The depth of juvenile talent lying within the Godolphin ranks has proven one of the overarching stories of the season and in a fitting demonstration of their two-year-old firepower, Kiamichi (Sidestep) led home a trifecta of Royal Blue as a vintage Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) lived up to its billing at Rosehill yesterday.

Trained by James Cummings, who was winning the most prestigious juvenile contest on the planet for the first time - his late grandfather, Bart, won four - the Damian Lane-ridden Kiamichi sported the yellow cap and returned at $26, but a lack of market confidence did not prevent her finishing a length too strong for stable companion Microphone ($8) (Exceed And Excel), completing a quinella for Cummings, while the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Lyre ($14) (Lonhro) was another half-length away in third for Anthony Freedman.

Victory in the $3.5 million contest was a significant result for Telemor Thoroughbreds' first-season sire Sidestep (Exceed And Excel), himself a Golden Slipper runner-up in 2013 who, significantly, is being loaned to the Queensland-based operation by Darley.

Furthermore, Sidestep became the first freshman stallion since Stratum (Redoute's Choice) in 2010 to sire a Golden Slipper winner from his maiden crop, while the result also completed a trifecta for Darley-owned stallions, as flagbearing shuttler Exceed And Excel (Danehill), himself the sire of Sidestep, was responsible for the runner-up, while former champion sire Lonhro (Octagonal) produced the third.

A winner of the Girls Day Out 2YO Handicap (1200m) over this course and distance on debut - the first juvenile winner of the season for Cummings - Kiamichi again belied market expectations when running out a $21 winner of the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at this course last week, but she proved that victory was no fluke yesterday and the success did not come as a surprise to her jubilant trainer.

"It's some race," Cummings told Sky Racing. "Great credit must go to this horse - she's been able to come onto the scene and she's just been too well to deny her the chance of running in this race."

"I wanted to toughen these horses up all season and she was tough this week. She's had a ripper of a week and she's been squealing - she's just been strong all the way through. She battled hard to win over 1200 metres on debut and she's just kept improving."

Kiamichi

"She's by a stallion who was able to run three weeks in a row before still getting up to run second in this race, like Microphone just did."

Trained by Peter Snowden under the ownership of Sheikh Mohammed, Sidestep won three times, landing the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) prior to his Golden Slipper exploits, while he subsequently won the Royal Sovereign Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) as a three-year-old. He transferred into the ownership of Godolphin under the care of John O'Shea for his final three starts, finishing down the field on each occasion.

Breaking smartly from barrier 14, Kiamichi was given a positive ride by Lane, who nullified the threat of being trapped deep into the bend by allowing his mount to stride on and take up the running inside the 800 metres.

All 15 of her rivals came under pressure at various stages on the turn for home, but Kiamichi was still firmly on the bridle approaching 300 metres out and she was in no danger of being caught when asked to quicken for a furlong, winning with a degree of authority to continue the dominance of fillies in the juvenile division.

The improving Microphone, a last-start winner of the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), fared best of the colts in second, while Lyre flew home from an uncompromising position having been forced deep into the track when making her challenge.

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Cosmic Force (Deep Field), who was making a quick return to the course having won the Pago Pago Stakes last week, could make no impression from midfield having enjoyed a good trip early, while the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) caught the eye with a view to her three-year-old career by finishing fourth.

Chris Waller's Yes Yes Yes (Rubick), who was propelled to early favouritism for the race following his Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) success, was weak on the day from barrier 16 and he ran on into seventh having been a long-last for much of the contest.

Reflecting on both the success of Kiamichi and the season for his two-year-olds overall, Cummings continued: "I knew coming into this Golden Slipper you could throw out of the window which you think is the most brilliant horse and which you think has had the picture-perfect preparation because it was going to come down to the horse that had the guts to handle the track, the occasion and have the heart to get over the line first.

"The guys have done a great job all season to be meticulous with these two-year-olds and it's fitting for us as a team. It's the sort of thing I've felt really amazed to be a part of and I'm proud for them and proud for this horse.

"Last but not least, great thanks has to go to the vision of HH Sheikh Mohammed, who has put us in this position."

A winner of three of her five starts having also finished second once, homebred Kiamichi (2 f Sidestep - Ouachita by Canny Lad) has amassed $2,245,350 in prize-money.

<< Continued from page 4 Kiamichi was one of 86 live foals conceived from the first crop of Sidestep, who was introduced for a fee of $11,000 (inc. GST) when then standing at Darley.

He shuttled to Haras du Logis, France for three northern hemisphere breeding seasons between 2016 and 2018, while he covered 57 mares at a fee of $7,700 (inc. GST) in Australia last year - his first season standing at Telemon Thoroughbreds.

Kiamichi is one of seven named foals, all of whom have raced and six of whom have won out of the unraced Canny Lad (Bletchingly) mare Ouachita, making her a half-sister to Tasmanian Derby (Listed, 2200m) winner Cossetot (Epaulette).

Her dam is herself a half-sister to Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner and current Darley resident Denman (Lonhro) as well as an own-sister to Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) heroine Preserve, who was crowned second-top filly in the Australasian two-year-old classification of 1999/2000 and is herself the dam of two Group 3 winners.

Ouachita slipped to Epaulette in 2017 before producing a filly by Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux) last year. She was not served subsequently.

In an intriguing post-script, Kiamichi's dam, second dam and third dam are all themselves by Golden Slipper winners in Canny Lad (1990), Vain (Wilkes) (1969) and Marsday (Biscay) (1982) respectively.

Australia's most valuable three-year-old in training, and heir-apparent to his now 22-year-old Arrowfield Stud-based sire Redoute's Choice (Danehill), The Autumn Sun was sent-off the red-hot $1.40 favourite to continue his winning streak in the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) and while he emerged unscathed and secured victory number eight - his fifth at Group 1 level - he had to master a determined Arrogant ($26) (Ocean Park) following a sustained dual to do so, and even then the margin was only a head.

The pair pulled two lengths clear of Chapada ($26) (Bullet Train) in third, completing a two-three for trainer Michael Moroney, whose positive pre-race bulletin was entirely vindicated with a brace of high-class performances, while New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) fifth Surely Sacred ($14) (Rock 'N' Pop) ran a gallant race to finish fourth as the field came home at wide intervals in what proved a searching staying test in trying ground.

Despite The Autumn Sun gaining a reputation as a heart-stopper - his last-gasp Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) success paying testament to that - he continues race-by-race to deliver the goods, and it is surely the sign of a class-laden colt that he is able to win in unsuitable circumstances and bolster a career record that contains only one blemish from nine outings - a first-up defeat in the Stan Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at this course in September.

Waller cut a relieved figure in the post-race debrief, paying testament to both The Autumn Sun and co-owner John Messara, the Arrowfield Stud principal who sold the colt for $700,000 at the Inglis Sydney Easter Yearling Sale in 2017, but who made a major investment into the son of Redoute's Choice following his Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) win in the spring.

"Mr Messara is a good sportsman and that is why he is here running," Waller told Sky Racing following the first of five top-tier contests on the card.

"There was some concern during the week if he should be running on a heavy track, because he's still a horse who isn't fully mature.

"It was through his sportsmanship that they brought him here and he's a very good horse. That was a good test - the last 200 metres - and the inside horse was laying all over him, but he didn't lie down and he's a really good horse.

Waller also paid compliment to the constitution and attitude of The Autumn Sun, a colt with 'so much speed' having made a successful debut over 1200 metres at Rosehill in April last year.

"I could see as soon as they went 400 metres it was going to be a really tough staying test and just look at the margins at which the runners have come home - it was pretty close between the winner and the second, but in-behind there were some really tired horses," Waller continued.

"For a horse that has shown so much speed - he almost ran the track record at Randwick first time out over 1200 metres - we were really testing him today over 2000 metres and he's done it."

Ridden by James McDonald, New Zealand Derby winner Crown Prosecutor (Medaglia D'Oro) played a significant role in creating that test, stringing out the 12-strong field, which had been reduced by one following the defection of Madison County (Pins), down the back straight.

The Autumn Sun

SPORTPIX

The Autumn Sun adopted a midfield pitch having broken nicely under Kerrin McEvoy and he made his move three-deep passing through the 400-metre marker, nosing his way to the front at the 300 and looking like he would quicken away with authority.

However, Arrogant lived up to his name and proved a determined opponent under Craig Williams, jostling all the way to the line and only succumbing in the closing stages.

Speculating on future targets for The Autumn Sun has proven a popular game amongst the media merry-go-round as the colt's profile has continued to swell, and while international targets remain a possibility - he was this week handed nominations in the Champion's Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) and the QEII Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Sha Tin on April 28 - Messara continues to cut a level-headed figure when looking ahead.

"He knows how to win, but I don't think he enjoyed it," Messara also told Sky Racing. "He got away with it, but good horses can do that.

"It's a pity it wasn't a good track because that would have told us a lot more about the horse, but on a wet track and the first time over 2000 metres it was a big ask and he came through it.

"Race-day decisions are not good decisions. I'm going to cool down and have another few looks at that race, but I know he didn't enjoy it - he made a long, sustained run and he was labouring at the end. But he got there - and that was pure guts."

The Autumn Sun (3 c Redoute's Choice - Azmiyna by Galileo) is the winner of eight of his nine starts and he has earned $3,489,121 in prize-money.

The colt is the first foal to race out of the unraced mare Azmiyna, who is a three-quarter sister to the stakes-placed Galileo's Star (Galileo) and a half-sister to four-time Group 1-winning late stallion Azamour (Night Shift), as well as Group 2 winner Arazan (Anabaa).

His third dam is the stakes winner Anaza (Darshaan), who is also the dam of Group 1 winner Astarabad (Alleged) and the stakes-placed Astarak (Rainbow Quest).

Azmiyna's unnamed two-year-old filly by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) was purchased by Waller Racing and Guy Mulcaster for $1,300,000 at last year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale and the mare also has a Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) yearling colt who will be offered at the 2019 edition of the sale. He is catalogued as Lot 369 and will be offered by Arrowfield Stud.

Azmiyna had a Snitzel colt born on October 29 last year but was not served last season. She was exported to Japan in January where she will be covered by Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) to northern hemisphere time.

Winx oozes class in emotional Rosehill farewell

Winx

SPORTPIX

The legend is almost over, but the winning run continues apace. Winx (Street Cry) effortlessly strode further into racing immortality overnight with a stunning 32nd straight victory in the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill.

The champion mare was settled towards the rear of the eight horse field as Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock) set the early fractions, with Hugh Bowman taking closer order widest of all as the pack approached the turn for home.

Still chartering that wide passage, Bowman let the shackles off at the 300 metre mark and Winx responded generously, bounding clear of her rivals under a hands and heels ride to score by three and a half lengths over Brutal (O'Reilly), who put daylight between himself and Dreamforce back in third.

In a career that continues to re-write the record books, Saturday's victory saw Winx become the first horse to win four Cox Plates (Gr 1, 2040m), four Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and now four George Ryder Stakes in consecutive years.

It was an emphatic statement on her final outing at her local track, setting up an emotional swansong in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick on April 13.

A euphoric part-owner Peter Tighe was effusive in his praise for the great mare, who was recording her 24th victory at Group 1 level.

"She had them covered pretty early today. You've got to go and win, you don't get them given to you and half way up the straight we were pretty confident," he told Sky Thoroughbred central.

"She did what she does best and put them all to the sword. There's not a lot more you can say - she's just out of this world.

"She means the world to us - and to Debbie (Kepitis) and Richard (Treweeke), obviously - and it's a day for all of us to celebrate with our families.

"We don't want to go too crazy because we are going to have to come back to reality one day, but we're just loving every moment of it like everyone else.

"As long as she pulls-up ok and everything is right tonight, we'll be back in three weeks to hopefully finish her career on a winning note.

"She's everyone's favourite and I'm just so proud."

For Winx's trainer Chris Waller, the result brought the usual concoction of relief, excitement and awe.

"Hughie popped out four-wide with a bit of arrogance as we've seen him do and as he's entitled to do," he said. "Obviously everyone expects her to win and that's one of the reasons she does.

"Every other jockey I'm telling not to be three-wide, but with her we have to be three-wide to stay out of trouble.

"She's a very special horse. I'm sure she's know what's going on. Just a marvellous horse to work with and we owe it to her to be in this position."

Winx's victory was the second leg of a remarkable Group 1 treble for Waller, with The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) and Nature Strip (Nicconi) recording elite level victories either side of the mare's emphatic George Ryder success.

Winx's connections

SPORTPIX

After the race, a jubilant Bowman exuded his customary class by parading the seven-year-old in front of her adoring fans, ensuring all those who made the pilgrimage to Rosehill with a view to catching one final glimpse of the superstar could leave satisfied in the notion they had done just that.

The jockey was happy to let Winx find her stride in the early stages before taking advantage of a lapse in the pace approaching the turn for home.

"The pace was pretty good in the early stages," Bowman said.

"I settled towards the rear of the field, as she often does, and when they slowed up the pace in the middle I was staying out wide on the better ground cause it's quite chewed up on the inside with the conditions here this afternoon, so the pace steadied and I just crept a bit closer.

"Obviously I was more assertive with her over the last 300 metres than I would be here early in the mornings but for her it was very comfortable.

"When I asked her to stretch she responded and you could hear the crowd roar. The excitement and the emotion, she responds to that as well as anything else, and once again I am just so proud of her and proud to be a part of it.

"I would never have imagined in those days growing up that I would be riding one of the greatest horses that has ever lived."

Bred by John Camilleri's Fairway Thoroughbreds, Winx (7 m Street Cry - Vegas Showgirl by Al Akbar) was a $230,000 purchase at the 2013 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the Coolmore Stud draft. She has had 42 starts for 36 wins with prize-money totalling $24,016,675.

She is one of seven foals out of dual-stakes winner Vegas Showgirl (Al Akbar), who is in foal to Japanese sire-sensation Deep Impact (Sunday Silence).

Vegas Showgirl is also the dam of 2016 Kindergarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) winner El Divino (Snitzel) and the unraced Boulder City (Snitzel), who stood his first season at Riverbank Farm in Victoria last year.

Vegas Showgirl is a half-sister to the Group 3-placed Black Magic Maggie (Westminster) out of two-time winner Vegas Magic (Voodoo Rhythm). Camilleri has retained a two-year-old daughter of Vegas Showgirl named Courchevel (Snitzel), who is in training with Ciaran Maher and David Eustace at Caulfield, and he also has a yearling filly by Exceed And Excel (Daneshill) named Covent Garden.

She missed to Exceed And Excel in 2017, which allowed Camilleri to send Vegas Showgirl to be sent to Japan to be covered by Deep Impact to southern hemisphere last year. She is in foal and has since returned to her Hunter Valley base at Segenhoe Stud.

Nature Strip just lasts out in thrilling Galaxy finish

So often the talking point ahead of the major sprint contests, Nature Strip (Nicconi) ended his Group 1 hoodoo yesterday under a perfectly-judged James McDonald ride to win The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) at Rosehill, bringing up a remarkable Group 1 treble for trainer Chris Waller.

Hold-up tactics had been mooted for the gelding in the lead up to yesterday's $700,000 contest, but the gun sprinter was allowed to bowl along in his customary style by McDonald, who set an honest gallop on the front end.

Nature Strip was still travelling best of all as one by one the challengers came under the pump, before McDonald pushed the button and took three lengths out of the field passing the 300-metre mark in what ultimately proved the race-winning move.

The four-year-old looked home and hosed entering the final 200 metres before the fuel gauge quickly turned to empty, but the line came just in time for Nature Strip, who survived the late thrust of Pierata (Pierro) to prevail by the narrowest of margins, with Easy Eddie (Super Easy) posting a career-best effort to finish a length and a quarter back in third.

Nature Strip was having just his third outing for Waller since arriving from disqualified trainer Darren Weir, having won the Rubiton Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) on stable debut in February prior to fading tamely in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) on his last start.

The gelding has also previously enjoyed spells in the care of Robert Smerdon, Robert Hickmott and John Sadler, all of whom Waller was quick to praise in his post-race assessment.

"There has been a lot of hard work go into him through the years, so credit to all of those trainers as well," he told Sky Thoroughbred Central. "Great work by James McDonald, who has put a lot of time into the horse at home, in his trials and on the track.

"He's just a lovely horse to train and we've just got to get into his head on race-day that the winning post is not at the 300-metre mark. From the wide draw and with the wet track today there was a lot against us, so he needed to be pretty tough to win.

"Getting horses from good trainers - they come to you in pretty good condition so they come to you with plenty of meat and muscle on them. We've basically just looked after him and he's flown the flag proudly today."

James McDonald

Reflecting on his remarkable trio of Group 1 successes, Waller continued: "It's pretty good, isn't it? Especially when one of them is Winx.

"Full credit to all of them. It's a great race-day and it's one of the really special race-days in the world.

"It's a day for everybody to remember and that's what all sport dreams of and we've done it today."

A delighted McDonald was

Nature Strip

full of admiration for Nature Strip, whom he believes overcame adversity to secure a maiden Group 1 success at the age of four.

"The team have done an amazing job," McDonald said. "Ever since I first sat on him he just felt brilliant and I knew he was a good sprinter.

"Things didn't really go his way and he makes it hard for himself, but today he sprung the gates really well and I just sat on him like a quiet churchmouse.

"I thought the give in the ground would be to his assistance - and it certainly was - and I'm very thankful for the opportunity to ride him.

Defeat was a bitter pill to swallow for connections of Pierata, who has now been placed at Group 1 level on three occasions.

"I thought we were home," trainer Greg Hickman said.

"It's a bit hard to handle. The horse got back and ran out of his skin. He hit the line really strong and there was only a cigarette paper in the finish. It was a great effort by our horse.

"You can't ask any more of him. It just wasn't our turn."

Nature Strip's victory in The Galaxy provided his sire Nicconi (Bianconi) with a first Group 1 winner since he joined the ranks at Widden Stud in 2010, where he stood for a fee of $24,750 (inc GST) last year.

Passed in for $90,000 (reserve $120,000) at the 2016 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, Nature Strip (4 g Nicconi - Strikeline by Desert Sun) took his record to ten wins and two placings from 15 starts for prize-money of $1,232,085.

Nature Strip is one of three winners for the Group 3-winning mare Strikeline (Desert Sun), making him a half-brother to Fernhill Handicap (Listed, 1600m) winner The Barrister (Star Witness), now racing as High Volatility in Hong Kong.

Strikeline is herself a half-sister to fellow Group 3 winner Bashful Girl (Perugino), with the pair being out of Listed winner Strike High (Pre Emptive Strike).

The mare has an unraced three-year-old sister to Nature Strip and a two-year-old colt by Shamus Award (Snitzel), while she has most recently been covered by New Zealand's leading stallion Savabeel (Zabeel).

Avilius back on track with Group 1 breakthrough in Ranvet

Avilius maintained his unbeaten record in Sydney and avenged an odds-on defeat in the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) by showing a taking turn of foot to make it three victories from four starts this preparation in the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), kickstarting a Group 1 double for James Cummings, Godolphin and jockey Kerrin McEvoy.

As is becoming increasingly customary with Australian staying contests, this was a race dominated by imports as $4.40 favourite Avilius - who won twice in France for Andre Fabre under the same ownership - finished two and a quarter lengths in front of the enterprisingly-ridden He's Eminent ($19) (Frankel), who was making his debut for Sir Mark Todd.

New Zealand raider Danzdanzdance ($5) (Mastercraftsman), who finished runner-up to the prolific Melody Belle (Commands) in the New Zealand Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) a fortnight ago, finished a further half-length away in third as the front three pulled clear of the remainder in what appears to be a solid piece of form.

Avilius and He's Eminent had clashed previously when the latter was trained by Martyn Meade in Britain, with He's Eminent running out a comfortable winner of the Prix Guillaume d'Ornano (Gr 2, 2000m) at Deauville in August 2017.

The son of Frankel (Galileo) made-all on that occasion and he looked like doing so again at one stage yesterday as James McDonald grabbed the race by the scruff of the neck and ensured an honest gallop, commanding a three-length advantage entering the home straight.

Danzdanzdance and Opie Bosson were forced to navigate some traffic problems on the bend, while Kerrin McEvoy produced Avilius down the outside, and he quickened up smartly to swamp the leader inside the final 100 metres and win going away.

This was a maiden Group 1 success for Avilius, while it was a second top-tier victory on the day for McEvoy following the earlier victory of The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice).

"He's a super horse and that was a demonstration of the supreme turn of foot he can exhibit," Cummings told Sky Racing.

"Kerrin wasn't here to ride the track, he was here to ride the horse, and I think that was the key to getting him over the line. We knew he had to do a bit to turn around his performance in the Australian Cup, but he's had a fantastic fortnight.

Kerrin McEvoy & James Cummings

"I'm just proud of the team and so impressed by the horse. To come from a difficult position, claim them and win with authority - that's the sort of promise he showed when he debuted in Australia last year."

Avilius holds an entry in the H E Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) at the course next Saturday, but Cummings refused to be drawn into making firm plans post-race.

Avilius

"I don't want to make any decisions on race-day - it will be up to the way Avilius pulls-up," he said.

"It was a real team effort to get him back off one low run in Melbourne and I have to be on a plane to Dubai in the week, so I won't be able to lay my eyes on him as intently as I did this morning to be sure to run him."

Plans for He's Eminent appear more concrete as he is set to clash with Winx in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick on April 13.

"He ran a huge race," Sir Mark said. "We were praying for a better track. He has never run on ground like that so we really didn't know."

Meanwhile, 2016 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Almandin (Monsun), who finished second last, is set to be retired, according to a tweet by co-owner Nick Williams.

Bred in Europe by Darley, Avilius (4 g Pivotal - Alessandria by Sunday Silence) raced seven times for Andre Fabre prior to being imported to Australia in early 2018. He has now won seven of his ten starts for James Cummings, taking his career record to nine victories from 17 outings overall, amassing prize-money of $1,504,808.

By winning yesterday, he became the 29th Group 1 winner for Cheveley Park Stud stalwart Pivotal (Polar Falcon), who is currently standing his 23rd consecutive breeding season in Newmarket for a private fee.

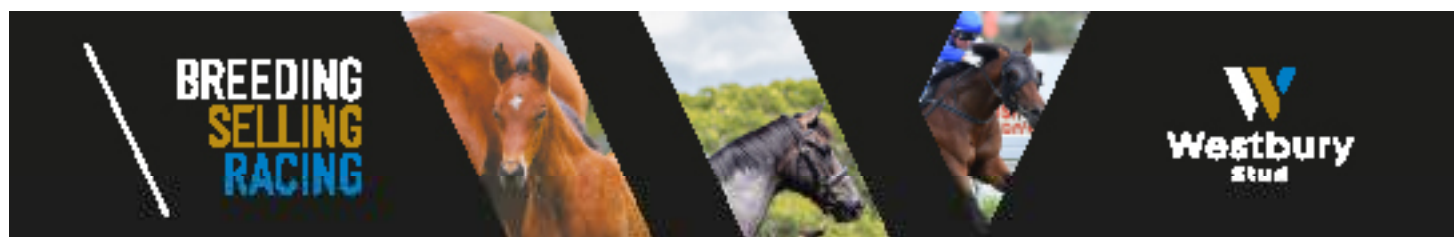

Avilius is one of nine named foals, seven of whom have raced and four of whom have won out of the two-time winner Alessandria (Sunday Silence), making him a brother to Saint Baudolino, who was placed in the Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m) and who incidentally won the aforementioned Prix Guillaume d'Ornano.

His second dam, Tereshkova (Mr Prospector) was a Group 3 winner who was placed in the Prix Morny (Gr 1, 1200m), while she is a sister to Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Lycius and Group 2 scorer Akabir (Riverman).

Alessandria has produced a northern-hemisphere aged three-year-old filly by Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) named Vercelli and a northern-hemisphere aged two-year-old by Oasis Dream (Green Desert) named Well Of Wisdom. Both are currently unraced, while she has a yearling colt by Darley lynchpin Dubawi (Dubai Millennium).

First for Sidestep

Telemon Thoroughbreds-based stallion Sidestep (Exceed And Excel) was provided with his first Group 1 winner yesterday following the victory of Kiamichi (2 f ex Ouachita by Canny Lad) in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Trained by James Cummings and ridden by Damian Lane, the filly led her rivals a merry dance and beat stablemate Microphone (Exceed And Excel) by a length, with a half length back to Lyre (Lonhro) who brought up the trifecta for Godolphin. First-season sire Sidestep is being loaned to the Queensland-based Telemon Thoroughbreds by Darley.

First for Nicconi

Sidestep wasn't the only sire to record a first Group 1 winner yesterday as Widden Stud stallion Nicconi (Bianconi) was handed his first elite level scorer when Nature Strip (4 g ex Strikeline by Desert Sun) landed a thrilling renewal of The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) at Rosehill. Now trained by Chris Waller having moved from the stable of disqualified trainer Darren Weir, the gelding just had enough in reserve to beat the fast-finishing Pierata (Pierro) by a nose, with Easy Eddie (Super Easy) a further length and a quarter back in third. Nicconi had 11 lots sell for an aggregate of $1,355,000 at an average of $123,182 during Book 1 of the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale earlier this month. 29 for Pivotal

Avilius (5 g ex Alessandria by Sunday Silence) made his long-awaited Group 1 breakthrough yesterday with a commanding success in the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Rosehill, providing Cheveley

Park Stud stalwart Pivotal (Polar Falcon) with his 29th Group/Grade 1 winner in the process. The James Cummings-trained gelding quickened up smartly under Kerrin McEvoy to score by two and a quarter lengths from fellow European import He's Eminent (Frankel), with New Zealand raider Danzdan dance (Mastercraftsman) a further half-length away in third. Pivotal is currently standing the 2019 northern hemisphere breeding season at Cheveley Park Stud for a private fee.

53 for Sebring

The late Widden Stud stallion Sebring (More Than Ready) was provided with his 53rd stakes winner just a month on from his untimely death courtesy of Semari's (4 f ex Kumari by Zabeel) victory in the Epona Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) at Rosehill yesterday. The progressive filly showed a smart turn of foot up the straight to beat I'm A Princess (High Chaparral) by half a length, with a further length and a quarter back to All Too Soon (All Too Hard) in third. Sebring died from a heart attack last month and had eight yearlings sell for an aggregate of $1,315,000 at an average of $164,375 during Book 1 of the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale earlier this month. High-class Avantage lands Rosehill Group 3

Avantage (3 f Fastnet Rock - Asavant by Zabeel), New Zealand's Champion two-year-old filly of 2017/2018, gained a first victory on Australian soil with a gutsy success in the Birthday Card Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill yesterday. Having her first start since winning the Gold Trail Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Hastings in September, the Jamie Richards-trained three-year-old rallied strongly in the straight after leading to beat favourite Resin (Exceed And Excel) by three-quarters of a length. Yesterday's victory saw Avantage take her tally to seven wins and a second from eight starts, which includes a memorable victory in the Manawata Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) for two-year-olds in March last year.

Arrowfield Sprint awaits for Avantage

Following yesterday's victory, the $1 million Arrowfield 3YO Sprint (registered as Royal Sovereign Stakes) (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick during The Championships now looms for Avantage according to her trainer Jamie Richards. "If anything she probably should be unbeaten," Richards said. "She got back last and ran home in the quickest sectionals of the day last year when she got beaten (in the Group 1 Sistema Stakes). She's very exciting. She went off a bit, up high behind after she won at Hastings and she just needed a bit of time to come through that. But it's been a great effort by the team to get her back here in such great order. She's always been a high-class filly and hopefully we can work through to The Championships now with a little bit of confidence that hopefully she can step up."

Midterm proves too strong in Manion

Midterm

SPORTPIX

Blue-blooded European import Midterm (5 g Galileo - Midday by Oasis Dream) was another to gain a first Australian win at Rosehill yesterday, making all under Jamie Kah to salute in the NE Manion Cup (Gr 3, 2400m). By Coolmore sire-sensation Galileo (Sadler's Wells) out of the multiple Group 1 winner Midday (Oasis Dream), the gelding was having his seventh start since joining the yard of Liam Howley and will now head towards the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). "I'm so rapt," Kah said. "I had a good talk to Team Williams and they wanted this horse to run along at a decent clip. Once we got to the 1000 metres I wasn't going to be waiting for them. I knew this horse was fit and could rattle off those times. He was actually getting stronger and stronger to the line."

Krone hits right note in Sydney

The Mick Price-trained Krone (3 f Eurozone - Soft Landing by Al Maher) returned to the winners' enclosure for the first time in over a year when taking out the Darby Munro Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Rosehill. Having just his second start for Price since arriving from Darren Weir's stable, the filly also benefited from first-time blinkers to beat Wild Planet (Animal Kingdom) by a long-neck. "She ran so well down the straight first-up and you look at her form card and twice she's been beaten three lengths by Mystic Journey and she was also second in the Edward Manifold Stakes last spring behind Amphitrite," said Price's assistant trainer Mick Kent Jnr. "I thought she had a great chance on her form. She had blinkers on for the first time and it was a master ride by Damien Oliver."

Self Sense books his Caulfield Cup ticket

Dual-purpose star Self Sense (8 g Street Sense - Be My Person by Personal Flag) had to survive a protest from Fred Kersley aboard runner-up Tarquin (Hard Spun) to land yesterday's Mornington Cup (Listed, 2400m), but in doing so secured his place in the line-up for the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) later this year. Winning his hometown Cup at his third attempt, Self Sense could now head to Sydney for the Chairman's Quality (Gr 2, 2600m) at Randwick on April 6. "This entry into the Caulfield Cup, it means a lot," trainer David Brideoake said. "It's a hard race to get a start in, so I think we'll have to have a lunch on Self Sense and discuss the pros and cons."

Master Shuhood scores at Australian debut

Master Shuhood, who was last seen running over hurdles in Britain, made a successful debut for Chris Waller when landing the Peninsula Essence Handicap (1600m) at Mornington yesterday. The three-year-old was purchased by Chris Waller Racing for 60,000 guineas at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-In-Training Sale last October. "We thought after three trials he could come here and perform well, but he'll also continue to improve," Waller's Melbourne assistant Jo Taylor said. He needs a bit of a trip, a mile-and-a-quarter, and we're hoping up to a mile-and-a-half. He's had a go over the hurdles but we haven't tried our hand at that yet, but who knows what Mr Waller is up to as the season evolves."

Ten for Helmet

Former Darley shuttler Helmet (Exceed And Excel) was provided with his tenth stakes winner yesterday courtesy of Beethoven's (2 g ex Molto Allegro by Fast 'n' Famous) narrow victory in the Perth Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Ascot. The Daniel Morton-trained gelding got the better of Jericho Missile (Smart Missile) by the narrowest of margins, with Divide The Sea (Moshe) a further three quarters of a length back in third. Helmet is currently standing at Gestut Fahrhof in Germany for a fee of €9,000.

Double for Magnus

Sun Stud stallion Magnus (Flying Spur) enjoyed an across-the-card stakes double yesterday, taking his tally of stakes winners to 19. The first of those victories came courtesy of Streets Of Avalon (4 g ex Kamuniak by Black Minnaloushe), who took out the Hareeba Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Mornington, before Rio Del Mar (2 f ex Costanera by Encosta de Lago) reversed the Supremacy Stakes (Listed, 1000m) form with Prim and Proper (Alfred Nobel) to land the Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Ascot. Magnus had nine lots sell for an aggregate of $572,000 at an average of $63,556 during Book 1 of the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale earlier this month. Click here to view the results.

Nichols eyes more stakes success with Avalon

Following his stakes breakthrough yesterday, trainer Shane Nichols is now eyeing further black-type for Streets Of Avalon. Ridden by apprentice Zac Spain, the gelding was sent off the $5 favourite in scoring by a length from Bons Away (Bon Hoffa) with Snitzkraft (Snitzel) a further length and a half away in third. "He's an amazing horse," Nichols said. "To bring him back from 1400 metres in seven days to win at 1200 metres, the staff need to be congratulated. He's had a long prep and it doesn't happen easily so to win the Hareeba, on the home track, I'm really chuffed about that. There's a Listed race in two weeks at Caulfield over 1400 metres, so we'll go there and see how it unfolds."

Achernar Star lands Cup

The Simon Miller-trained Achernar Star (4 g Gingerbread Man - Morine by Danetime) made it two stakes wins on the bounce when prevailing by half a length in the Grandstand Cup (Listed, 1500m) at Ascot yesterday. Variation (War Chant) finished second, while Tellem We're Comin (Blackfriars) finished third. Achernar Star, who landed the Bunbury Stakes (Listed, 1400m) on March 6, has now won six of his 19 starts, amassing prize-money of $840,750. He was purchased for $75,000 from the draft of Korilya Stud from the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale in 2016.

28 for Written Tycoon

Written Tycoon

WOODSIDE PARK STUD

Woodside Park Stud-based stallion Written Tycoon (Iglesia) was provided with his 28th stakes winner yesterday courtesy of Tyzone's (5 g ex Rezonet by Hussonet) victory in the rearranged Goldmarket Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at the Gold Coast. The Toby Edmonds-trained gelding scored a narrow neck victory over Malvern Estate (Redoute's Choice) in second, with Freddie Fox Trot (Foxwedge) the same distance away in third. Written Tycoon has 17 lots set to go under the hammer at the upcoming Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, which begins its two day run on April 9. Click here to view the catalogue.

Mishani Hustler wins for Currie

Troubled trainer Ben Currie is banned from attending Eagle Farm, but his top colt Mishani Hustler (Exceedingly Good) won in his absence when landing the $200,000 TAB Jewel Handicap (1200m) yesterday. The three-year-old, who won the Dalrello Stakes (Listed, 1200m) last April, was securing his seventh win in 11 starts having amassed prize-money of $573,300. "This horse is a winner," stable spokesperson Nathan Evan said. "He tries so hard. There is a chance he will run in the Weetwood Handicap at Toowoomba in a fortnight or he might have a little break for some of the races later in the winter."

Sires' an option for Vinco

The SAJC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m), run at Morphettville on May 11, could be on the agenda for the Tony McEvoy-trained Vinco (I Am Invincible) after he secured a second career success in the Martin Collins Polytrack Sires 2YO Stakes (1500m) at Mornington yesterday. "He's been a bit fussy and I've contemplated gelding him a couple of times," the winning trainer said. "He's got a bit of upside, so we'll consider going to the Sires' in Adelaide now if he tells me he's got some more to offer." The juvenile was partnered by Barend Vorster, who was riding his sixth winner - from 14 mounts - since joining McEvoy's Adelaide stables.

Volpe Veloce bounces back

Volpe Veloce

TRISH DUNELL

Volpe Veloce (5m Foxwedge - Bardego by Barathea) maintained her unbeaten record at Tauranga when bouncing back from a disappointing eighth in the Haunui Farm Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) to land the Japan-New Zealand International Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) yesterday. Watch This Space (Elusive City) finished half a length down in second, with the same margin back to True Enough (Nom De Jeu) in third. "She's a great chaser and everything panned out this time," co-trainer Graham Richardson said. "He (Michael McNab, jockey) didn't panic and to be honest, that's half the battle as well with her. It was a good effort and I'm just chuffed for her and all the owners." Volpe Veloce has won 12 of her 24 starts and she will head to the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Te Aroha on April 6.

Residential too strong at Riccarton

The John and Karen Parsons-trained Residential (5 m Pins - Metropolitan by Elusive City) secured a fourth victory in stakes company when landing the South Island Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton yesterday. Zabay (Stravinsky) finished half a length down in second, while Contessa Vanessa (Bullbars) was a further nose back in third. "John and Karen have done a wonderful job with her and I'm just as pleased for them as I am for her syndicate of owners to get the win today," Mark Chittick, Waikato Stud principal, who bred and co-own the gelding, said. "She's just a good tough racemare who always gives her best and I think she deserved that one after being thereabouts all season. She comes from a really good family and once again there was old Pins reminding us just what a good stallion he was over his long career at Waikato Stud."

Pasabahce continues affinity with Tauranga

Pasabahce (Shocking) secured a fifth course success when landing the rating 82 NZB Insurance Pearl Series Race (1300m) at Tauranga yesterday. Ridden by apprentice Ryan Elliot, the six-year-old secured the verdict by a half a length from La Mia Stella (Per Incanto), with a nose back to Honneur Noir (Falkirk) in third. "She loves this place down to the ground," the winning jockey said. "Graeme (Rogerson) was debating whether to run in the Group 2 today or the 1300 metres. I'm glad he stuck to the 1300 metres as she won that well. She didn't disgrace herself last week (in open company). This week I was able to bring her back a couple of positions and just travel up on the corner and she's really let down."

Asia

Eight for Cape Blanco

Lance of Puraana (3 c ex My Puraana by Manhattan Cafe) became the eighth stakes winner for Cape Blanco (Galileo) when running out a neck winner of the Mainichi Hai (Gr 3, 1800m) at Hanshin yesterday. Ulili (Deep Impact) finished a neck away in second, while Vin De Garde (Deep Impact) was a further length and a quarter away in third. Cape Blanco is currently standing at Shizunai Stallion Station in Japan, while he started his career at Ashford Stud, Kentucky, under the Coolmore banner.

Nikkei Sho to Meisho

Meisho Tekkon (4c Manhattan Cafe - A Shin Velocity by Lemon Drop Kid) secured his first win at Group 2 level when securing her fourth career success in The Nikkei Sho (Gr 2, 2500m) at Nakayama yesterday. Trained by Yoshitada Takahashi, the four-year-old won by a length and a quarter from Etario (Stay Gold), with the same margin back to Sakura Empereur (King Kamehameha) in third. Meisho Tekkon has now won five of his 11 starts.

What next for Conghua?

Conghua held its first meeting yesterday

HKJC

By Steve Moran

Will yesterday's historic first meeting at Conghua in the Chinese Mainland, under the Hong Kong Jockey Club's jurisdiction in collaboration with the Conghua District Government, be the first of many at the HK$37 billion dollar development north east of Guangzhou?

"I would not exclude that possibility," said Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges, chief executive officer of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, when asked whether he could envisage several meetings eventually being held at Conghua each season.

Engelbrecht-Bresges spoke at the close of the first Conghua fixture, which was highlighted by Richard Gibson and Matthew Chadwick being the first Conghua winning trainer and jockey; first-season trainer Jimmy Ting taking the second to complete the set of having won with his first runners at Sha Tin, Happy Valley and Conghua; and Chad Schofield becoming the first jockey to ride a double.

The understandable focus yesterday from Jockey Club officials, given the political sensitivity with gambling, was not on that prospect but on the spirit of cooperation which allowed the development of Conghua to proceed. But the question ever remains - what next?

Engelbrecht-Bresges emphasised the cooperative effort. "The hard work and vision of many people in the Central Government, Guangdong, Guangzhou, Shenzhen and Hong Kong over the last decade has helped build something unique in the world of equine sport," he said.

Dr Anthony Chow, chairman of the HKJC, spoke of 'the excellent cooperation between authorities at every level' while Mrs Carrie Lam, chief executive of the Hong Kong SAR, said: "Working cooperatively, employing our respective strengths, we have created an excellent model for what can be accomplished with the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao-Greater Bay Area development."

The race meeting - which had no betting and was conducted with a heavy security presence - was branded as marking 'the era of world class racing in Greater Bay', which strongly hints that the Jockey Club did not view it as a once-only event.

Conghua Timeline:

- December 2009: HKJC signs MoU to support Asian Games Equestrian Events.
- November 2011: Site development works commence at Conghua.
- September 2015: Works permit obtained for main site construction.
- March 2016: First trial of cross-boundary movement of horses between 2016 Hong Kong and the Chinese mainland completed successfully.
- May 2017: Conghua turf track installation completed.
- July 2017: Large and small all-weather dirt track installation completed.
- December 2017: International experts visit Conghua Racecourse as part of the International Conference on the Equine Disease Free Zone. Hong Kong SAR and Chinese mainland authorities sign agreements reinforcing policies and procedures for the only large-scale equine disease-free zone in the Chinese mainland.
- February 2018: European Commission reaffirms high-health status of racehorses in equine disease-free zone at Conghua.
- June 2018: Dual-site operations between Hong Kong and the Chinese mainland commence with the arrival of the first horses at Conghua Racecourse.
- August 2018: First barrier trials conducted at Conghua.
- September 2018: Danny Shum Chap-shing created history at Happy Valley when Most Beautiful became the first Conghua-trained horse to win in Hong Kong.

The capacity of horses in training at Conghua will increase from the current 214 to more than 300 next year, which will allow an increase in the overall horse population that would, in turn, make more racing at Conghua viable.

"The more horses we have the more we can do. We're building the horse population and next year we'll have 1320 to 1340 horses, up from 1260 now," Engelbrecht-Bresges said.

Engelbrecht-Bresges said that yesterday's meeting was a 'platform from which we can expand.'

The HKJC sees Conghua as the hub of a centre of excellence in equine sports and the track itself is undoubtedly world-class (bar lacking a grandstand at this stage) but yesterday's event was exactly as it was tagged - an exhibition raceday.

A crowd of approximately 3500, the majority from within the province, watched the five races and participated in a number of games and activities which gave the raceday something of a carnival feel. The activities booths were manned by local university students, most of whom had English as their primary course of study - in line with the Club's policy of employing and educating people within the district.

It was a good-will exercise especially given the absence of form guides and betting which even applied to Hong Kong itself. Whether the next step is to race at Conghua with gambling permitted in Hong Kong, but not on-course or anywhere in the Mainland, remains to be seen.

It literally rained on the parade of the jockeys about 20 minutes before the first race, and the precipitation continued throughout that day, but despite the inclement conditions the track raced extremely well with rails-huggers and wide swoopers managing to win.

The track itself is a near replica of the Club's Sha Tin racecourse and drew positive reviews from trainers and jockeys after five races were conducted under exactly the same rules and conditions of any HKJC betting with the exception of no betting. "The weather wasn't so good but the track was superb," said Chad Schofield.

Today's event ran smoothly after detailed preparations, which included a cross-departmental dress rehearsal with five barrier trials held on 23 February with the participation of 32 horses and ten jockeys.

The Conghua Racecourse is about one hours drive north east of Guangzhou and is located within an already well-established tourism district with natural hot springs and accompanying resorts the chief attraction.

The racecourse and training centre includes 20 spelling paddocks (something not, of course, available in Hong Kong) plus a

Conghua

1000-metre uphill gallop with a gradual 1.54 degree rise.

About 200 horses are now trained at Conghua but the eventual capacity will be 1400 horses. Approximately 1200 horses are housed at Sha Tin.

"This is the greatest capital investment undertaken by the Club since the building of Sha Tin and it will ensure the growth of Hong Kong racing and allow us to refurbish the stables at Sha Tin," Engelbrecht-Bresges said in the lead-up to the meeting.

Since the late 1970s, Hong Kong's horses have been stabled and trained exclusively at Sha Tin Racecourse. To supplement these facilities, the Hong Kong Jockey Club had long sought additional land in Hong Kong where land is at a premium and eventually opted to develop settled the site in Conghua where it designed and built the equestrian venue for the Guangzhou 2010 Asian Games.

The 150-hectares site can house more than 660 active, in-training horses at its current stable capacity and many have already travelled between Sha Tin and Conghua, in specially-designed floats and under strict bio-security protocols, and been winners in Hong Kong.

Conghua is approximately 200 kilometres from Hong Kong and the journey from Sha Tin Racecourse to Conghua Racecourse is about three hours by car and four hours by specially-designed, cross-boundary horse floats.

March 2019: First race meeting held at Conghua.

HKJC Timeline:

- 1846: Racing was first conducted at Happy Valley.
- 1884: The Hong Kong Jockey Club was founded.
- 1970's: Racing becomes professional (71); Apprentice Jockey School opens (72); Night Racing begins (73); First off-course betting branches opened and telephone betting introduced (74).
- 1978: Sha Tin racecourse opens.
- 1988: Hong Kong's first international race is conducted - the Hong Kong Invitation Cup.
- 1999: The Hong Kong Jockey Club stages its first International Group 1 race.
- 2018: Conghua Racecourse, the Club's state-of-the-art horse training centre in Guandong, opens.

Analysis: The Autumn Sun continued his unbeaten run in three starts this preparation in stepping up to 2000m for the first time in taking out this Group 1 feature, his fifth win at the elite level from nine starts to date. He settled in sixth place, improved (deep) nearing the 600m, went to third (under riding) at the home turn, got to a narrow lead at the 300m but had to then dig deep, fighting gamely to score by a head. New Zealand colt Arrogant raced in second place, overtook the leader (Crown Prosecutor) and went to the front at the home turn and then fought back strongly for a very good (head) second at his Australian debut. His Mike Moroney-trained stablemate Chapada raced in sixth place (on the rails) was shuffled back nearing the home turn, got a split at the 200m and then kept making good ground for third in a promising effort at his third run this preparation. New Zealand-trained Surely Sacred raced back in ninth place, went deep rounding the home turn and then finished on quite well for (5.5 lengths) fourth at his first start in Australia.

Analysis: Champion Winx took her incredible winning streak to 32 in taking out her fourth successive George Ryder Stakes here - her 24th Group 1 win and her 36th win in 42 starts. She settled in second last place in the eight-horse field, improved (wide) approaching the 600m, fanned deep at the home turn, took the lead at the 200m and then drew away to score decisively by three and half lengths. Team Hawkes-trained three-year-old Brutal settled in second place, moved up nearing the home turn, challenged strongly at the 300m and then fought really well for a very good second at only his sixth race start. Dreamforce went to the front, set a reasonable tempo, lifted the pace from the 600m and then kept battling on well for third.

Analysis: Talented Godolphin-raced stayer Avilius is now the winner of three of his four starts this preparation after taking out his first Group 1 here, his ninth win from 17 starts. He was ridden patiently by Kerrin McEvoy, settling back in tenth place, tracking a good tempo. He improved (wide with cover) at the 600m, went to fifth at the 300m, continued his bid to hit the front at the 100m before going on to score impressively. The British-trained entire He's Eminent went to the front, picked up the pace from the 1000m, turned for home with a clear advantage and was only headed at the 100m, then fighting back well for second after running a bold race at this first start in Australia. New Zealand mare Danzdanzdance raced in eighth place, on the rails, improved on the inner rounding the home turn, went to a challenging position at the 200m and then kept fighting well for third in a good performance also at her first Australian start. Unforgotten worked wide early on from her difficult barrier (13), settled in fourth place and then fought on to retain that position (beaten 6 lengths) in a sound effort after her early exertions, while Nettoyer ran on nicely from well back in the field for (6.2 lengths) fifth.

Analysis: Godolphin-raced filly Kiamichi followed up her good win in the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) here last Saturday with another bold performance, again showing her talent on heavy tracks. She was smartly away from her wide barrier (14) but worked hard in the early stages before crossing to the lead at the 700m. She got a break at the home turn and then fought back gamely for a very good win, her third win in five starts. Her stablemate Microphone had a nice trip in eighth place on the rails from his inside barrier (1), got through on the inner at the home turn, went to second at the 200m and kept battling well to hold that position, beaten a length. Another Godolphin runner Lyre did very well in running third. She settled back in 13th place, switched deep at the 300m and then ran on in very good style to take the minor placing at her first start since winning the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on February 23. Loving Gaby was wide early on from barrier 12, settled in eighth place (but wide). She put in a run on straightening and kept finishing well for (1.8 lengths) in a really smart effort at only her third start. Time To Reign raced in tenth place, improved between runners at the home turn and kept battling on quite well for (3.8 lengths) fifth. Anaheed led in the early stages before settling in second place and then held on nicely for (4 lengths) sixth. Yes Yes Yes did well in running on late, wide out, from a clear last for (5.5 lengths) seventh after starting from the outside barrier (16), while the favourite Cosmic Force had a good trip in sixth place on the rails but just battled on in the straight for (6.3 lengths) eighth.

Analysis: Having his third start for new trainer Chris Waller, Nature Strip broke through for his first Group 1 victory here, his tenth win from 15 starts. He began well from barrier 9 and with the early pace not over-quick, James McDonald soon took him to the lead. He then set a good tempo, got a clear break on straightening and although tiring in the closing stages, he held on to score by the barest of margins. Pierata raced back in eighth place until into the home straight and then ran on strongly to fail by a nose for second in a really smart effort at his second run back. Easy Eddie raced in sixth place, one off the rails, moved up well (wide) at the home turn, went to second at the 200m and then battled on really well, advancing in class here. Encryption was back in tenth place at the home turn and made good ground for (2.7 lengths) fourth, while the favoured pair Redzel weakened from fourth at the home turn under his top weight (59.5kg) for (6.4 lengths) eighth and the three-year-old Graff tired from fifth at the home turn to finish (8.5 lengths) last in the heavy 8 conditions.

Analysis: With a well-timed run, favourite Volpe Veloce took over inside the 150m and held them at bay thereafter for win 12 (seventh stakes) from 24 career starts. She settled fourth last (one out) from the 1400m remaining there to the 800m before moving forward (three wide) approaching the last corner. Accelerating quickly turning in she gave the leaders about three lengths before ranging up to co-lead inside the 150m, then edged clear to be a half-length in front at the post. Watch This Space sat midfield (rails) from the 800m, had nowhere to go turning in and was denied any run until very late, thrusting through one off the fence to grab an unlucky second. Also unlucky was True Enough who was well back at the 500m and had to weave in and out down the straight, finishing well to nab third right on the line. Endless Drama took over the lead at the 200m, was caught soon after then battled well only to lose third in the last stride.

Betting: $5.50, $4.50, $16.00.

Then followed: Sweet Scandal (AUS), Serene Miss (AUS), Miss Que (AUS), Into The Abyss (AUS), Perizada (AUS), She Knows (AUS), Magic Alibi (AUS) & In Good Time (AUS), last.

Analysis: New Zealand Group 1-winning filly Avantage staged an impressive effort in scoring here at her Australian debut. Having her first run for six months, she soon went to the front, fought back gamely when challenged hotly in the straight, showing her class over the latter stages to win well, her seventh win from eight starts. The favourite Resin was sixth early from her outside barrier (11) before settling in third place, but caught three deep. She challenged strongly at the 300m and then battled gamely for a good second, her barrier proving costly. Star Reflection raced in eighth place, improved (wide) on turning for home and kept running on well for third. Sweet Scandal raced outside the leader and eventual winner, challenged on straightening before fighting on quite well for (2.8 lengths) fourth.

Then followed: One Foot In Heaven (IRE), Doukhan (IRE), Jaameh (IRE), Casterton (IRE), Big Blue (GB), Etymology (AUS), Rodrico (AUS), Vin De Dance (NZ) & Zacada (NZ), last.

Analysis: British-bred gelding Midterm staged a strong-staying effort in taking out this Group 3 race in impressive fashion, his first win in seven starts since coming to Australia. He travelled well outside the leader (Big Blue), put pressure on that runner and took a clear advantage rounding the home turn and was not seriously threatened from that point to score comfortably by two lengths. Big Duke settled in eighth place, improved between runners at the home turn, went to third at the 200m and kept battling well under his 58kg for second in a solid effort. The favourite Shraaoh had a nice trip in fifth place, on the rails, got through to be in a challenging position at the 300m and kept battling well for third. One Foot In Heaven raced at the tail of the 12-horse field until he improved between runners on turning for home and then kept running on for (3.2 lengths) fourth in an honest effort at his third run back.

Analysis: Coming off a stakes-placed second on debut here two weeks ago, Rio Del Mar graduated to stakes winner with a determined win here. From barrier eight she moved towards the fence soon after the start to settle fifth, one off the fence. She sat in behind the leading trio approaching the straight but needed a run near the 200m. With the narrowest of gaps she squeezed through, co-led at the 100m then grabbed the lead alone but did not have much to spare at the line, holding on well by a half head. Prim And Proper was locked away on the fence in sixth prior to straightening, got the split on the inner at the 200m and gave the winner a really good fight to the line. Miss West Coast was third (rails) turning in, co-led at the 200m and the 100m then fought hard for her third from Amelia's On Fire, who was one of the co-leaders at the 200m then held on for fourth.

Analysis: Residential led soon after the start and did all the work before recording her ninth win. She was not first away but jockey Robert Hannam pushed her through one off the fence to take over inside the 1400m. From the 1200m she was a length and half clear and going comfortably, stretching out by a further length passing the 800m. Hannam gave her breather soon after but starting the long run in she scooted clear again. From the 300m she kept finding, was getting a little tired over the final 100m but still had a half-length up her sleeve at the line. Zabab was third (rails) past the 800m, dropped back to sixth nearing the home straight, found a split three out at the 400m then ran home well, getting up for second at the post. Favourite Contessa Vanessa moved up to second turning in, looked the biggest danger but battled down the straight, losing second just short of the line. The first three were clear of Zentessa who had been well back before flashing home late for fourth.

Analysis: The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained mare Semari took her record to six wins from 11 starts in stepping up in class for her first stakes win here. She settled in seventh place, one off the rails, improved nicely (deep) nearing the home turn, challenged at the 200m and fought too well to score by a half-length. I'm A Princess had a good trip from her inside barrier (1) racing in third place, on the rails. She got a split to challenge at the 200m and then battled on well under 56kg for second after appearing to have had every chance. All Too Soon raced in seventh place (on the rails), switched across heels at the 200m and made late ground for third in a sound effort at her third run back. Godolphin's Harmattan was a handy fourth to the home turn, looked a threat when she challenged at the 200m and then battled on quite well for fourth, beaten two lengths.

Analysis: Mick Price-trained filly Krone, who was having her second run this preparation and her first start in Sydney, scored a good win here. She settled nicely for Damien Oliver back in eighth place, on the rails, tracking a good pace. She improved well along the inner in the straight, challenged at the 100m and finished best to win well. Team Hawkes-trained gelding Wild Planet got through from his inside barrier (1) to be one of a trio of leaders (racing on the rails). He held a narrow lead at the 300m and then kept fighting gamely for a very good second in a smart first-up effort. The favourite Classique Legend began well from his outside barrier (8) but was then caught three wide, sharing the lead. He challenged on straightening and battled very gamely for third after a difficult trip, his first defeat in three starts.

Analysis: In an exciting finish, Beethoven held on for a gritty maiden stakes win and took his record to two wins in four starts. He led briefly after a smart beginning, sat second then had to settle for a handy third, one off the fence. At the 500m he took over second and turning in was ready to pounce yet took until the 200m to level up and put his head in front. While never headed after that he had a terrific battle all the way to the line, game to the end by a half-head. Jericho Missile led soon after the start and carted them along around the corner and into the straight. When tackled by the winner he refused to lie down and fought bravely, stride for stride, right to the line. Divide The Sea turned in fourth, challenged three wide from the top of the straight and kept going quite well for third from Dig Deep, who was doing his best work late finishing on fairly for fourth.

Analysis: Favourite and top-weight Achernar Star made it back-to-back stakes and career wins, his sixth from 18 starts, and he would have been most unlucky not to win. He was away in second then took up a lovely trail in third (rails), a position he held past the 800m to the 500m from where he was pocketed well into the straight. He pulled three wide at the 200m, took a few strides to steady before edging out to a deserved and hardy half-length win. Variation sat one out in sixth at the 500m, pulled four wide into the straight and kept up a strong run to the line for second. Tellem We're Comin was last turning in and wide out ran home very well to grab third in a photo with Mizlicki, who came out of the pack between runners for fourth.

Analysis: Ultra versatile and widely travelled Self Sense made it two Cup wins in six days, while he has three wins over hurdles to his name and with this, his 15th win (third stakes), is now exempt from the ballot for the Caulfield Cup (Gr.1, 2400m). He sat sixth (one out) with more than a circuit to run, seventh around the far turn starting the back straight and held that spot in the clear past the 1200m. With four behind him at the 800m he improved steadily to sit four wide but handy just before straightening before catching the leader at the top of the straight. He led by a length at the 100m then held on gamely by a short head at the line and subsequently survived a protest from the runner-up. Tarquin was sixth at the 800m, moved up three wide to be third before straightening, went after the winner in the straight and was taking ground off him but too late. Top weight Trap For Fools led them in and fought strongly to the line for third from Stars Of Carrum, who flashed into fourth right on the line.

Analysis: With six chances across the track at the 100m, Tyzone got up in the last stride for win 15 and his maiden stakes win from 28 career starts. He settled back of midfield (one out) and gradually improved to be in behind the leading bunch just prior to straightening. Into the straight he had to wait to pull wider, was one of six leaders across the track at the 100m then thrust his head out right on the line to get the nod by a head. Malvern Estate sat fourth, one out from the 500m, third turning in and co-led at the 100m. He looked like he was doing best but was nipped right at the post. Freddie Fox Trot was third (rails) turning in, hugged the rails down the straight and co-led at the 100m but was outgunned yet only another head back in third. Manaya was also one of the six chances at the 100m but was out-finished but a close up fourth.

Analysis: Following two hard-fought stakes placings at his previous two starts, honest Streets Of Avalon was rewarded with his maiden stakes win and fifth career victory with another solid effort here. He was third into stride and moved up to sit second, just outside the pace a length back in second soon after. Near the last corner he ranged alongside to co-lead, still co-led at the 200m, pulled his way into a clear lead at the 100m and had no trouble holding on by a length at the post. Bons Away, who was among the last four before straightening, finished super and when he saw space at the 150m flew hard through the last 50m to grab a clear second. Snitzkraft sat third turning in and kept on solidly for third from Glenall, who finished quite well along the fence for fourth.

VERDICT She must give weight away all around, but it's difficult to get away from YULONG GOLD FAIRY, who could well prove to strong for these rivals on ground which shouldn't pose a problem to her. If Rionach is fit enough after 189 days off it wouldn't be a shock to see her on the premises, while Drombeg Dream will relish any rainfall as a soft ground specialist. [Mark Boylan]

VERDICT Top-weight FLYING NOBLE has become rather unreliable but he got the job done in good style over C&D last month and remains on a workable mark if in the right mood again. He gets the nod ahead of Triumphant Light, who disappointed when last in action but has the services of Zac Purton once again. The Sylph, Royal Prerogative and Adonis are others to consider.

VERDICT Sunshine Universe looked in superb form when winning twice over C&D last month, while newcomer Voyage Warrior has been very impressive in recent trials and is nicely drawn against the nearside rail for today's official debut. However, preference is for JOYFUL HEART, who made the ideal start to his career when winning over C&D three weeks ago.

VERDICT M Reborn came good in his last two starts ago and backed up his winning performance with a good effort in defeat last month but the one to beat is probably NATURAL FLARE, who ran well over 7f in first-time blinkers when last in action and can exploit his inside draw under Zac Purton. Cases can also be made for last-time-out winners Massive Move and Richcity Fortune.

VERDICT Tom's Dragon has been shaping very much as though his turn might be near and, with Joao Moreira back on board, is afforded significant respect. However, another chance is given to PRINCE OF GEMS, who let odds-on backers down on his second start but retains huge potential to progress from his convincing debut success. C&D specialist Hearts Keeper is next on the list.

VERDICT This might go to well-drawn 3yo GOLDEN MISSION, who was third over C&D this month and, after only three starts, could easily have a lot more to offer. Win Win was slightly disappointing when last in action but remains unexposed and is a big danger if judged on his penultimate run. Band Of Brothers and Dor Dor are others to consider.

VERDICT Despite figures of 0-13 in Hong Kong the drop to this grade looks to be the making of SEVEN HEAVENS and he can build on the and he has claims on just his third start while Goko is very well handicapped and should be competitive off this mark.

VERDICT Plenty of respect for Right Choice who hasn't really put a foot wrong in Hong Kong after five starts and he should be competitive despite the rise in grade but the vote goes to TIME TO CELEBRATE who turned his latest start into a procession and looks capable of building on that despite the new mark. Dances With Dragon looks to be on the improve and he should have a role to play dropping back to 1m.

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Honest Way, 9-2 Flying Thunder, Lone Eagle, 6 Smart Leader, 14 Best Alliance, Fantastic Fabio, Home Run I, 20 Bar.

VERDICT With a good draw to work from, FLYING THUNDER who should still have improvement to come after just three starts is taken to build on his pleasing display over C&D this month. Honest Way has run two sound races over C&D recently and he should be in the mix and Lone Eagle could yet show more but has a wide draw to overcome.
