Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) became arguably the most valuable stallion prospect in Australia yesterday, after the star colt continued his almost faultless career by taking out the $3.5 million Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill and vindicating the enormous investment in the industry made by Aquis Farm.

Shane McGrath described the victory as a "dream come true" for Aquis Farm founder Tony Fung and his family after setting up a significant three-state breeding operation and massive racing division in recent years.

"Twelve months ago we were aggressive in the market and we went and sourced these colts and it has paid off," Aquis Farm managing director McGrath told ANZ Bloodstock News. Continued on page 3>>

"I have been in Australia for 25 years and the whole thing in Australia is about winning a Slipper and it was a surreal moment today not being at Rosehill. I was with my wife and children and I was also with Peter O'Brien who has been a massive supporter of mine since I got here (from Ireland). I can't believe it.

"I rang Tony Fung and said, 'Boss, no matter what's going on in the world, you've just won the Golden Slipper and nobody can take that away from you.' I also spoke to Justin (Fung) in America and he was in tears because he's been such a big part of the journey as well."

The seventh Golden Slipper winner for Gai Waterhouse and first for her training partner Adrian Bott, Farnan produced an authoritative onspeed performance, holding off the challenge of runner-up, the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Away Game (Snitzel), by one and three-quarter lengths.

Debut Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Mamaragan (Wandjina) was another length back in third, while Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) finished fourth.

"What a thrill, I'm very honoured and very humble to do it alongside a legend," Bott said.

"For her to have six Golden Slippers, and now seven, and to do it with her, and with a colt with such quality, it's really special for all involved. She makes it easy because she just expects you to win.

"She's as confident as ever. Maybe I worry a little bit more, but she's always been confident and it is comforting to have that person alongside you who has been there and done it before so many times. Even down to the tactics, being dominant from that draw, was never a worry.

"He showed that tactical speed that he has always had and was able to control the race."

Farnan's jockey Hugh Bowman was elated after the race, even throwing his goggles to "the crowd" which consisted of just trainers and stable staff due to the lockout imposed because of the coronavirus outbreak.

"I'd just like to congratulate Gai and Adrian and their team for the preparation to develop this horse to behave and race the way he did this afternoon was second to none," Bowman said.

"I've been lucky enough to ride some really good horses over my career as everyone knows but I haven't ridden a better two-year-old.

"Just his mannerisms and his professionalism that is one thing but his ability is another.

"Sydney has been my home since I started riding and this is the signature race for me growing up and to win it - I'm just lost for words and so proud and thankful to connections to instil the trust in me to do the job."

Farnan is the first colt to win the Slipper since 2016 when the James Harron Bloodstock syndicate-owned Capitalist (Written Tycoon) won the race for Peter and Paul Snowden.

He ran tenth in the January race but returned from a freshen up with victories in the Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) and the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) two weeks later, before his crowning performance at Rosehill yesterday.

McGrath indicated that Farnan, who Aquis own in partnership with fellow international investor Phoenix Thoroughbreds, could now be spelled with a view to targeting the spring Group 1 races.

"He's the champion two-year-old, he is by a top sire and he is the horse that farms like us dream of," he said.

"When you go to the yearling market to source these colts, what are you trying to do? You are trying to buy a colt to win the Golden Slipper with a pedigree."

Farnan was one of four Aquis Farm-owned horses in the race, with $1.6 million colt Prague (Redoute's Choice) running sixth, while Rathlin (Fastnet Rock) finished second-last at triple figure odds. Tony Fung's wife Loretta also shares in the ownership of Away Game.

"It's phenomenal that we've ended up running the quiniela with Mrs Fung's and Hannah Mathiesen's filly Away Game," McGrath continued.

"I thought she was absolutely outstanding and, to be honest, half way down the straight I was thinking, 'please stop kicking' but Hughie said when the filly got to him the colt filled his lungs and went again. He's an awesome colt - he is a really awesome colt."

McGrath believes Aquis' pre-training facility at Canungra on the Gold Coast, overseen by Kacy Fogden, had been pivotal in the development of this season's juveniles owned by the Fungs.

"The reality is, every good colt that we've had, the Breeders' Plate, the Golden Slipper, the Pago Pago, they've all had one common denominator and that is that they've all come through our Canungra pre-training system," he said.

"At the end of the day, to Tony Fung and his family they gave us the money to invest and it's nice that it's paid off and I'm privileged to be a part of it."

Farnan (2 c Not A Single Doubt - Tallow by Street Cy), who was bred by Phoenix Thoroughbreds, was a $550,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase by Aquis Farm from the Vinery Stud draft. Phoenix Thoroughbreds retained a share in the colt who has won four of his five starts and $2,502,200 in prize-money though his stud value is likely to be at least ten times that.

Farnan is a half-brother to Listed winner and Group 1-performed Sandbar (Snitzel) while Tallow failed to get in foal in 2017 and 2018 and was covered by The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) last October.

"Farnan was one of our highest-rated yearlings at the Magic Millions and we went and bought him. We do a lot of partnerships with Phoenix. We were buying a lot of good colts together, so we said, 'why don't we race this horse together?'" McGrath said.

Pfeiffer gets Excited after Snitzel mare's Galaxy breakthrough

I Am Excited

SPORTPIX

David Pfeiffer's belief that I Am Excited (Snitzel) could hand the Sydney trainer his maiden Group 1 victory never wavered and that confidence came to fruition when the prized mare made a late dive to take out The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m).

Mares dominated the $700,000 open age sprint feature, with I Am Excited ($26) prevailing by a nose over Victorian mare Miss Leonidas (I Am Invincible) ($31) and Tofane (Ocean Park) ($16) a head away third in the photo finish.

Despite the elation of preparing his first Group 1 winner after 12 years in operation, Pfeiffer said the on-track atmosphere was like "being at the barrier trials" because of the crowd lockout.

"It was a great win, I didn't know whether to go the early crow or not because it was quite tight at the finish," Pfeiffer said.

"I was confident that the horse was going probably the best of her career. I suppose coming up the inside was probably not the right part of the track but she toughed it right out."

I Am Excited was sent to Melbourne for her first-up run this preparation, finishing fifth in the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) in February before returning to Sydney and using the Wenona Girl (Gr 3, 1200m) as her lead-in to The Galaxy.

The Group 1 milestone was not lost on Pfeiffer who trains from Warwick Farm.

He was also delighted that the Group 1 victory was achieved with strong supporters of his stable, the Ferguson family's Bell River Thoroughbreds and their partners who bred I Am Excited.

"It's my first Group 1 and hopefully it's not my last," the trainer said.

"I've been training 12 years so it's been a while coming. I've had runners in Group 1s and run placings and so forth, but getting that first win is very special."

I Am Excited was jockey Tim Clark's third win in The Galaxy and the 15th Group 1 of his career.

"The Galaxy was my first Group 1 and this is my third now so it has been a good race to me," Clark said.

"I'm very privileged to be able to take it out again."

The Shaun Dwyer-trained Miss Leonidas is likely to be retired after her narrow defeat.

"I couldn't be happier with her. I think that was her swansong, there was just one better than her on the day," her jockey Billy Egan said.

Aquis Farm's Shane McGrath said Pierata (Pierro), who will retire to the stud's Hunter Valley operation later this year, had pleased him with his first-up Galaxy performance after running on for fifth.

"I thought Pierata was super. He had to carry 59 kilograms, he had a bad barrier (9) and generally barriers and weight beat horses," he said. "I spoke to Greg (Hickman, trainer) afterwards and the last 100 metres was his best. First-up was always going to be a bit tricky and he's got four runs this prep. Two more in the (Sydney) carnival and off today's run he'll be a big watch for next start (in the T J Smith)."

I Am Excited (5 m Snitzel - Lady Beckworth by General Nediym) has won seven of her 27 starts, with a further nine placings for $1,215,475 in earnings.

Bell River Thoroughbreds, who also bred Group 1 winners Ace High (High Chaparral) and Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt), sold Lady Beckworth, in foal to Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock), at the 2016 Inglis Australian Broodmare Sale for $400,000 to Henry Field Bloodstock.

Castelvechio emerges out of shadow to claim Rosehill Guineas

Castelvechio, already assured of a place at Arrowfield Stud alongside his exciting young sire Dundee (High Chaparral), yesterday claimed the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) in an important reminder to breeders of the colt's talent.

The Richard Litt-trained three-year-old, who took out the ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) as a juvenile, had raced six times this season without a victory but the treasured colt had been twice runner-up at Group 1 level including in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m).

It was after that performance, when finishing second to star Japanese mare Lys Gracieux (Heart's Cry) at Moonee Valley, that Arrowfield Stud supremo John Messara swooped on the colt the farm had sold nearly two years earlier at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale.

After being forced to make a long, sustained run out wide first-up in the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on March 7, Castelvechio's Cox Plate jockey Craig Williams returned to the saddle yesterday where the colt settled much closer than in previous starts to go on and register his first victory at age three.

He held off JJ Atkins Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Prince Fawaz (Fastnet Rock), who returned to form in the Rosehill race, to score by half a length with another two and a half lengths back to Reloaded (Snitzel) in third.

Randwick Guineas winner Shadow Hero (Pierro), who also had Castelvechio's measure in the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) last preparation, was fourth.

Messara was in no doubt about the credentials of Castelvechio before the Rosehill Guineas and yesterday's victory only reaffirmed his opinion of the colt.

"Remember, this is a colt that had a really significant two-year-old career, winning on debut, winning the Inglis Millennium over 1200 metres so brilliantly before a dominant Group 1 victory in the Champagne," Messara said.

"Then he made that huge step in the spring to run second to one of the world's very best in the Cox Plate and now he's returned to emulate his sire Dundee as a Rosehill Guineas winner.

"All of that marks him out as a very special colt and I believe there's more to come."

Trainer Litt admitted the Rosehill Guineas success with Castelvechio was a relief.

"For me to reproduce another Group 1 winner, it's huge for my training career and very special," Litt said.

"There was a little bit of pressure. I always say pressure is for tyres but today we felt it and we're lucky we've got a great horse.

Castelvechio

"He showed his true colours and we're so proud of him."

Williams caught a chartered plane with a number of other jockeys and racing participants to Sydney after Friday night's William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) meeting in Melbourne and the jockey was glad he did.

"The horse came well into the yard and the owners paid a bit thinking he was the sire of the future like his father was. He's definitely doing that now," he said.

Litt suggested that Castelvechio was capable of contesting the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) before backing up a week later at Randwick for the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m).

"We will let his connections sit down over the next week and make that decision, today he looked like he was running away from them and he'd eat up a Derby," he said.

"But obviously we've got the Queen Elizabeth the week after that and there's wonderful prize-money so we've got plenty of thinking to do."

Shadow Hero's jockey Josh Parr said the gelding got too far back and that the tempo also counted against his mount's chances.

"We ended up four lengths further back than we would have liked in a stop-start affair. The gate was probably the difference," Parr said.

Anthony Cummings was delighted to see Prince Fawaz return to his best but was rueing a missed opportunity.

"I thought he was home for a bit and it was a Group 1," Cummings said.

"He took nice steps off his run last time and he's getting back to his right form."

Bought by Ottavio and Wendy Galletta at the 2018 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale for $150,000, the husband and wife now share ownership of Castelvechio (3 c Dundee - St. Therese by Dehere) with Arrowfield Stud, Japan breeder Katsumi Yoshida, Jonathan Munz's Pinecliff Racing, Alan Jones' Belford Productions and John Leaver's Planette Thoroughbred Trading.

Along with an impressive race record, Castelvechio also hails from a strong female family, being a half-brother to 2018 Spring Champion Stakes winner Maid Of Heaven (Smart Continued on page 9>>

<< Continued from page 8 Missile) and the Group 3 winner Mirrasalo (Redoute's Choice). His dam St Therese (Dehere) was a dual Listed winner in New Zealand and was also Group 1-placed.

She died last September after foaling a filly by Panzer Division (Redoute's Choice).

Castelvecchio has won four of his 12 starts with another four placings and has earnings of $2,930,750.

Thompson's honest Dreamforce scores breakthrough George Ryder win

John Thompson's patient approach with talented gelding Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock) has been rewarded after the consistent seven-year-old took out yesterday's George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m), to record his first win at the highest level.

Three times Group 1-placed before yesterday's breakthrough victory, the Randwick-trained seven-year-old was sent forward by jockey Nash Rawiller who eased him to the centre of the Rosehill circuit in the straight to maintain a winning break over Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m) winner The Bostonian (Jimmy Choux).

The Tony Pike-trained sprinter-miler finished a head away, with favourite Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) running on late to be one and three-quarter lengths back in third.

Three-year-old Brandenburg (Burgundy) was another head away in fourth.

"He's as honest as the day is long," Thompson said.

"His record speaks for itself. He's a real tough bugger.

"It's tough being a leader because you're doing the work all the time and are the one left there. That makes them vulnerable. But on his day he's as good as any of them."

Thompson said Dreamforce had raced a bit keenly in the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at his previous start but with Nash Rawiller back in the saddle, the horse relaxed and was able to sustain his run.

"He just had him in a nice rhythm today and when he can do that he gives a real good kick," Thompson said.

"Nash said to me before the race 'if I'm travelling well I'll get out into the better going' and when he came out so wide I knew he was confident."

Rawiller said: "I put the pedal to the metal well before straightening. I was sitting well out on the track but then cut the corner then continued out without knowing what happened behind me. I was hoping to throw them into disarray.

"He showed a lovely turn of foot but I really thought at the 100 metres that I was going to get beat. To his credit he lifted again and fought the other bloke off which was pretty thrilling."

Thompson and Rawiller have formed a strong partnership since the jockey returned to Sydney after his disqualification handed down in Hong Kong.

"He's been absolutely outstanding to me, he's a champion and future Hall Of Famer, and he's just an asset to my team," the trainer said.

Racing NSW stewards opened an inquiry into Opie Bosson's ride on Te Akau Shark after he remained wide on the gelding in the back straight. Bosson told stewards he believed the going on the fence was inferior and was also attempting to track The Bostonian in the run.

Dreamforce

SPORTPIX

Bosson added: "The 1500 metres was probably just a little bit too sharp for him today."

Dreamforce (7 g Fastnet Rock - Eskimo Queen by Shinko King) has won 12 of his 32 starts including five at stakes level, headed by the George Ryder. He has also been placed 11 times and has prize-money earnings of $2,188,135.

He was passed in at the 2014 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale (reserve $250,000) after being consigned by Kitchwin Hills, with his breeders, Sydney real estate agent John McGrath and friend Tony Crisafi under their Joy Luck syndicate, electing to retain the gelding to race.

"I remember heading into the 2014 Easter Sale with this fellow and Mick Malone, who was offering the horse on our behalf through Kitchwin Hills, said he didn't think he'd bred a nicer type on the farm in all his time," McGrath said of the horse who provided him with his first Group 1 winner as an owner.

"But as we got to the sale ... everyone said 'it can't walk'.

"I was talking to Gerald Ryan at the time and he told me not to worry, that he'd had plenty of good horses in the past that weren't good walkers so I didn't worry, and now he's a Group 1 winner. What a thrill."

Malone said: "This horse was the most magnificent Fastnet Rock you've ever seen but he had no action. He still doesn't, walking in the mounting yard before that race today I could still see it.

"If anyone ever tries to tell you that a horse who doesn't walk like a superstar means it can't be a superstar, they are so wrong it's not funny and this horse is the prime example of that. He's won over $2 million now. Wow."

Out of the dual Group 1-winning mare Eskimo Queen, Dreamforce is a half-brother to four other winners including the late stakes-placed two-year-old Deep Chill (Wandjina).

Eskimo Queen, who was bought in foal to Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) by Boutique Bloodstock's Andrew Dunemann and agent Paul Willetts at the 2019 Inglis The Chairman's Sale for $400,000, has a filly born last September by the champion stallion and was covered by first season sire Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) last October.

12 for Not A Single Doubt

Arrowfield Stud's recently retired stallion Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) landed his 12 individual Group 1 winner yesterday when the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Farnan (2 c ex Tallow by Street Cry) took out the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill. The son of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) has enjoyed a terrific career in the breeding barn but was retired from mating duties in January due to respiratory issues. He stood for a career-high fee of $110,000 (inc GST) in 2019 and has 23 yearlings on offer at the upcoming Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. Click here to view them.

ARROWFIELD STUD

Not A Single Doubt's former barn mate Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) also sired a new Group 1 winner at Rosehill yesterday, taking his tally to 14, as I Am Excited (5 m ex Lady Beckworth by General Nediym) landed the Galaxy Stakes (Gr 1, 1100m). Snitzel stood for a fee of $220,000 (inc GST) in 2019 and is currently the third overall leading sire in Australia by earnings and winners. I Am Excited joins fellow star sprinters Redzel, Trapeze Artist and Russian Revolution as Group 1 winners for their sire.

39 for Fastnet Rock

Coolmore's dual Champion Sire Fastnet Rock (Danehill) landed his 39th individual Group 1 winner yesterday when the John Thompson-trained Dreamforce (7 g ex Eskimo Queen by Shinko King) took out the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill. Dreamforce joins the likes of Merchant Navy, Foxwedge and Rock Magic as elite level winners for the sire who stood at Jerry's Plains for a fee of $165,000 (inc GST) in 2019.

31 for Pivotal

Cheveley Park Stud's Pivotal (Polar Falcon) sired his 31st Group 1 winner yesterday when the William Haggas-trained Addeybb (6 g ex Bush Cat by Kingmambo) won the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Rosehill. The six-year-old British raider fought hard to the line to edge out Chris Waller's Verry Elleegant (Zed) by half a length with last year's winner of the race and fellow son of Pivotal, Avilius, finishing over five lengths away in third. Addeybb will now head towards the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick on April 11. Pivotal stands at the Newmarket stud for a Private fee in 2020.

Marquand takes out first Group 1

Addeybb

GETTY IMAGES

It was a maiden Group 1 victory for young British jockey Tom Marquand aboard Addeybb in the Ranvet and he was thrilled to land his first elite level win in Australia for William Haggas who he has built a strong association with back home. "A Group 1 is all I have dreamt of since childhood," Marquand said. "An international Group 1, even more so. And an international Group 1 on an English horse, even better." Haggas' assistant trainer Harry Eustace, overseeing the stable's Australian team, credited Marquand's strong riding for the win. "The way he gets them rolling, the other jockeys think he's got less horse than he does so you wonder if they just commit that bit early," Eustace said. "He knows our horses are going to run all the way to the line, they were pretty fit when they came. I am just delighted for Tom to ride his first Group 1, it's fantastic we managed to get it for him."

Haggas' Young Rascal lands Manion Cup

Earlier in the card at Rosehill, Addeybb's stablemate Young Rascal (5 g Intello - Rock My Soul by Clodovil) took out the N E Manion Cup (Gr 3, 2400m), to set up a double for the William Haggas and Tom Marquand combination. Similarly to Addeybb, the five-year-old gelding had to fight off a strong challenge from short-price favourite Mugatoo (Henrythenavigator), who finished second by half a length, with Team Hawkes' Supernova (Intello) a further length and a quarter back in third. "He was very brave there because coming off the bend he looked beat," assistant trainer Harry Eustace said. "He has always been tough at home too and he dug deep. It is good to bring horses down here, but it's even better when they win." Young Rascal's next assignment will be in the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Randwick on April 11.

Four for Your Song

Widden Stud resident Your Song (Fastnet Rock) landed his fourth individual stakes winner yesterday as the Joe Pride-trained Miss Exfactor (5 m ex Search for Fame by Quest for Fame) took out the Birthday Card Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). Ridden by Jay Ford, the mare defeated Connemara (Fastnet Rock) by two and a quarter lengths, with Bangkok (Medaglia d'Oro) coming home another neck away in third. Miss Exfactor was a $70,000 Magic Million Gold Coast Yearling Sale Book 2 purchase by McLachlan Racing from the draft of Widden Stud. She is one of three winners out of Search For Fame (Quest For Fame) who herself is a three-quarter sister to dual Group 2 winner and Group 1 runner-up Impaler (Dracula). Your Song stood for a fee of $13,750 (inc GST) in 2019.

Pride mare shows Exfactor in Birthday Card

Joe Pride's decision to seize the moment by running Miss Exfactor at Rosehill yesterday paid dividends with the mare landing a valuable black-type win, with the trainer opting to start the mare while the races are still going ahead, concerned the coronavirus threat could halt the industry at any time. "It wasn't that I brought her here today thinking she was a good thing," Pride said. "She had done well during the week and there was an opportunity here, we've got a virus hanging over our heads and I just think every opportunity you get to run your horses you should do it."

California Zimbol takes out Darby Munro

Peter Snowden, who trains in partnership with his son Paul, believes California Zimbol (3 f I Am Invincible - Zimaretto by Anabaa) is up to winning at Group 1 level after taking out the Darby Munro Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Rosehill yesterday. "It looked a nice race for her and it worked out nicely," Peter Snowden said. "She won quite softly in the end. She's always showed she is above average. She hasn't been tested at the highest level yet. It was our thoughts to go to The Galaxy today but I just thought she was probably not going to get a run in that. There were some higher-rated horses struggling to get a run, so there will be a time for her. Where and when, I'm not quite sure yet." California Zimbol defeated Dawn Passage (Dawn Approach) by a neck, with Hilo (Lonhro) another neck away in third.

99 for Savabeel

Champion New Zealand stallion Savabeel (Zabeel) yesterday moved closer to a milestone when his daughter Missybeel (5 m ex Sitting Pretty by O'Reilly) broke through for a maiden stakes win in the Epona Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) at Rosehill. The 99th individual stakes winner for the Waikato Stud-based Savabeel, the Bjorn Baker-trained Missybeel defeated Gayatri (Pierro) by a neck, with Greysful Glamour (Stratum) a further length and three-quarters away in third. Missybeel was purchased by Baker and Blandford Bloodstock's Stuart Boman for $210,000 at the 2016 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale from the Waikato Stud draft. She is one of two winners out of the unraced mare Sitting Pretty (O'Reilly) who herself is a half-sister to five-time Group 1 winner Metal Bender (Danasinga).

Consistent Missybeel rewarded with stakes win

After the Bjorn Baker-trained Missybeel had landed a valuable black-type victory in the Epona Stakes her jockey Tim Clark said: "She had a nice run and relaxed well. That gave her a good opportunity to finish off. She followed the right horse, the grey horse took me everywhere I needed to go. She sprinted up well and toughed it out really strongly. It was a nice race for her against the mares to try and get some black-type."

Away Game 'outstanding' in Slipper

Ciaran Maher, who trains in partnership with David Eustace, was full of admiration for his Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) runner-up Away Game after she put in yet another terrific performance. "She was outstanding," Maher said. "She's just a real racehorse. She's been everywhere. She's raced in everything and that was probably her best run to date. She went from Melbourne to Sydney to Brisbane to the Gold Coast to Sydney to Melbourne and has now come back to Sydney again. And she's a two-year-old." Away Game's campaign might not be over yet, with the filly nominated for other feature juvenile races this autumn. "She's sound. She's a neat filly. Two-year-old is her time and that was arguably her best run," Maher continued. "She held her condition really well, almost a bit too well, leading into this race, which you love to see with a horse that's deep into a preparation, especially a filly."

87 for Teofilo

Teofilo

DARLEY

Darley Europe-based stallion Teofilo (Galileo) landed his 87th individual stakes winner yesterday when up-and-coming stayer Aktau (4 g ex Rare Ransom by Oasis Dream) took out the Mornington Cup (Listed, 2400m). Trained by Mike Moroney, the four-year-old European import produced a strong staying performance to defeat Inverloch (Fastnet Rock) by three-quarters of a length, with Skelm (Animal Kingdom) another neck away in third. Teofilo stands at Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €40,000 ($74,320) (inc GST) in 2020.

Aktau gains Caulfield Cup ticket

Aktau's win in the Mornington Cup has seen him gain a ticket straight into this year's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) and Mike Moroney's assistant trainer Jack Turnbull said the four-year-old will now be spelled ahead of his spring campaign. "He's been going since the spring carnival when he came over so he's done a marvellous job, and to win this race is just the icing on the cake," Turnbull said. "We bought him as a Cups prospect, and now he's got that ticket into the spring, and he's naturally going to get better with time. If you look at him he's just so raw and he's such a gawky bugger so the longer the better for him, but to do this now in this initial preparation is just fantastic."

41 for Mossman

Former Vinery Stud resident Mossman (Success Express) landed his 41st individual stakes winner yesterday, courtesy of Diamond Effort's (4 m ex Relativity by Geiger Counter) victory in the Hareeba Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Mornington. The Clinton McDonald-trained mare kept her unbeaten record this campaign intact, defeating Runson (Delazo) by a neck, with Seabrook (Hinchinbrook) flashing home to finish a further neck away in third. Domenic Romanelli purchased Diamond Effort for $140,000 at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale from the draft of Cornerstone Stud. Out of the five-time winning mare Relativity (Geiger Counter), she is a sister to four-time stakes winner Second Effort. Mossman was retired from stud duties in 2018.

Diamond Effort prevails in Hareeba Stakes

Following successive Caulfield victories to start the campaign, Diamond Effort added Saturday's Hareeba Stakes to her record, taking her tally to six wins from 12 starts. Clinton McDonald took advantage of giving Diamond Effort experience at Mornington on Tuesday and although the Caulfield-based horseman was concerned the mare may not have worked hard enough, her jockey Ben Melham thought she was spot-on. "I worked her on Tuesday and Clinton was worried I might not have done enough with her," Melham said. "I said 'don't worry about it mate, it'll win'. I was right but he was right as well because she was pretty fresh. She just fought me a bit in the run and did a good job to win, I thought."

Glenfiddich toasts Mornington Sires

Glenfiddich (Fastnet Rock), an Edinburgh Park-bred colt who brought $200,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale last year, could head to Sydney after a dominant Mornington Sires (1500m) victory yesterday. The Robbie Griffiths-trained Glenfiddich, who was runner-up in the Blue Diamond Preview (C&G) (Listed, 1000m) and then filled the same position in the Magic Millions Adelaide 2YO Classic (1200m) at his most recent start, defeated Albukhturi (Iffraaj) by two and three-quarter lengths. Amish Boy (Star Witness) was another three quarters of a length back in third in the $125,000 race.

Sydney Group 1s possible for Fastnet Rock colt

Robbie Griffiths believes Glenfiddich's pedigree will come to the fore when he takes the two-year-old to Sydney for the Inglis Sires (registered as ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) and the ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) next month. The Mornington Sires was not initially on the agenda for Glenfiddich but with the uncertainty over the coronavirus outbreak, connections decided to take in yesterday's race. "We were a little concerned in recent times as to whether or not we could cross the borders and how long racing is going to be restricted by what is going on with the virus," Griffiths said. "When he came through the Morphetville race so well, we thought coming here was a great opportunity for him and if we get through today, and all goes well, we can get to Sydney. That's what he's bred to do and everyone who has ridden him has been telling me to get him over that ground."

Chuck A Luck lands Mornington Guineas

Chuck A Luck (Niagara) broke through for his maiden Australian victory when taking out yesterday's Mornington Guineas (1600m). Having his second start since joining the Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young stable after an eight-race career in New Zealand, Chuck A Luck under Jye McNeil denied Power Scheme (Fiorente) victory by a nose with The Lifeline (Pierro) another length and three quarters away in third. "He's got a good motor and it was good to see him tough it out," assistant trainer Brendon Hawtin said. "It was a good ride from a good gate and he probably saved one-and-a-half lengths by cutting back to the fence."

Home track double for Yargis

Mornington trainers Amy and Ash Yargi posted a double at their home track Cup meeting courtesy of wins from Jamaican Hurry (Von Costa De Hero) and I'm Telling Ya (Reward For Effort). Amy Yargi said in frustration the stable had begun calling their second winner, I'm Teasing Ya. "He looms up, runs the quickest times of the race every week but just can't quite get there," she said. "He's as honest as anything and we're just so thrilled for him to break through after such a long time." After scoring successive victories, Yargi said the stable may now look interstate in a bid to claim a stakes race with Jamaican Hurry. "She's been slow to mature and I'm just rapt that the owners persevered with her. We might try and target a stakes race for her in Adelaide."

Emotional win for connections of Mishani Epic

Memories of the late owner Pattie Crooks were revived when Mishani Epic (Real Saga) came from the tail of the field to sail past the favourite Bellissimi Amici (Rothesay) and post a shock win in the QTIS 2YO Handicap (1400m) at Eagle Farm. Trainer Les Ross was emotional after the win as he was great friends with Crooks and her husband Mike, who still races many horses with him. "It is two years to the day that Patti died. I am a bit emotional as she was the one who named all the horses with the word Mishani in them," he said. "I think she might have been looking down on us today."

Beach life suits Brocson

Brocson (Telesto) continues to revel in life at the beach and marked himself as a possible winter carnival hope after he outlogged a field of handy stayers in the Souths Sports Club Handicap (2400m) at Eagle Farm. Trainer Michael Lakey said Brocson has done a lot of his work at Sandgate Beach and seems to thrive on it. "It is great for old horses like him to help look after his legs. Who knows he might go round in one of the longer staying races late in the carnival," Lakey said. "Brocson has always been a horse that just keeps on going and a 3200 metre race should be no problems for him. He has won eight races now and he should have enough prize-money to get into a few of those type fields."

Front-running way works for Get Stuck In

A plan to pitch Get Stuck In (Lucas Cranach) into a new role as a leader paid off when the gelding won the Gallopers Sports Club Handicap (1500m) at Eagle Farm. Baylee Nothdurft was gifted the lead on the five-year-old gelding who bowled along at a walking pace before beating Shogun Sun (Written Tycoon) by four lengths. Winning trainer Tony Gollan said he had devised a plan with Nothdurft to lead unless anything else wanted to go hard. "I saw they had put ear muffs on the only other possible leader in Prioritise. I thought he might miss the start wearing them for the first time and that is how it worked out," Gollan said. "Since he went up in grade and down in weight Get Stuck In has been racing very well. That was his seventh win and he might go on to win a Listed race at 1600 metres in the winter."

Four for Saxon

Wrinkly (6 g Saxon - Kyle Nadine by Marooned) marked the occasion of his 50th start with a breakthrough win in stakes company when landing the Grandstand Cup (Listed, 1500m) at Ascot yesterday. The Neville Parnham-trained six-year-old, who was winning his ninth race, beat Harry Thomas (Scandal Keeper) by a length with Platoon (Playing God) a further three-quarters of a length away. In doing so, Wrinkly became the fourth individual stakes winner for former Western Australian stallion Saxon (Danehill).

Listed win for unbeaten Gemma's Son

Gemma's Son (Snippetson) stretched his unbeaten record to four when he posted back-to-back stakes race victories by taking out the Perth Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Ascot yesterday. The David Harrison-trained juvenile beat runner-up Dark Assault (Statue Of Liberty) by two lengths, with the same margin back to Charleton Eddie (Shooting To Win) in third.

NEW ZEALAND

Scott Base takes out Tauranga feature

Scott Base (5 g Dalghar - Extra Celestial by Danehill Dancer) gained a first win since being switched to the care of Jamie Richards from John Benner and Hollie Wynyard when he dominated proceedings in yesterday's Japan Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) at Tauranga. Having his sixth run since moving to Richards and a first this campaign in blinkers, the five-year-old beat Polly Grey (Azamour) by two and three-quarter lengths with another half-length back to Ocean Billy (Ocean Park). "I've resisted putting the hood on him as I wanted to save that for a while," Richards said. "We thought he was just the type that could tear off a race like the Railway or Telegraph fresh-up wearing the hood but he just didn't quite get to where we would have liked so we stepped back and had a rethink. We will wait to see how he pulls up but a race like the Easter Handicap next month at Ellerslie looks a natural target now he has hit top form."

Eight for Ocean Park

Waikato Stud resident Ocean Park (Thorn Park) registered his eighth individual stakes winner when Out Of The Park (5 m ex Under And Over by Danasinga) came out on top in a blanket finish to the South Island Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton yesterday. The Robert Dennis-trained five-year-old just held on from the fast finishing pair Monza Circuito (Showcasing) and Beneficial (Highly Recommended). A $100,000 Karaka yearling purchase before being sold as a tried racehorse to current owners Mike Rennie and Jack Stewart for $14,000 on Gavelhouse, Out of the Park is out of Under And Over (Danasinga) whose four foals to race have all won. Ocean Park stands at Waikato for a fee of $15,000 plus GST.

Bargain buy scores for Dennis

Yesterday's win from Out Of The Park provided her connections with a further return on their shrewd investment. Having paid just $14,000 to buy the mare at online auction gavelhouse.com before sending her to Robert Dennis, owners Mike Rennie and Jack Stewart pocketed a further $46,875 in prize-money as she won for the fourth time in seven starts since they bought her. "I'm good friends with Jack and he had seen her on Gavelhouse and asked me about her," said Rennie, business manager at Waikato Stud. "She had always shown ability with placings in ten of 19 starts, so when I happened to see her at Brendon McCullum's place down the road and saw she was a ripper, I was keen to be part of it. Robert (Dennis) has done a great job with her. He's changed things up and fiddled with a few things and she has really turned the corner."

Neeson relishes southern stint

Neeson (O'Reilly) got his autumn campaign in the South Island off to the perfect start when he stormed home to claim yesterday's Hororata Gold Cup (1800m) at Riccarton. Prepared by Stephen McKee from his Ardmore base in South Auckland, the six-year-old was having his first run since finishing midfield behind Joe's Legacy (Guillotine) in the Kaimai Stakes (Listed, 2000m) at Matamata last month. "He tends to find 1600 metres a little sharp for him at this stage of his career and 2000 metres can be a bit too far so he is a difficult horse to place," McKee said. "Those 1800 metre races they run down there seem to suit him well so I spoke with his owners and we agreed to send him down." Now the winner of seven races from 40 starts, Neeson just edged out Diorissimo (Showcasing) and Pinup Coup (PIs) in a close finish.

ASIA

154 for Deep Impact

The late Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) sired his 154th individual stakes winner when Admire Virgo (3 c ex Elusive Wave by Elusive City) justified favouritism to remain unbeaten with a two-length success in yesterday's Wakaba Stakes (Listed, 2000m) at Hanshin. The Yasuo Tomomichi three-year-old scored from Chimera Verite (Kizuna), with American Seed (Tapit) another length and three quarters away in third.

Six for Kizuna

Deep Impact's son Kizuna was also among the winners when victory for Ablaze (3 f ex Etain by Jungle Pocket) provided the Shadai stallion with his sixth individual stakes winner by taking out the Flower Cup (Gr 3, 1800m) on the Nakayama turf on Friday. Trained by Yasutoshi Ikee, the three-year-old filly took her unbeaten record to two when beating runner up Red Le Reve (King Kamehameha) by three-quarters of a length, with a further length and a half back to favourite Season's Gift (Epiphaneia) in third.

INTERNATIONAL

Haras de Bouquetot suspend stallion activity

Haras de Bouquetot, the French breeding operation of Al Shaqab Racing, will close its doors on Monday and for at least two weeks in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic. There are currently eight stallions on the books at the stud, headed by much-vaunted young prospect Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) and Group 1 performers Olympic Glory (Choisir), Al Wukair (Dream Ahead), Ectot (Hurricane Rain) and Toronado (High Chaparral). Derby hero Ruler Of The World (Galileo) has joined the fold for this season, with the roster completed by Zelzal (Sea The Stars) and Mekhtaal (Sea The Stars). A statement from Bouquetot said that the decision was made in the "current context of human sanitary crisis and in the fight against the spreading of virus Covid-19". Covers already booked will be ensured until today but new bookings will not be accepted.

Another big win for supersub Harry in Stewards' Cup

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

When trainer Michael Clements made his choice from the only available three jockeys on standby for the replacement ride on Siam Blue Vanda (Echoes Of Heaven) in the Stewards' Cup (Listed, 1600m) at Kranji on Friday, little did he know he was about to give someone the opportunity of a rare double feat.

Even if Clements does not often book A'Isisuhairi 'Harry' Kasim, when he picked the former two-time Singapore champion apprentice jockey to replace Daniel Moor for the plum ride, he had no idea James Peters did the same four years ago in the same feature race.

The Malaysian jockey then turned supersub for champion jockey Manoel Nunes in steering Titanium (Tavistock) home for the English trainer in the Stewards' Cup, which was then run as the first Leg of the Singapore Four-Year-Old Challenge over 1400 metres.

"I feel sorry for Daniel Moor, but I'm happy this has been my night," said A'Isisuhairi, who has developed a knack of winning feature races at least once a year since his first in 2013, the EW Barker Trophy (Listed, 1400m) aboard Trudeau (Exceed And Excel) when he was still an apprentice.

"I remember I also replaced Manoel Nunes on Titanium and we won the same Stewards' Cup. Things keep rocking this year."

Uncannily, the come-from-behind style was more or less the same blueprint on Friday night, except that Titanium was even further back, seeing them all after beginning from the second-worst alley in 15.

One of a quintet of horses for Clements of which Top Knight (Zoustar) was the leading hope, Siam Blue Vanda ($34) was drawn much handier in six. He, however, endured a more chequered run, but the finish was just as robust when he was unleashed by A'Isisuhairi at the top of the straight.

Siam Blue Vanda (No 2) bears down on stablemate Top Knight

He copped a hefty bump from his stablemate Top Knight under Vlad Duric, who had actually pinched the first run on him from the 600m, and was looking all but home and hosed when slingshot in full flight.

Duric had obviously taken no chances with the early move after the son of Zoustar came up short at his last three starts, finding one better each time, including a second place to stablemate Bold Thruster (Turffontein) at his last start in the first Leg of the 4YO series, the Silver Bowl (Listed, 1400m) on February 29.

After missing the start by five lengths, Aramaayo (Poet's Voice) under Patrick Moloney had somehow snuck under the radar throughout the race, stealthily taking the shortcuts home and working his way through the field to jump out as the fresh horse on the scene at the 300 metres.

But his early blunder took its toll on him as Top Knight came zooming past him. With 50 metres to go, Clements and champion owner

Falcon Racing Stable's gallant horse was on the cusp of finally putting an end to his luckless run.

But A'Isisuhairi didn't think the fat lady had sung yet. Though interrupted in mid-stream, he deftly got his mount back on an even keel before setting out to nab that second Stewards' Cup silverware as an emergency jockey. The two Clements-trained runners lunged, and it became sweet déjà vu for A'Isisuhairi, but another bitter pill to swallow for Duric and Top Knight, beaten a short head.

Aramaayo was brave in defeat, taking third place another length and a half away, splitting up what would have been yet another outrageous Clements dominance in the 4YO series. After the Zimbabwean-born conditioner hogged the Silver Bowl with the Bold Thruster, Top Knight and Siam Blue Vanda trifecta, he would have pulled off an unprecedented quintet had Aramaayo not upset the hegemony.

On Line (O'Reilly) ran on for fourth place another head away while Real Success (Reset) and Vittoria Perfetta (Zoustar) filled into fifth and sixth place respectively. The winning time was 1min 34.63secs for the 1600 metres on the Long Course.

"We got a bit squeezed in the straight. That made me lose a length," said A'Isisuhairi as he looked back on his ride.

"When I peeled him out, he gave me another gear. He's such a tough bugger.

"He really gave me everything. In the parade ring, I saw he looked really good."

That second Stewards' Cup hurrah also capped a great night at the office for A'Isisuhairi. He won the previous race aboard $390 longshot Lim's Samurai (Samurai Heart), prompting the likeable Kelantan-born jockey to reflect on his fairly successful journey at Kranji since returning from his early apprenticeship in New Zealand.

"I had a bad year in 2018 - it wasn't really a bad year as it's part of the ups-and-downs of a jockey, but I just continued with what I've been doing all these years," he said.

"Last year was better as (trainer) Shane

Assistant-trainer Michael White, jockey A'Isisuhairi Kasim and trainer Michael Clements. SPGTC

Baertschiger supported me on his two-year-olds in those Restricted Maiden races and I also won two Group races with his champion horse, I'm Incredible.

"You have the confidence when you are still winning. Whether you were a champion jockey or champion apprentice, people forget that, but you just have to keep working hard."

ANOTHER WINNER
BRED IN IRELAND

Analysis: Addeybb staged a strong staying effort in taking out this Group 1 race in impressive fashion at his Australian debut. Having his first run since second in the Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Ascot in October, he was soon taken to the front by Tom Marquand and he then travelled nicely at a reasonable tempo. He was challenged strongly nearing the home turn, was briefly headed in the straight but then responded gamely to Marquand's riding to prove the superior stayer at the post, his eighth win and his first at Group 1 in 16 starts. The well-supported Verry Elleegant moved up early on and then raced in second spot most of the way before putting pressure on the leader and eventual winner coming to the bend. She got to a narrow lead at the 300m and then battled well for a very good second. Avilius enjoyed a good trip back in fifth spot, one off the rails with cover, before improving well approaching the home turn to be third on straightening. But he failed to make further ground on the first pair and then fought on to hold the minor placing. Nettoyer settled at the tail of the seven-runner field and she remained there until into the straight before making ground for (7.6 lengths) fourth. [KB]

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: After being placed three times previously at Group 1, Dreamforce broke through at the elite level, staging a good front-running effort. He went to the front as expected but Nash Rawiller was able to set a reasonable tempo before lifting the pace with the gelding from the 600m. He got a break on straightening and then fought back gamely to score a very good win. The Bostonian had a nice trip in fourth place, improved coming to the home turn, went to second at the 200m and kept making ground from there, getting to within a short-neck of the winner at the post for a very good second. The favourite Te Akau Shark raced just beyond midfield, but three deep. He improved (wide) nearing the home turn and then ran on quite well in the sprint home to take third, without looking a winning chance, the lack of a strong early tempo proving a disadvantage. The three-year-old colt Brandenburg raced in third place on the rails to the home turn and then held on well for (1.7

lengths) fourth, with Alizee battling on quite well to hold (3.5 lengths) fifth after being in a similar position on the rails to the home turn. [KB]

Analysis: Castelvechio, winner of the Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at two became a dual Group 1 winner in taking out this three-year-old feature. After beginning smartly, he settled much closer than expected under Craig Williams, racing in fifth place on the rails. He improved between runners nearing the turn, switched wider to put in his claim on straightening, hit the front at the 200m and then fought strongly to win well. Prince Fawaz led early on before settling in third place on the rails. He moved up on turning for home, took the lead at the 300m and then fought gamely for a very good second, beaten a half-length. Reloaded raced in eighth place, improved behind runners at the turn, went to third at the 200m and then battled on nicely to hold that position at the post. The favourite Shadow Hero settled beyond midfield in tenth place, commenced a wide move coming to the turn and kept making ground steadily in the sprint home, without threatening, to finish (3.3 lengths) fourth. The Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Warning had a good trip in seventh place on the rails, got along to inner at the turn and kept battling on reasonably well to finish (3.7 lengths) fifth. Analysis: The favourite Farnan staged a brilliant performance in overcoming a difficult barrier (12) in winning here, his fifth win in six starts and his first at the elite level. He was quickly away and then worked in the early stages before crossing to the front. He turned for home, away from the rails in looking for the better going, lifted gamely when challenged at the 200m and then drew clear again to score quite comfortably by a length and three-quarters. The Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Away Game was smartly away from her good barrier (3), led early on before settling in third place on the rails. She had clear running on the rails at the turn, challenged gamely at the 200m and then fought well for a very good second in a smart performance. Mamaragan settled nicely in seventh place on the rails, not far off the leaders, from his inside barrier (1). He got along the rails on straightening, put in a strong bid at the 200m and then battled on very well for third in a very good effort at only his second race start. The Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa settled in fifth place, between runners, improved (under riding) coming to the turn and then kept battling on really well in the straight for (4.1 lengths) fourth with Hungry Heart running on nicely from eighth at the turn for (4.3 lengths) fifth in a promising effort at only her third race start. Prague held on well for (4.9 lengths) sixth after a wide trip, with Dame Giselle holding on for (5 lengths) seventh after being fourth at the home turn. Analysis: The David Pfeffer-trained mare I Am Excited recorded her first Group 1 victory after two wins at Group 2 level with a smart performance here. Having her third run back, she settled nicely in midfield on the rails from her good barrier (2), tracking a quick tempo before improving along the inner at the turn. She challenged at the 200m and then fought best to win well. The speedy mare Miss Leonidas went to the front and then travelled along at a quick pace. She went deeper on turning for home but still held an advantage and was only caught on the post for (half-head) second after running a bold race. Tofane settled in sixth place, between runners, and not far off the leaders before taking a split at the 200m. He then battled strongly for a close-up third. Deprive ran on well from 11th at the home turn for (2.2 lengths) fourth. The top-weight (59kg) Pierata made very good late ground from back in 12th at the turn for (2.3 lengths) fifth in a very sound first-up performance, while the favourite Cosmic Force disappointed in finishing (5.4 lengths) 13th after being midfield to the turn. Analysis: Scott Base returned to the form that saw him win the Karaka Classic (RL, 1600m) and Wellington Guineas (Gr.2, 1400m) as a 3YO, racing away for a big win here, his career fifth at start 21. He began well to settle fourth (rails) passing the 1400m. From the 800m he improved to third and tracked the pacemaker from the 600m and into the home straight. Presented with a lovely split, he balanced then went after the leader, caught him at the 150m and then raced clear, away by two and three quarter lengths at the post. Polly Grey sat third to the 800m then fourth (one out) at the 600m. She went four wide at the top of the straight then tried hard all the way to line, but was never going to catch the winner. Ocean Billy sat third-last at the 600m, moved out at the 350m and then finished quite well for third. Favourite The Mitigator led them into the straight, looked to kick clear but was swamped from the 150m and had to settle for fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Think It Over (AUS), The Chosen One (NZ), Raheen House (IRE), Sweet Thomas (GER), Red Cardinal (IRE), Yogi (NZ), Primitivo (AUS) & Wu Gok (AUS), last.

Analysis: Having his first run in Australia fresh up from an unplaced Group 1 ninth in Hong Kong in December, Young Rascal, a three-time Group 3 winner in England, refused to lie down from the 300m and looks to have a good future here. He found the one out one back position rounding out of the home straight with a lap to run and remained there from the 1600m to the 800m, before moving into third from the 600m. He formed a line of four at the top of the straight, was headed at the 300m but clawed his way into a narrow lead at the 150m and refused to lie down to the line for a tenacious long neck win. Going for four in a row, favourite Mugatoo sat sixth at the 1200m, rushed forward from the 600m and was one of four in line at the 400m. He led narrowly at the 300m but was worn down by the winner close to the line. Supernova was third-last (inner) at the 600m before finishing solidly in the straight for third from pacemaker Think It Over, who held on gamely for fourth. Analysis: Missybeel upset her better supported opponents in taking out her maiden stakes win and sixth career success. She led early but approaching the 1600m was passed and starting the back straight sat a handy third. Holding the rail in third from the 600m, she moved out rounding into the home straight and went up to challenge the pacemaker. Still second at the 300m, she caught the leader at the 200m, pushed out to a length lead at the 100m and that was enough, despite a late challenge, to hold on by a head. Gayatri was back of midfield at the 800m, accelerated from the 600m and turned in five wide. In the straight she kept on strongly, lunging late to just come up short. Greysful Glamour led down the back and rounding into the straight. She was caught at the 200m but held on well for third from

Aliferous, who mounted a promising run from the 500m but in the straight could only battle best of the rest for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: Starfield Impact made it back-to-back stakes wins and took her record to three wins from six starts with a solid effort here. She was first away but soon dropped into the trail one out, then was shuffled back to fifth approaching the 600m. Rounding into the straight she was briefly in a pocket, found room upon straightening and went after the lead. Into second at the 200m, she then took over near the 100m and had enough in reserve to hold on by a half length. It was a good run from Watch Me Dance who from third-last at the 600m went widest from the top of the straight and finished strongly for second. Come Magic led them into the straight, slipped a length clear at the 200m but was caught a few strides later then stuck on for third from American Choice who also finished well from well back for fourth. Analysis: Having her first start at stakes level and in a crowded finish, Out Of The Park thrust her head in front in the last couple of strides to gain her fourth career win. She was quickly into stride but past the 1200m eased to sit fifth, one out. Sixth at the 800m, she found herself in a pocket rounding into the home straight. A wide gap opened at the 300m but she was not able to accelerate, taking a long time to wind up. Inside the 200m she gradually gained, levelled up to make a line of four at the 50m and then thrust her head in front two strides from the line. Monza Circuito sat third, three wide from the 800m, made a line of three at the top of the straight but began to struggle. She found some more at the 150m and went up to be one of four chances, and fought strongly but was nipped just short of the line. It was a super run from Beneficial who from third-last at the top of the straight threaded between runners and then flew hard late for a close up third. Skaaboom was one of three in line at the 400m, led narrowly to the 50m before being swamped late. [LJ]

Analysis: Well supported from longer odds, the Joe Pride-trained mare Miss Exfactor broke through for her first stakes victory here, her fifth win in 18 starts. She began well from her good barrier (4) and settled in third place on the rails, behind a quick tempo. She improved along the rails at the 300m, hit the front shortly after and then drew clear to win decisively, showing her liking for affected going at her third run back. Connemara settled in fifth place on the rails, took a split at the 300m and then kept fighting on quite well for second with Bangkok making considerable late headway from back in 12th place to gain third in a photo from Seasons, who held on well for fourth after being handy all the way. The favourite Kiamichi worked outside the leader (Invictus Salute) before fading late for (2.8 lengths) sixth. [KB]

Then followed: Mirra Vision (AUS), Hawker Hurricane (AUS), Mo's Crown (AUS), Designated (AUS) & Dirty Work (AUS), last.

Analysis: Second up this campaign, consistent California Zimbol added a second stakes win in an eight-race career with another honest effort here. She got away well before easing to third (away from the fence) past the 800m. Rounding into the straight she moved three wide to sit just back off the lead, balanced she then went up to form a line of three at the 300m. She took over at the 200m and had a length on them at the 100m which was enough to hold out two challenges near the line by a neck. A shade unlucky, Dawn Passage was last at the 800m, keeping to the fence from the 600m and although travelling well near the turn in, he needed a run. A split presented itself at the 200m and he drove through, but too late. Hilo was third-last but three wide at the 600m, tracking the winner into the straight, he looked to switch to the inner then out again, keeping up a solid run for third. Mirra Vision was handy enough at the 400m but could not quicken, holding on for fourth. Analysis: Favourite Gemma's Son was much too good and maintained his unbeaten record at start four, clearing out over the final 100m to win easily. He settled in the perfect one out one back position down the side, improved to third rounding into the straight but took some time to warm up. When he did he descended upon the leader and flashed by at the 100m and then drew clear for an easy two-length win. Dark Assault sat a half-length second at the 800m, went forward and took over rounding into the straight and led them in. He looked to kick clear but was collared at the 100m, then held on well for second. First starter Charleton Eddie led but was tackled at the 400m yet fought bravely in the straight, fighting back when headed to grab third near the line. [LJ]

Then followed: Western Temple (AUS), Yeah Dardy (AUS), Tom Melbourne (IRE), Tellem We're Comin (AUS), Red Publisher (AUS) & Pushin' Shapes (AUS), last.

Analysis: After 50 starts including 20 at stakes level, Wrinkly finally broke through, leading for most of the race and finding more late for a hardy maiden stakes win and ninth career success. He was away well, but inside the 1400m went forward to lead. At the 1000m he went more than a length clear and held that margin into the straight before the lead shrunk at the 200m. He dug in, wobbled at the 100m, then found some more at the 50m and was still a length in front at the line. Harry Thomas sat third from the 600m, hugged the fence rounding into the straight and went after the winner. He looked to have a chance at the 100m but came to the end of his run short of the line. Platoon was fourth-last at the 600m, went widest into the straight and finished well but too late for third. Western Temple was fifth turning in then battled on best of the rest for fourth. Analysis: Favourite Aktau saved his run until the 200m and raced past the leader late to win convincingly, his maiden stakes success, a third win from four Australian starts and a fourth overall. He was fifth-last, one out with cover with a circuit to run and remained there past the 1200m. Inside the 600m he was shuffled back to third-last but made a sharp move rounding into the short straight. In a pocket, he saw space at the 200m and charged after the leader, gathered him up at the 50m and was doing better at the line by three quarters of a length. Inverloch sat second down the back and down the side to the 600m then overtook the leader at the 400m. In front by more than a length at the 200m, he looked a big chance but was caught at the 50m before holding on for second. Skelm was wide and last at the 800m, went around them turning in and flashed into third short of the line from Stars Of Carrum who was fourth turning in, third at the 100m but nabbed late to run fourth. Analysis: Diamond Effort grabbed the leader in the final 50m to win well, her sixth win in 12 starts and is now a stakes winner. She began well to sit third early but three wide, where she remained down the side until turning into the short straight. The new leader shot clear so she was left to be the main chaser, caught him at the 50m and was doing best at the line by a short neck. Having led early, Runson dropped into second, one out from the 800m and then shot to the lead rounding into the straight. He tried to slip clear but was caught inside the 50m and had to settle for second. Seabrook sat fourth-last and wide at the 600m, turned in six deep and then ran home strongly for third. Vainstream was handy enough at the 200m and fought on quite well to hold fourth. VERDICT Evan Almighty finished fourth over C&D on his debut four weeks ago and ought to have more to offer but his wide draw is a negative today and it might pay to take a chance on Jimmy Ting's newcomer SKY SHOW, who won a trial last month and has the assistance of Zac Purton today. Breeze Of Spring wasn't at his best last time but is still considered each-way.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Family Leader, 4 Menaggio, 5 Party Everyday, 8 Fantastic Boy, Full Power, Sunny Power, 10 Decisive Action, 16 Go Ballistic, Indigenous Star, 20 Baby Storm, 25 Amazing Luck, Jimmu, 66 Happy Ichiban, 100 Joy N Fun Legend.

VERDICT Joao Moreira's mount Family Leader moves back up in trip after finishing second over an inadequate 7f three weeks ago and remains well handicapped but consistency is not his strong-suit and he's not an easy one to predict. Preference is for low-mileage 4yo MENAGGIO, who looked suited by the step up to 1m when third over C&D three weeks ago. Party Everyday was just behind the selection on his latest outing but should also feature.

VERDICT The booking of Joao Moreira heightens interest in Douglas Whyte's newcomer Galactic but GOOD LOOK FRIEND was very strong in the closing stages when fourth over C&D on his debut a fortnight ago and ought to have learned from that experience. He gets the nod. Yee Cheong Pegasus has been in good form for his new stable this season and is next on the list.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Heza Beauty, 6 Hinyuen Swiftness, Tung Wah Glory, 7 Sumstreetsumwhere, 8 Courageous Dragon, Party Genius, 10 Circuit Hassler, Classic Posh, Triple Triple, 16 Moon Peaks, 25 Skye Supreme, 33 Happy Reunion, 66 Tailor Made, 100 Stunning Impact.

VERDICT There should be more to come from HEZA BEAUTY, who did well to finish fifth after missing the break on his debut, and also lost significant ground at the start before filling the same position on his second outing. With Joao Moreira taking over in the saddle, John Size's 3yo might well get his act together today. Sumstreetsumwhere reached the frame over 6f on his latest start and ought to be seen to better effect over this longer trip. Hinyuen Swiftness and Tung Wah Glory are others to consider.

3.00 Designs On Rome Handicap (Class 3) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £79,932.30 6f

BETTING FORECAST: 15-8 Ping Hai Bravo, 9-2 Baltic Success, 5 Happy Alumni, 6 Glenealy Generals, Happy Time, 14 Beauty Loyal, Hall Of Champ, 25 Blotting Paper, 33 Beauty Amigo, Stanley Park, 50 Golden Spectrum, The Weatherman, 100 Marvel Dragon.

VERDICT This most appealing option is PING HAI BRAVO, who opened his account in pretty good style over C&D last month and has performed well in defeat since. Baltic Success lost out only by a neck here three weeks ago and is earmarked as a likely danger. Happy Alumni is also in good form, while Glenealy Generals will appreciate today's drop back in trip and can also feature.

3.35 Akeed Mofeed Handicap (Class 3) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £79,932.30 1m2f

£140232.11 guaranteed For 3yo+ High Rev's Handicap Mark 85 Penalty value 1st £79,932.30 2nd £30,851.06 3rd £16,126.69 4th £8,413.93 5th £4,908.12

VERDICT An open race where Manfred Man's unexposed 4yo SUPER FAST is the tentative selection. An impressive winner of his only start in Ireland; he is up to a more suitable trip here and can claim a first Hong Kong win. Last time out winner London Hall may prove to be the main danger.

4.05 Luger Handicap (Class 3) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £79,932.30 6f

£140232.11 guaranteed For 3yo+ Weight for age 3 from 4yo+ 13lb King Of Hearts's Handicap Mark 79 Penalty value 1st £79,932.30 2nd £30,851.06 3rd £16,126.69 4th £8,413.93 5th £4,908.12

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Wellington, 3 Victoriam, 7-2 Eternal Harvest, 8 Kurpany, Namjong Sings, 10 E Star, 12 King Of Hearts, 20 Larson, 66 Monkey Jewellery, 100 bar.

VERDICT A competitive race for the grade with a few unexposed types potentially capable of better. Eternal Harvest is respected following a wide margin victory last time out and Hong Kong debutant Kurpany needs a market check following some sparkling trackwork but preference is for hat-trick seeking WELLINGTON who can maintain his unblemished record.

4.35 BMW Hong Kong Derby 2020 (Conditions) (4yo) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £1,102,514.51 1m2f

VERDICT The top three on the racecard, GOLDEN SIXTY, Champion's Way and More Than This, were the first three home in the first two legs of Hong Kong's 4yo Classic series and there's a good chance that trio will dominate this prestigious event too. Golden Sixty readily justified warm favouritism in both those races and is selected to enhance his excellent 9-10 career strike-rate. There probably won't be much between the other two but More Than This might see out today's trip slightly better.
