Air of spring at The Valley with Hard Landing and Brooklyn Hustle scoring

Trainers outline stakes races for All Too Hard colt and daughter of Starspangledbanner

LATEST NEWS FROM THE WEEKEND'S RACING

Hard Landing

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

In the depths of winter at a nondescript meeting at The Valley two lightly raced horses made a big impression at the start of the new season, prompting connections to signal their intent on bigger races during the spring carnival.

Hard Landing (All Too Hard), the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner

last November, was expected to be a major player in the big two-year-old races but the well-bred colt's campaign was derailed after contracting an illness.

He returned from a long spell with a victory in the Jockey Celebration Day Handicap (1000m) and, two races later, the Jason Warren-trained Brooklyn Hustle (Starspangledbanner) caught the eye with a fast-finishing win in the Remembering Yesterday's successful comeback of Hard Landing, who was bred by Neil Werrett and was sold for $280,000 at the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, gave co-trainer Ben Hayes the confidence to put the Mitchell McKenzie Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Moonee Valley on August 22 on the colt's agenda.

"He's a lightly raced two-year-old because he got really sick after his last run," Hayes said.

"He had to have a big dose of antibiotics and we really looked after him. But he's come back fantastic, he's matured into himself, grown up over the hind. It's fantastic to see him win like that.

He looked like he handled The Valley pretty well today so (the McKenzie Stakes) will be his next progression."

Hard Landing defeated Diesel 'N' Dust (Pride Of Dubai) ($4.80) by half a length with The Cruiser (Charge Forward) ($21) running on late to finish another half a length away in third.

His jockey Thomas Stockdale said Hard Landing was suited by a solid race tempo.

"The horse relaxed really well and gave me a good kick on the turn," Stockdale told Racing.com.

"He still has a little bit to learn, he's still got improvement to come, and he was having a bit of a look going towards the post but he gave me the feel of a nice horse, that's for sure."

Jason Warren, the trainer of the Rosemont Stud-bred and owned Brooklyn Hustle, did not want to put the "cart before the horse" after yesterday's victory and he was clearly relieved the four-year-old was able to justify his long-held high opinion of her.

"It's just good to have that monkey off our back, really. She's been carrying a few knockers, the filly, but she did such a tremendous job last prep," Warren told Racing.com.

"She was hampered by issues even before she'd even had her first start, so to get her back here today in such good order, it's a tribute to Rosemont Stud, Mark Young and my team back at home.

"We came here today off one soft jump out and we came here looking to use this run as a second trial going into better races. I'm pleased to see her resume like we knew she was capable of."

Warren said Brooklyn Hustle, who had not won in five starts after her debut performance at Moonee Valley when beating Yes Yes Yes (Rubick), would have her next start in the next three or four weeks.

The A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) and Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), both Group 1s run at The Valley, are possible longer-term targets.

"We just wanted to get today out of the way and see how she pulls up. It's just so pleasing for everyone involved," he said.

"We've really had to be patient with her. For me, I took a bit of a bold step coming here off one soft jump out but I believe in the horse so much and she's on her way up.

"We've got a couple of programmes mapped out for her but we'll just let the dust settle and then lock in a race for her."

Brooklyn Hustle, who was ridden by Dwayne Dunn, unleashed an eye-catching turn of foot to score by three and a half lengths over Propelle (Smart Missile). A Good Yarn (O'Lonhro) was a neck away back in third.

"It wasn't working out that well for me in the early to mid-race stages but you can see the acceleration, that turn of foot, and that's a great asset," Dunn said.

"I think today's event was more about getting her confidence back and getting her back as good as what she was.

"Hopefully she can go on to bigger and better things."

There will be 13 lots by Hard Landing's Vinery Stud-based sire All Too Hard (Casino Prince) and one lot by Rosemont Stud's reverse shuttler Starspangledbanner (Choisir), the sire of Brooklyn Hustle, offered at the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale which starts tomorrow.

FIRST WEALINGS SELLING 2020

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Portelli, O'Hara begin strongly

Trainer Gary Portelli has long had a high opinion of Not Feint Hearted (Not A Single Doubt) but his first win in 18 months yesterday suggests that he might be about to live up to that promise. Not Feint Hearted took the first Sydney race of the 2020-21 season, a 1300-metre Benchmark 72, scoring by five and a half lengths with Kathy O'Hara in the saddle. "I'm the leading trainer in Sydney for the new year," Portelli said. "That was brilliant to watch. He's been racing in pretty strong company, I was actually surprised at the price. We were pretty keen on his chances today. Tuesday morning he burnt turf so it was just a matter of whether he handled the track or not, but that he did."

Sherry breaks through

Apprentice Tom Sherry has recorded his first metropolitan winner, bouncing back after a rocky start to score aboard the Mark Newnham-trained Fulmina (Snitzel) at Randwick yesterday. Fulmina won by three and a quarter lengths over Itz Lily (Snitzel) with Le Lude (Lope De Vega) three-quarters of a length away in third. It came just two weeks after Sherry was luckless aboard Fulmina's stablemate Black Magnum (Magnus) when expected to score a breakthrough success. "There were high expectations of course, but we've been patient and credit to the boss for relying on me again today," Sherry said. "This filly has been tremendous, that's my third win on her now and she hasn't let me down. She is very genuine and wears her heart on her sleeve so once I got a good position and got her in a rhythm, I knew she was always going to be hard to beat."

Kosciuszko beckons for Man Of Peace

An experiment to determine The Kosciuszko (1200m) credentials of Man Of Peace (Zariz) has put the hardy gelding firmly in the mix for the $1.3 million feature restricted to NSW country-trained horses. Trainer Matthew Dale deliberately targeted yesterday's ATC Thank You Jockeys Handicap (1300m) at Randwick to showcase the horse's credentials for the October 17 sprint. Man Of Peace did not let his trainer down, assuming his customary leadership role and dominating his rivals to score by two and a quarter lengths over odds-on favourite Kordia (Epaulette) with You Make Me Smile (So You Think) third. "Back to 1300 was as close as I could place him to have a look and I thought, if he can come out and win a quality race like this then I'd put his hand up for a Kosciuszko and freshen him up for it," Dale said. "I think he answered those questions today."

Payne scratches due to Randwick track

Trainer David Payne withdrew his filly Montefilia (Kermadec) from yesterday's Randwick meeting after the first event had been run, citing the way in which the track was playing. However, he was quick to assert that it was not the perception of bias, rather it was the Heavy (9) surface that had him concerned. "They've put it as a nine, but to be honest, I think it's more than a nine," Payne said. "I just think I could do her more harm than good, running her. It's got nothing to do with her being a backmarker because she wouldn't be that far back in the race. It's just the condition of the track." Payne hopes that Montefilia can measure up to the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) in November.

Lane returns a winner

Melodeon

RACING PHOTOS

A late pick-up ride for Damian Lane allowed the jockey to return to Melbourne racing a winner, taking out the last at Moonee Valley aboard Melodeon (Glass Harmonium). Lane, who spent four months in Japan, only took the ride on the Charlotte Littlefield-trained Melodeon after there were five scratchings on race morning, meaning that originally-booked rider Damien Oliver switched to fifth emergency Hypersonic (Brazen Beau). "I was very fortunate to pick up the ride this morning and it was a great win," Lane told Racing.com. "Charlotte and the team have obviously got her spot on. It was a great first-up run at an unsuitable trip and today, stepping up that little bit in distance and having a really nice run really played to her strengths." Melodeon got up in the final stride to defeat Proper Rogue (Snitzel) by a nose with Montenegro Man (Zoustar) three-quarters of a length away in third.

NEW ZEALAND

Strong debut by Show Bazz

Impressive trialler Show Bazz (Showcasing) made an eye-catching debut when he trounced his maiden rivals over 1200 metres at Ashburton. The three-year-old had won a 1000-metre trial at Motukarara back in January and backed that up post the Covid-19 lockdown with another comfortable victory at Rangiora in June over 850 metres. Co-trainer Kevin Hughes avoided wet tracks at Riccarton and instead kicked off the promising Show Bazz's career yesterday. "You always hope that this is what they can do for you but against the older horses you never know," Hughes said. "It was a very good effort as he seemed to work away from them quite comfortably without being asked to do too much, he looked like he was just playing with them. I was surprised how easily he did it and Sanu (Toolooa, jockey) said when he got into the clear he just changed gear. We didn't start him at home as it has been too heavy for him so we came here for the better track and it worked out nicely."

Schofer and London Express atone for luckless first-up run

The talented London Express (Shamexpress) bounced back from an unlucky run first-up at Te Rapa last month with a determined effort to score over 1200 metres at Matamata. The five-year-old mare had been buffeted several times when resuming over the same distance at Te Rapa with trainer Allan Sharrock somewhat disappointed in the ride of his apprentice Hazel Schofer on that occasion. Sharrock provided Schofer with an opportunity to redeem herself yesterday and she covered herself in glory with a copybook effort despite once again suffering some jostling at a crucial moment in the contest. "I'm actually prouder of the girl (Schofer) than the horse as she redeemed herself from the time before with a top effort," Sharrock said. "She's not an easy mare to ride as she gets on the chewy and got a bump midrace as well. Hazel did well to circumnavigate all that and I think the last 50 metres was the best part of the race as she really stretched out nicely. I'm proud of both horse and rider."

Winning end for Coxon

Kim Coxon bowed out with a winner after Tammie Wynette (Tobique) took the honours in the Matamata Veterinary Services (1400m) at Matamata yesterday. Coxon has handed in her trainer's license as she prepares to move to the Te Puke region with fiancée James Taylor, where the pair will run a combined dry-stock and kiwifruit operation. "It was my last runner today and it turned out absolutely perfectly," Coxon said. "I was pretty confident as she had won third-up at her last two campaigns and she was third-up today. She had improved in her gallops since her last run so I thought she would be hard to beat. She handles her racing really well so I think there is more in store for her. The day was made even better as Matamata Veterinary Services sponsored the race and I do work for them so things couldn't have turned out any better."

INTERNATIONAL

93 for Teofilo

Get Shirty (4 g ex Soccer Mom by Monsun) provided his sire Teofilo (Galileo) with his 93rd international stakes winner when taking the Prix du Carrousel (Listed, 3000m) at Deauville in France yesterday. Held up in midfield, the gelding got a dream run up against the inside rail under Christophe Soumillon and went on to score comfortably from Ashrun (Authorized) and favourite Ghostwatch (Dubawi). Get Shirty is the first foal of Soccer Mom (Monsun), herself a sister to German Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) second Soberania and a half-sister to German Group 1 winner Seismos (Dalakhani). Teofilo, sire of Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 2500m) hero Cross Counter, stands at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for €40,000 (approx. $AUD66,000).

31 for Kendargent

See The Rose (2 f ex Xaarienne by Xaar) enhanced an already lofty reputation when taking the Prix Six Perfections (Gr 3, 1400m) at Deauville under a confident Pierre-Charles Boudot and became the 31st individual stakes winner for her sire Kendargent (Kendor). The well backed, Andre Fabre-trained filly travelled well under the French champion jockey and was never really asked a serious question to defeat British raider Wedding Dance (Invincible Spirit) with Coeursamba (The Wow Signal) close up in third. The winner, who broke her maiden on debut at Chantilly in June, remains unbeaten and it would be no surprise to see her step out in Group 1 company in the near future. See The Rose was a €180,000 purchase (approx. AUD$297,000) from the Arqana August Yearling Sales in 2019, from the draft of Ballylinch Stud in Ireland. The sixth foal of her dam, Xaarienne (Xaar), she is a sister to Listed winners Xaarino and Mont Kiara. Kendargent stands at Haras de Colleville in France for €15,000 in 2020 (approx. AUD$25,000).

Back-to-back Lillie Langtrys for Enbihaar

Enbihaar (Redoute's Choice) recorded back-to-back victories in yesterday's Lillie Langtry Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 6f) at Goodwood for owner Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum. Only three went to post and the John Gosden-trained five-year-old tracked the pace which was set by Aidan O'Brien's Munster Oaks Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 4f) winner Snow (Galileo). Looming up entering the final furlong, Enbihaar drew clear to win by three and a half lengths, with Cabaletta (Mastercraftsman) staying on for second ahead of Snow. Enbihaar is now the winner of six of her 11 starts, including five at stakes level and she holds an entry in the Irish St Leger (Gr 1, 1m 6f) in September.

159 for Deep Impact

Katara (3 f ex Asyad by New Approach) became the late Deep Impact's 159th worldwide stakes winner when bounding clear in the Chalice Stakes (Listed, 1m 4f) at Newmarket yesterday. Trained by Sir Michael Stoute and a homebred for Al Shaqab Racing from a distinguished German family, she is the first foal of a mare who was Group 2-placed for the same connections. Katara was off the mark at the third attempt in a novice race at Kempton a month ago and took this step up in class easily in her stride under Oisin Murphy, the hot favourite forging four lengths away from Expressionism (Galileo) and Cosmic Princess (Kingman).

First for Mesnil Des Aigles

Air De Valse (4 f ex Air Bag by Poliglote) gamely held off the late challenge of the desperately unlucky Rocket Action (Toronado) to land the Prix du Cercle (Listed, 1000m) at Deauville with Wayatos (Maxios) back in third. Air De Valse, under Ronan Thomas riding for Corine Barande-Barbe, enjoyed a trouble free passage, whereas Rocket Action was held behind a wall of horses before finally finding space but got going all too late. Air De Valse is the fifth foal of her dam, Air Bag (Poliglote), herself a Listed winner, and yesterday became the first stakes winner for her sire, Mesnil Des Aigles (Neverneyev), a half-brother to the world-class Cirrus Des Aigles (Even Top).

Withhold back to form at Newmarket

Four went to post in the Further Flight Stakes (Listed, 1m 6f) at Newmarket yesterday and the Roger Charlton-trained Withhold (Champs Elysees) justified favouritism to land the honours under Oisin Murphy. Campaigned in Group company since landing the Rose Bowl Stakes (Listed, 2m) last September, the seven-year-old was a decisive three length winner, beating the Charlie Fellowes-trained Dubious Affair (Frankel), while there was a further seven lengths back to Vivid Diamond (Cape Cross) in third. The victory was his seventh in 20 starts and his second at stakes level, although he has landed three big handicap pots in the 2017 Cesarewitch, 2018 Northumberland Plate and the 2019 Marsh Cup.

Raabihah dominant in Deauville

Raabihah (Sea The Stars) followed up her excellent fourth in the Prix de Diane (Gr 1, 2100m) with a facile victory in the Prix de Psyche (Gr 3, 2000m) at Deauville yesterday. The form of her last run had already been franked by Fancy Blue (Deep Impact), the winner of the Prix de Diane, taking the Nassau Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Goodwood on Thursday and Raabihah paid that winner a significant compliment with the manner of her victory here. She cruised to the front and was receiving a congratulatory pat down the neck from jockey Cristian Demuro well before crossing the line. Wangari (Soldier Hollow) and Alkandora (Nathaniel) ran creditably for second and third respectively, but they were comprehensively outclassed by the winner. Raabihah is the fourth foal of Garmooosha (Kingmambo), a daughter of Oaks (Gr 1, 1m4f) winner Eswarah (Unfuwain).

Del Mar winner for Vancouver

Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Vancouver (Medgalia d'Oro) recorded his third winner in the US on Friday from his first Northern Hemisphere crop when Madone (2 f ex Indian Love Call by Cherokee Run) scored over a mile on debut at Del Mar for Simon Callaghan. She is the fifth winner out of Indian Love Call, a half-sister to stakes winner Allegre (Orientate) from the family of Group 1 winner Gold Fever (Forty Niner), and she was a US$120,000 (approx. AUD$168,000) OBS March 2YO purchase earlier this year. Vancouver's oldest Australian crop has just turned three and he recorded 11 winners and five stakes horses, including Group 2 scorer Mount Pleasant, from his first Southern Hemisphere crop. He stands at Coolmore and his fee this year is set at $30,250.

ALL TOO HARD

Sire of 10 SW's in 2019/20

Analysis: Hard Landing, winner of the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington in November when racing on debut, resumed here at only his third race start to score a good first-up victory. He began well, settled nicely outside the leader (Theresabearinthere), went to the front on turning for home and then fought back under his top weight to score well in a sound first-up effort. Diesel 'N' Dust had a nice trip in third place on the rails, got into clear running on straightening, took a while to wind up then made late ground for (half-length) second. The Cruiser raced in fourth place, between runners, was under pressure nearing the turn and then made late ground in finishing third in a promising effort on debut. The favourite Theresabearinthere showed good pace and led the field into the straight before fading over the latter stages for (1.7 lengths) fourth. [KB]

Analysis: Talented mare Brooklyn Hustle scored an impressive first-up win, her second success in seven starts to date, after racing well without winning in a number of Group class three-year-old events last season. Having her first start since finishing sixth behind Exceedance (Exceed And Excel) in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington in November, she settled last on the rails in the nine-runner field and was still last nearing the turn. Dwayne Dunn steered her through on the rails on straightening, found a gap shortly afterwards, hit the front at the 100m and then drew away for a very soft win in a smart performance. [KB]

BETTING FORECAST: 9-2 Silence Please, 5 Virginia Joy, 11-2 Zamrud, 7 Miss Yoda, Tickle Me Green, 9 Kalifornia Queen, 10 Moon A Lisa, 14 No Limit Credit, Snow, 16 Elle Memory, Ocean Fantasy, 25 For Pleasure, Sister Lulu, 33 Tangut, 40 Flamingo Girl, 100 Paloma Ohe.

VERDICT The home team are greatly respected but the foreign challengers all have pretty strong form, and the draw has fallen best for MISS YODA. She's run respectably the last twice in defeat but displayed her class when winning the Lingfield Oaks Trial, with her effort in last year's Zetland Stakes helping to illustrate her ability when on song. Frankie should be able to keep her handy at the very least from stall 1, so hopefully won't have the potential traffic problems of the others.

 With a lower draw the nod may well have gone to Silence Please, whose third in the Naas Oaks Trial has been greatly enhanced by the winner landing the Irish Oaks next time. Her dam has produced plenty of stayers so this son of Gleneagles should get home.

Tickle Me Green has exactly the same problems to overcome from stall 13 representing the trainer/jockey who landed the German Derby recently. Her form over trips too short is pretty good, so this additional distance can play to her strengths if able to get involved in the latter stages.

Virginia Joy seems the best of the German runners having won a 1m3f Group 3 at Hamburg recently from Zamrud, with the width of the track separating them. Both have nice berths to emerge from and can be involved in the finish. [David Toft]

BETTING FORECAST: 4-5 Watch Me, 5 Summer Romance, 6 Speak Of The Devil, 7 Know It All, 8 Half Light, 12 Norma.

VERDICT A disappointing field for this Group 1 prize and it'll be disappointing if WATCH ME doesn't outclass her rivals, with her Group 1 form from last season standing out compared to the rest. Summer Romance will presumably go forward again, so should be at a tactical advantage. She's preferred to Know It All as the danger. [Mark Brown]
