Bloodstock agent Moore preparing for the future

The Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale Round 2, to be held in conjunction with the Inglis Scone Yearling Sale at Riverside Stables on Sunday, will be the latest unusual quirk in a sales season that has been upended, rearranged and impacted heavily by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Australia's strict quarantine protocols will prevent any international visitors who are not already in the country from being at Inglis' Warwick Farm complex, creating a different market for a prized group of yearlings.

Among those who will be absent is Hong Kong-based bloodstock agent George Moore, with quarantine ensuring that he is logistically unable to be in Sydney for the sale before returning to the Asian mecca as his father John wraps up his Sha Tin training operation after 35 years.

Great Southern Sale moved to Sydney

Inglis announced yesterday that the Great Southern Sale, which was set to be held in Melbourne, will be brought forward and conducted in Sydney on July 9 in the wake of a spike on Covid-19 cases in Victoria. "Following significant consultation with vendors and buyers, it has been agreed to move the Great Southern Sale to Sydney," Inglis said. Continued on page 8 >>

"Unfortunately, I won't be able to buy at Easter Round 2 as I really would want to be down there inspecting these horses," Moore told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. "I'm really not one to be buying blind and we did already buy four horses at the initial Easter sale, so I won't be involved."

"Easter was stronger than I expected given everything that's happening, I reckon that could be the same for Round 2, but I'm not sure that we'd have any more space to add some more yearlings to dad's new Australian stable."

"There will always be money from Hong Kong though so I'm sure there will be Hong Kong interest."

While John Moore still has five meetings to go in Hong Kong before the season ends at Happy Valley on July 15, he has already begun to implement programs with his brother Gary that will ensure that the training partnership can hit their straps quickly when they officially begin working together on August 1.

"We're not sure at the moment when dad will get to Australia, it depends on a few different things, but he is excited to get there," George Moore said. "We've got some really nice horses going into the stable and they all need to be prepped so I'm pushing for dad to get down there earlier, even if he has to do the two weeks of quarantine. He's changing his mind a bit but it won't be too long before he's in Australia. The horses are already under their system and on their feed so it's a process."

John Moore

HKJC

The Moores will have 24 boxes at Rosehill and their stables will be full of some of the most expensive horseflesh in the land. Among their supporters will be China Horse Club, Newgate Farm and Arrowfield Stud, while Hong Kong-based owner Boniface Ho is set to join forces with the Moores; that will be a new association, with John Moore not training any of Ho's horses in Hong Kong.

However, the issue may not be filling the boxes but it may be finding the space, especially given the Moore family already owns a number of horses that race in their white and maroon colours as well. Continued on page 4>>

"There are a couple of horses I bought with China Horse Club which are already in the stable, like the Snitzel that we bought out of Girl Hussler, the half-brother to Manuel and a horse we know from Hong Kong in Taking Aim that we bought for $875,000 at Easter," George Moore said.

"We've got two big lots from Arrowfield, a Snitzel and a Not A Single Doubt, they are two million-dollar horses. We've got the half-brother to Aethero and Classique Legend, Bon Ho bought him for $1.1 million at Easter, that's already in the stable. We've got a Capitalist colt for Bon Ho too and dad has a Siyouni filly from a good European family, so that's five.

"And then we've got a couple of Vincent Li's horses, one of the owners from Hong Kong - he has Larson and Shouson with us in Hong Kong at the moment - as well as our purchases from Easter and from Magic Millions, so that's another eight or so. We've got some horses with stables in Sydney that will come across to us and we have to fit in our personally-owned horses too - I have shares in nine different horses and, while some of them may be heading to Hong Kong and won't go through his stable, five or six of them will be with him. Dad has got shares in some too.

"We don't have much room, but dad wants to have a very exclusive stable with high-level horses."

A lot of the focus has been on John Moore's forced retirement in Hong Kong after he turned 70 in March, bringing to an end a 35-year career that saw him win seven Hong Kong championships, prepare numerous top-class gallopers including the last six to be named the Hong Kong Horse of the Year, and set new Hong Kong records for career wins (1731) and prize-money (almost HK$2 billion or AUD$375 million).

However, the effect of Moore's departure from Hong Kong is more widespread as it will change the operation of his son's George Moore Bloodstock operation, with the 38-year-old one of the major players in the lucrative market.

That said, the younger Moore says it will be mainly a superficial change, with the agent buying horses like JJ Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) third The Drinks Cart (Unencumbered) and Hampton Court Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2f) placegetter Berlin Tango (Dansili) for Hong Kong clients in recent days.

"I'm staying here in Hong Kong - my business is separate to dad's business," he said. "I will still be selling to my own clients and I guess the major difference is that we have to figure out which stables they will be going to now. My whole business structure is changing slightly because I need to supply horses for dad's stable too, which is fine by me, but Hong Kong will still be a priority.

"It's a bit of a difficult market at the moment as a lot of horses aren't for sale. We've been trying to buy a number of horses recently in both Europe and Australia and a lot of our offers have been knocked back. One example is Pyledriver, a lot of Hong Kong buyers would love to get their hands on him, but he's not for sale as he's going to the Derby next week. The clients are still there, they are still buying horses, but it's been hard to get these offers accepted.

"It's interesting too because, during the lockdown, it was obviously difficult to source horses in Europe and New Zealand given they weren't racing, so buyers were paying a premium to get horses from Australia. Some of the offers that were on the table for horses like Masked Crusader, Kinane and Shadow Hero were very big; obviously, only Shadow Hero was sold in the end."

The acquisition period for horses bound for Hong Kong generally follows an unofficial set calendar, based on when the big races are run and the timetable to get horses into the city ahead of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series.

The weeks after Royal Ascot present as one of the most important windows, with the three-year-old features usually done and dusted. However, with the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) being run next weekend along with the Prix du Jockey-Club (Gr 1, 2100m), the usual schedule has been thrown out the window.

"There's not that many horses that are coming out of Ascot that I know about," Moore said. "There was quite a bit of interest for those horses from America, but the only horse really out of Ascot right now is Berlin Tango, which Mr Siu (Pak Kwan) bought for Hong Kong. Another horse that has been sold to Hong Kong is Smokey Bear, but otherwise, it's been pretty light.

"I think, this year, Goodwood will take the place of Ascot and I think that more will be keen to sell after Goodwood. There's still quite a market for English horses in Hong Kong."

The only horse from John Moore's Hong Kong stable who will join his Australian operation is a former Brit in Sunny Speed (Havana Gold), who finished third to Furore (Pierro) and Waikuku (Harbour Watch) in the Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) last year. Known as Crack On Crack On in the UK, he was a three-time winner at Lingfield, Haydock and Ascot between seven furlongs and a mile.

"He's down in Victoria with Ben Mason at the moment just completing his rehab," Moore said. "He's coming back from a tendon injury, nearly a year ago now, and we might train him on the other leg in Melbourne just to keep him going counter-clockwise to take the pressure off that tendon."

One way in which Moore will enter new territory is in the tried horse market in the UK, attempting to fulfill a family dream by finding a Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) horse.

It is a race that eluded his grandfather and namesake, legendary jockey George Moore, whose best finish was third on Caranna (Volagnes) in 1956; the Melbourne Cup was the only trophy missing from a resume that included every Australian major as well as the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m), the Epsom Derby and the 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) among other global features.

John Moore has long stated his desire to win the Cup and his son will be ready to scout the Tattersalls Horses In Training Sale at Newmarket in late October looking to follow a well-trying formula for sourcing potential staying stock for Australia.

"We will be opening up to the Horses In Training sale over in Europe to look for a stout horse, potentially a Melbourne Cup horse," he said. "Even if not, maybe a Sydney Cup horse or any of those races in Sydney which are worth a bit and are just below that level. There are a few options there, we could syndicate or we could go into partnership with four or five of our owners from Hong Kong.

"We've had quite a bit of interest, so that's another door that might be open. It's something I've always wanted to do but we've just needed the right pieces in place. With dad down there, I know exactly how the horses will be trained and what they will be doing. It's just adapting to a changing environment - instead of just buying those 2000-metre types for the Hong Kong Derby, we're looking for different types.

"It's something we've done before. We were buying those Derby types from the UK and once everyone flocked there, we went to Australia and we were sourcing Horses of the Year from Australia. I like to think that we've shown we're good at adapting to new things in the past and, in a world that is ever-changing, we're just trying to make our operation work."

Moore also believes that having his father in Sydney will have a positive effect on racing in New South Wales, with more Hong Kong owners willing to invest in racing prospects down under in addition to those bound for Sha Tin.

"I've spoken to quite a few owners up here and they've indicated that, with dad down there, they'd be more interested in investing heavily in yearlings," he said. "They know they will be getting something they are familiar with as dad will prepare them at Rosehill in the same way he would prepare them at Sha Tin. I think you will see some of the bigger Hong Kong owners increasing their Australian portfolio."

Momentum is everything in the Hong Kong racing environment, where owners are notoriously fickle and a good or bad meeting can change luck on a dime. And while the same momentum is less important in Australian racing, the Moore family acknowledges that they are hoping for a big first half of the season to be able to build the strongest stable possible.

"Everything hinges on a strong start for dad and uncle Gary, but I don't see any reason why they won't do well in their first year with the amount of good stock they have coming through the stable," George Moore said. "We are hoping to have horses getting into races like the Breeders' Plate, some of those early two-year-old races, and obviously we'd love to have some horses heading to the Golden Slipper so hopefully we can have some early success.

"It really is an exciting time. Now, we just have to get dad down there!"

Great Southern Sale moved to Sydney

Inglis announced yesterday that the Great Southern Sale, which was set to be held in Melbourne, will be brought forward and conducted in Sydney on July 9 in the wake of a spike on Covid-19 cases in Victoria. "Following significant consultation with vendors and buyers, it has been agreed to move the Great Southern Sale to Sydney," Inglis said. "The auction will now be held at Riverside on Thursday, July 9, a day after the Australian Weanling Sale, creating a spectacular two-day offering of the southern hemisphere's finest weanlings. Over 400 weanlings will be offered across two days of the consolidated sale, with the selling schedule to be confirmed in the coming days." Interested parties who intend on being at Riverside Stables for the Great Southern will need to register to comply with Inglis' Covid Safe policy, as is the case for the Easter Round 2 and Scone Yearling Sales (July 5) and the Australian Weanling Sale (July 8). The Melbourne Gold Yearling Sale (July 16) is expected to go ahead as planned at Inglis' Oaklands Junction complex on July 16.

Seven for Headwater

Vinery Stud's first season sire Headwater (Exceed And Excel) recorded his seventh individual winner yesterday when Water Dove (2 f ex She's Warrego by Giant's Causeway) took out a Dubbo open-age maiden plate over 1110 metres. Owned by Vinery general manager Peter Orton but carrying the colours of trainer Brett Cavanough, Water Dove raced on the speed under Chad Lever. She was quickly joined on straightening and was clearly headed off but, in a driving finish, she showed great determination to fend off Great Excitement (Bon Hoffa) by a head with Adios Steve (Night Of Thunder) in third, a half length from the winner. Water Dove was purchased by Belmont Bloodstock for $20,000 at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale and is a half-sister to multiple stakes placegetter Queen Of Wands (Not A Single Doubt). Headwater will stand for a fee of $13,750 (inc GST) in 2020.

Newnham eyeing Epsom for Quackerjack

Mark Newnham will give consideration to an Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) bid for Quackerjack (Not A Single Doubt) who could also aim up for a shot at back-to-back Villiers Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) titles. "A good, strong gelding like him, there are lots of options," Newnham said. "There are a few early spring races and then he can train on and have another go at The Gong and maybe a Villiers." Newnham, who is closing in on his best season since taking out a licence in 2016-17 also hopes to unearth a star among his current crop of yearlings. "I need a replacement for Shadow Hero," Newnham said. "We've got a lot of yearlings coming through at the moment. We're sorting out who are the early ones and just giving them a bit of education."

Soxagon to chase black type win

Soxagon (Rocker) will get his chance in stakes company after winning at Doomben on the weekend with connections now considering the Glasshouse Handicap (Listed, 1400m) at the Sunshine Coast on July 11. The four-year-old posted an impressive performance on Saturday to take his tally to six wins from 16 starts and part-owner Brian Burke said that provided the gelding continued to do well, he would head to the Sunshine Coast. "He deserves a crack at something better. The Spear Chief winner ran quicker time than us but Soxagon wasn't pushed out," Burke said. "He ran second to Vega One in The Gateway last year so he isn't far off the better ones."

Orphan foal to begin career

Two-year-old gelding Wilsdorf (Unencumbered), the horse who captured the hearts of the racing industry in the first weeks of his life when he was left an orphan, is set to begin his racing career at Ballarat tomorrow. Wilsdorf's dam, Gem Of Glen Argyle (Piccolo), died from complications giving birth to him at Three Bridges Thoroughbreds in Eddington back in 2017. But with around-the-clock dedication from the Liston family at Three Bridges and assistance from the 'Mums4Bubs' program, which pairs foster mares with orphan foals, the son of Unencumbered (Testa Rossa) survived those early weeks and began to thrive. Now in the care of Lindsey Smith, Wilsdorf has shown ability at the local jump-outs, including victory in a recent 900-metre synthetic track hit-out. He is set to face eight rivals when he makes his debut over 1200 metres.

Familiar sight as Williams and Oliver lock horns

Craig Williams is relishing the now familiar battle with Damian Oliver as he bids to claim his ninth Melbourne jockeys' premiership and fifth in succession. Two winners at Caulfield on Saturday, compared to Oliver's lone victory on the nine-race card, took Williams' metropolitan tally to 62 wins and he heads into the final month of the 2019-20 season with a seven-win lead. "It's a great competition with Damien," Williams said after bringing up his winning double aboard Morrissy (Snitzel) in the final race at Caulfield. "I think when you go through the racing annals for Victorian racing you're going to see this competition there in black and white, and it's fantastic. My team are working really hard but we can't do it without the support of the owners and trainers and most importantly the horses."

Egan brings up ton

Billy Egan reached the 100-winner mark for the first time in his 15-season career when he partnered Resolute Lad (Reliable Man) to victory at Ballarat yesterday. The success was Egan's first since returning from a six-meeting suspension, which kept him out of the saddle from June 21 to June 26. "I've been looking forward to it," Egan told Racing.com. "I sat on 99 all week with the suspension and I watched a couple of Paddy's (Payne) go around without me and they bolted in. Sometimes when your momentum slows up you think you'll never get there, but to get it off the back so soon is pretty nice."

Away Game to follow Loving Gaby route

Ciaran Maher and David Eustace's star juvenile filly Away Game (Snitzel) is set to follow a similar spring path to that of her Group 1-winning stablemate Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) last year. Maher and Eustace prepared Loving Gaby to win the Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Moonee Valley as a spring three-year-old and they will try to get Away Game to the Group 1 sprint this year. "The Manikato is in mind and then possibly the Coolmore Stud Stakes, but we'll be guided by her," Eustace said. "She's in pre-training at Pakenham and has been there a week or so and she looks fantastic. She has furnished really well and has matured a lot and we're really looking forward to this campaign." Eustace added that Loving Gaby has completed her pre-training is due to return to their Caulfield stable this week.

Away Game

Connections knock back Brandenburg offer

Brandenburg

SPORTPIX

Australian racing has continued to stem the tide of promising horses heading offshore with the owners of Brandenburg (Burgundy) knocking back lucrative international offers. The news that the colt will continue his career in Australia is music to the ears of his trainer John Sargent, who believes the three-year-old's best racing is still ahead. Brandenburg has already compiled a strong resume, winning the Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and placing against older horses in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

Sargent confirmed Brandenburg would have two barrier trials before resuming in the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick in August. "He's matured now. He was always a weak three-year-old, now he's got a neck and a behind and he's strong," Sargent said. "He should measure up with the big boys."

NEW ZEALAND

Mauritian Mudhoo living his dream

Apprentice jockey Rohan Mudhoo proved to be the star of the show at Riccarton on Saturday when he produced a winning treble of rides on the first day of racing in the South Island following the easing of Covid-19 pandemic restrictions. The Mauritian-born 21-year-old is in the second full season of his apprenticeship with Riccarton trainer Mike McCann after following his older brother Krishna to New Zealand to launch his riding career. Saturday's treble aboard stable runners Gee Tee Eleanor (Sweet Orange), Frankie The Fox (Ego) and the Ellis Winsloe-trained Irish Excuse (No Excuse Needed) took him to the 50-win mark for his career to date. "That is the first time that I have ridden three winners in a row so it was a great thrill," Mudhoo said. "I was pretty calm going into the day and my boss had told me just to take things how they come and give the horses the best possible chance I could."

First for Bamboo Ere

East Stud stallion Bamboo Ere (Afleet) registered his first stakes winner from his sixth crop to race when Dantsu Goyu (6 h ex Chokai Crys by Sakura Bakushin O) won the Onuma Stakes (Listed, 1700m) at Hakodate yesterday. Settling midfield under Yuji Hishida, Dantsu Goyu swept home from midfield to grab long-time leader Lien Verite (Gold Allure), winning by a length and a half. Highland Peak (Tosen Bright) was third, a neck behind the runner-up. Bamboo Ere, who has only produced between five and eight foals in each of his first seven crops, served a bigger book of 26 mares last year.

Chrono Genesis dominant in Takarazuka Kinen

Chrono Genesis (Bago) registered the second elite-level success of his career when running out a comprehensive winner of the Takarazuka Kinen (Gr 1, 2220m) on the Hanshin turf yesterday. The Takashi Sato-trained four-year-old crossed the line six lengths in front of Kiseki (Rulership) with another five lengths back to Mozu Bello (Deep Brillante) in a stretched out field. Yesterday's victory was a sixth in 11 starts for last year's Kyoto Shuka Sho (Gr 1, 2000m) winner.

INTERNATIONAL

Eight for Charm Spirit

Windsor Park Stud shuttler Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit) sired his eighth stakes winner yesterday when Time Scale (2 f ex An Ghalanta by Holy Roman Emperor) took out the Empress Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Newmarket. The Ralph Beckett-trained filly defeated Concessions (Muhaarar) by a comfortable margin of three and three-quarter lengths with Undertake (Kodiac) a further two and a half lengths back in third. Bred at Tweenhills Stud by the An Ghalanta Partnership, Time Scale is out of Listed scorer An Ghalanta (Holy Roman Emperor) making her a half-sister to multiple stakes placegetter Bletchley (Makfi). Further back, this is the family of Dewhurst Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) winner Parish Hall (Teofilo). Multiple Group 1 winner Charm Spirit stands at Windsor Park Stud for a private fee in 2020.

Universal edges it in Fred Archer

Universal Order (4 g by Universal - My Order by Raven's Pass) claimed a second stakes success of his career when bagging yesterday's Fred Archer Stakes (Listed 1m4f) at Newmarket. The David Simcock-trained four-year-old, who was the winner of a Listed contest at Meydan in January, was registering his sixth win from ten starts. Holding on in a tight finish, he got the nod in a photo by a short head from El Misk (Dansili), while the favourite Pablo Escobarr (Galileo) was just a neck away in third. Universal Order is the only stakes winner to date by Universal (Dubawi) who stands at Groomsbridge Stud in the UK where his 2020 fee was £1,500 (A$2700 approx).

128 for Invincible Spirit

Irish National Stud flagbearer Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) landed his 128th stakes winner yesterday when the regally bred Repartee (3 c ex Pleasantry by Johannesburg) took out the Carnarvon Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Windsor. The Kevin Ryan-trained filly defeated Above (Anjaal) by three-quarters of a length with Maystar (Mayson) coming home a further length and a quarter away in third. Purchased for 310,000gns at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Repartee is out of Pleasantry (Johannesburg) making him a three-quarter brother in blood to Juddmonte stallion Kingman (Invincible Spirit). He is also a half-brother to Group 2 placegetter Fajjaj (Dawn Approach) while his granddam is Group 1 winner and dual Group 1 runner-up Zenda (Zamindar). Further back, this is the family of Juddmonte resident Oasis Dream (Green Desert) and first season sire New Bay (Dubawi). Invincible Spirit stood for a fee of €100,000 (A$180,000 approx) in 2020.

11 for Zebedee

The late Zebedee (Invincible Spirit) sired his 11th individual stakes winner when Pogo (4 c ex Cute by Diktat) took out the Midsummer Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Windsor yesterday. The Charlie Hills-trained entire defeated Urban Icon (Cityscape) by five and a half length with Foxtrot Lady (Foxwedge) coming home a further three-quarters away for third. Purchased for €10,500 at the Goffs November Foal before being pinhooked for £32,000 at the Goffs UK Doncaster Premier Yearling Sale, Pogo is out of stakes performer Cute (Diktat). Cute is out of Danehill (Danzig) mare Gleam Of Light, making her a half-sister Pikaboo (Pivotal) who is the dam of last month's 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Love (Galileo). Zebedee stood at Cornerstone Stud for five seasons before dying in 2019.

12 for Power

Oaklands Stud resident Power (Oasis Dream) sired his 12th individual stakes winner when Wakanaka (2 f ex Storyline by Kodiac) took out yesterday's Premio Vittoria Crespi (Listed, 1200m) at Milan. Wakanaka is the only winner from two to race out of Storyline (Kodiac) who herself is out of the Listed-placed Petite Histoire (Desert Story). Further back, this is also the family of Group 3 victor Whitbarrow (Royal Abjar). Wakanaka joins the likes of Gift Of Power and Peace Envoy as a juvenile stakes winner for Power, who stands at Oaklands Stud in New Zealand for a fee of NZ$11,000 in 2020.

Magical back with Group 1 victory

After being retired at the end of last year, champion mare Magical (5 m Galileo - Halfway To Heaven by Pivotal) returned to the races with an emphatic victory in yesterday's Pretty Polly Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f) at the Curragh. The Aidan O'Brien-trained multiple Group 1 winner defeated Cayenne Pepper (Australia) by four and a half lengths with Fleeting (Zoffany) finishing a further length and three-quarters back in third. Magical is out of multiple Group 1 winner Halfway To Heaven (Pivotal), making her a sister to fellow Group 1 scorer Rhododendron and Group 3 victor Flying The Flag. She is one of 85 elite-level winners for Galileo (Sadler's Wells), while she is also one of five Group 1 scorers bred on the cross between the champion stallion and Cheveley Park resident Pivotal (Polar Falcon).

Greenlands glory for Speak In Colours

The Joseph O'Brien-trained Speak In Colours (5 c Excelebration - Maglietta Fina by Verglas) got back to winning ways yesterday in the Greenlands Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at the Curragh. The five-year-old was last seen finishing fifth by three lengths in the Diamond Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Royal Ascot, while his last victory came in the Renaissance Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) last September. This was his sixth win from 21 starts, which also include two Listed races and the 2018 Phoenix Sprint Stakes (Gr 3, 6f), also at the Curragh. Ridden by Shane Crosse, Speak In Colours raced prominently and took it up over a furlong from home before seeing off the challenge of the filly Forever In Dreams (Dream Ahead) and Buffer Zone (Bated Breath) by a head each.

Four for Champs Elysees

Champs Elysees (Danehill) sired his fourth individual Group 1 winner when the late-maturing Way To Paris (7 h ex Grey Way by Cozzene) made his elite-level breakthrough at the age of seven with victory in yesterday's Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud (Gr 1, 2400m). Having given Prix du Jockey-Club (Gr 1, 2100m) winner Sottsass (Siyouni) a fright when the pair clashed in the Prix Ganay (Gr 1, 2100m) at Chantilly last time out, the Andrea Marcialis-trained entire was not winning out of turn as he registered the sixth victory of his 32-race career when beating Nagano Gold (Sixties Icon) by a neck with Ziyad (Rock Of Gibraltar) just a head further behind in a tight three-way finish. Champs Elysees, the sire of Ascot Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2m 4f) winner Trip To Paris and 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) victor Billesdon Brook, died in 2018 from a heart attack at the age of 15.

70 for Lope De Vega

Ballylinch Stud stalwart Lope De Vega (Shamardal) sired his 70th individual stakes winner when Simeen (3 f ex Samadriza by Oasis Dream) took out yesterday's Prix Volterra (Listed, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud. The filly defeated Scripturale (Makfi) by three and a half lengths with Beaute Pour Toi (Camelot) a short-neck away in third. Simeen is the only foal out of Samadriza (Oasis Dream) who is a half-sister 2010 joint Champion 3YO Filly in Europe, Sarafina (Refuse To Bend) as well as stakes winners Sandagiyr (Dr Fong) and Sanaya (Baratheas). Simeen joins the likes of Spanish Whisper and Spanish Reef as a stakes-winning filly by former shuttler Lope De Vega, who stood at Ballylinch Stud for a career-high fee of €100,000 (A$180,000 approx) in 2020.

55 for Frankel

Juddmonte stallion Frankel (Galileo) sired his 55th individual stakes winner when Restiany (3 c ex Restiadargent by Kendargent) took out yesterday's Prix de Saint-Patrick (Listed, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud. The three-year-old colt defeated Twist (Pivotal) by a length and a half with Arapaho (Lope De Vega) coming home a further length away in third. Passed in for €240,000 at the Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale, Restiany is out of dual Group-winning mare Restiadargent (Kendargent). Further back, this is the family of Matron Stakes (Gr 3, 9f) winner Coachwhip (So You Think). Frankel stood at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket for a fee of £175,000 (A$315,000 approx) in 2020.

Poulains winner scores first four-year-old victory

Persian King (4 c Kingman - Pretty Please by Dylan Thomas), surprisingly beaten first-up in the Prix de Montretout (Listed, 1600m) at Chantilly, scored a workmanlike victory in yesterday's Prix du Muguet (Gr 2, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud. Ridden on the speed by Pierre-Charles Boudot in the five-runner field, last year's Poule d'Essai des Poulains (Gr 1, 1600m) winner looked in plenty of trouble at the 300 metres when he was joined by a wall of chasers. However, after taking time to go through his gears, he won cosily at the finish by a length and a quarter over Pretreville (Acclamation) with Skalleti (Kendargent) another three-quarters of a length away in third. Persian King is likely to return to Group 1 company in the Prix d'Ispahan (Gr 1, 1800m) on July 19.

Five for Pomodoro

The good weekend for Pomodoro (Jet Master) continued when victory for Caralluma (2 f ex Kalanchoe by Kahal) in the Devon Air Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Greyville on Sunday provided him with his fifth individual stakes winner. The Sean Tarry-trained filly beat Due Diligence (Silvano) by four lengths with Stella Act (Act Of War) another half length away in third. Dual Grade 1 winner Pomodoro stands at Klawervlei Stud in his native South Africa.

25 for Gimmethegreenlight

More than Ready's (Southern Halo) son Gimmethegreenlight sired his 25th individual stakes winner when Gold Season (3 c ex Miss Gold Digger by Rich Man's Gold) took out the Gatecrasher Stakes (Listed, 1400m) on yesterday's Greyville card. The Ashley Fortune-trained three-year-old beat Master Of Disguise (Mambo In Seattle) by a length and a half with Royal Exhibit (Oratorio) another neck away in third. Gimmethegreenlight is the sire of three winners at the highest level in South Africa, including Yulong Prince, runner-up in this year's Ajax Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill.

More Grade 1 glory for Rainbow Bridge

Last season's Sun Met Handicap (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Rainbow Bridge (5 c Ideal World - Halfway to Heaven by Jet Master) registered his third win at the highest level when he got back to winnings ways in yesterday's Gold Challenge (Gr 1, 1600m) at Greyville. Without a victory since landing the Greyville Champions Cup (Gr 1, 1800m) in July last year, the Eric Sands-trained six-year-old came out on top in a close finish, beating Vardy (Var) by three-quarters of a length with Do It Again (Twice Over) just another neck away in third. Rainbow Bridge now has six stakes successes among his tally of eight wins from 16 starts.

Pudding tastes more Grade 1 success

Summer Pudding (4 f Silvano - Cherry On The Cake by Strike Smartly) stretched her unbeaten record to seven when taking out the Woolavington 2000 (Gr 1, 2000m) at Greyville yesterday. Trained by Paul Peter, the four-year-old filly registered her second success at the highest level as she got the better of Driving Miss Daisy (Master Of My Fate) by three-quarters of a length with Lady Of Steel (Gimmethegreenlight) another length and a quarter back in third. Summer Pudding's perfect record includes five stakes victories.

Greenlight strikes again

Got The Greenlight (4 c Gimmethegreenlight - Command Chi by Commands) notched his third elite-level win with victory in yesterday's Daily News 2000 (Gr 1, 2000m) at Greyville. The Joey Soma-trained four-year-old, who already has victories in the Premiers Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and South African Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) on his CV, added another big prize when running out a length and a half winner. Padre Pio (Vercingetorix) got the better of Golden Ducat (Philanthropist) in the tussle for second with a short-head separating the pair. Now the winner of four stakes races, Got The Greenlight is out of the winning mare Command Chi (Commands).

Six for Authorized

Former Darley stallion Authorized (Montjeu) registered his sixth individual Group 1 winner on Saturday when Santiago (3 c ex Wadyhatta by Cape Cross) took out the Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f). Santiago is a rarity in that he is by a Darley stallion racing under the Coolmore banner, with the Lynch Bages operation of the Shanahan family purchasing Santiago's dam Wadyhatta (Cape Cross), in foal to Authorized, for €275,000 at the 2016 Arqana Summer Sale. The colt hails from the family of Urban Sea (Miswaki) who is the dam of champion sires Galileo (Sadler's Wells) and Sea The Stars (Cape Cross). Santiago became Authorized's third European Group 1 winner, joining Ambivalent and Seal Of Approval. His other three have come in Australia with Hartnell, Complacent and Pounamu. Authorized, who stood at Haras du Logis in France from 2014, was sold to the Turkish Jockey Club last year and stood his first season in Turkey in 2020 at a fee of 20,000 lira (A$4,250 approx).

O'Brien makes it 14 Irish Derby wins

Santiago, sent off 2-1 favourite for the Irish Derby, continued his perfect three-year-old campaign and gave Aidan O'Brien a 14th victory in the Classic, leading home a 1-2-3-4 for the Ballydoyle maestro. Santiago, who won the Queen's Vase (Gr 2, 1m 6f) at Royal Ascot to kick off his 2020 season, held off the late surge of Tiger Moth (Galileo), with Dawn Patrol (Galileo) making strong late headway to grab third just ahead of Order Of Australia (Australia). "He's a lovely staying type of horse and they went an honest gallop," O'Brien said. "We thought he might be a St Leger horse and be one to look forward to as a Cup horse next year, and the horses behind him are still babies, so they're there to look forward to as well."

Santiago still in the Epsom mix

An audacious attempt to land back-to-back Derby wins in successive weeks remains a possibility for Santiago. O'Brien had indicated last week that Hampton Court Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2f) winner Russian Emperor (Galileo), Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) second Vatican City (Galileo) and Mogul (Galileo), who disappointed at Royal Ascot, were set to be in his Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) team, with Amhran Na Bhfiann (Galileo) and Mythical (Camelot) also mentioned, in addition to Armory (Galileo). However, speaking in a television interview yesterday morning, O'Brien did not rule out Santiago or any of those beaten in the Irish Derby from another Classic date just seven days on. "It's very possible," he told Luck On Sunday. "I spoke to John (Magnier), Michael (Tabor) and Derrick (Smith) yesterday and the entries are being made on Monday. They'll wait to see what everybody thinks before they decide to make an entry or not. If any of them have come out of the race exceptionally well and they want to make an entry, then that's what will happen."

57 for Kodiak

Tally-Ho Stud stalwart Kodiak (Danehill) brought up his 57th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Frenetic (2 f ex Moojha by Forest Wildcat) proved too speedy in the First Flier Stakes (Listed, 5f) at the Curragh. The Ger Lyons-trained filly, a Navan maiden winner on debut, raced all on her own on the stands' side under Colin Keane and never looked likely to lose her advantage, crossing the wire five lengths clear of Mooneista (Dandy Man) with Eastern Voice (Vocalised) a further half-length away in third. "She's the fastest we have and was our Queen Mary horse if we had one," Lyons said. "Ultimately we will work back from the Cheveley Park. That will be my long-term plan." Kodiak stood for €65,000 (A$106,250 approx) in 2020.

Williams pair win on Derby undercard

The famous navy and white colours of Australian Racing Hall of Fame owner Lloyd Williams scored two Group 3 wins on the Irish Derby undercard at the Curragh on Saturday with Buckhurst (4 c Australia - Artful by Green Desert) in the Alleged Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2f) and Twilight Payment (7 g Teofilo - Dream On Buddy by Oasis Dream) in the Vintage Crop Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 6f). Buckhurst beat only two rivals, Sir Dragonet (Camelot) and Numerian (Holy Roman Emperor), with Joseph O'Brien confirming that the Tattersalls Gold Cup (Gr 1, 1m 2.5f) was his likely next port of call. Twilight

Payment, who finished 11th in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) last year, may return after his two and a half length win in the Vintage Crop. "He could possibly go to Melbourne, but the way things are at the moment we don't know if that is going to be an option with travel restrictions," O'Brien said.

Eight for Cairo Prince

Airdrie Stud's Cairo Prince (Pioneer of The Nile) scored an eighth stakes winner and just his fourth graded stakes winner when Dean Martini (3 g ex Soundwave by Friends Lake) took out the Ohio Derby (Gr 3, 9f) at Thistledown on Saturday. Dean Martini, who was claimed by trainer Tom Amoss after he won a maiden claimer at Churchill Downs on May 17, defeated South Bend (Algorithms) by three-quarters of a length, with Breeders' Cup Juvenile (Gr 1, 8.5f) winner Storm The Court (Court Vision) a further two lengths away in third. The win earned Dean Martini points towards a Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) berth in September, but Amoss was noncommittal after the victory: "That's the carrot dangling in front us. I don't know. We'll see." Cairo Prince stood at Airdrie Stud for US$25,000 (A$36,500 approx) in 2020.

Newspaperofrecord dominant for Brown in Just A Game

Leading American turf trainer Chad Brown scored his fourth consecutive win in the Just A Game Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Belmont with his fourth different horse after Newspaperofrecord (4 f Lope De Vega - Sunday Times by Holy Roman Emperor) joined Rushing Fall (More Than Ready), A Raving Beauty (Mastercraftsman) and Antonoe (First Defence) on the honour roll on Saturday. The 2018 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf (Gr 1, 1m) winner scored her first Grade 1 success since that victory with a commanding three-length triumph over Beau Recall (Sir Prancealot). The winner's stablemate Uni (More Than Ready), last year's Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 1m) victor, was in third. "It's a great race to win. I'm very happy they kept it on the schedule," Brown said. "I'm proud of her and proud of my staff for the job they have done with her. She's training so comfortably. They brought her into the paddock looking magnificent."

Grade 1 winners take Churchill Downs features

Midnight Bisou

RACING POST

Midnight Bisou (5 m Midnight Lute - Diva Delite by Repent) and Tom's d'Etat (7 g Smart Strike - Julia Tuttle by Giant's Causeway) have both won bigger races than their respective victories at Churchill Downs on Saturday, but the manner of their individual scores in the Fleur de Lis Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) and the Stephen Foster Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) has them set up for a big 2020. Midnight Bisou was first-up since finishing a game second in the world's richest race, the Saudi Cup (1800m), and back against the fillies and mares she won by eight and a quarter lengths. Tom's d'Etat, who spent the first three years of his career searching for a black-type win, is now on a roll and his four and a quarter length win in the Stephen Foster has earned him a berth in the Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f).

Grade 3 victory for Pharoah filly

Harvey's Lil Goil (3 f American Pharoah - Gloria S by Tapit) added a second black-type win to her CV on Saturday when winning the Regret Stakes (Gr 3, 9f) at Churchill Downs. The Bill Mott-trained filly beat Crystal Cliffs (Canford Cliffs) by a head with In Good Spirits (Ghostzapper) coming home a length and a half away in third. Harvey's Lil Goil is one of three winners from three foals out of the unraced mare Gloria S (Tapit), who herself is a half-sister to three-time Grade 1 victor I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) and dual Grade 3 scorer Golden Award (Medaglia d'Oro). Further back this is the family of former Spendthrift Australia shuttler Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday). The filly's sire, Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof The Nile), shuttles to Coolmore Australia where he will stand for a fee of $55,000 (inc GST) in 2020.
