Fascinating Australia Stakes set to shed light on future plans

Key players reappear ahead of autumn targets in tonight's Group 2 feature at The Valley

Hey Doc

SPORTPIX

BY STEVE MORAN | @ANZ_NEWS

A midweek Moonee Valley deluge will not dampen enthusiasm for tonight's Australia Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), which is the most interesting edition of the race since Black Caviar (Bel Esprit) won it in 2012.

The return of Hey Doc (Duporth), Begood Toya Mother (Myboycharlie) and Microphone (Exceed And Excel) in particular highlight the depth of this autumn make-or-break preliminary, which is likely to be run on a Good 4 surface despite more than 20 millimetres of rain hitting the track on Wednesday night. Continued on page 2>>

The proven ones: established stallions set to light up Karaka

A more compact three days (as opposed to four in 2019), plus an 11am day one start time (as opposed to 3pm), awaits the thoroughbred industry for New Zealand Bloodstock's 94th National Yearling Sales which gets underway at Karaka on Sunday. The more modern Book 1, 2 and 3 format, instituted in 2018 to replace the Premier, Select and Festival format, involves six successive and solid days with more than 1200 lots up for grabs. Sales Preview page 12>>

Hey Doc's proposed Dubai campaign; Begood Toya Mother's mooted weight-for-age itinerary and Microphone's immediate programme will hinge on their performances in the first Group 2 sprint of the new year.

The Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained Hey Doc has not appeared since winning the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on November 30, which was just his second run in 14 months after surgery to remove bone chips. However, Tony McEvoy believes the gelding is as close to ready as he can be following the let-up.

"Two months between runs with a big, heavy horse like him, it's very hard to keep him right up to the mark so he hasn't been screwed down tight for this but he's pretty close. He'll be there to win," McEvoy said.

A strong performance in the Australia Stakes will see Hey Doc progress to the CF Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield on February 8 before the trek to Dubai for the $US2 million Al Quoz Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) - won by Ortensia (Testa Rossa) in 2012 and Buffering (Mossman) in 2016 - at Meydan on Dubai World Cup night (March 28).

"Dubai is definitely on the cards. It's been on the table for some time and while it's a little way off we're excited about going there," McEvoy said.

Hey Doc and stablemate Manuel (Commands), who also resumes tonight, galloped on Monday at Moonee Valley, as did Godolphin's Microphone and the Danny O'Brien-trained Embrace Me (Shamexpress), who is the lone mare in the race.

"He was great on Monday morning," McEvoy said of Hey Doc, who's won three of his four starts at Moonee Valley. "He was stimulated by being there again, he really likes the Valley and I was pleased with his work."

Hey Doc worked over 1000 metres in 1.05.05, running the last 400 metres in 23.94, which was marginally slower than Manuel's closing sectional of 23.87 in a 1.06.32 workout over the same distance.

"Manuel's a bit above himself but he galloped well Monday morning. This is the path we took him on when he won the Orr last year so he'll go on to the Orr and then the Futurity," McEvoy added.

Manuel was trapped three wide on the speed when seventh in last year's Australia Stakes before leading throughout in the Orr Stakes.

The Orr Sakes is also the likely next step for the emerging star Begood Toya Mother who scored a breakthrough elite-level win, with 52 kilograms under handicap conditions, in last spring's Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m).

"You'd hope he can make that jump to weight-for-age," said trainer Daniel Bowman. "He looks bigger and better this time in. He's improved physically and in his work and he's only had 13 starts so there is room for improvement you'd think."

The Warrnambool-based Bowman said he would have been happy to see more rain.

"If the track is soft I think he can win but on a Good 3 or a Good 4 horses like Hey Doc might be a bit sharp for him at 1200 metres," he said.

James Winks picks up the ride on Begood Toya Mother as regular rider Declan Bates only returned from a ten-week, injury enforced lay-off earlier this week.

"We just weren't sure on the timeline with Declan's recovery and had to lock a rider in. James is a really good jockey who's won seven Group 1s and he was more than happy to come and trial and gallop him," Bowman said.

The James Cummings-trained Microphone resumes after bypassing the Kensington Stakes (Listed, 1000m) last Saturday when disadvantaged by the weight conditions of that race. The ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner galloped over 1000 metres on Monday in 1.06.62 (last 400m in 24.59).

Microphone excelled during his juvenile season, winning four of his six starts including the Sires' Produce, in which he beat subsequent Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible). That followed his second in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) to stablemate Kiamichi (Sidestep).

Track specialist Embrace Me contests the race after one lead-in run and O'Brien says her liking for the course can see her be competitive.

"It (Moonee Valley) sets up well for her when the rail is true - she can be out the back early and then really be strong late. That's the way it should race on Friday night. She seems to really appreciate it (the surface)," O'Brien said.

The Anthony Freedman-trained Ringerdingding (Sebring) resumes and has finished powerfully to be placed on his only two previous starts at the course and distance.

"He's run well before over 1200 metres at the Valley and this will give us a guide on where we head with him," Freedman's racing manager Brad Taylor said.

The Lindsey Smith-trained Scales Of Justice (Not A Single Doubt), last spring's Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner, is the other key runner who resumes in tonight's race.

All gate takings from the night will be donated to the Victorian Bushfire Appeal and free entry is offered to all emergency services personnel.

High-priced colts set for debut

Co-trainer Peter Snowden is looking forward to seeing two colts who fetched a combined total of almost $4 million at the sales make their debuts in the opening race at Randwick tomorrow. Snowden and his son Paul will saddle up Mount Fuji (Snitzel), a $2.8 million Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale buy, and $900,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase Rulership (I Am Invincible). Rulership extended nicely to win his latest barrier trial, accounting for recent Canterbury winner Prague (Redoute's Choice), while Mount Fuji showed plenty of ability when he closed strongly for second on his only trial. "Mount Fuji has always worked really well but had an inclination to go very hard in his work," Snowden said. "We've worked a lot on that, getting him to settle, so my heart was in my mouth a bit seeing how he reacted at the trials and going away from home. He was beautiful before the trial, he jumped nice and quiet and relaxed very well." On track work, Snowden cannot separate the pair but he suspects Rulership might have a slight edge on Saturday given his extra trial experience. "He's probably bit more race savvy than Mount Fuji but in their work there's nothing between them," Snowden added.

O'Dea hoping for change of luck in Cup

Scallopini

PROVEN THOROUGHBREDS

Scallopini (Snitzel) looks to have been ideally placed by Steve O'Dea as the five-year-old attempts to make amends for a luckless run last time out when he lines up in tomorrow's Sunshine Coast Cup (Listed, 1400m). The gelding finished eighth in the Magic Millions Snippets (1200m) after being badly hampered when Champagne Cuddles (Not A Single Doubt) broke down. He drops in weight to 54.5 kilograms and will start from barrier five with conditions appearing favourable. "He has won three times at 1400 metres and missed a place only once at the distance. He is also unbeaten in three starts on soft tracks," O'Dea said.

Cummings optimistic about outsider Fayerra

Anthony Cummings believes Fayerra (Valentia) can outrun her odds when she takes on a smart field of youngsters in tomorrow's $2 million Inglis Millennium In 14 Days Handicap (1000m). The filly is also entered for a 1200-metre race at Newcastle but Cummings is favouring Randwick as a better stepping stone into the Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) at Warwick Farm early next month. "There is no doubt she will be better at 1200 but when I do that, I'd prefer to be in a $2 million race in a couple of weeks," Cummings said. Fayerra got going late to finish fourth in a 1000-metre Gosford maiden on debut and has shown ability at home. She is the outsider of the field at $71 but Cummings is unperturbed by the price. "Her work since has been sharp and she's well within herself so I think we go there with some expectation," he added.

Boom Spender makes winning debut

Desleigh Forster's decision to run Boom Spender (Spirit Of Boom) at Doomben yesterday as opposed to letting the gelding take his chance in tomorrow's Sunshine Coast Classic (1200m) reaped dividends when he made as successful debut. "It has been very hot and while I think he would have been up to Saturday's race this was better for his first start," Forster said. "It is five minutes from home to Doomben and it can be two hours to Caloundra." Boom Spender bounced to the lead and beat Tramonto (Wandjina) by a head in the QTIS Two-Year-Old Handicap (1200m). "He won a jump-out leading and he led again today," Forster continued. "But I think he will be better when he can settle in his races." Boom Spender is likely to chase the $500,000 QTIS Jewel (1200m) at the Gold Coast in March.

Happy Clapper pleases in barrier trial

Happy Clapper

Three-time Group 1 winner Happy Clapper (Teofilo) is on course for a return in next month's Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) after finishing fourth in a barrier trial at Randwick yesterday. Happy Clapper worked to the line in the 900 metre-heat on the course proper, pleasing trainer Pat Webster with his effort and his recovery. "Happy Clapper will have another trial over 1200 metres on February 6 and then go to the Apollo nine days later," Webster said. "He will have a much harder trial and that should have him right for the Apollo. He only had about three weeks spelling but it is still good to see he is enjoying it. It's exciting to think he is coming back."

Winx's Snitzel sister unlikely to race

Superstar mare Winx's (Street Cry) three-year-old half-sister Courchevel (Snitzel) is unlikely to make it to the racetrack, breeder John Camilleri has announced. Racing.com reports that Courchevel has left the Melbourne stables of Ciaran Maher and David Eustace and is now in Sydney where she will be re-assessed. If she fails to make it onto the racetrack, Courchevel will become the fourth foal out of Vegas Showgirl (Al Akbar) unable to race, following Miss Atom Bomb (Encosta De Lago), Win Win Leader (Fastnet Rock) and Boulder City (Snitzel). Boulder City has, however, forged a career as a stallion. He stands at Riverbank Farm near Benalla, where he served 90 mares at a fee of $5,500 during his first season and a further 60 mares at the same fee last season.

Williams and Oliver to head metro team

Craig Williams and Damien Oliver will head a team of metropolitan jockeys competing against a country side at a twilight meeting at Flemington.

The meeting on February 9 will feature two teams of seven with all races on the straight course. The Victoria Racing Club has dubbed the Sunday meeting "Rapid Racing" with the seven events run at 30 minute intervals. Along with Williams and Oliver, the metropolitan team comprises Dwayne Dunn, Ben Melham, Linda Meech, Mark Zahra and Luke Currie. Harry Coffey, Jye McNeil, Daniel Stackhouse, Damien Thornton, Jarrod Fry, Dean Holland, and Jason Maskiell form the country team. The first four placegetters in each race will receive points with double points on offer in the final race. All gate takings on the day will be donated to the Bushfire Disaster Appeal.

Nine Sydney races rank in world's top 100

The Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) remains the highest-rated race in Australia and equal sixth best in the world following the latest rankings at the World's Best Race and Racehorse awards. The Queen Elizabeth was among nine Sydney races ranked in the world's top 100 at the international awards ceremony. Also making the cut was the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m), George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m), George Main Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). Australian Turf Club general manager of racing, wagering and international James Ross said the ratings showed Australian racing was strong. "These international race ratings continue to demonstrate the great strength and depth of Sydney's world-class racing across a range of distances," Ross said.

Ballarat meeting switched to Warrnambool

Ballarat's meeting scheduled to take place on February 4 has been transferred to Warrnambool as the club's turf continues to recover from its track renovation. The track underwent renovation after the Ballarat Cup meeting in November, with drainage works including sand slitting and sand bagging completed. However, some sections have yet to meet expectations, leading Racing Victoria and Ballarat Turf Club to announce the switch. The Benchmark 58 handicap will now be run over 1600 metres (from 1700m). All other race distances will remain unchanged.

NEW ZEALAND

Bosson hungry for further Karaka success

Opie Bosson will seek a fourth consecutive success in the Karaka Million 2YO (RL, 1200m) when he partners last-start Tauranga winner Cool Aza Beel (Savabeel) at Ellerslie tomorrow. The leading rider also holds a strong hand in the Karaka Million 3YO Classic (RL, 1600m) courtesy of Probabeel (Savabeel), who landed the $1 million juvenile contest last year, following in the footsteps of fellow Te Akau Racing-owned stars Advantage (Fastnet Rock) and Melody Belle (Commands). "He's come through his Tauranga win really well. He looks outstanding," Bosson said of Cool Aza Beel. "He was quite impressive there - he gave me a really good feel. I liked the way he relaxed and the last 600 metres of his race were top-notch." Regarding Probabeel, who won an Awapuni handicap on January 4, Bosson added: "It was a very good run and there was heaps of improvement in her. I galloped her on Monday at Ellerslie and her work was pretty good. She's not a great track-worker because she's so laid back, but she's going well. She looks good and feels good and she'll be a good chance again."

Levante on trial for bigger things

The Ken and Bev Kelso-trained Levante (Proisir) will put her unbeaten record on the line and test the water for a tilt at stakes company when she lines up over 1400 metres at Te Aroha today. The three-year-old has been highly impressive in her two victories so far, producing scintillating finishes from the back of the field to win at Matamata on December 6 and again on December 28. "She's been pretty impressive in both starts so far and has shown a lot of ability," Ken Kelso said. "We're very happy with her heading into this race. Her work has been very good, she's eating well and continuing to thrive. We thought about running her in the Mr Tiz Trophy at Ellerslie on Saturday, but decided to take a softer option this week. It should be a nice race for her." Looking ahead, Kelso added: "If she runs well again we'll look at stepping up to black-type level for her next start. That will probably be in the Mufhasa Stakes at Ellerslie on February 29. We're taking things one race at a time with her, but that's the plan we've got in the back of our minds at this stage."

ASIA

Lys Gracieux rises to fifth in the world

Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Lys Gracieux (Heart's Cry), who retired following her fourth top-tier victory in the Arima Kinen (Gr 1, 2500m) on December 22, was on Wednesday rated equal fifth at the annual publication of the Longines World's Best Racehorse Rankings. The six-year-old, who quickened a length and a half clear of Castelvécchio (Dundeel) and Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) when winning at The Valley in October, was rated 126, two pounds below the figure awarded to the joint top-rated trio of Crystal Ocean (Sea The Stars), Enable (Nathaniel) and Waldgeist (Galileo). Lys Gracieux shot up the rankings table from her position of equal 22nd last year, while compatriot Glory Vase (Deep Impact) - who landed last month's Hong Kong Vase (Gr 1, 2400m) - was rated 125, putting him equal ninth with Benbatl (Dubawi) and the all-conquering Winx (Street Cry).

INTERNATIONAL

Big Blue set for Irish date

Co-trainer Ciaran Maher has issued a positive bulletin on his jumping flagbearer Big Blue (Galileo) as he prepares for his second European assignment in the Limestone Lad Hurdle (Gr 3, 2m) at Naas on Sunday. The son of Galileo (Sadler's Wells) was pulled-up in the Christmas Hurdle (Gr 1, 2m) at Kempton on Boxing Day, but Maher believes he has valid excuses for the performance. "He went in one of the slickest races that have been held this year and he got underneath a jump, three from home, and dragged his feet through it," Maher told Racing.com. "That took the wind out of his sails. We've gone back in grade, travelled over to Ireland and he's going nicely. He has schooled a couple of times over the past couple of weeks and seems to be in great order." Maher remains confident that Big Blue can make it to the Cheltenham Festival, with a number of options on the table. "I'm still optimistic that he can measure up in better races," Maher added. "I suppose he is relatively lightly-raced over jumps and some of those horses he was up against last start, they're top of the game."

Star-studded nominations for Dubai World Cup night

A total of 1,774 nominations have been received for the Dubai World Cup card, held at Meydan on March 28, which entails 902 horses trained in 21 countries. Australian interest includes inaugural All-Star Mile (1600m) winner Mystic Journey (Needs Further), who has been nominated for the Dubai Turf (Gr 1, 1800m), while Chris Waller has made an entry for the trailblazing Nature Strip (Nicconi) in the Al Quoz Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m). The Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained Sunlight (Zoustar) also holds an entry in the US$2 million contest, although connections have indicated she will be aimed at Royal Ascot later in the year. Cross Counter (Teofilo), who won the 2018 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) for Charlie Appleby, holds a nomination in the Dubai Gold Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). He won the race in 2019, beating stable companion and fellow nominee Ispolini (Dubawi), who was a late scratching from last year's Melbourne Cup. Click here to view the nominations.

Pharoah's owner Zayat in hot water

Owner and breeder Ahmed Zayat, who raced Triple Crown hero American Pharoah (Pioneerof The Nile) and retains a share in the now Ashford Stud-based stallion, has found himself in legal hot water having been accused of selling breeding shares that were being used for collateral on outstanding debts. As such, in an emergency hearing on Wednesday, Fayette county judge Kim Bunnell granted a motion ordering a receiver to seize control of Zayat Stables, including its horses. The decision was made after a New York investment group filed a lawsuit in Lexington this week seeking at least US$23 million from Zayat on the basis he had missold breeding shares in American Pharoah.

First foal arrives for world champion sprinter Harry Angel

Harry Angel (Dark Angel), the world champion sprinter who won the Haydock Sprint Cup (Gr 1, 6f) in record time, sired his first foal on Wednesday when Karijini (Siyouni) produced a healthy chestnut filly. "She's a very nice foal and very strong for a maiden mare," said Brightwalton Stud manager Sean Keane. "She's well put together, short-coupled and with good body and shoulder. I'm very happy with her." Karijini, who won three all-weather sprints for trainer Archie Watson, hails from the Colorspin (High Top) family of Meon Valley Stud. Harry Angel stands at Dalham Hall Stud at a fee of £20,000.

The proven ones: established stallions set to light up Karaka

BY LLOYD JACKSON

A more compact three days (as opposed to four in 2019), plus an 11am day one start time (as opposed to 3pm), awaits the thoroughbred industry for New Zealand Bloodstock's 94th National Yearling Sales which gets underway at Karaka on Sunday. The more modern Book 1, 2 and 3 format, instituted in 2018 to replace the Premier, Select and Festival format, involves six successive and solid days with more than 1200 lots up for grabs. >>

Bright and new, or tried and true?

If you were to purchase only one yearling out of Book 1, do you take a gamble on one of the bright and sparkly first season sires, or do you choose one by a proven sire?

This is an age-old dilemma and Karaka Book 1 doesn't make that choice any easier, although it does go some way to explaining why syndication has become necessary. One is simply not enough.

The new kids on the block typically give way to the "wait and see" formula and it is rare for a first season sire to top either the sales aggregates or averages. However, their representation this year is solid, with 25 sires (16 in 2019) making up 196 of the 677 lots, or 22 per cent of the catalogue.

Indeed, the 11 New Zealand-based first season sires (there were just four in 2019) account for 151 lots, headed by Tivaci (High Chaparral) with 40, Turn Me Loose (Iffraaj) (34), Vadamos (Monsun) (28), Tarzino (Tavistock) (20) and Belardo (Lope De Vega) (6).

Stud masters Russell Warwick (Westbury Stud), Mark Chitty (Haunui Farm) and Mark Chittick (Waikato Stud) should be, and likely are, very encouraged after a small number of yearlings by their new stallions - Tarzino, Belardo and Tivaci respectively - sold well at the recent Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

Nevertheless, as evidenced by the results achieved two weeks ago on the Gold Coast, Australia's established sires dominated proceedings quite conclusively. New Zealand's newest stallions appear to offer huge promise, but buyers largely look to tried and true.

Karaka

NZB

Savabeel - Waikato Stud

Rapidly approaching 100 individual stakes winners (96 currently) and prize-money that will surpass NZ$100 million this season, Waikato Stud's chief flagbearer Savabeel (Zabeel) continues to be the glue that holds the New Zealand breeding industry together.

For that reason, he will continue to dominate sales proceedings. Sheer numbers (73 lots catalogued) will certainly lead to him topping the aggregate, while those same numbers will make it difficult, but not impossible, for him to top the average.

His reputation and standing is fully justified having secured his fifth successive New Zealand sires premiership.

Over the last three months, Savabeel has sired Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m) winner The Chosen One, Bendigo Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) winner Top Of The Range, Tauranga Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) scorer Supera, Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) winner Yearn, Cal-Isuzu Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) winner The Real Beel, Manawatu Cup (Gr 3, 2300m) scorer Concert Hall, Rich Hill Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Prise De Fer and Showbeel, who last Saturday claimed the Desert Gold Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m). Those successes have ensured buyers will not be able to ignore his powerful presence.

Darci Brahma - The Oaks Stud

The Oaks Stud's Darci Brahma (Daneshill) has enjoyed a welcome recent resurgence. Underservedly underrated, he consistently ranks in the top three New Zealand sires year after year, but the current season has been a revelation.

His son Catalyst is a true star three-year-old and whose contempt for his opposition is something to behold. His dazzling wins have captured the hearts and minds of the racing public and he is one very exciting racehorse.

Backing up Catalyst is Harlech, an impressive winner of the James and Annie Sarten Memorial Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) immediately prior to a Darci Brahma quinella when finishing a valiant second to Catalyst in the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr.1, 1600m). Don't forget the filly, Kali, who took out the John Grigg Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) in mid-October.

Iffraaj - Haunui Farm

Iffraaj

HAUNUI FARM

It hardly seems to have been three years since two Derby-winning sons of Iffraaj (Zafonic), the brilliant Gingernuts and the tough Jon Snow, took the 2016-17 autumn three-year-old scene by storm, both in New Zealand and Australia.

As a result, Iffraaj's 2017 covering book was full of quality mares and Book 1 sees 41 lots on offer by this world-class sire.

His Wyndspelle, from the same crop as Gingernuts and Jon Snow and a former Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m) winner, was recently and justifiably rewarded with a maiden Group 1 success, taking out the prestigious Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham last month.

Iffraaj has sired 14 winners around the world in the last four weeks.

Ocean Park - Waikato Stud

Diametrically opposed to Iffraaj's current situation, and proof of just how difficult it is to predict sire popularity three years in advance, Savabeel's barnmate Ocean Park (Thorn Park) has a far smaller representation of nine lots, a severe drop on the 45 catalogued in this sale last year.

Ocean Park's stock has soared this season, with the huge earnings achieved by Kolding catapulting him to fifth in the Australian sires premiership. Backing up Kolding this past spring and early summer are Tofane, a dual Group 3 winner in Melbourne, as well as Oceanex and Pretty To Sea (the latter as recently as Boxing Day).

As was the case at November's Ready to Run 2YO Sale, the Ocean Parks will be in demand and with so few on offer, competition may be strong.

Per Incanto - Little Avondale Stud

The third-leading sire in New Zealand by earnings in 2018-19, and third in the current season, Per Incanto (Street Cry) keeps churning out winners and he leads the 2019-20 list by the metric of wins and winners. In the past four weeks he has sired 21 individual winners in Hong Kong, Singapore and Australia, as well as in New Zealand.

His Mauna Kea took out the recent Thompson Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) and Lightning Jack, the fast-finishing winner of the Gore Guineas (Listed, 1335m) last Saturday, became his 15th individual stakes winner.

Tavistock - Cambridge Stud

Cambridge Stud owners Brendan and Jo Lindsay, plus managers Henry Plumptre and Marcus Corban, are likely pleased to have waved goodbye to 2019. It was a shocker.

There is not one industry person who doesn't feel for them as losing three stallions in such a short space of time is unimaginably sad fortune, while losing Tavistock (Montjeu) is a major blow.

Perhaps one or more of his 42 colts (68 lots in total) will burn up the track then find a home back at Cambridge Stud and continue his legacy. Lot 86, the half-brother to champion mare Melody Belle (Commands), might be the one.

Reliable Man - Westbury Stud

Reliable Man (Dalakhani) is really hitting his straps. Westbury's under-the-radar sire can claim 25 stakes performers (14 female) including Miami Bound, the outstanding winner of last year's VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m).

She has been followed by 18 winners in the past four weeks, including Ellerslie Dunstan Feeds Championship (1500m) winner Master Painton, Caulfield winner Mr Dependable, Sydney winner Greenspan, Hong Kong winner Reliable Team and Romani Girl, who ran third in the lucrative $1 million Magic Million Fillies & Mares Plate (1300m) on Magic Millions raceday.

Sacred Falls - Waikato Stud

Sadly, Waikato Stud lost the services of Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) towards the end of last year's covering season. His first crop are just three-year-olds and it remains to be seen how much his loss can be measured in terms of sire success.

As is often the case, however, there is every possibility of a future star. All Saints' Eve, a three-year-old filly having her third start, won very nicely at Warwick Farm on January 15.

Sacred Falls' best form was as an autumn three-year-old, including his defeat of Pierro (Lonhro) in the Doncaster Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m), but it shouldn't be forgotten he was a top-tier winner at both four and five as well.

With 31 representatives in Book 1 plus two further crops, one of his sons could continue the legacy of multiple champion sire O'Reilly (Last Tycoon).

El Roca - Westbury Stud

Star three-year-old filly Travelling Light looks very exciting and has provided Westbury Stud with much to shout about as a daughter of their El Roca (Fastnet Rock).

In only six starts she has won five times, including taking out the Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) on January 11. A stakes winner on two further occasions, her only defeat came in the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). The way she dealt with the boys at Trentham signals a bright future.

The son of Fastnet Rock (Danehill) has just five lots catalogued in Book 1. Both the stud and the auctioneers are probably wishing there were a few more.

Charm Spirit - Windsor Park Stud

Similar to El Roca, Windsor Park Stud have much to be pleased about regarding Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit) with his son Scorpz in terrific form leading up to next month's New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), for which he is favourite. His back-to-back impressive recent stakes successes suggest the Derby is well within his scope.

Charm Spirit also has two very good fillies in excellent form, namely Lilikoi, the winner of the recent Eulogy Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), as well as Fascino, who won the Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley in October.

Charm Spirit

WINDSOR PARK STUD

Australia has its say

Australian-based sires account for a significant proportion of this year's Book 1, with 54 different sires represented (46 in 2019). Twelve are first season sires but among the remainder are the same sires that captured all the headlines at the recent Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, albeit in much smaller numbers here at Karaka.

Underlining this aspect of buyers' preferences, each of the 10 yearlings that fetched $1 million or more were by established sires, including three each by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) and Exceed And Excel (Danehill).

The top five by aggregate - I Am Invincible, Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice), Exceed And Excel and Sebring (More Than Ready) - accounted for $63 million, or 35 per cent of the sale gross. Four of the same five stallions were the leaders on average (three or more sold), with I Am Invincible topping that list with an amazing $482,000.

A notch below those listed, yet both effective and popular, are a host of established sires. This list is led by Pierro (Lonhro) with 10 lots followed by Dundee (High Chaparral) (6), Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock) (6), No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) (5) and Zoustar (Northern Meteor) (4). With one or two lots are Fastnet Rock, Written Tycoon (Last Tycoon), Deep Field (Northern Meteor), Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado) and Nicconi (Bianconi).

Crystal ball, anyone?

A reality of breeding is that matings must be planned well in advance of sales. Current yearlings are the result of decisions made in 2017 and, in the case of proven sires, based on race results of 2017.

Predicting future sire success is folly, otherwise how does one explain why Rip Van Winkle (Galileo), sire of New Zealand's second best horse, Te Akau Shark, has just three lots in Book 1?

In addition, Swiss Ace (Secret Savings), sire of quality sprinter and recent winner of the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) Julius, has just two.

Rip Van Winkle averaged 84 live foals his first four seasons at stud. In 2018 (the crop represented this year), he produced just 32 live foals. Meanwhile, Swiss Ace averaged 77 live foals his first seven seasons. In 2018, that number had dropped to 58. In addition, Ocean Park averaged 103 live foals his first four seasons, but just 62 in 2018.

Finally, look for Savabeel to preside over all others and Iffraaj to have a very good sale. Of the first season sires, Tivaci is expected to make a lot of noise, with a strong buzz detected around his offspring in the lead-up to the sale.

Cellsabeel shot to the head of the market for the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) with an impressive six-length success at Rosehill on Saturday.

Ciaron Maher

SPORTPIX

Having made a promising debut in the $1m Golden Gift over the same track and distance on November 9, the daughter of late Yarraman Park resident Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock) was equipped with blinkers for the first time in the nine-runner contest.

She was a touch slow to move and found herself one from the rear in the early stages, but she improved into fifth on the rails passing the 600-metre marker.

Tommy Berry eased her deeper and into clear running at the home turn and she sprinted well, taking the lead with 200 metres left to run before drawing away stylishly on the Heavy 8 track, looking a classy filly in the making.

Cellsabeel's success was another feather in the cap of training duo Ciaron Maher and David Eustace, whose two-year-old season continues to go from strength to strength, highlighted by Away Game's (Snitzel) victory in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m).

Cellsabeel is the TAB's $6 favourite for the Slipper and while she is already the highest-rated juvenile of the season so far, her pedigree augurs nicely for Group 1 assignments moving forward.

She is one of 11 named foals, 10 of whom have raced and seven of whom have won out of Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Our Egyptian Raine (Desert Sun), who was crowned New Zealand's champion older female sprinter in 2002-03. She was placed a further 10 times in top-tier company, including the Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) and the All-Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in 2004.

In turn, Cellsabeel is a half-sister to Egyptian Symbol (Stratum), a dual Group 3 winner who has earned over $1.5 million in prize-money, and Strathmore (Fastnet Rock), who was Group 1-placed in Hong Kong.

Our Egyptian Raine also has a yearling colt by Vinery Stud resident All Too Hard (Casino Prince) and produced a colt by his barnmate Headwater (Exceed And Excel) last year.

Meanwhile, the final crop of yearlings by Hinchinbrook are selling this year, with six youngsters by the late sire catalogued in the Book 1 session of the upcoming NZB National Yearling Sale at Karaka.

Classy Personal posts impressive sectionals at Flemington

BY KEN BOMAN | @ANZ_NEWS

The Coolmore-raced and Lindsay Park-trained filly Personal (Fastnet Rock) overcame difficulties to score impressively at Saturday's Flemington meeting, a performance endorsed by fast sectional times.

After beginning slowly on debut when second in a two-year-old fillies' maiden (1125m) at Geelong on January 2, Craig Williams rode her patiently in the two-year-old handicap (1100m) on Saturday and after being second last early on, she settled nicely between runners in fifth spot.

Personal was shuffled back to last in the seven-runner field at the 200-metre point before Williams was able to ease her deeper and into clear running.

Personal then showed a very good turn of foot, grabbing the lead nearing the post and winning by half a length with something in hand. The Mick Price and Michael Kent jnr-trained filly Parlophone (I Am Invincible) ran second, with Godolphin's Amateurish (Brazen Beau) a further long-head away third.

Personal's time for the 1100-metre journey was 1:05.64 (11.93 200m rate), but it was her sectional times that best demonstrated the merit of the performance.

Personal's 200-metre breakdown (from the 1000m) was: 11.29, 11.43 (400m in 22.72), 11.11 (600m in 33.83), 11.53 (800m in 45.36) with her final 200 metres in 11.50 to give her a quick final 1000-metre time of 56.86.

A $640,000 purchase at the 2019 Inglis

Australian Easter Yearling Sale, Personal looks set for a good career, while the runner-up Parlophone and the third-placed Amateurish are also lightly-raced fillies with the potential to progress to better things.

The feature at Flemington was the Kensington Stakes (Listed, 1000m) and while it was only a five-runner field it provided a keenly-contested affair, with the first four finishing less than a length apart.

Victory went to the consistent South Australian-trained sprinter Bold Star (Needs Further), who won by a nose from Causeway Girl (Shamus Award), with All Too Royal (All Too Hard) another half-head away in third and Time To Reign (Time For War) fourth.

The time for the journey was 58.99 but from a sectional perspective it was a race of extremes, with the first 400 metres being clocked in a pedestrian 26.92 (13.46 200m rate) while the final 600 metres was a very fast 32.07 (10.69 200m rate).

That tempo was set by the Gary Portelli-trained sprinter Time To Reign, who was having his first start since finishing fifth in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill last March, and jockey Damien Oliver clearly did not overtax the colt in the early stages.

The leading rider has demonstrated his excellent judgement of pace on countless occasions and his tactics almost paid off on Time To Reign's return as he was only overtaken in the closing stages.

Bold Star

GETTY IMAGES

The slow early pace resulted in fast closing sectionals, with the winner Bold Star clocking 31.89 (last 600m), 21.12 (last 400m) and 10.68 (last 200m); Causeway Girl clocking 31.69 (last 600m), 20.98 (last 400m) and 10.64 – the quickest of the race; and All Too Royal clocking 31.92 (last 600m), 21.18 (last 400m) and 10.73 for his final 200 metres.

At Saturday's Rosehill meeting, one of the highlights was the stunning victory of the the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained filly Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook) in the two-year-old handicap (1100m).

Having her second race start, Cellsabeel settled back in the field after a slow beginning, but she stamped her class over the final stages in racing away to score brilliantly by six lengths.

Racing in blinkers for the first time, Cellsabeel was clearly a class above her opposition and she is now the top-rated juvenile of the season so far as connections set her on a path towards the Golden Slipper at Rosehill on March 21.

Cellsabeel's come-from-behind racing style was suited by a fast mid-race tempo, which was set by the Gerald Ryan-trained colt Return With Honour (Fastnet Rock), who worked hard in the early stages to find the lead from a wide barrier.

Return With Honour clocked (from the 1000 metres) 22.45 (400m) 34.37 (600m) and 46.11 (800m) before that effort told in the rain affected conditions and he dropped out to finish seventh.

In coming from well back in the field, Cellsabeel returned impressive closing sectionals on the Heavy 8 track, with the talented filly running her last 1000 metres in

Time To Reign

57.87, last 800 metres in 46.82, last 600 metres in 35.31 and 23.59 for her final 400 metres.

Another juvenile to take the eye last weekend was Cellsabeel's stablemate Prague (Redoute's Choice), who impressed in taking out the two-year-old maiden handicap (1200m) at Friday night's Canterbury meeting.

A $1.6 million purchase at the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Prague settled nicely for Tommy Berry, tracking a good pace in third place on the rails before getting through to be in a challenging position on turning for home.

Prague got to the front halfway down the straight and then drew clear to score easily by two lengths from the front-running Easy Campese (Sidestep), with the Chris Waller-trained colt Spokesman (Press Statement) a further long-head away third. The time was 1:12.07 on the Soft 7 track.

There was a solid mid-race tempo set by the leader with the 600 metre section (from the 1000m to the 200m) clocked in 34.78, which played into the hands of Prague, who showed his potential to advance to better things in coming from off the pace to score comfortably at the post.

The final word this week goes to Tasmanian filly Still A Star (Toronado), who impressed On The Watch in the way she took out Saturday night's Launceston Guineas (Listed, 2100m), her fifth win - with five seconds - in 10 starts.

Despite working early on from a difficult barrier, she settled nicely in sixth place, easily took the lead on turning for home and then drew away for a very easy win. She ran the 2100 metres out strongly, clocking 2:10.86 for that distance and 48.56 for her last 800 metres.

The victory suggested that Still A Star could be the next Tasmanian-trained horse to travel across the Tasman and prove effective on the mainland.

Hewitson gets his Valley victory on Ferraris veteran

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Lyle Hewitson earned a long-awaited and deserved first Happy Valley win on Wednesday to help trainer David Ferraris continue his solid form this term, particularly with his stable's old-stagers.

The two-time South African champion jockey has had a stark introduction to Hong Kong racing, with his stats rolling into tonight's nine-race card reading one win from 174 rides – a win strike rate of 0.57 per cent.

But Hewitson has not buckled in the face of limited opportunities. After enduring a barren four months before sealing his breakthrough Hong Kong win at Sha Tin, the extra 24 days for his Valley follow-up must have seemed a breeze.

"It's probably a lot more exciting here at the Valley with the atmosphere," Hewitson said after driving the Ferraris-trained Kiram (Elusive City) to a neck verdict in the Class 3 Hung To Handicap (1650m).

"Without blowing my own trumpet, I feel I've been riding really well and getting positive results from limited opportunities. Obviously, when I get that little bit of a squeak I have to make the most of it."

David Ferraris

Ferraris was pleased for his 22-year-old countryman whose talent, he believes, deserves more success.

"It's lovely," the trainer said. "Lyle should have ridden a lot more winners, but as a client of mine said, this is a cruel place; and there's no reason why certain jockeys should be riding winners and he isn't, because he is, in my opinion, better than a lot of them riding here. But that's the way it goes."

Kiram's win was his second this season from only four outings, suggesting the nine-year-old French import is racing as well as he ever has. And it followed a success at Sha Tin on Sunday for Ferraris' eight-year-old Magnetism (Monsieur Bond), another two-time winner this term.

"Him and Magnetism, I love training these old boys," Ferraris said. "I take pride in keeping them sound and they're just wonderful old horses and I make sure they go to nice homes when it's time to retire."

"I told Lyle to lead because there didn't seem to be much pace on and this old horse is in great form, and I knew that if he kicked at the top of the straight with a lead they'd struggle to catch him."

Hewitson took the bull by the horns with 900 metres to race, allowing his mount to stride to the front; the 39/1 shot was determined in holding off runner-up Farshad (Kendargent).

"It was really nice to overcome a deep draw (10), there were a lot of things against the horse and he's pulled that off, so it's a win full of merit and one I think I can be pretty proud of," Hewitson said.

"Although this horse is probably at his best in Class 4, he had a light weight and with no speed in the race we adopted tactics that won him the race, so that's a feather in his cap."

Tony Piccone was also on the mark for the first time at the downtown track, partnering the Tony Millard-trained Sparkling Dragon (O'Reilly) to a three-quarters of a length score in section one of the Class 3 Hoi Yuen Handicap (1200m). The Frenchman, 22 days into his first Hong Kong contract, picked up his three previous wins at Sha Tin.

Ho helps Fownes end drought

Caspar Fownes ended a dry spell stretching back to December 18 with a double that owed plenty to the skill and confidence of jockey Vincent Ho.

"I'd forgotten what it's like," Fownes quipped after Ho had sealed the brace for his old boss aboard Shamport (Shamardal) – fresh off a spell at Conghua – in race three, the Class 4 Shing Yip Handicap (1200m).

"He's a horse that, truthfully speaking has been quite disappointing," Fownes admitted. "On his form in Australia he looked like he'd be at least an 80 or 80-plus horse in Hong Kong but he just never came up to what he looked like he was going to be.

"It was a lovely ride again by Vincent – it's wonderful to see my old apprentice ride some winners for me and ride with so much confidence. He got him in a beautiful position from the draw (gate seven), which was a bit tricky and did his job nicely in the end."

Ho kicked off the night with a sharp tactical move in the opener, the Class 5 Yue Man Handicap (2200m).

Joao Moreira

Shamport

HKJC

The rider had his mount Sky Gem (Niagara) at the tail after a slow start but the pedestrian pace up front prompted a rapid, field-skirting move to lead with 650 metres to race – the Fownes-trained four-year-old forged on to land a first win by two and three-quarter lengths.

"The horse had been racing quite well and dropping down in the ratings off some quite good runs," Fownes noted.

"I said to Vincent it looked a race devoid of speed and I said 'the horse is rock-hard fit so if the sectionals are slow down the back, you take off'. He rated him beautifully and it was a winning move."

Fownes and Ho were denied a rapid treble in race four, section two of the Class 4 Wai Yip Handicap (1650m). Ho had the lead halfway down the straight on the Fownes-trained Royal Racer (Dreamscape) but had to settle for second when Joao Moreira delivered the Frankie Lor-trained Flash Famous (Ilovethiscity) on a revving run to win by half a length.

Flash Famous was another winner off a Conghua prep, as was Very Sweet Orange (Exceed and Excel), who scraped home in the Class 4 Mut Wah Handicap (1000m) to move Alfred Chan to within one win of reducing his 10lb claim.

The apprentice set the pace on the Me Tsui-trained son of Exceed And Excel (Danehill), who put his nose down just at the right moment to hold on by a short-head and the same from the closing Dr Proactive (Denman) and Winner's Heart (Ambidexter).

Premiership leader Moreira made it a double and took his season's tally to 61 when the John Size-trained Dor Dor (Shamexpress) closed late off a rail run to nab runner-up Starlit Knight (Fath) and land section one of the Wai Yip Handicap (1650m).

Silvestre de Sousa and trainer Manfred Man teamed up to score with Compassion Star (Bullbars) in the Class 4 Shing Yip Handicap (1200m), the six-year-old's fourth win from 27 starts.

The night's finale, section two of the Class 3 Hoi Yuen Handicap (1200m), went to the Benno Yung-trained Hinchinlove (Hinchinbrook) who, under Derek Leung, notched his first Hong Kong win at the 18th attempt.

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin on Monday, January 27, with the first race set for 12pm.
