Les Bridge-trained gelding Classique Legend followed his impressive debut win in a three-year-old maiden (1100m) at this track on February 20 with an even more impressive victory here. He began well, raced outside the leader (Bucephalus), easily took the lead on turning for home and then dashed clear to score effortlessly by six lengths. He looks really smart and appears to have a very bright future.

Analysis: Phillip Stokes-trained three-year-old gelding Jumbo Ozaki followed his most impressive seven-length win on debut in a maiden (1200m) at Pakenham on February 21 with another very good victory here. He began well and settled nicely in fourth place on the rails, and was blocked on straightening before getting a split approaching the 100m. He then quickly hit the front and went on to score easily. He looks classy and is a horse to watch.
