'Gator lands Guineas in milestone success for All Too Hard

Vinery Stud resident earns maiden Group 1 win as star three-year-olds fail to fire in Flemington feature avid Vandyke opted not to label yesterday's Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) a 'champion' despite a stirring victory, his tenth from just 11 starts, in Flemington's $1 million feature for three-year-olds.

However, the gelding - who became the first Group 1 winner for Vinery Stud stallion All Too Hard (Casino Prince) having been beaten a nose by Super Seth (Dundeel) in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) last October - is likely to get his chance to earn such a tag. An alternative career does not beckon, with owner Allan Endresz confirming the three-year-old's future lies in Australia, despite having received numerous overseas offers for his star turn. Continued on page 2>>

Blue Diamond winner Tagaloa to stand at Yulong

Yulong has won the race to secure Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa, who is by Japan's hottest young sire Lord Kanaloa (King Kamehameha), for stud duties just a week after the two-year-old's breakthrough juvenile stakes victory.

It was the second major stallion coup for the Yuesheng Zhang-owned breeding and racing empire after it emerged earlier last week that the organisation had purchased a controlling interest in CF Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m)-winning three-year-old Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice).

<< Continued from page 1 An on-going local racing future is also likely to await the Bob Peters-owned runner-up Superstorm (Sebring), who is also a gelding. He returned the quickest closing sectionals on his first run outside Western Australia, but he was unable to overhaul the front-running Alligator Blood, who defied some early pressure - which was best labelled as an inconvenience - from 300/1 outsider Commodus (Uncle Mo).

"Look, that was just amazing," Vandyke said. "Wow, he just won with authority. He did it for Queensland, his owners, his sire All Too Hard all and for Ryan (Maloney, jockey). It was an amazing performance at Group 1 level in a top-class field.

"You know you can't quantify guts, you can look at his form and think where he should finish but his determination and will to win is incredible.

"He was softened up a bit early but didn't he want to win? Yes he did. I do plenty of things wrong as a trainer but this bloke makes me look good, he's special. I'm not going to call him a champion but he's a champion to me."

Ryan Maloney was able to control the terms of the race even though the maiden, Commodus, looked to pose an early threat as he pushed forward. The first 1000-metre split of 1.10.40 was relaxed for this level and Maloney secured two comfortable splits from the 1000 metres to the 600 metres, which sealed the victory.

"What a way to do it (win a first Group 1) on this horse, for these owners and back at home at headquarters," Maloney said.

"He was softened up a little bit early. I was happy to let Alabama Express go, but I knew the maiden (Commodus) would keep going forward and I didn't want to follow a maiden, so I had to use him a little bit. But he's thrived since the Hayes (Stakes) and I can't believe how easy he won."

Maloney, a former Victorian who moved to Queensland in 2018, was understandably delighted with his first elite-level win given a series of setbacks before and after the relocation.

<< Continued from page 2 "It was life changing," Maloney said of the move. "I wouldn't have found him (Alligator Blood) if I didn't go to Queensland.

"Eighteen months ago I had the worst day at the races I've ever had and today I've had the best one. I want to thank my wife (Shaylee), she's been a rock."

Maloney was suspended for four months after a positive test for a banned stimulant at Caulfield in March 2018. That was not long after he lost the ride aboard Nature Strip (Nicconi), on whom he had won three successive races.

He suffered four broken ribs and a punctured lung in a fall at Doomben in December 2018 and sustained further significant injuries in a fall at the Sunshine Coast in April last year.

Despite those hiccoughs he's now entrenched in the top three riders in Queensland and is challenging for the state's metropolitan premiership this season.

Maloney's ride drew praise from his sidelined colleague, multiple Group 1 winner Corey Brown.

"I just keep going back to Ryan Maloney, a great ride. He kept a level head," Brown said on Racing.com.

While the early machinations of the race implied pressure, it was the lack of great speed that underpinned how well Superstorm performed. Indeed, the early tempo thwarted plenty others, including the New

Alligator Blood and David Vandyke

Zealander Catalyst (Darci Brahma), who ran sixth, and the fourth-placed Chenier (Medaglia D'Oro), who clipped heels and almost fell mid-race.

Catalyst's trainer Clayton Chipperfield said: "It wasn't run to suit. They went slower and slower and he got a little bit lost. If we push on to the All-Star Mile, we'll put the hood (blinkers) back on and the pace will be more true you'd think against the seasoned milers."

Catalyst's rider Damian Lane concurred. "The race shape turned out terrible for him. The outsider (Commodus) going forward and really backing off the tempo from outside the lead really put us in a sticky spot," he said.

We'll see how he pulls up and go from there, but it may be that he needs the blinkers back on."

Damien Oliver was prepared to be forgiving of Chenier's performance. He said: "He just got flattened. He did a good job to pick himself up and still ran a good race. It was unfortunate."

Michael Dee described the performance of CF Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) as "too bad to be true". The stewards report noted that a post-race veterinary examination failed to reveal any abnormalities with the son of Redoute's Choice (Danehill).

The Ken Keys-trained Soul Patch (Shamus Award) tracked the winner and ran soundly to finish third given his preference for more ground. An Alpine Eagle (High Chaparral) half-sister to Soul Patch is being offered at today's Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale. She is catalogued as Lot 188.

Alligator Blood (3 g All Too Hard - Lake Superior by Encosta De Lago) has now won $2,810,084 in prize-money and has recorded eight wins this season, in which he has raced in every month bar November. Meanwhile, All Too Hard also produced

Redemption for Probabeel in Surround

Star New Zealand filly Probabeel (Savabeel) landed a well-deserved maiden win in elite company yesterday when she took out the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick, the first leg of a Group 1 double for Jamie Richards and Te Akau Racing.

The Karaka Million 3YO Classic (Listed, 1600m) winner campaigned in Sydney during last year's spring carnival, finishing second to Funstar (Adelaide) in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m).

But the filly, who is raced by Brendan and Jo Lindsay of Cambridge Stud, turned the tables on the Chris Waller-trained three-year-old, motoring home from well-back in the field with 300 metres to go to defeat her by a neck. Xilong (Deep Field) was a further half-length away in third.

"I thought we were in a spot of bother on the corner, she was under the pump, but to her credit she really found the line well and she's a very exciting filly," Richards said.

"I knew she had to be somewhere near her absolute best in a goodquality race like this but full credit to the team at home for sending her over in such good order.

"I'm so thrilled to get a winner in these colours for Brendan and Jo."

Looking ahead with the filly, Richards continued: "She's going to improve a bit further again as soon as we get up in trip. She'll go to the Phar Lap then into the Vinery. She's got a Group 1 now."

Probabeel

SPORTPI

Leading New Zealand jockey Bosson echoed the thoughts of Richards, admitting he also had some concerns during the race.

"I just got myself into a little bit of a pocket and hit a bit of a flat spot," he said.

"I'm just lucky enough that this filly was good enough to get me out of it.

"Otherwise, I didn't want to be coming back in that's for sure. Just turning in she lost it until we straightened up. Continued on page 10>>

Purchased by David Ellis for NZ$380,000 out of the Waikato Stud draft at the NZB Karaka Yearling Sale in 2018, Probabeel (3 f Savabeel - Far Fetched by Pins) has won six of her 12 starts, running second on a further three occasions, for prize-money of $1,529,256.

She is the first foal out of the late stakes-performed mare Far Fetched (Pins), who was a three-quarter sister to Thousand Guineas Prelude (Gr 2, 1400m) and Manfred Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Legless Veuve (Pins) as well as Mannerism Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) winner and Telegraph Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) runner-up Tootsie (Pins).

Probabeel is also from the same family as Group 2 scorer Ocean Emperor (Zabeel) and dual Group 1 winner Savvy Coup (Savabeel), who was crowned New Zealand's champion three-year-old in 2017-18.

She becomes her Waikato Stud-based sire Savabeel's (Zabeel) 18th individual Group 1 winner.

Shark salutes in Chipping Norton

Fan Favourite Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) came from the clouds to land his first Australian elite-level win in the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick yesterday.

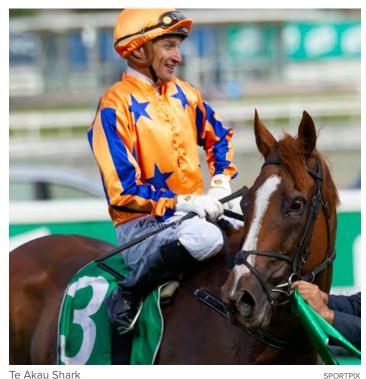

Under regular rider Opie Bosson, the five-year-old gelding raced in fourth-last position before flying home in the straight to win by half a length over the Chris Waller-trained Verry Elleegant (Zed), with the everconsistent Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) a further length and a quarter away in third.

"He's something special, isn't he," Jamie Richards said. "They only went steady (pace) but he was good late and is a very, very exciting horse.

"I said to Opie, 'don't be as far back as you were on Probabeel' but he ended back in a sticky spot. But, when he gets onto his outside leg and gets a bit of clear air, he can really charge late.

"As I said about Probabeel before, full credit to the team at home who have sent these horses over in such good order. Ashley Handley, who is here looking after them, would spend day and night with them if we let her, so a big thank you to her.

"And David Ellis, who bought him at the Ready to Run Sale and got all these wonderful owners involved. Hopefully we're in for an exciting campaign."

Asked what sets Te Akau Shark apart, Richards said: "He's got a bit of arrogance about him, a bit grumpy. He's not a fantastic eater. He's not a big, strong horse with a big barrel on him. He's pretty lean and mean and he's got a bit trickier, I think."

Te Akau Shark's victory was the second leg of a Group 1 double for Richards and Te Akau Racing, a milestone which Te Akau principal David Ellis was absolutely thrilled with.

"It's hard to describe what this day means to Te Akau, all our owners, and the whole New Zealand racing industry," said Ellis, who was speaking from Ellerslie having overseen the victory of Te Akau Shark's stablemate Star Of Bombay (Atlante) in the Mufhasa Fasttrack Stakes (Listed, 1300m).

"Everybody wins from our horses Probabeel and Te Akau Shark winning these Group 1 races. In Australia, they don't rate the New Zealand form, but, hello, you're on a different planet to me. Continued on page 12>>

<< Continued from page 10 "Both of these horses went so close to winning Group 1 races during the spring in Australia, and their unbeaten lead-up form before heading back over was quite unbelievable.

"You have to take wins on their merits, whether they are in Australia or New Zealand, and those pundits that didn't rate it need to have a close look at just how they won. They were exceptional efforts and the reason why they were both strongly supported in the overall betting."

Ellis continued: "Our (New Zealand) horses punch well above their weight. We have a foal crop under 3,500 while the Australian foal crop is five-times that amount. And this business of the Asian Racing Conference wanting to reduce the status of our Group 1 and Group 2 races is absolute nonsense, and today proves that beyond all doubt."

Te Akau Shark (5 g Rip Van Winkle - Bak Da Chief by Chief Bearhart), who was bought by Ellis for NZ$230,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale of 2YOs, has won seven of his 12 starts and prize-money of A$1,312,290.

He is the best-performed and first stakes winner from three to race for the Group 2 scorer Bak Da Chief (Chief Bearhart), who is a half-sister to Bak Da Princess (Danske), herself the mother of Pondarosa Miss (High Chaparral) and Ecuador (High Chaparral).

Bak Da Chief has a yearling colt by Redwood (High Chaparral), who is catalogued as Lot 343, at next month's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. She was covered again by Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) last year.

Sherwood Forest causes upset in New Zealand Derby

Sherwood Forest

The Tony Pike-trained Sherwood Forest (Fastnet Rock) caused an upset victory at Ellerslie yesterday when he took out the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m).

Returning to his homeland after winning the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) last weekend, Michael Walker had Sherwood Forest leading around the final turn before he was passed by equal-favorites Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux) and Dragon Leap (Pierro). Continued on page 14>>

"He just outstayed them," Pike said. "The last few races he's been running in have been a little bit too sharp for him but I've always thought he would come into his own over 2400 metres.

"It's a fantastic result and hugely satisfying.

"He was a bit of a ratbag as a two-year-old but the team have put in a lot of work with him and this season was always going to be about the Derby. It's great when a plan comes off."

Pike said the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) on April 4 at Randwick is now a likely option for his Group 1-winning three-year-old.

Yesterday's win continued a remarkable month for Walker, who had been close to retirement because of ongoing injuries.

"Five weeks ago I was going to give it away," Walker said.

"I was too heavy and getting sick of all the injuries. I've had 13 operations on my left hip, including a hip replacement.

"But I decided to stick with it and I've been very fortunate to have these results. I'm really grateful for the opportunity to come home and ride this horse.

"He gave me an amazing ride. He's such a gentleman and everything I asked for, he gave.

"You have to be the best staying horse to win this race and Tony gave me confidence that I was riding that horse."

Purchased for $100,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale by New Zealand Bloodstock from the Coolmore draft, Sherwood Forest (3 g Fastnet Rock - Chasing Mammon by Giant's Causeway) runs for his breeders Goodson & Perron Family Trust in partnership with Calder Bloodstock Ltd and Deborah Martin. He has won four of 11 starts, earning NZ$737,875 in prize-money.

He was foaled and raised at Coolmore Stud and is a brother to stakeswinner Royal Ocean being from Chasing Mammon (Giant's Causeway), who herself is a half-sister to stakes-winner Zelsnitz (Snitzel).

Sherwood Forest is also from the family of dual Group 1 winner and European sire Holy Roman Emperor (Danehill).

Chasing Mammon has a yearling colt by Starspangledbanner (Choisir), a weanling colt by Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock) and is now in foal to Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact).

Sherwood Forest is the 38th Group 1 winner for Fastnet Rock, who has four lots catalogued at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, which kicks off at Oaklands at 10am local time today.

First for All Too Hard

All Too Hard

VINERY STUR

Vinery Stud resident All Too Hard (Casino Prince) sired his first Group 1 winner yesterday when his headline-grabbing son Alligator Blood (3 g ex Lake Superior by Encosta de Lago) produced a scintillating performance in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). A half-sister to unbeaten champion Black Caviar (Bel Esprit), All Too Hard was a fourtime Group 1 winner on the track, including the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) - the only race in which Alligator Blood has tasted defeat during his 11-start career, being pipped at the post by Super Seth (Dundeel) last October. Standing for a fee of $27,500 (inc GST), All Too Hard covered 107 mares last year - his seventh breeding season. He has ten lots on offer at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, which kicks off at 10am AEDT today.

Three for Ilovethiscity

The Greg Eurell-trained Ilovemyself (2 c ex Sunstyle by Xaar) made a taking impression on debut at Flemington yesterday, landing the Very Special Kids Plate (Listed, 1000m) under Damien Oliver. Sent off the $4.20 favourite, Ilovemyself negated trouble in running to pull three-quarters of a length clear of River Night (Night Of Thunder), with the same margin back to Time Is Precious (Snitzel) in third. The victory provided Noor Elaine Farm stallion Ilovethiscity (Magic Albert) with his third individual stakes success, following on from the exploits of ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner El Dorado Dreaming and Geelong Listed scorer Moonriver.

Sydney on the cards for Ilovemyself

Ilovemyself, who finished second in a Werribee barrier trial on February 18, already holds a nomination for the Sires' Produce Stakes on April 4, but Eurell suggested connections could stump up a $150,000 late-entry fee for next month's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) should the colt triumph in the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Rosehill in a fortnight. "The Pago Pago is on in a fortnight which we'll give consideration to contesting, and trialling him at Werribee shows he handles the wet so that side won't worry us and he looks better suited to 1200 metres," Eurell said. "It might be worth sneaking up there and seeing what he can do and if he's lucky enough we might have to stay up there in Sydney and see if there's a race further down the track."

Ten for Dash For Cash

Progressive gelding Blazejowski (5 g ex Ellexcell by Octagonal) completed a red-letter day for Eurell when he secured a maiden stakes success later on the Flemington card, taking out the Shaftesbury Avenue Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) to become the tenth individual black-type winner for Scenic Lodge Stud stallion Dash For Cash (Secret Savings). Making his first foray into Group company, Blazejowski got the better of a three-way finish under Craig Williams, beating Morvada (Mossman) by a long-neck with a further shortneck back to Age Of Chivalry (He's Remarkable) in third. Now the winner of eight races from 18 starts, Blazejowski has amassed $372,050 in prizemoney.

Eurell eyes Stradbroke with Blazejowski

Loftier targets await Blazejowski following yesterday's Group 3 breakthrough, with Eurell set to spell the five-year-old before preparing him for the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) at Eagle Farm on June 6. "We'll put him away now and see if we can have a go at it," Eurell said of the Group 1 feature. "He's dynamite over 1400 metres so it's his right race and he likes soft tracks, so it won't matter what is presented up there and you know you'll be in with a fighting chance." Commenting on Blazejowski's short break, Eurell added: "He won't have long out as he has to wind back up and get going again. He's had three runs this time and hasn't been hard on himself and with the grass up to your knees, he'll enjoy that."

Fifty Stars goes back to back in Blamey

Fifty Stars (5 h Sea the Stars - Swizzle Stick by Sadler's Wells) won the Blamey Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) by the narrowest of margins last year, but he repeated the feat in much easier circumstances at Flemington yesterday when coming a length and a half clear of his eight rivals. The Lindsay Park-trained entire beat Secret Blaze (Sizzling), while Admiral's Joker (Bel Esprit) was a long-neck away in third. Owned by Gerry Ryan, Fifty Stars is a three-time Group 2 winner having already been placed in Group 1 company, and connections will now debate chasing an elitelevel win in Saturday's Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) or waiting a fortnight for the lucrative All-Star Mile (1600m), which does not hold Group status. "We've got a lot of thinking to do in the next 24 hours - we'll just see how he pulls up," senior trainer David Hayes said. "But I thought that was pretty impressive and I bet his last 600 metres was as good as anything in the Guineas."

Another stakes win for Sylvia's Mother

The Team Hawkes-trained Sylvia's Mother (4 m Snitzel - Found the One by Bel Esprit) supplemented her victory in the Geoffrey Bellmaine Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) on February 8 with a fine performance upped to 1400 metres in yesterday's Frances Tressady Stakes (Gr 3) at Flemington. Mamzelle Tess (O'Lonhro) ran second, beaten a long-neck, while Fidelia (Not A Single Doubt) was a further half a length further back in third. "We thought if she ran out a strong 1400 metres, which she did, she would win," Wayne Hawkes said. "She's a pretty good mare. She wants to win and she tries really hard." Sylvia's Mother has now won seven of her 11 starts and she is likely to be set for the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill on March 14.

Fabergino impresses in Bob Hoysted win

West Australian sprinter Fabergino (5 m Maschino - Miss Razyana by Danzero) brought up her third successive Listed win when she made all to land the Bob Hoysted Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington yesterday. Building on her earlier victories at Ascot, the Tiarnna Robertson-trained Fabergino skipped a length and a quarter clear of Embrace Me (Shamexpress), with a short-head back to Haunted (Lonhro) in third. "She's a free-rolling horse who has always jumped and led. But to see her do it here at racing headquarters was just amazing," Robertson said. "It's hard to measure them up until she has competed against them but she's beaten what she had to at home and we came here thinking hopefully we had the right horse. And she measured up today. Now that we know we can bring her over here and be competitive hopefully we might be able to try something a bit harder next time."

O'Brien lands winner for Lloyd Williams

Earlier on the Flemington card, King Of Leogrance (5 g Camelot - Amourette by Halling) [right] - one of four horses part-owned by Lloyd Williams in the care of Danny O'Brien - set himself up for a tilt at tomorrow

week's Adelaide Cup (Gr

3200m) by taking out the Roy Higgins Quality (Listed, 2600m). Ridden by Damien Lane, the European import proved a length and a quarter too strong for Dabiyr (Redoute's Choice), with a further two and a quarter lengths back to Naval Warfare (Born To Sea) in third. "We've laid out a little plan that he ran here and then went to the Adelaide Cup and that's when we'll get our chance to have a look at him at the two miles," O'Brien said. King Of Leogrance, who was landing his first Australian success having won at Listed level in France, firmed into $3.50 favourite for the Adelaide Cup.

18 for Savabeel

Far Fetched by Pins) took out the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick yesterday. Providing the first leg of a Group 1 double for trainer Jamie Richards and jockey Opie Bosson, who later combined to land the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) with Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle), Probabeel finished a neck to the good of her old rival Funstar (Adelaide), whom she had twice run behind in the spring. Xilong (Deep Field) was a further half a length away in third. Savabeel, who is also the sire of Lucia Valentina and Savvy Coup, is set to be represented by one youngster during today's opening session of the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale. He is catalogued as Lot 241.

First for Wandjina

Newgate Farm stallion Wandjina (Snitzel) scored a landmark success yesterday when the John Thompson-trained debutant Mamaragan (2 c ex Forbidden by General Nediym) took out the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) to become his first black-type winner. Ridden by Hong Kong-based jockey Blake Shinn, who replaced Thompson's usual rider - the suspended Nash Rawiller -Mamaragan made a sustained bid down the outside to beat the Osamu (Exceed And Excel) by a length and a quarter. Aim (Star Witness) was a further three-quarters of a length away in third as the front two caused a boilover, returning at $19 as the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained favourite Prague (Redoute's Choice) ($2.60) could only muster sixth. Wandjina, who won the 2015 renewal of yesterday's Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), is also the sire of the Group 2-placed Express Pass. However, he covered just 16 mares at a fee of $22,000 (inc GST) last year.

Thompson unveils Slipper wildcard

Mamaragan is the only juvenile Thompson has accepted for next month's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the promising two-year-old will press onto the $3.5 million blue riband following yesterday's Skyline Stakes success. "I'm not a trainer that aims horses up at the Slipper but he has just been a natural from day one and I'm rapt to have one in it," Thompson said. "The sky's the limit. You saw today he was very raw in front. He didn't know what to do but he will improve a lot from the run. I'm sure he will do well, he was a good-doing colt with a great attitude and it's exciting." Mamaragan is likely to meet Prague again at Rosehill. "He seemed fine when he came back but maybe he choked or something when he was restrained," Maher said. "He is still improving and we will see how he is in the next couple of weeks but the Slipper has always been the plan for him."

50 for Frankel

Earlier on the Randwick programme, Juddmonte Farm's all-conquering Frankel (Galileo) sired his 50th stakes winner, and third in Australia, when Hungry Heart (2 f ex Harlech by Pivotal) won the Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). Trained by Chris Waller, Hungry Heart - who ran second on debut at Flemington in January - quickened up nicely under James McDonald to beat $2.80 favourite Stellar Pauline (Not A Single Doubt) by three-quarters of a length. Dismissal (Not A Single Doubt) was a further two and a quarter lengths further adrift in third. Frankel is currently standing for a fee of £175,000 at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor base in Newmarket and he is the sire of Darley resident Cracksman and leading 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) contender Quadrilateral.

Heart on Slipper trail

Yulong Investments yesterday announced the acquisition of Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) and Hungry Heart will seek more illustrious twoyear-old riches for the Yuesheng Zhang-owned operation when she presses on to the Golden Slipper Stakes. "She is obviously a very talented horse to win like this today and I think there's more to come," Waller said post-race. "We have thought she is a very good filly for a while. We haven't complicated things. We thought enough of her to send her to Melbourne thinking we might be a Blue Diamond chance but we didn't put too much pressure on her. She ran a good second and we thought we'd leave the Blue Diamond and see how she ran today and she would tell us where she wants to go." Hungry Heart is at $26 with TAB for the Golden Slipper.

Double for All Too Hard

On an unforgettable afternoon for All Too Hard (Casino Prince), who sired his first Group 1 winner courtesy of Alligator Blood's Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) success, the Vinery Stud stallion completed a further stakes double. The Byron Cozamanis-trained Hard Rock Girl (2 f ex Rock Of Fortune by Fastnet Rock) initiated proceedings with a three-quarters of a length success in the Cinderella Stakes (Listed, 1050m) at Morphettville. The juvenile got the better of Dottie Dee (Brazen Beau), with a further long-neck back to Bribery (Spirit Of Boom) in third. Meanwhile at Randwick, Dawn Dawn (5 m ex Dawned by One Cool Cat) denied race-favourite Sweet Deal (Casino Prince) by the narrowest of margins in a thrilling renewal of the Guy Walter Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). The Team Hawkes-trained winner prevailed in a three-way finish, with Pohutukawa (Medaglia d'Oro) another short-head back in third for Godolphin.

Dawn Dawn earns Coolmore start

Dawn Dawn (yellow)

SPORTPIX

Like her stable companion and yesterday's Flemington winner Sylvia's Mother (Snitzel), Dawn Dawn carries the colours of ownerbreeders Robert and Pam Crosby and their in-form duo are set to clash in the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill on March 14. "They've got two really good, live chances now heading towards the Coolmore," co-trainer Michael Hawkes said. Reflecting on the victory of Dawn Dawn, who broke from barrier nine under Tommy Berry, Hawkes added: "She had no luck last start. Even first-up she was probably a good thing beaten. Tommy was a little bit worried about the barrier but I said, 'I think it's perfect for her, she'll get back and she will really hit the line and get one clear crack at them and as long as you're balanced on the corner she will do the rest'."

Quackerjack lands Liverpool City Cup

Quackerjack (4 g Not a Single Doubt - Quack It by Ustinov) made a successful return to action when taking out the Liverpool City Cup (Gr 3, 1300m) at Randwick yesterday, staying out of trouble as Imaging (Oasis Dream) and Cascadian (New Approach) finished out of the placings after a heavy bump in the straight. The Mark Newnham-trained winner beat Vegadaze (Lope De Vega) by the narrowest of margins, with Rock (Pierro) two and a quarter lengths further back in third. Quackerjack will now be set for the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) on April 4 having qualified for the Randwick contest through his Villiers Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) victory on December 14. "He'll have another run in the Ajax then three weeks into the Doncaster," Newnham said. "I had it planned straight after the Villiers. His best runs have been three weeks between runs so he only gets a fortnight into the Ajax then he gets three weeks into the Doncaster."

Second for Americain

Yesterday's Lord Reims Stakes (Listed, 2600m) at Morphettville went the way of Eperdument (5 m ex Cislunar by Redoute's Choice), who became the second stakes winner for Swettenham Stud sire Americain (Dynaformer) when fending off the challenge of Master Chum (Clangalang) by a neck. Heart Of Grace (Heart's Cry) finished a further two and a quarter lengths adrift in third. Trained by Shane Oxlade, Eperdument was winning for the seventh time in 35 starts having landed a handicap at the same track last Saturday. Meanwhile, Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Americain covered just seven mares at a private fee last year.

Silvera lands Members' Cup

Consistent gelding Silvera (6 g High Chaparral - Silver Tiara by Ferocity) scored his second Listed success when he took out the Tattersall's Members Cup (Listed, 1600m) at Doomben yesterday. Trained by Tony Gollan having formerly been in the care of Tony McEvoy, Silvera - who landed the Tattersall's Mile (Listed, 1600m) at Eagle Farm last July finished a length to the good of Magnufighter (Magnus), with a further neck back to Impasse (Sepoy) in third. "He can do that off a good pace and the softer surface at Doomben suits him," Gollan said. "He has gone past $500,000 in prize-money today and he is very consistent. Linda Huddy bred him and races him so he is a bit special for her."

Rothfire remains unbeaten

Highly-progressive juvenile Rothfire (Rothesay) extended his unbeaten streak to four when claiming yesterday's The Jewel Prelude (C&G) (1100m) at Doomben. However, while trainer Robert Heathcote confirmed the gelding will press onto next month's $500,000 The Jewel (1200m), he refused to be drawn into speculation that Rothfire could be a late entry for the Golden Slipper. "The Jewel has always been his aim and we won't be leaving that path. I don't want to say anything outlandish but there have been a few favourites for the Slipper go over in the past few weeks," Heathcote said. "We have him in the ATC Sires' and he is not entered for the Slipper - we would have to pay a late entry. I would have to talk with the owners and I will have to make up my mind pretty soon. But I will say no more." Rothfire won by four and a half lengths yesterday and he returned the $1.16 favourite.

Kisukano on target for The Jewel

Rothfire is on course for a rematch with the Michael Nolan-trained Kisukano (Bel Esprit) in The Jewel after the latter landed The Jewel Prelude (F) (1100m) later on the Doomben card. Rothfire beat Kisukano by four and a half lengths when the pair met on February 15 and Nolan said after yesterday's success: "Her last two starts she has drawn poorly but still raced well. She was beaten at her previous start by Rothfire and I think he is very good. We might be racing for second prize in The Jewel and we would need a few things to go our way. I suppose we will be getting out to 1200 metres and I would love for her to draw a decent barrier."

The Odyssey after The Jewel double

Last year's winner of The Jewel, The Odyssey (Better Than Ready), warmed up for a tilt at the $300,000 Three-Year-Old The Jewel (1200m) with an all-the way success in the Three-Year-Old The Jewel Prelude (1200m) at Doomben yesterday. Trained by Kelly Schweida, The Odyssey hung on by the barest of margins under Stephanie Thornton, who said post-race:

"We got a couple of cheap sectionals and was able to kick on the turn. He got tired late but you would expect that." Schweida added: "He was probably the fittest I have had him early on in a campaign. He only had a short break but on the other hand he has only had one short jump-out. I would think he will have some improvement in him. I think this could be his campaign."

Eric The Eel books Sydney trip

Next month's Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick is the target for tough three-yearold Eric The Eel (Olympic Glory) following his one-length success in the Pines Pacific Ale Plate (1600m) at Doomben yesterday. "We wanted to get him out to 1600 metres today and then step up in distance. I have always said we wouldn't see the best of him until he is getting over 2000 metres," trainer Stuart Kendrick said. "The blinkers went on today and they really switched him on but he was still relaxed. The blinkers will stay on for Sydney." Eric The Eel is likely to be set for the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) in three weeks' time. "The option is also there for the Tulloch Stakes a week before the Derby. But we will settle the matter once we get to Sydney and see how he travels," Kendrick added.

Four for Maschino

Alwyn Park resident Maschino (Encosta De Lago) sired his fourth individual stakes winner yesterday when Lonsdale Lady (3 f ex Rosmopolitan by Verglas) took out the Ascot 1,000 Guineas (Listed, 1800m) at Ascot. Trained by Kieran McDonagh, the three-year-old got the better of Cambist (Gingerbread Man) by a length and a quarter, with a further length and three-quarters back to Naughty By Nature (Trade Fair) in third. Machino stood for a fee of $4,950 in 2019, while the progressive Lonsdale Lady has now won two of her five starts.

Money Matters takes out Lex Piper

Earlier on the Ascot card, Money Matters (3 g Canford Cliffs - Miz Nicholls by Danehill) landed the Lex Piper Stakes (Listed, 1600m) by the narrowest of margins to secure his second stakes success, following on from his win in the Rangeview Stud Classic (Listed, 1400m) on February 2. Trained by Adam Durrant, the fivetime winner edged out Cryptic Wonder (My Admiration), while Divide The Sea (Moshe) was a long-neck further adrift in third.

Five for Pride Of Dubai

Coolmore shuttler Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) sired his fifth individual winner on Friday night as the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Botttrained Dubai Star (2 f ex Jezzabba by Fastnet Rock) broke her maiden over 1100 metres at Canterbury. Carrying the colours of her breeder Sheikh Mohammed Bin Khalifa Al Maktoum and partners, Dubai Star was purchased by Gai Waterhouse Racing / Adrian Bott for $320,000 out of the Segenhoe Stud draft at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. She is the first foal of the city winning mare Jezzabba (Fastnet Rock) who herself is a half-sister to the VRC Sires Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) winner and Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) placegetter Von Costa de Hero (Encosta de Lago). Pride Of Dubai stood at Jerry's Plains for a fee of $38,500 (inc GST) and has 20 lots on offer at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale which kicks off today at 10am AEST.

Second for Vancouver

Pride Of Dubai's Coolmore barn-mate Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) also enjoyed success on Friday night when the Lindsay Parktrained Montia (2 f ex Pontiana by Redoute's Choice) ran out an impressive winner on debut over 1200 metres at Moonee Valley and in turn became his second individual winner. A homebred for Greg Ingham, Lindsay Maxsted and partners, Montia is the third winner from four to race out of the stakes-placed mare Pontiana (Redoute's Choice) who also produced Auckland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) and Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) winner Dragon Leap (Pierro) and Chatswood Stud's Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Inference (So You Think). A sister to Listed winner Grand Jardin, Pontiana has a full-brother to Inference heading to the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale catalogued as Lot 139. Vancouver stood at Coolmore for a fee of $44,000 (inc GST) in 2019 and has 16 lots catalogued at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale.

Boss to miss Slipper

Unless he can successfully appeal a suspension, Glen Boss will miss two crucial autumn carnival meetings including the Golden Slipper. Boss rode Cascadian (New Approach) in the Liverpool City Cup at Randwick but his efforts to get clear running at the top of the straight resulted in a severe pounding to James McDonald's mount Imaging (Oasis Dream). After being charged, Boss told stewards he wanted to "test the waters" by edging out around the home turn and trying for a run to the outside of eventual winner Quackerjack but he did not realise McDonald's mount was travelling so well. Chief steward Marc Van Gestel asked whether Boss should have returned to his original spot behind Quackerjack after the initial contact. Stewards said the interference was in the high range and outed Boss from March 10 to 22.

Vella also suspended

Steven Vella was the only jockey suspended from Flemington yesterday. Vella received a six-meeting suspension and was fined $750 for excessive whip use aboard the third-placed Admiral's Joker (Bel Esprit) in the Blamey Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m). He used the whip ten times prior to the 100-metre mark. Meanwhile, stewards inquired as to why Chenier (Medaglia d'Oro) almost fell midway through the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). Stewards believed Jamie Kah aboard Dalasan (Dalakhani) shifted out, allowing room for Damien Oliver and Chenier to slip underneath, before shifting back inwards to the rail. However, their views were unable to be supported by stewards' footage and consequently erred on the side of caution, deciding not to charge Kah with careless riding.

Pair quit VRC board

Long-standing committee members John O'Rourke and Peter Fekete have joined Elisa Robinson in resigning from the Victoria Racing Club board. O'Rourke and Fekete submitted their resignations at Friday's VRC board meeting. Chairman Amanda Elliott informed members of the news in a statement on Friday evening. "We thank them both for their service and contribution and wish them well for the future," Elliott said. "As is normal procedure with any board vacancies, the next steps are a matter for discussion and decision by the board in line with the Victoria Racing Club's Constitution. The board of directors has the ability to appoint new directors to fill the vacancies. In that event, the appointed director must then submit themselves for election before the next VRC AGM."

NEW ZEALAND

38 for Fastnet Rock

Shuttle stallion Fastnet Rock (Danehill), who has proven an ever-present flagbearer for Coolmore Stud, sired his 38th individual Group 1 winner yesterday when Sherwood Forest (3 g Chasing Mammon by Giant's Causeway) executed trainer Tony Pike's long standing plan to land the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie. Having been headed in the straight, the three-year-old was able to dig deep and find a second wind in the final stages of the blue riband to come back and win by a length and a quarter ahead of Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux), with Scorpz (Charm Spirit) a further two lengths away in third. Fastnet Rock's illustrious roll of honour includes Avantage, Foxwedge, Merchant Navy and Shoals.

Spring Heat takes out King's Plate

Spring Heat

TRISH DUNELL

Also at Ellerslie, Spring Heat (5 m More Than Ready - Emaurismo, by Redoute's Choice) recorded her second Group 3 success when producing a barnstorming finish to land the Haunui Farm King's Plate (Gr 3, 1200m). Third behind Avantage in the Telegraph Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on January 18, the Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained mare beat Its Destinys Child (Castledale) by a neck, with a further half-length back to Pretty To Sea (Ocean Park) in third. "That was a pretty cool ride by Danielle (Johnson)," O'Sullivan said. "I was getting a bit anxious as she was a fair way back. She wasn't panicking though and it was a great performance aided by a very good ride. That's only her third run for the season as we race her pretty sparingly, but that seems to suit her and as long as she is sound, she always seems to perform."

Seven for Redwood

Westbury Stud stallion Redwood (High Chaparral) sired his seventh individual stakes winner yesterday when Communique (3 f ex Al Bayan by Zabeel) landed the Sunline Vase (Gr 3, 2100m) earlier on the Ellerslie card. Karalino (Zacinto) finished a long-neck away in second to complete a quinella for owner-breeder Kevin Hickman, while Meghan (So You Think) was a further neck away in third. The win started a milestone afternoon for jockey Michael Walker, who landed the New Zealand Derby aboard Sherwood Forest having taken out last Saturday's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) aboard Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa). Redwood stood for a fee of NZ$10,000 (plus GST) last year.

Walker rapt with Communique's success

A jubilant Michael Walker said post-race: "It's good to get a win for a good mate in Stephen Autridge as he is an amazing trainer. She (Communique) jumped well and I thought for two seconds about going forward as there wasn't much speed in the race. I ended up riding her quiet and although she got a bit keen leaving the straight, she really settled well down the back. I tracked up nicely and I always thought I was going to get there although she was running about. She has a lot to learn but I really like her as I think she is a classy filly."

Second for Atlante

On a fabulous afternoon for Te Akau Racing, the Jamie Richards-trained Star Of Bombay (3 f ex Astardia by Starcraft) landed the Mufhasa Fasttrack Stakes (Listed, 1300m) to provide late Mapperley Stud stallion Atlante (Fastnet Rock) with his second stakes winner. The Jamie Richards-trained three-year-old got the better of Bella Mente (El Roca) by three-quarters of a length, with a further neck back to Run To Perfection (Sepoy) in third. Atalante died in 2016 and Star Of Bombay hails from his eldest crop. She joins Riva Capri as the stallion's other stakes winner.

Wellington Guineas next for Star

The Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m) at Trentham on March 14 is the next stop for Star Of Bombay following yesterday's breakthrough black-type success. She was purchased by Te Akau Racing principal David Ellis for NZ$50,000 at the 2018 Ready to Run Sale at Karaka, and she has already exceeded that figure with three wins and two placings from five starts to date. "That was the win of a filly going places," Ellis said. "She actually had a bit of a hiccup in the last 10 days and missed a gallop, so it's a remarkable training performance by Jamie. It's not easy to go eight weeks between runs and then produce a performance like that at this level. That's 14 black-type wins in New Zealand this season for our stable, along with a Group 1 win by Melody Belle in Melbourne in the spring, plus the two Group 1 wins in Sydney (Te Akau Shark and Probabeel) and it's still only February."

Miss Federer too speedy in Airfreight

Miss Federer (3 f Swiss Ace - Halobelle by My Halo), a Group 3-winning juvenile last season, scored her second Listed success as a three-year-old when she made all in the NZB Airfreight Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Wingatui yesterday. All About Magic (Showcasing) was beaten three-quarters of a length into second, with Trifolium (Krupt) a further length and three-quarters further back in third. "We've had a bit of a tough time with her of late so it is very satisfying to see her win this one," trainer Andrew Carston said after Miss Federer had not won since September 21. "They have just been niggling problems and she wasn't breathing that well in her races. I was asking around some other trainers and got plenty of good advice that we have managed to put into practice, so I'm delighted we could get the win."

Allpress second in Saudi jockeys challenge

Lisa Allpress finished equal-second to Mike Smith in the inaugural international jockeys' challenge in Saudi Arabia on Saturday. A three-time champion jockey in New Zealand, Allpress created history when she became the first woman to ride a winner in Saudi Arabia, steering Matmon (Kreem) to victory in the first of the four designated races. "I came here with no expectations. I just wanted to enjoy the experience, but we have been very well looked after and I want to thank everyone who has organised it," Allpress said. "Where I come from it's not a crazy thing for a woman to be riding in the big races, but this means a lot. I'm just happy to be here and doing my thing. I came here with an open mind and I'm extremely thankful to be asked. It's very groundbreaking and I can't believe it, it's very special."

ASIA

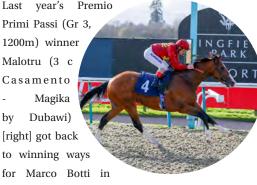

Whyte's young guns take centre stage at Sha Tin

Douglas Whyte will be represented by nine horses at Sha Tin today, including three exciting young prospects. Inner Flame (Zoustar) is the first to line up when he looks to extend his unbeaten record to four in the Class 3 Kwai Shing Handicap (1200m). "He's got to improve in order to be competitive with his rating now - ratings don't lie and the handicapper knows that, so he's going to have to improve to fill those shoes," Whyte said. Farhh Above (Farhh) steps out in the penultimate event, the Class 3 Lai King Handicap (1400m), while Super Wealthy (Epaulette) searches for a hat-trick of wins in the Class 2 Cheung Shan Handicap (1400m). "He's improved, he's a lovely individual - the penny's dropped with him," Whyte said.

INTERNATIONAL

Malotru scores Spring Cup success

Last year's Premio Primi Passi (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Malotru (3 c Casamento Magika Dubawi) [right] got back to winning ways the Spring Cup Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Lingfield yesterday. The three-year-old was returning after a fourth placing in the Mill Reef Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) last September. Hampered after the start and not getting a clear run did not stop the colt picking up in the closing stages and recording a three and a quarter-length victory over Raaeb (Raven's Pass), while the favourite The Perfect Crown (Hallowed Crown) was a further length back in third. The race is one of the four AW Championships Fast-Track Qualifier races with the winner given an automatic berth in the 3YO Championship Final (1m) on Good Friday.

Cup runner-up third at Riyadh

Charlie Fellowes' admirable globetrotter Prince Of Arran (Shirocco), who finished runner-up in last year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) having run third the year previously, once again wore his heart on his sleeve in running third behind Call The Wind (Frankel) in yesterday's Turf Handicap (3000m) at Riyadh - the third race on the inaugural Saudi Cup (1200m) programme in Saudi Arabia. Ridden by James Doyle, Prince Of Arran did best of those to race prominently in being beaten five lengths. Read tomorrow's ANZ for a full report on the card.

Blue Diamond winner Tagaloa to stand at Yulong

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

ulong has won the race to secure Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa, who is by Japan's hottest young sire Lord Kanaloa (King Kamehameha), for stud duties just a week after the two-year-old's breakthrough juvenile stakes victory.

It was the second major stallion coup for the Yuesheng Zhang-owned breeding and racing empire after it emerged earlier last week that the organisation had purchased a controlling interest in CF Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m)-winning three-year-old Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice).

The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained Tagaloa became a genuine commercial stallion prospect on the back of his Blue Diamond victory, with an expression of interest process overseen by part-owner Ozzie Kheir and Group 1 Bloodstock agent Mathew Becker.

"Tagaloa epitomises what we're looking for in a modern Australian stallion - he's good looking, a Group 1 Blue Diamond winner at two and a complete outcross," Yulong chief operating officer Sam Fairgray said.

"We believe he'll be even better at three. Lord Kanaloa is Japan's most exciting emerging sire and is poised to take over the mantle from Deep Impact. It's a privilege to stand a son of such a dominant young sire and brilliant sprinter."

Tagaloa and Alabama Express, who produced an uncharacteristic performance when last in yesterday's Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), will eventually join Yulong's foundation sire Grunt (O'Reilly) at the Nagambie-based stud once their racing careers are over.

Tagaloa ran third in the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) on debut at Flemington last November before confirming his Blue Diamond aspirations with a victory at Moonee

Tagaloa (rail) SPORTPIX

Valley later in the month, which prompted connections to shelve a Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) campaign in a bid to chase Group 1 success.

Busuttin, who along with Young bought Tagaloa for $300,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the Arrowfield Stud draft, said: "Yulong purchasing Tagaloa is a huge tick of approval for the Victorian breeding industry.

"These types normally end up in the Hunter Valley. To have a horse like him, a stunning physical and Blue Diamond winner with an international outcross pedigree, stay in Victoria is a massive vote of confidence.

"Yulong are leading the pack, setting the standard of new development in the Victorian industry."

Tagaloa is now likely to be given his chance to add to his immense value in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) later this month.

"Tagaloa was an outstanding yearling and always looked like he'd grow into a lovely horse," Busuttin continued.

"We were impressed by his temperament as a yearling. This came through as an early twoyear-old and makes him a beautiful horse to deal with now.

"On type he's a big powerful, striking colt. He's got a lovely head, athletic physique and a great frame. To be honest, what he's doing now at two is a bonus and he has done it on raw, natural talent - he's going to make a very exciting three-year-old."

Tagaloa is the first foal out of the Heart's Cry (Sunday Silence) mare Vasilissa, who is a Japanese-winning half-sister to Listed winner Tricolore Bleu (Stay Gold) as well as the stakesplaced duo of Danon Gelato (Deep Impact) and World Impact (Deep Impact), who was a winner at two.

Yulong securing Tagaloa followed a red-letter day on the track for the outfit, with Hungry Heart (Frankel) emerging as a genuine Golden Slipper contender with a dominant display in the Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick.

"It has been a milestone day for Yulong, with Hungry Heart winning the Group 2 Sweet Embrace Stakes, becoming our first Group winner from our first Magic Millions draft, and now securing our third stallion for the Yulong roster," Fairgray said.

Five for Bold Thruster in Silver Bowl

Bold Thruster SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

op sprinter Bold Thruster's (Turffontein) love affair with stakes races at Kranji continued yesterday after he extended his record to five in the S$175,000 Silver Bowl (Listed, 1400m).

The singular collection began with the Saas Fee Stakes (Listed, 1200m) in 2018 before he snared the JBBA Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (Listed, 1200m) and Rocket Man Sprint (Listed, 1200m) in 2019, followed by the Fortune Bowl (Listed, 1400m) last month.

With assistant-trainer Michael White announcing post-race that the son of Turffontein (Johannesburg) would most likely skip the last two legs of the Singapore Four-Year Challenge (of which the Silver Bowl is the first leg since last year), the Stewards' Cup (Listed, 1600m) on March 20 and Singapore Derby (Listed, 1800m) on April 18, any chance of a silverware upgrade would have to wait for another day.

That will most probably be May 23 when the Lion City Cup (Listed, 1200m) is staged, which was confirmed by White as Bold Thruster's next target.

The Australian horseman was doing the honours for trainer Michael Clements, who was in Melbourne to attend the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, and in the process had unfortunately missed not only Bold Thruster's feature success, but a rare stable trifecta in a big race.

The yard's first pick, Top Knight (Zoustar), and Siam Blue Vanda (Echoes Of Heaven) filled the two minor placings while a fourth runner, Real Success (Reset), finished seventh, less than five lengths adrift.

Top Knight clearly had his work cut out when he was turned loose by Duric entering the homestretch, giving his dashing stablemate a start of about six lengths. Under French jockey Louis-Philippe Beuzelin's guidance for the first time, Bold Thruster ($12) was clearly not in a mood to wait for him.

The gap narrowed noticeably inside the last 100 metres, though. Bold Thruster was feeling the side-effects of his longer-than-expected wide passage to take the lead down the back, and Top Knight was finally in full flight after taking a month of Sundays to go through his gears.

But for the third time in a row, Top Knight had to play second fiddle, arriving half a length too late, while Siam Blue Vanda landed from the clouds for the perfect Clements podium finish another length and a half away. The winning time was 1.21.44 for the 1400 metres on the Short Course.

"It's a great result, we had the right horses on paper, but we couldn't really tell how the race would pan out as it depended a lot on how Bold Thruster jumps," said White.

"In the end, he had a reasonably soft lead and he went all the way. It was never the plan to go to the other legs with Bold Thruster, it's hard to ignore them after today's win, but I think we will go for the Lion City Cup instead."

Beuzelin was bringing up his second blacktype win at Kranji after Clements supplied him with his first aboard Countofmontecristo (Echoes Of Heaven) in the Chairman's Trophy (Listed, 1600m) on February 15. The Barbadian-raised and English-trained jockey has not taken long to become a major cog in the wheel of the powerful Clements operation.

"Louis loves working our horses every day. He gives good feedback, and we enjoy working with him," said White.

"He has a natural feel for the horses, even if he's still learning about them."

From the way Beuzelin steered Bold Thruster home with such great confidence yesterday, it would seem that he is a fast learner, even if he did admit to some jittery moments a few seconds into the race.

"I've worked on Bold Thruster every morning to size him up. I wanted to get him to relax better and that's how I understood why he was reacting a certain way," said Beuzelin.

"I just had to channel his energy into a more constructive manner. Today, he jumped out nicely, but I was a bit worried when the pace was quicker than I anticipated.

"I was trapped three to four deep and a bit in no man's land. But luckily, I was able to get the fence and he was breathing very well from that point onwards.

"I took my time with him, but once I gave him a squeeze, he pinched a few lengths on the rest and kept hitting the line strongly all the way to the winning post."

Duric looked bitterly disappointed after he dismounted from Top Knight in the runner-up box for the third consecutive time.

Like most racing pundits, seven furlongs (1400m) was always seen as the Zoustar (Northern Meteor) five-year-old's only chink in the armour, but the Kranji ace still went in hoping he could get the thicker end of the prize-money with an ounce of luck.

Louis-Philippe Beuzelin and girlfriend Zoe, Michael White and Ivy Lim (I-r)

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

"He ran enormous. The winner is also a good horse, and my bloke did a great job to run him down half a length," said the three-time Singapore champion jockey, who knows Bold Thruster well for having steered him to his last two wins, including the Fortune Bowl.

"But I had to get working on him early today. They were scooting along, and he was struggling to keep up.

"He is screaming for the mile. He'll be hard to beat in the other two legs."

Another rider who is looking forward to the last two legs is Patrick Moloney, the first-time partner of the Shane Baertschiger-trained Aramaayo (Poet's Voice). The son of Poet's Voice (Dubawi) plugged away to finish fifth, around three and a half lengths off Bold Thruster.

"That was a great run. He is looking for more ground," said the Australian rider.

Bold Thruster is now the proud holder of a racing record that reads nine wins, three seconds and one third from 16 starts for prizemoney that has tipped over the S$800,000 mark for the Tivic Stable.

ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: After seconds (behind Funstar) in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600) at this track last preparation, the New Zealand filly Probabeel turned the tables with a very good win here. She settled back in sixth place before being shuffled back to be second last on straightening. Opie Bosson took her deeper and into clear running at the 300m and she then finished strongly to score a very good win. Funstar settled in last place from her outside barrier (11) before commencing her move rounding the home turn. She then moved up well, briefly took the lead at the 50m before fighting well for second in a good effort at her first run since October. Xilong tracked the leader (Kiamichi), took the lead at the 200m and then fought on really well for third in a promising effort resuming here with Lyre holding on well for (1.2 lengths) fourth and Missile Mantra running on nicely for (1.4 lengths) fifth. The favourite Flit was handily placed most of the way in fourth spot, put in a bid at the 200m and then held on for (1.6 lengths) sixth after seeming to have had every chance. [KB]

ALL TOO HARD

Another winner by the Champion 3yo

Analysis: Alligator Blood took his impressive record to 10 wins from 11 starts in taking out his first Group 1 victory in impressive fashion. After beginning smartly, he went to the front, was pressured to a degree at one stage but he was then able to establish a reasonable pace (first 1000m in 1:01.33). He lifted the tempo when challengers came at the turn, grabbed a break at the 300m and then went on to score comfortably. The West Australian Superstorm settled in sixth place, one off the rails, improved on turning for home and ran on very well to gain second in a photo from Soul Patch, who had enjoyed a good trip behind the leader and eventual winner, kept fighting on gamely for third. Chenier was (3.3 lengths) fourth after running on well from last in the eight-runner field at the home turn. Dalasan also did well in battling on nicely for (4.1 lengths) fifth while Catalyst raced below his best on this occasion. He had a nice trip in fourth place (one out and one back), briefly looked at threat on turning home but he just battled from that point to finish (4.3 lengths) sixth. [KB]

ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: After winning first-up at the elite level over 1400m at Te Rapa on February 8, Te Akau Shark made it successive Group 1 victories with a very good performance in winning here, his seventh win from 12 starts to date. He settled in tenth place from his wide barrier (12) but was still conceding the leaders about eight lengths nearing the home turn. He took a moment to respond to Opie Bosson's riding at the 300m and then stormed home to score a soft win at the post. Verry Elleegant settled in fourth spot, was third nearing the home turn and then moved up at the 200m. She hit the front at the 100m and then fought well for a very good second. Fierce Impact was seventh coming to the home turn, put in a good run from the 200m and kept battling on well for a good third. Avilius settled back in 11th place, on the rails, improved between runners at the turn and kept running on really well for (2 lengths) fourth in a good effort at his second run back. Happy Clapper raced outside the leader (Dreamforce) and held on well for (2.1 lengths) fifth, staging yet another very honest performance. Life Less Ordinary was handily placed on the rails and did very well in fighting on for (2.3 lengths) sixth while Homesman was fifth at the turn, was beaten for pace at the 200m before rallying well for (2.5 lengths) seventh, resuming here. Then followed: Dragon Leap (AUS), Monlula (NZ), Reggiewood (NZ), Den Bosch (AUS), Platinum Road (AUS), Lochwinnoch (NZ), Platinum Spirit (NZ), Shakespeare (NZ), Dalmatia (NZ), Tibetan (NZ), Vladivostok (NZ), Red Rufus (NZ) & Peloton (NZ), last.

Analysis: Sherwood Forest, a fighting third here two weeks ago behind Dragon Leap in the Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) outstayed the two warm favourites (Dragon Leap and Two Illicit) and proved too strong in the final stages of the 2400m test. He relished the extra distance and once finding the lead at the 100m was determined to keep it, his fourth win (second stakes) at start 11. Michael Walker had him positioned beautifully, one out and one back with a lap to run. Walker kept him there down the back straight and past the 1000m then moved forward to challenge the two leaders from the 800m and was almost alongside them, three deep rounding into the straight. At the top of the straight he was joined by the two favourites, forming a line of three and the battle was about to begin. The three were neck and neck until the 150m then he doggedly edged into the lead and staying on best, tired but gallant, was able to hold on by a length and a quarter. Two Illicit lost no admirers in defeat as she never gave up. She was midfield, in the clear one out from the 1200m, made a quick move from the 600m to be handy and sweeping into the home straight accelerated to be alongside the winner and Dragon Leap. The three fought each other hard to the 150m before she relented and had to be content with a brave second. Scorpz sat fifth last at the 1000m, moved forward very wide from the 600m and was a distant fourth at the top of the straight. He looked to have no chance but kept on gamely and was able to overhaul Dragon Leap for third in the last couple of strides. Dragon Leap tracked Two Illicit down the back, threaded through to be handy at the 600m and formed a line of three at the top of the straight. These three battled hard to the 150m but he weakened markedly late and was passed very late and had to settle for fourth.

Then followed: Bella Nipotina (AUS), Harmonium (AUS), Tilia Rose (AUS) & Queen Kay (AUS), last.

Analysis: Chris Waller-trained filly Hungry Heart, a daughter of Frankel (Galileo), was most impressive in winning here. Having her second start, after a debut second in a 2YO Handicap (1000m) at Flemington on January 11, she settled in last place from her outside barrier (7), tracking a good tempo before going deep on straightening. She then sprinted smartly, hit the front at the 100m and went on to score in very good style. The favourite Stellar Pauline worked in the early stages to find the lead. She then travelled well, held a break at the 200m but could not then hold off the late-closing winner for second, her fourth such placing in as many starts. Dismissal settled back in sixth place on the rails, improved along the inner at the home turn and then kept battling on well for third with Bella Nipotina holding on for (3.4 lengths) fourth after having a nice trip in third spot on the rails. Then followed: Postcode (AUS), Argenteus (AUS), Prague (AUS), Tommy Gold (NZ), Mission River (AUS) & Gorshin (AUS), last.

Analysis: John Thompson-trained colt Mamaragan, who was racing on debut, staged a very good effort in taking out this Group 2 race. He settled outside the leader (Postcode), travelling at a good tempo, before taking the lead at the 200m. He then fought back strongly to score a very smart win. Osamu settled near last (wide with cover), moved up well at the 300m, challenged at the 100m and then battled strongly for a good second. Aim settled towards the rear, going a bit keenly in stages. He was held up behind runners on straightening and then kept making good ground when clear to finish third in a sound effort. Postcode showed pace to lead and held on for (2.9 lengths) fourth. Argenteus was sixth on the rails and battled on quite well for (3.1 lengths) fifth with the favourite Prague holding on for (3.2 lengths) sixth after appearing to have had every chance. [KB]

ALL TOO HARD

Another winner by the Champion 3yo

Analysis: Team Hawkes-trained mare Dawn Dawn recorded her fifth win but her first stakes victory in 16 stakes in staging a good performance to win here. She was ridden patiently by Tommy Berry and settled in second last place in the 10-horse field, tracking a quick tempo. She commenced a wide move on straightening and then came with a late bid to grab victory on the post by the narrowest of margins. The favourite Sweet Deal went to the front but was pressured (by Con Te Partiro) in the mid-stages, going at a solid pace. But she grabbed a break at the 300m and looked the winner, only being overhauled in the closing stages for (short half head) second in a game performance with Pohutukawa running on really well from last to the home turn for a close-up third. Sweet Scandal raced in sixth place, moved up at the 200m and kept battling on for (1.7 lengths) fourth. Another Group 1 winner made in Europe

ANOTHER WINNER BRED IN IRELAND

Analysis: Fifty Stars made it back-to-back Blamey Stakes victories in putting up a good effort in winning here. Having his second run this preparation, he had little luck in the early stages and settled near last in the nine-runner field, but caught three wide. Craig Williams did not panic and simply let him improve gradually before gaining a trial (wide with cover). He moved up deep at the home turn, challenged at the 200m and finished too well to score a good win. Secret Blaze raced in third place, outside the leading pair (So Si Bon and Galaxy Raider). He challenged at the 300m and then did well in holding on for second after a difficult trip. Admiral's Joker settled in fourth place, with cover, improved at the turn and fought on quite well for third with So Si Bon (2.8 lengths) fourth after leading until the 200m. Galaxy Raider held on quite well for (3 lengths) fifth, Ringerdingding was (3.2 lengths) sixth after being held up a bit in the straight while Night's Watch finished (3.3 lengths) seventh after being badly blocked when he looked for an inside run in the straight. Then followed: Parmie (AUS), Spanish Whisper (AUS), The Closer (AUS), Benitoite (AUS), Cazabillie (AUS), Lady Loft (AUS) & Cryptic Jewel (NZ), last.

Analysis: Just as she did last start at Caulfield three weeks ago, Sylvia's Mother had to bump her way out of trouble to get a run and did best again making it back-to-back Group 3s and her seventh win in 11 starts. She dropped back to third last (rails) early but improved along the fence to sit midfield at the 1000m. From the 600m she was locked away and starting the long run home needed room. She got into a bumping duel (with Parmie) from the 400m but burst through inside the 300m and went after the lead. She chased hard, caught the leaders at the 150m then took over and to the line she held on well by a long neck. Mamzelle Tess sat fourth, one out at the 800m, moved out three wide at the 400m, co-led at the 250m but was not able to match the winner over the final 100m. Fidelia was last at the 400m, went widest and kept up a long strong run to nab third in the last stride from Parmie who was game to the line for a close up fourth.[LJ]

Then followed: I Am Superman (IRE), Cascadian (GB), Lanciato (NZ), Yulong Prince (SAF), Imaging (GB) & El Dorado Dreaming (AUS), last.

Analysis: Quackerjack, who was resuming after taking out the Villiers Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at this track on December 14, scored a narrow but very good win, taking his consistent record to eight wins and four placings from 19 starts. He settled outside the leader, challenged at the 200m and fought best to grab victory on the post. Vegadaze was quickly away and went straight to the front and he battled back very gamely for (short head) second. Rock raced in sixth place, improved from the 300m and kept running on quite well for third in a sound effort, resuming here. Irish import I Am Superman settled back in seventh place, commenced a wide move on straightening and kept making ground for (2.5 lengths) fourth while well fancied pair Cascadian (5th) and Imaging (8th) were handily placed but a bumping duel between the pair on turning for home did not enhance either of their prospects. Then followed: Bergamot (NZ), Seven Seas (NZ), Pineapple Girl (AUS), Kaipaki Road (NZ), Darcee Que (NZ), White Hibiscus (AUS), Octave (NZ) & Amal Rose (AUS), last.

Analysis: At career start six Communique kept up a strong run in the middle of the track to add to her maiden success here six weeks ago. She was third last with a lap to run, a clear second last starting the back straight and last but only eight lengths from the lead at the 1000m. Michael Walker sent her forward at the 800m and she was midfield but widest turning in. Out in the middle of the track she gained quickly on the leaders, ranged up to co-lead near the 100m then found more and was doing best by a long neck at the line. Stablemate Karalino was midfield at the 1400m, drifted to be fourth last at the 800m and still back turning in. In traffic at the 300m she went wider, switched back towards the fence then ran home very well for second. Meghan sat fifth (rails) at the 1000m, was trapped to the top of the straight then darted along the fence in the run to the judge and fought on strongly for third. Bergamot co-led three wide turning in, led at the 100m then fought to hold fourth.[LJ]

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNNG GRADUATE

Analysis: A fine third in the Group 1 Telegraph (1200m) at Trentham last month, Spring Heat got in the crucial last few strides here and took her record to five wins (two Group 3s) in 13 starts. She was midfield (one out) past the 1000m but lost her position from the 600m. Making ground turning in wide she balanced then went after the leaders, went wider still from the 300m and kept up a strong run, quickening at the 100m then stretched her neck to get the nod by a head. Its Destiny's Child sat midfield (rails) from the 600m, had a clear run from the 350m, led at the 200m and looked a chance but could not match the winner yet a gallant second. A top effort from Pretty To Sea who was second last at the 600m and kept on strongly next to the fence the length of the straight for third. Sheezallmine had her chances, fading late to just hold on for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Backing up from a win over 2400m here a week ago, Eperdument did just enough this time to hold on best of the seven runners. She settled third (rails) with circuit to run, remaining handy past the 1600m as well as past the 1200m. She seemed to lose touch inside the 800m but inherited the job of chasing the leader rounding into the straight. She caught the leader at the 200m and then stayed on best despite being challenged very late, just a long head in front. Master Chum was a clear last at the 1200m, improved quickly rounding into the straight and kept up a strong run, just failing to catch the winner. Pacemaker Heart Of Grace tried to slip them at the 300m, was caught but held on quite well for third.[LJ]

Another Group 1 winner made in Europe

Analysis: Placed three times since his arrival from the Northern Hemisphere, King Of Leogrance scored his fourth career win (and maiden stakes) fairly comfortably here. With a lap to run he raced fifth in the clear, holding his position past the 1600m. He made ground from the 800m then moved out four wide turning in. Near the 300m he went up to challenge, took over at the 200m and was in little danger under hands and heels to the line, clear by a length and a quarter. Dabiyr sat second leaving the back straight, forward to co-lead at the 600m and went clear at the 400m. He still led at the 300m, was caught soon after yet stayed on well. Naval Warfare had the run of the race in fourth from the 1000m, challenged three wide turning in but was not able to accelerate with the first two, battling on for third.[LJ]

Analysis: Trials-placed, raceday-debutant, Ilovemyself speared through late and flashed home for a good win here. He was away only fairly to settle back of midfield (rails). At the crossing he was caught in a pocket behind the pace and inside the 400m still had nowhere to go. The situation was no better at the 200m, however at the 100m he got a split, dashed through at the 50m and at the post was travelling best by three quarters of a length. River Night co-led at the 600m, co-led at the 400m and out by a length at the 100m but had no answer when the winner flashed by. Time Is Precious was third (rails) at the crossing as well as at the 300m, took over second at the 100m then held on quite well for third. [LJ]

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Analysis: The most experienced runner in the field, last start Moonee Valley winner Hard Rock Girl took her record to two wins in five starts with a solid three quarter length victory here. She was quickest into stride but held only a narrow lead past the 600m. Rounding into the home straight she increased her lead to a length and at the 300m tried to slip clear. Still out by two at the 200m the lead began to shrink but inside the 100m she had enough in the tank to hold on. Dottie Dee tracked the winner in third into the straight and sticking to the fence tried hard to the line for a game second. A good effort from Bribery who from third last turning in finished very well through the middle to grab third near the line.[LJ]

Analysis: The West Australian-trained mare Fabergino made her eastern states debut and she staged an impressive performance in winning here, her third victory at stakes level and her eighth in an 11-start career to date. She showed good early pace and travelled particularly well, holding a narrow lead in the centre of the track. She easily moved clear at the 300m and went on to score comfortably in the quick time of 56.55. Embrace Me was about seventh, behind runners, before commencing a move at the 300m. She then ran on nicely for a good second, without troubling the winner. Haunted raced fourth spot, not far off the leader, went to second at the 100m and then held on quite well for third with Gift Of Power holding on well for (3.3 lengths) fourth after being handy all the way.

$35,000, Inglis Great Southern Weanling & Bloodstock Sale 2017

V: Blue Gum Farm P: Hazelwood Place

Margins: 0.8 lens, 0.2 lens. Time: 1:16.34(last 600m 34.26).

Betting: $6.50, $21.00, $2.30.

Then followed: Woodcote Lass (NZ), Showoroses (NZ), Familia (NZ), Hasstobegood (NZ), Madam Hass (NZ), Avadane (NZ), Aretha (NZ) & Shampagne Dancer (NZ), last.

Analysis: Back in distance from her last start Group 2 third over 1600m here on New Year's Day, Star Of Bombay scored her third win (maiden stakes) at start five against this good field and would appear to have a bright future. She was quickly into stride and found the fence in third past the 1000m. Kept to the fence from the 600m and starting the run home she found room two off the fence. She took a while to balance but from the 200m she found her rhythm and darted to the lead at the 100m. Although challenged strongly she showed good determination and held them at bay by three quarters of a length. A super run from Bella Mente who was last at the 800m, closer but still last at the top of the straight then wound up strongly all the way to the line for second. An equally good run from Run To Perfection who was equal last at the 350m then zig-zagged his way between runners but ran out of steam just short of the line for a good third.[LJ]

(NZ), Ginny (NZ), Rockin Robin (NZ) & Hot Tap (NZ), last.

Analysis: At start 12 Miss Federer returned to winning form, her career fifth and third stakes after her Listed win at Riccarton last September. She was quickly away to lead early and passing the 800m was clear by more than a length. Hugging the rail turning for home she went further in front upon straightening, was clear by two at the 200m and after that the damage was done, the lead shrinking late but still with three quarters to spare at the line. All About Magic was handy fifth from the 800m, moved a little closer rounding into the straight and was left the responsibility of chasing the winner. She tried hard and was gaining late but had to settle for second. Trifolium finished quite well from midfield, doing her best work late for third. [LJ]
