Numbers and quality on increase for Sydney two-year-old sale as Inglis to set platform

Ready to race two-year-olds breezing

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Stakeholders are banking on the continued demand from Asia, and primarily Hong Kong, as well as the underlying strength of the Australian racing industry to underpin this year's two-year-old sales, which threaten to be the most coronavirus-affected segment of the thoroughbred sales market.

Inglis gets the chance to set the benchmark for this year's Australasian two-year-old market with its Ready 2 Race Sale scheduled for Tuesday, October 20, which again coincides with Sydney's The Everest carnival the previous Saturday.

Magic Millions, which in the past has been the first to hold its two-year-old sale with an early October date, has elected to push its auction back to November 9 and 10 while the New Zealand Bloodstock version will be held on November 18 and 19 to maintain its traditional slot as the last company to conduct the juvenile sale each year.

Blinkered Aramaayo puts rivals in the shade in Kranji Mile

Former Godolphin galloper Aramaayo (Poet's Voice) claimed his highest prize since racing in Singapore when he landed the S$1 million Kranji Mile (Local Gr 1, 1600m) yesterday.

First past the post only once at his previous six starts at Kranji, the Poet's Voice (Dubawi) five-year-old had, however, not been able to fully showcase his true Australian form that includes a Group 3 win (Spring Stakes over the same mile trip in Newcastle in 2018), most notably, his second-last run when a certainty beaten in the Stewards' Cup (Gr 2, 1600m) back in March. Singapore News page 12 >>

Inglis will this morning officially release the 226-lot catalogue for its 2020 Ready 2 Race Sale, which has jumped in numbers and quality on the back of a robust 2019 Riverside Stables marketplace, according to bloodstock sales and marketing manager Sebastian Hutch.

Progeny of stallions such as Fastnet Rock (Danehill), Sebring (More Than Ready), Not A Single Doubt (Redoute’s Choice), Piero (Lonhro), Zoustar (Northern Meteor), Written Tycoon (Iglesia), Deep Field (Northern Meteor), Vancouver (Medaglia d’Oro), Lonhro (Octagonal), Nicconi (Bianconi), Dundeel (High Chaparral) and Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock) are all represented in the Ready 2 Race catalogue.

Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible), the sire of Saturday’s brilliant Up And Coming Stakes (Gr 3, 1300m) winner North Pacific, Choisir (Danehill Dancer), Ocean Park (Thorn Park) and All Too Hard (Casino Prince) also have two-year-olds catalogued, while two colts by champion US sire Into Mischief (Harlan’s Holiday) and a filly by top-class European sire Siyouni (Pivotal) will also go under the hammer.

Hutch is unperturbed about Inglis “opening the batting” this year despite warranted trepidation.

“We are looking at it from an optimistic perspective. That’s our mandate as an auction house and, irrespective of when we are going to be selling the horses, we’re confident that we can do an outstanding job for our vendors and help our buyers find the right horses,” Hutch said yesterday.

Sebastian Hutch

“There are pros and cons to going first: you get first crack at the money but, by the same token, you set the market and traditionally people are a bit more circumspect early on, so there’s a balance to be struck with it.

“However, we certainly feel that the first steps in having a successful sale have been taken by having a fantastic catalogue of horses and, most importantly, we’re dealing with people who are recognised as being fantastic horse people and that’s a massive part of the breeze-up format - the relationship buyers have with the horse people presenting the horses.”

Vendors with a growing reputation for preparing and selling well-credentialed racehorses are again supporting the Riverside Stables sale, with Blake Ryan (20 lots), Hannover Lodge (19), and Damian Lane’s Glenvale Park (five) among them.

Prima Park sold the top-priced lot, a Deep Field gelding who made $340,000 to the bid of George Moore, and a Headwater (Exceed And Excel) gelding who made $210,000 for agent Bevan Smith and Singapore trainer Michael Clements, at last year's sale.

Kelly Van Dyk, who is also preparing a draft of 25 for the NZB sale under the Prima Park banner, told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday that the Kiwi operation had been buoyed by its success at the 2019 sale.

This year, they are preparing a select draft including colts by Zoustar, Tivaci (High Chaparral) and Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) as well as a gelding by Ocean Park (Thorn Park), the sire of last season's Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and Golden Eagle (1500m) winner Kolding among others.

"We have identified horses that we think would suit the Australian market. Obviously, Tivaci is an up-and-coming sire and the two we've selected to go over there are very nice horses and we're quite excited about them. They're very good movers and the early word has been very good on the Tivacis," Van Dyk said.

"The Zoustar was bought in Melbourne to come back to the Inglis sale and he's a standout. He's a beautiful horse and physically and mentally he's a very good two-year-old type. They are the sort of horses we think are going to get up and be ready in October."

The closure of the international borders into Australia and the current state border closures of Queensland and Victoria because of coronavirus will no doubt impact the market, but Van Dyk remains positive about two-year-old vendors' prospects this year.

"We're going to be relying on the bloodstock agents for those (Asian) markets and it's going to be hard without Hong Kong there (on the ground), which is a big player for us in the ready to run market, but (people like agent) Bevan Smith has gone over to Australia and done all the hard work with quarantine and basing himself there," she said.

"We just have to have faith in those agents being able to get the deals done with their clients up in Asia.

"The trial market has also been very strong. We just sold a Sebring colt up to Hong Kong last week off a one-win trial and they have been very prominent and they are definitely still wanting horses ... and hopefully that can lead into the ready to run market as well."

Prominent Hong Kong trader Upper Bloodstock was active at the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale, relying on videos, photos and feedback from agents on the ground to buy, and it is hoped that the willingness to trust on-the-ground advice and the advancing technology can translate to an active international buying bench at the Ready 2 Race Sale.

"The breeze-up sale is arguably a sale where there's more information available on the stock on offer than any other sale format," Hutch said.

"This is a sale where you can see the horses gallop under saddle and follow their trajectory as developing racehorses and get a line through the breeze and the time they are running, etc, as to where you think they might end up. The volume of information that is available is as great as any other auction and I think that is conducive to attracting people to participate."

Horses waiting to breeze

INGLIS

There has been anecdotal evidence that, despite the economic havoc caused by Covid-19, that many trainers and syndicators have experienced renewed interest from owners in investing in new horses.

The strength of the domestic market, which has been a slow burn for the auction houses conducting the southern hemisphere breeze-up sales, will also be pivotal to the success or otherwise of this year's ready to run auctions.

"What (racing continuing) has done is given people a window into our sport who otherwise might not necessarily have been observers before the pandemic and it's been a great sell for the sport and hopefully we can sustain that momentum," Hutch said.

"It's been great to hear ... syndicators, trainers and agents expressing a positive interest in stock. Certainly, we found at our breeze-up sale last year, that there was really strong domestic interest in the sale and we've worked very hard to canvass that. Again, a lot of it is borne out of the confidence that investors have in people presenting the horses which is why we were so keen to try and deal with as many established participants as possible.

"We hope that continues into the 2020 sale and certainly the early indications are that that is the case."

The Inglis Ready 2 Race breeze-ups will be conducted in NSW, Queensland, Victoria and New Zealand in September with a last-minute session scheduled at Warwick Farm on Friday, October 16, five days out from the sale.

IN ONE WORD, THE TRAINERS SAY

“RESILIENT”*WaterhouseMORNING BRIEFING*AUSTRALIA*Ford secures Bostonian ride in Winx Stakes

Jay Ford has secured the ride on Group 1 winner The Bostonian (Jimmy Choux) for Saturday's Winx Stakes (registered as Warwick Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m). "They were juggling around trying to find someone and they ended up ringing me," Ford said. "It came out of the blue but I will take the opportunity. Some weeks are good for me, some weeks aren't. I ride for most stables but I'm not tied to any stable so I'm not continually getting the base support from the stables - it's a rollercoaster, you are up and down. I've watched The Bostonian since his early days, he was quite an underrated horse then but now he has made his presence felt at the top level. He's a very solid ride in the Winx Stakes."

North Pacific and Doubtland to remain apart

Team Hawkes' star three-year-olds North Pacific (Brazen Beau) and Doubtland (Not A Single Doubt) are unlikely to clash this spring, Wayne Hawkes indicated yesterday. "They're slightly different types of horses," he said. "(Doubtland) is doing everything right - he's a beautiful individual, he's a hell of a good sort, he was an expensive yearling at $1.1 million and he's got two Golden Slipper winners in his immediate family, so he's got a cracking pedigree to boot. He's only had the two starts for two wins and he excelled that day on the wet track in the Kindergarten Stakes that he won at Randwick by about the same margin as old mate (North Pacific) won by yesterday. He's a pretty promising horse and it will be good to get him up and going. Where he goes, we don't know yet, to be honest. We're just not sure what we do. I can give you one guarantee; the closest they'll get to looking at each other is across the barn, I don't think they'll be racing against each other - that's for sure and certain."

Memsie next for Mystic Journey

Despite a disappointing performance in the P B Lawrence Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) on Saturday, Mystic Journey (Needs Further) is still on track to run in the Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). "She seems fine," trainer Adam Trinder told Racing.com yesterday. "It just didn't work out. Although it was just a (soft) 6 and you shouldn't make excuses there, she wasn't comfortable on that with the tempo of the race. She was wide and deep. It was a starting point, maybe not quite the one we were looking for, but she'll definitely improve on that. All boding well over the next 72 hours, and as we stand here on Sunday morning, she'll go to the Memsie."

Behemoth likely for Memsie

Meanwhile, Spring Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Behemoth (All Too Hard) is also likely to head to the Memsie Stakes for his next assignment. "He was going to go to the Memsie or the race he won last year (in Adelaide) the Penny Edition and it was going to be a decision that was performance-based and on what we saw there yesterday, it looks like he's ready for his chance in that better grade," trainer David Jolly told Racing.com. Jolly confirmed Craig Williams will take the mount in the Memsie.

Windstorm set for Valley assignment

The Bob Peters-owned Windstorm (Redoute's Choice) will begin his spring campaign in a BM90 race over 1200 metres at Moonee Valley on Saturday, with the prominent Perth owner eyeing a slot in The Everest (1200m) after Showmanship's (Showcasing) impressive win on Saturday. "He could be an Everest horse too but, of course, he's got to show the slot holders what he can do," Peters said of Windstorm.

Heath on the cards for Superstorm

Meanwhile, Peters has indicated that his All Star Mile (1600m) runner-up Superstorm (Sebring) could begin his spring campaign in The Heath 1100 (Gr 3, 1100m) on Memsie Stakes day. "I've got to make up my mind on him and I might run him on Memsie day in the 1100-metre race The Heath," Peters told Racing.com. "He's got to start somewhere and he's similar to the others in that he was in the middle of his preparation when he travelled. He came in a month behind the others as well. I was thinking I was going up to the Golden Eagle, so I kept him back longer."

Gytrash and Richards hit the road

Star sprinter Gytrash (Lope De Vega) set off on his Everest journey yesterday, departing Gordan Richards' stables for Sydney. "The way it works out it's roughly eight hours each day which is basically what he would do when he's gone to Melbourne, raced, then come home the next day," Richards said. "He should be fine with that, he's been to Melbourne enough and usually travels pretty well." Gytrash is likely to have his first-up run in the Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Rosehill on September 5. "Getting up there a couple of weeks out from his first race should hold him in good stead," Richards added. "The plan is to have a trial at Warwick Farm and then run in the Concorde Stakes a fortnight after that."

Spell confirmed for Hydro Star

After finishing last in the Vain Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) on Saturday, John McArdle yesterday confirmed that impressive debut winner Hydro Star (Headwater) is set for a spell. Whilst it was initially very disappointing and we expected better from him, after seeing he's feeling his shins it's more understandable and we're going to spell him," McArdle told Racing.com. "He's a big baby and needs to grow up, but he's quick and it was encouraging to see he could record those good sectionals. We'll put him away and get his racing manners in check and he'll hopefully be ready to really show us what he's made of in the autumn."

Sebring filly makes eye-catching debut

John Sadler

SPORTPIX

The John Sadler-trained Mozzie Monster (Sebring), who is nominated for the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), made an impressive start to her career at Cranbourne yesterday, winning a 1200-metre maiden by four lengths. "I don't want to sound like a smart aleck but it didn't shock me to see her do that," Sadler said. "She was good wasn't she, she really was good, obviously she got through the going okay. If you saw her in the mounting yard she's a very nice filly and she's going to derive a great deal of benefit from that run. I believe she's at least a Listed class, I don't know about the Thousand Guineas but we'll head towards it, we'll go home and set out a program for her now. She's quite a quirky filly, she's got a funny nature where she'll bite your head off. She's just like a lot of those really good fillies, not that I've had many, but you've just got to watch her all the time, she's got a real attitude."

NSW to remain closed to Victorian horses

Racing NSW chief steward Marc Van Gestel has given no indication that the governing body is likely to relax its ban on Victorian-based racehorses entering the state any time soon. "If we get to a point where we're comfortably satisfied that the (Covid-19) risk is minimised then there may be some relaxation but at this point in time the borders remain closed," Van Gestel told Racing NSW at Randwick on Saturday. The ban has severely impacted NSW-Victorian border trainers, predominantly Mitch Beer and Donna Scott, who have horses stranded in the southern state and are unable to have them transported to their Albury stables. Van Gestel said it was "fanciful" suggesting that horses could be walked across the border and then handled by different staff in order to sufficiently minimise the risk of spreading coronavirus. "We have taken advice from our biosecurity expert in terms of what are the risks and the risks include not just the handlers coming across, but the virus being contained on gear as the horses are transported across," he said. "There's all different things that are involved in terms of what is acceptable risk and what is not. That, for us, is fanciful and we'd like to ensure that in coming here there's no risk of bringing Covid-19 into the NSW racing industry."

First winner for Will Freedman

Will Freedman, the latest of the famous racing dynasty, yesterday trained his first winner when Time To Dazzle (Mafki) won at Narromine. The son of trainer Richard, who operates with his brother Michael in Sydney, recently went out on his own based at Scone in the Hunter Valley. With just his third runner, the Dynamic Syndications-owned Time To Dazzle won the 1600-metre class one by a long neck after finishing fifth at her first start for the trainer earlier this month. "It's a terrific feeling. Rachel (Hunt), my partner, and I have been working pretty hard to try and get these horses in good shape and they're all running well," Freedman told Sky Racing. "Dynamic has been terrific to me. They were one of the most supportive owners from when I started going, so I am really appreciative of the support I've had. It's actually a bit emotional."

Tasmanian government to boost racing industry revenue

The Tasmanian Government has announced a further increase in stakes to support the state's racing industry. There will be another three per cent increase in stakes money for greyhound, harness and thoroughbred racing, in addition to the three per cent increase announced in June. Minister for Racing, Jane Howlett, said: "This six per cent total stakes increase will greatly assist Tasmania's racing participants particularly following the impact of COVID-19 on the industry. At the last election, our Government committed to increasing stakes by an average of four per cent a year and, with today's commitment, we will have already increased stakes by 12.2 per cent." It is expected that the new stake money levels will be in place by late September. $2.53 million will be provided to racing from the first six months of the Point of Consumption Tax (POCT), with the majority of this funding to be directed into prize money, with funds also going towards animal welfare and infrastructure, and there will also be one-off support from the POCT for Tasracing, which was unable to collect any race field fees during the COVID-19 enforced shutdown.

Stewards inquiry into Toowoomba ride

Stewards in Queensland have opened an investigation into the 'running and handling' of the Mark Currie-trained Vincit (Love Conquers All) in Saturday evening's QTIS 3YO BenchMark 62 Handicap (1000m) at Toowoomba. Apprentice Isabella Rabjones rode the gelding into third place behind his stablemate Mishani Appeal (Denman). Rabjones and her mount were placed last entering the home turn, but made ground in the straight to finish two lengths behind the winner. Stewards took exception to Rabjones' lack of vigour on Vincit in the straight. The inquiry was adjourned to take evidence from Currie and enable Rabjones' master, Chris Munce, to be present.

Julius on track for spring

After an impressive trial at Taupo on Wednesday, trainer John Bell is confident his stable star Julius (Swiss Ace) is in good order heading into the Foxbridge Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Te Rapa on September 5. "He has been in work a while and in fact he was too forward so we had to put him out for three weeks, to back off him," said Bell. "He has had his trial which has brought him on nicely and I think a gallop between races somewhere in the next week or two should have him spot on for the Foxbridge." The nine-year-old Group 1 winner will look to target the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) after his Te Rapa assignment. "We've got him entered for the Tarzino down at Hastings so he will head there provided he goes well at Te Rapa," Bell said. "His main aim this season will be to try and defend his Railway Stakes title at Ellerslie on New Year's Day."

Treble for veteran Moseley

South Island stalwart jockey Terry Moseley collected a treble at Riccarton on Saturday, as he continued to prove that age is merely just a number when it comes to riding winners. 53-year-old Moseley has enjoyed a career that has spanned almost 40 years and is producing some of his best form in the saddle. "I love my riding and I think as you get older you appreciate days like I had on Saturday even more," said Moseley, who kicked off his treble in the opening race through Figeameout (Makfi), before striking in races three and four aboard Zoltan (Iffraaj) and Madam Sequoia (Redwood). Moseley was particularly impressed by three-year-old Zoltan. "He's still a little wet behind the ears but I was very impressed with him," he said. "He (Ken Rae, co-trainer) did say he could be a Derby type but I think that while he is going so well over the shorter distances, he would be suited to sticking to that range for the time being."

ASIA

22 for Lord Kanaloa

Shadai Stallion Station resident Lord Kanaloa (King Kamehameha) sired his 22nd individual stakes winner yesterday when R Star (5 h ex Wave Queen by Soccer Boy) took out the Kokura Kinen (Gr 3, 2000m) at Kokura. The five-year-old ran out a one-length winner ahead of Satono Garnet (Deep Impact) with Outliers (Victoire Pisa) a length and a quarter away in third. Lord Kanaloa, who is also responsible for this year's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa, stood for a fee of ¥20,000,000 (Approx AU$260,000) in 2020.

Satono Arthur back in the winners' stall

Satono Arthur (6 h Deep Impact ex King's Rose by Redoute's Choice) returned to the winners' stall for the first time in more than two years with a win in the Sekiya Kinen (Gr 3, 1600m) at Niigata yesterday. The six-year-old entire defeated Trois Etoiles (Lord Kanaloa) by a length and a quarter with the same margin back to Andraste (Orfevre) in third. Satono Arthur is the best performed of three foals to race out of Redoute's Choice (Daneshill) mare King's Rose, who won the New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and was placed at Group 1 level in Australia.

INTERNATIONAL

25 for Clodovil

RATHASKER STUD

Favourite Tiger Tanaka (Clodovil) followed up her Prix Robert Papin (Gr 3, 1200m) third with a first stakes victory in yesterday's Prix Francois Boutin (Gr 3, 1400m) at Deauville. The Charley Rossi-trained juvenile is now five wins from six career starts and becomes the 25th individual stakes winner for her sire Clodovil (Daneshill) and second two-year-old Group winner this year following Steel Bull's Molecomb Stakes (Gr 3, 5f) win last month. Tiger Tanaka drew two lengths clear in the closing stages to beat La Gioiosa (Myboycharlie) while Unveil (Showcasing) kept on for third. Clodovil, who is also the sire of 2014 Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) winner Moriarty, stands at Rathasker Stud in Ireland and his 2020 fee was €8,000.

21 for Poet's Voice

Song Of Life (6 m ex Sign Of Life by Haafhd) scored a valuable first black-type success at the age of six, as the daughter of Poet's Voice (Dubawi) defeated nine rivals to win the Preis der Stadtsparkasse Dusseldorf (Listed, 1400m) yesterday. Song Of Life finished a length and three-quarters ahead of the Godolphin-owned Dathanna (Dubawi), who is out of the Australian Group 3-winning mare, Colour (More Than Ready), with the same margin back to Celestissime (Camelot) in third. The Jean-Pierre Carvalho-trained mare became her sire's 21st individual stakes winner, joining the likes of Group 1 winner Trap For Fools and Group 2 winner Viridine on that list. The late Poet's Voice was also the sire of Kranji Mile (Listed, 1600m) winner Aramaayo in Singapore yesterday.

Unbeaten Palace Pier adds Jacques Le Marois

Leading three-year-old Palace Pier (Kingman) remained unbeaten for John Gosden and Frankie Dettori and claimed a second Group 1 win in yesterday's Prix Jacques Le Marois (Gr 1, 1600m) at Deauville. The colt was last seen beating Pinatubo (Shamardal) in the St James's Palace Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Ascot in June on just his fourth start and first attempt in stakes company and he duly followed up with an impressive three-quarters of a length victory over fellow Royal Ascot Group 1 winners Alpine Star (Sea The Moon) and Circus Maximus (Galileo), who was five lengths back in third. Bred by Highclere Stud and Floors Farming, he was a 600,000gns Tattersalls yearling and, by Kingman (Invincible Spirit), he is out of the unraced Beach Frolic (Nayef), who is a half-sister to Group winners Bonfire (Manduro) and Joviality (Cape Cross).

29 for Hurricane Cat

Three-year-old Hurricane Dream (3 c ex Shalimara by Siyouni), who was unbeaten at his first three starts, bounced back from a six-length defeat in the Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m) last month to claim a first stakes success in the Prix Nureyev (Listed, 2000m) at Deauville yesterday. He became the 29th individual stakes winner for his sire Hurricane Cat (Storm Cat), who shuttled from France to Argentina and Chile and whose progeny includes six Group 1 winners. The Mikael Mescam-trained Hurricane Dream was sent off as favourite and prevailed by a short head from the German raider Dawn Intello (Intello), who was three lengths ahead of him in the French Classic, while Now We Know (Kendargent) was a length and a half further back in third.

60 for Kodiak

Kodiak TALLY-HO STUD

Stepping up from her last start maiden win at Wolverhampton, Zoetic (2 f ex Zallerina by Zamindar) rose to the challenge and took out the St Hugh's Fillies' Stakes (Listed 5.5f) at Newbury on her fifth start, having been in the frame on her first three outings. The James Ferguson-trained juvenile was held up early on and made headway in the final furlong to beat Fairy Dust (Gregorian) by three-quarters of a length while the favourite Caroline Dale (Lethal Force) was a further length and a quarter behind in third. Leading two-year-old sire Kodiak (Danehill), who is responsible for this year's Royal Ascot Group-winning juveniles Nando Parrado and Campanelle, stands at Tally-Ho Stud in Ireland where his fee for 2020 was €65,000.

38 for Le Havre

Le Havre MONTFORT ET PEAUX

Wonderful Tonight (3 f ex Salvation by Montjeu) recorded a surprise victory in the Prix Minerve (Gr 3, 2500m) when turning the tables on short-priced favourite Valia (Sea The Stars) to claim a first stakes win, becoming the 38th individual stakes winner for her sire Le Havre (Noverre). Beaten by two and a half lengths to Valia in the Prix de Thiberville (Listed, 2400m) three weeks ago, Wonderful Tonight reversed the form on the heavy Deauville track, winning by two and a half lengths. Listed winner Paix (Muhaarar) was third, a further length behind. The filly, a €40,000 purchase from Arqana's Deauville August Yearling Sale, is out of three-time winner Salvation, a dam of five to race with four winners, including stakes winner Penjade (Air Chief Marshal), while this is also the family of Champion two-year-old colt, Camelot (Montjeu). Le Havre stands at Montfort et Preaux, where he commands a fee of €50,000 (Approx. AU$83,000).

First for Frosted

Darley's Frosted (Tapit) sired his first winner on Saturday as Inject (2 f ex Appealing Zophie by Successful Appeal) romped to a six-length victory in a five furlong maiden at Ellis Park on Saturday. A US$390,000 purchase from the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, Inject is a three-quarter sister to Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 12f) winner and Gainesway Farm resident stallion Tapwrit (Tapit), and a half-sister to Grade 2 winner Ride A Comet (Candy Ride). A three-time Grade 1 winner in America, Frosted is due to have his first southern hemisphere runners this season. He will stand this season at Darley's Northwood property for $22,000 (inc GST).

First for Daredevil

Former WinStar Farm resident Daredevil (More Than Ready) sired his maiden top flight winner on Saturday when Swiss Skydiver (3 f ex Expo Gold by Johannesburg) took out the Alabama Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) at Saratoga. The Kenneth McPeck-trained filly defeated Bonny South (Munnings) by three and a half lengths with Harvey's Lil Goil (American Pharoah) a length and a half away in third. Daredevil stood at WinStar Farm in Kentucky for three seasons before relocating to Turkey in 2020.

Blinkered Aramaayo puts rivals in the shade in Kranji Mile

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Former Godolphin galloper Aramaayo (Poet's Voice) claimed his highest prize since racing in Singapore when he landed the $S1 million Kranji Mile (Local Gr 1, 1600m) yesterday.

First past the post only once at his previous six starts at Kranji, the Poet's Voice (Dubawi) five-year-old had, however, not been able to fully showcase his true Australian form that includes a Group 3 win (Spring Stakes over the same mile trip in Newcastle in 2018), most notably, his second-last run when a certainty beaten in the Stewards' Cup (Gr 2, 1600m) back in March.

That day, he blundered at the start, conceding close to six to seven lengths, but still made up stacks of ground to run third, less than two lengths off the winner Siam Blue Vanda (Echoes Of Heaven).

That 'nearly horse' tag stuck on further when a flying third at his first-up run since the Covid-19 break in a Class 2 race over 1100 metres on July 26.

But that label finally 'came unstuck' when it mattered most on Sunday, earning trainer Shane Baertschiger his third Group 1 success since taking over from his father Don in 2012, and first-time partner Ruan Maia, his first Group 1 hurrah in Singapore.

After being promoted to International Group 3 this year, the Kranji Mile was unfortunately brought back down a peg to domestic Group 1 status as part of the slew of changes brought about by Covid-19.

The owner, the Aramco Stable, is no stranger to such Group 1 heights either, having jointly celebrated their first with Baertschiger thanks to Aramco (Magic Albert) in the Lion City Cup (Local Gr 1, 1200m) last season.

Meanwhile Australian bloodstock agent Peter Twomey celebrated his first Singapore Group 1 victory after purchasing the gelding privately under his Wattle Bloodstock banner from Godolphin, with the Kranji Mile and Singapore Derby in mind.

Aramaayo

The fanfare and hoopla that usually come with the territory on such big days of racing were sadly missing with the zero-crowd policy still enforced in line with the strict Covid-19 protocols on course.

Baertschiger and assistant-trainer Scott Bailey led Aramaayo into the sound of maybe a few passing birds (crickets if it had been a night meeting), but the Australian handler was still basking in that new triumph in his own quiet way.

"This is my third Group 1 win, but it definitely feels different from the first two. There were no cheers, no photos and no prize presentation, but that's the way it is now," said Baertschiger.

"A Group 1 win is still a Group 1 win, and we will celebrate later. I knew this horse had peaked at the right time after he ran super on Polytrack first-up.

"He won with blinkers in Australia and we've been saving them for the Kranji Mile. He's a horse who stops when he hits the front too early.

"He still tried to do it once he passed

Countofmontecristo, but when Maia growled at him, that kept his mind on the job.

"He'll of course wear a set of blinkers in the Derby, which, just nice, is in three weeks' time. Fingers crossed, he'll be a big runner again."

The HK$500,000 Singapore Derby (Local Gr 1, 1800m) on September 6 had always been the race Aramaayo (known as Aramayo when prepared by top Sydney trainer James Cummings for two wins for the mighty Godolphin) was targeted at as a four-year-old when purchased by Wattle Bloodstock, even if the glamour race has undergone many changes this year, both in terms of conditions (now open to five-year-olds) and prize money.

It would now take a crowbar to prise Maia off Aramaayo's back, more so when Baertschiger revealed he had eyed the Brazilian jockey off as his partner quite a while back.

"I actually wanted Maia to ride Aramaayo in the Stewards' Cup, that race he missed the start badly, but Maia had a booking already," said the Australian handler who was incidentally sealing a first win with the Brazilian at their eighth try.

"Aramaayo was not confirmed for the Kranji Mile at first, but when some of the horses dropped out, he got up. When I asked Maia this time, he was okay to ride him."

The two-time Macau champion jockey responded to the faith in his ability in the best possible way with a 10-out-of-10 ride, even resorting to his vocal cords to put the race to bed.

After dropping to the rear as instructed, Maia only started to improve his mount from the 800-metre mark on the back of favourite and horse-to-beat Countofmontecristo (Echoes Of Heaven), when he commenced his run four wide on the outside.

It was an inspired move because once Michael Clements' runner went for home, Aramaayo had also cleared the other 14 runners and was left with only the hotpot to gun down.

That he did the moment Maia clicked him up for his run at the 300 metres. For a second, he looked so full of running that he would just sweep past Countofmontecristo and annihilate the field as he pleased, but that little quirk of thinking the job is done and dusted was evidently not quite straightened out.

He seemed to be levelling off with Countofmontecristo, who tried to muster another gear, but once Aramaayo was back on an even keel, the issue was put beyond doubt.

Aramaayo had half a length to spare at the wire, not from Countofmontecristo, but from the latter's stablemate, Top Knight (Zoustar), who came from even further astern to pinch second place by a short head.

Countofmontecristo hung on gallantly for third place, three lengths clear of a bunched-up quartet made up of Sun Marshal (Sepoy), Mr Clint (Power), Siam Blue Vanda and On Line (O'Reilly), finishing in that order. Aramaayo ran the 1600 metres on the Short Course in 1min 33.85secs, only 0.24 second outside the seven-year-old record of Super Ninetyseven (Show A Heart).

A multiple-Group 1 winner back in Brazil

Ruan Maia

and twice in Macau, Maia was in seventh heaven after the race. The 32-year-old from Parana had hit another milestone at his new workplace.

"It's very nice, the horse is very good and was always comfortable in the race, and got the job done. I'm very happy I won a first Group 1 race in Singapore, it means a lot to me," said the 600-odd race winner, who will always be remembered as the jockey who flew in as a virtual unknown from Macau for one ride in April 2018, for a 100% strike rate in the Chairman's Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) aboard the Lee Freedman-trained Circuit Land (Mizzen Mast).

"Shane told me to stay back as he's a horse who runs on stronger that way. There was not too much pace, and I was able to follow a little closer in midfield.

"I was lucky I had Countofmontecristo to follow into the race as he's such a nice horse. In the last 600 metres, my horse quickened very nicely.

"He came in too fast, though, as he stopped once he got to the front, but the blinkers improved him. They kept him going."

While the feat of banking in the richest race on the Singapore calendar had still not sunk in, Baertschiger still kept his wits about his two other runners, Preditor (Savabeel, ninth) and I'm Incredible (Lope De Vega, 13th).

Without much surprise, it is the lacklustre run of his reigning Singapore Horse of the Year I'm Incredible that was the dampener.

"Preditor ran his usual honest race, but things are getting tougher for him. I'm Incredible hasn't come up and I'll give him a break for the rest of the year, and bring him back next season," he said.

"The vets have gone over him and there's nothing wrong with him. His trackwork is super strong, but he is racing flat.

"He probably had a hard long second prep and he needs a three-month break."

After Aramaayo's second win from seven starts, his stakes earnings, which also includes place earnings from two seconds and two thirds, have leapt to around HK$680,000 for the Aramco Stable.
