Cranbourne trainers given all-clear to resume working horses

Relief as 88 staff returned negative results after Covid-19 scare goes through provincial centre

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

The Victorian racing industry has breathed a collective sigh of relief after tests for Covid-19 of nearly 100 Cranbourne trainers and stable staff were yesterday returned negative, prompting "a business as usual" return to work from this morning.

Fears of a shutdown of racing, which has continued almost unabated since the coronavirus pandemic swept through the nation in March, came closer to a reality with the revelation that an employee of trainer Richard Laming had last week contracted Covid-19.

Group 1-winning trainer Wendy Kelly, who oversees one of seven stables directly affected by Friday's scare at the Cranbourne Training Centre, told of the relief upon being informed yesterday that not only she and husband Kevin Kelly but also her staff had returned negative results to the virus tests.

San Domenico for impressive Anders

After an impressive last-start win in The Rosebud (Listed, 1100m), the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Anders (Not A Single Doubt) will face his biggest test in the San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill on Saturday.

Laming, Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young, Nathan Dunn, Michael Trotter, Adrian McGregor and Tom Nikolic were also placed in lockdown on the advice of Racing Victoria's chief medical officer while jockeys Michael Walker, Jason Benbow and apprentice Alexandra Bryan were stood down after riding work at Cranbourne last week.

Walker and Bryan were able to ride at Moe yesterday after receiving the results.

In total, 88 Cranbourne staff returned negative results for Covid-19.

Kelly said she was "ecstatic" after a difficult 36 hours not knowing whether she could have been infected.

"The best way of putting it is, it's been a bit stressful. Everyone is very relieved this morning. All the tests have come back negative and it's business as usual (from today)," Kelly told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"The whole thing was handled extremely professionally and amazingly swiftly. Everybody got together and it was a great team effort from Racing Victoria, the stewards, Dr (Gary) Zimmerman, the medical staff and Neil Bainbridge from the Cranbourne Turf Club as well as all our staff and all the stables that were involved.

"They were all there, they all turned up, no one grizzled or anything and had the tests done. It was really fantastic to see."

Kelly was also forced to scratch stable newcomer Bons Away (Bon Hoffa) from the Carlyon Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Moonee Valley, a race that was later abandoned due to the heavy rain and state of the track, because of the scare.

"As it turned out, it was probably a good thing. We didn't have to stand in the cold all day. We had planned to head to the McEwen after the Carlyon, but (Racing Victoria) were perhaps talking about putting the races on that they missed out on in a week or so," she said.

"We will play it a little bit by ear and wait and see what Racing Victoria comes up with or whether we head straight to the McEwen."

As for Bons Away, Kelly said the seven-year-old gelding was thriving in his new environment after being trained by Ciaran Maher and David Eustace.

"He's had a faultless preparation, not one thing's gone wrong with him. I have been really happy with both his trials and Craig Newitt has been really happy with him," she said.

"We've got a little bit of luxury here ... with the way we train, not that there's anything wrong with anyone else's, but being an older horse he gets out in a big day yard, so that helps with his joints.

"He came to us in fantastic order from Ciaran and he'd had a spell at (owner) Ken King's before he came over. He's just a lovely horse with a beautiful temperament and he is a great horse to work with.

"He is very much like his old man in that respect with his temperament."

Meanwhile, eight of Laming's employees who were identified as close contacts of their sick colleague are required to isolate and complete 14 days quarantine as well as undergo a second Covid-19 test before being allowed to return to work.

A deep clean of the Cranbourne Training Centre and stables directly impacted was completed yesterday to allow work to resume.

Racing Victoria chief executive Giles Thompson took comfort from the fact that the industry's safety protocols appeared to be working.

"This underlines the importance and benefit of the strict biosecurity protocols that we have had in place since mid-March to allow for the safe conduct of over 1800 races here in Victoria," Thompson said.

"I want to thank all of the impacted stables and their staff for their swift actions since Friday night and their willingness to make important sacrifices for the benefit of the industry during that period.

"I also want to extend the best wishes of all within the industry to the stablehand that has tested positive to the virus. Our welfare staff are engaged with the individual and will continue to support them throughout the coming weeks."

Thompson urged industry stakeholders to remain vigilant about the dangers of coronavirus.

"This incident should serve as a timely reminder to all within our industry of the critical importance of following both government directives and our industry biosecurity protocols to ensure the safe continuation of training and racing in Victoria," he said.

"I once again implore everyone in our industry to continue doing the right thing. If you or someone in your household is feeling unwell, don't go to work."

Arcadia Queen to get
Memsie chance

Arcadia Queen (Pierro) will have her second run since November when she steps out in Saturday's Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Arcadia Queen was slightly one-paced first-up when fifth to Savatiano (Street Cry) in the P B Lawrence Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), but should take improvement for that effort. She will be joined by stablemate Regal Power (Pierro), who disappointed in the Lawrence when ninth, with stable rider William Pike to ride Regal Power; Damian Lane will once again ride Arcadia Queen. Other likely runners are Lawrence winner Savatiano, last-start Spring Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) victor Behemoth (All Too Hard) and Group 1 winners Begood Toya Mother (Myboycharlie), Gating (Hard Spun), Harlem (Champs Elysees), Mystic Journey (Needs Further), Princess Jenni (High Chaparral) and Streets Of Avalon (Magnus), as well as three-year-old Glenfiddich (Fastnet Rock).

San Domenico for impressive Anders

After an impressive last-start win in The Rosebud (Listed, 1100m), the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Anders (Not A Single Doubt) will face his biggest test in the San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill on Saturday. Anders led all the way to take out the Rosebud by almost five lengths on a Heavy 9 surface and, on Saturday, will tackle not only stronger opposition, but also a firmer track. Among his rivals will be Kindergarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) winner Doubtland (Not A Single Doubt), dual Group 1 placegetter Mamaragan (Wandjina) and the highly-touted Peltzer (So You Think).

Richards thrilled with Probabeel

Returning mare Probabeel (Savabeel) produced one of the eye-catching runs of the day at Randwick with her fast-finishing second in the Show County Quality (Gr 3, 1200m), with trainer Jamie Richards more than happy with her performance over a trip shorter than her best. "I couldn't be more pleased with Probabeel as she has come back really well for this campaign," he said. "She is not normally a flash trialler so she did what we expected in her two prep runs. They served their purpose in helping with her fitness, so we were expecting to see her go a good race. Watching the replay, I do think with a touch more luck she might have even got the victory. One thing that did work in our favour was the improved track which suited her perfectly. There are a couple of options for her next including the Tramway Stakes in a fortnight or the Bill Ritchie Handicap two weeks after that, both at 1400 metres, but, until we see how she comes through the run, we won't be looking too far ahead."

Melody Belle gets pass mark

Melody Belle

SPORTPIX

Melody Belle (Commands) may have finished more than five lengths from Verry Elleegant (Zed) in the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) but trainer Jamie Richards was not too disheartened. "Melody Belle just didn't have the bird on her shoulder in that one so I'm not going to worry too much about where she finished up," Richards said. "She got in quite a good position early on but had Con Te Partiro come back in her face approaching the turn then she copped it twice in the straight as well. She did make up some pretty good ground in the last 100 metres so to see her finish off like that was very pleasing. Her first run wasn't as bad as it looks on paper and now she has got two races under her belt I think you will see her getting back to her best. We also haven't mapped out a clear path for her although she looks ready to start stepping up over more ground. I think a race like the George Main Stakes next month is an option but once again we will wait and see her recovery rate before we make that choice."

The Bostonian to improve for fresh run

Trainer Tony Pike believes his star sprinter The Bostonian (Jimmy Choux) has plenty to offer during his Sydney spring campaign following a satisfactory first-up performance when seventh in Saturday's Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick. "I was happy with his run as he followed such a hot speed it told on him over the closing stages, going 1400m first-up," Pike said. "I got the sectionals sent to me last night and they were going pretty quick early on and most of those who were up there around him dropped out to the tail in the straight. He looked like he was going to burst away at the top of the straight but he probably just plateaued out after peaking in the last furlong. He will improve a heap off that, so I don't think he was disgraced by any means. We'll press on from here once I have worked it out with David (Archer) as there are three or four paths we can take. There is the Chelmsford Stakes in a fortnight and then the George Main Stakes two weeks after that or there are some shorter sprinting options later on. We don't really have a major target as the money we are racing for in these types of races is so good, winning just one of them would be very worthwhile."

River Run to join Catalyst in Sydney

Tony Pike is also looking forward to stable foreman Chris McNab exiting the mandatory quarantine period in Sydney next week so he can take over looking after the stable's team that will be boosted by the arrival of progressive stayer River Run (Pour Moi) and star four-year-old Catalyst (Darci Brahma) shortly. "Chris comes out of quarantine next Friday as he knows our horses well," he said. "The Bostonian is at Bjorn Baker's (Warwick Farm) stable at the moment but when Chris is available, he will take him to our Rosehill base. River Run and Catalyst will hopefully join them on the 31st. River Run is nicely rated for Sydney racing so I had a chat with his owners and we made the decision to send him over. If he could pick up a couple of Saturday wins it would make it very worthwhile. We will also be looking after Catalyst for Rick Williams and Dick Karreman with (trainer) Clayton Chipperfield not being able to travel so it would be good to get him over there and pull off one of the big races for them."

Bell looks to back-up plan for Edge

Few welcomed Melbourne's wet weather like trainer Mick Bell, but his rain dance for his stable stalwart Jungle Edge (Dubawi) at Moonee Valley on Saturday brought too much rain and saw the meeting abandoned before the featured Carlyon Stakes (Listed, 1000m), leaving the handler "shattered". "I was hopeful we'd win yesterday and maybe get some more interest on a potential Everest spot," Bell told Racing.com. "I was completely shattered yesterday. He's a ten-year-old now, opportunities like yesterday on tracks that he loves don't come around every day, but you dust yourself off and we'll just revert to plan B now. I've put in a late entry for The Heath Stakes next Saturday at Caulfield, or he could head to the McEwen the following week. If the border restrictions ease, we may head to Sydney for the Group 3 Concorde Stakes on September 5."

Race added to Caulfield card

An open 2000-metre handicap will be added to Saturday's Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) undercard, taking the place of a 2040-metre quality handicap that was not run at Moonee Valley last Saturday after the meeting was abandoned. "(Racing Victoria) has reviewed the immediate opportunities for the horses engaged in (last Saturday's) races," Racing Victoria's executive general manager of racing Greg Carpenter told Racing.com. "In respect to the McKenzie Stakes (Listed, 1200m) and Carlyon Stakes (Listed, 1000m) these will not be programmed in the short term after reviewing the opportunities for those horses in the McNeil Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), the Benchmark 78 over 1100 metres and The Heath (Listed, 1100m) at Caulfield this Saturday. Racing Victoria will work with the Moonee Valley Racing Club to see if the races can be rescheduled later in the season. It was considered the open handicap (2000m) was an important race for horses going to the quality handicap (2500m) at Flemington on September 12 and targeting feature staying races during the Spring Racing Carnival. Following an exemption from Racing Victoria's Covid-19 operational management team and in consultation with the Melbourne Racing Club, the 2000-metre race has been added to the Memsie Stakes program to make it a ten-race card."

Victorian Horse of the Year finalists announced

Five of the best horses to race in Victoria during the 2019-20 season will go head-to-head for the title of Victorian Horse of the Year, as selected by a 50-strong voting panel comprised of racing media, Racing Victoria's handicapping panel and the chairman of stewards. Group 1-winning sprinters Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) and Nature Strip (Nicconi) are among the finalists, as are Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) hero Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War), Japan's Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) heroine Lys Gracieux (Heart's Cry) and Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) victor Alligator Blood (All Too Hard).

Bathurst abandoned

Today's country NSW race meeting at Bathurst has been postponed after a stewards inspection yesterday found sections of the track unsuitable for racing. Lismore, the other meeting scheduled for NSW, is expected to go ahead.

Corboy fined for Covid breach

A smile cost trainer Adrian Corboy $500 after his charge Roland Garros (Helmet) won at Moonee Valley on Saturday. Corboy was beaming from ear to ear after Roland Garros led all the way to score at $26, but his failure to sport a mandatory face mask saw him hit with the fine for breaching Covid-19 protocols.

NEW ZEALAND

Pike preparing for return of Group 1 stars

Trainer Tony Pike was delighted with the performance of several of his stable stars during their trial efforts in the past fortnight, including last season's New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Sherwood Forest (Fastnet Rock) and New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Loire (Redoute's Choice). "Sherwood Forest was good over the 1025 metres at Te Teko," he said. "He wobbled around the final corner like he does going right-handed, but the last bit of the trial and past the post was super. We'll work out where the trials are going to be in the next little while but if that doesn't suit, he and Loire may go to Tauranga on Saturday for an exhibition gallop together. I'm leaning towards Loire going first-up into the Tarzino Trophy at Hastings next month, while Sherwood Forest will most likely go to Ellerslie on the 12th for an open 1400-metre event and then head to Hawkes' Bay for the last two days of their carnival."

ASIA

14 for Manhattan Rain

Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago) brought up his 14th individual stakes winner yesterday when Excelling (6 g ex Princess Ruhie by Fusaichi Pegasus) took out the Merlion Trophy (Listed, 1200m) at Kranji. The Lee Freedman-trained Excelling stepped out in stakes company for the first time at his 18th start, having had eight starts in NSW before transferring to Singapore in early 2019. Sent out as a 25/1 shot in the Singapore Group 2 yesterday, Excelling came with a big run under Harry Kasim to defeat Bold Thruster (Turffontein) by a half-length with Surpass Natural (Elvstroem) a further head away in third. Manhattan Rain will stand at Blue Gum Farm for $13,200 (inc GST) this season.

INTERNATIONAL

Two for Epaulette

Darley's Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Epaulette (Commands) registered his second Group or Grade 1 winner on Saturday, his first in the northern hemisphere, when Red Lark (3 f ex Firecrest by Darshaan) caused a shock in taking the Del Mar Oaks (Gr 1, 9f). Racing in the Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners silks that were also carried by 2017 VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Pinot (Pierro), the Paddy Gallagher-trained Red Lark settled midfield under rider Drayden Van Dyke. Using momentum to her advantage, she was able to sweep up and hold her rivals at bay, scoring by a length over California Kook (Boisterous) with Warren's Showtime (Clubhouse Ride) in third. Red Lark is from Epaulette's third crop produced out of Kildangan Stud, with the Australian stallion serving five books of mares in Ireland. He will stand at Darley's Kelvinside farm in the Hunter Valley at $22,000 (inc GST) this season.

15 for Wootton Bassett

Audarya (4 f ex Green Bananas by Green Tune) defied her huge odds to run out an impressive winner of the Prix Jean Romanet (Gr 1, 2000m) at Deauville yesterday, providing sire Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) with a 15th individual stakes winner, and his second individual Group 1 winner, to accompany former European champion three-year-old Almanzor. The victory will no doubt have brought smiles to Coolmore's bosses, with Wootton Bassett a recent addition to their powerful stallion ranks, having been purchased from Haras d'Etreham. Audarya, trained in Britain by James Fanshawe, was always prominent under Ioritz Mendizabal and ran on strongly to defeat Ambition (Dubawi) by a neck under just hands and heels, with a further four lengths back to Romanciere (Dansili) in third. The winner was a €125,000 purchase at the 2017 Arqana Yearling sales, whilst her sire stood for €40,000 (approx AUD$66,000) in 2020.

325 for Galileo

Knocking on the door in Group company since breaking her maiden last year, including third in the Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m4f), Passion (Galileo) gained deserved success in the Stanerra Stakes (Gr 3, 1m6f) at Naas yesterday and became the 325th individual stakes winner for Galileo (Sadler's Wells). The Aidan O'Brien-trained three-year-old made all and stayed on well to see off Traisha (Invincible Spirit) by a length and three quarters, while there was a further length and a quarter back to dual stakes winner and favourite Kastasa (Rock Of Gibraltar) in third. Passion is a full-sister to Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) and St Leger (Gr 1, 1m6.5f) winner Capri and Group winner Cypress Creek, out of the winning Anabaa mare Dialafara. Champion Galileo has stood at Coolmore's HQ in Fethard, Ireland since 2002 and his fee has been listed as private since 2009.

Five for Olympic Glory

Etonian (2 c ex Naan by Indian Charlie) made it two from two with a stylish success in the Solario Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Sandown yesterday and became the fifth individual stakes winner for Olympic Glory (Choirir). The colt was noted travelling best 400m out but did need to be shaken up in the final stages to pull clear of the staying-on and equally promising King Vega (Lope De Vega). The winning margin was a length and a quarter, and Etonian was sent off 15-8 favourite. Third home, a further half-length back, was the ultra-game 28-1 outsider Apollo One (Equiano). Winning trainer Richard Hannon, speaking to ITV Racing, said: "I was very impressed. It's lovely to have a good one for Julie [Wood, owner], she lives for things like this and hell's horses wouldn't have kept her away today. He's a Guineas horse, definitely." Olympic Glory (Choirir) stood the 2020 covering season at Haras de Bouquetot in Normandy, France, for €10,000 (approx AUD$16,000).

Nine for Excelebration

Bounce The Blues (Excelebration) stepped up from her course and distance maiden victory on August 3, where she beat Classic-placed So Wonderful (War Front), to take out the Owenstown Stud Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Naas yesterday on her fourth start. Having her first run in stakes company, the John Feane-trained three-year-old was a shock winner at 20-1 and became the ninth individual stakes winner for her sire Excelebration (Exceed And Excel). Held up by Kevin Manning, she mounted her challenge two furlongs from home, charging down the outside and seeing off the fast-finishing Soul Search (Zoffany) to win by half a length, with Baraniya (Iffraaj) a further length and a quarter back in third. Former Coolmore shuttler Excelebration, who was bred by race sponsor Owenstown Stud, stood in Ireland until last year when he was sold to stand abroad.

Campanelle leads home Kodiak quinella in France

Queen Mary Stakes (Gr 2, 5f) winner Campanelle (Kodiak) made light work of the step up in distance and the soft ground when running out a dominant winner of what looked a quality field in the Prix Morny (Gr 1, 1200m) at Deauville on Sunday. The winner broke well and made virtually all under Frankie Dettori, whose decision to stay in France for a few weeks and miss the valuable meeting at York looks fully vindicated now, finishing off strongly to deny fellow Royal Ascot winner Nando Parrado (Kodiak) with the once-raced Rhythm Master (Dark Angel) defying inexperience to run an excellent third. Trained in the USA by Wesley Ward, who loves to raid the top European two-year-old races, Campanelle was a 190,000gns purchase from Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales in 2019, from the draft of Tally-Ho Stud, who also stand Kodiak (Daneshill) for €65,000 (approx. AUD$108,000).

22 for War Front

War Front (Danzig) made it 22 Group or Grade 1 winners on Saturday when Halladay (4 c ex Hightap by Tapit) broke through for his first graded stakes win in the Fourstardave Handicap (Gr 1, 8f) at Saratoga. Halladay took on a strong field that included defending champion Got Stormy (Get Stormy), Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 8f) winner Uni (More Than Ready), 2018 St James's Palace Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) victor Without Parole (Frankel) and two-time Grade 1 winner Raging Bull (Dark Angel), with the Todd Pletcher-trained colt sent off as third favourite despite his lack of a graded stakes victory. Ridden by Luis Saez, Halladay defeated Got Stormy by a length and a quarter, with the same margin back to Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) in third. War Front stood for US$250,000 at Claiborne Farm in Kentucky in 2020.

61 for Uncle Mo

The ever-reliable Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) brought up his 61st stakes winner on Saturday with Harvest Moon (3 f ex Qaraaba by Shamardal) taking out the Torrey Pines Stakes (Gr 3, 8f) at Del Mar. The Simon Callaghan-trained filly, racing in the Michael Tabor orange and blue, took her record to three wins from four starts with her victory; she won by a length and a quarter over Secret Keeper (Into Mischief), with a further five and a quarter lengths back to Paige Anne (Take Charge Indy) in third. "We were delighted. This filly means a lot because I trained the mother, which gives it a little extra sentiment," Callaghan said. "She's an exciting, big filly that we've been super patient with, and it's great that she's coming into doing what she's doing." Uncle Mo stood for US$125,000 at Coolmore's Ashford Stud in Kentucky this year.

Maximum Security adds Pacific Classic

Widely known for his Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) demotion last year, Maximum Security (New Year's Day) is carving out a strong record aside from that controversial decision demoting him to last in that race, as well as an investigation into his Saudi Cup (9f) victory earlier this year. The four-year-old remains unbeaten in 2020, adding the Pacific Classic (Gr 1, 10f) at Del Mar to his resume yesterday. The Bob Baffert-trained Maximum Security never looked in too much doubt, making most to score by three lengths over Sharp Samurai (First Samurai) with Midcourt (Midnight Lute) almost six lengths from the winner. "He's a top horse. People need to know he is the real deal," Baffert said. "It's a shame what he's gone through. It's not his fault, but he is a great horse." The win earns Maximum Security an automatic paid berth into November's Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f) at Keeneland.

Scandinavian stakes treble for Kick On British-bred Kick On (Charm Spirit) made it a hat-trick of stakes races since joining Niels Petersen in Norway when taking out yesterday's Marit Sveaas Minnelop (Gr 3, 1800m) at Overvoll, the fifth stakes success of his career. The four-year-old also won the Sovereign Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) last year for John Gosden and took out the Stockholms Stora Pris (Gr 3, 1750m) at Bro Park in June and Swedish Open Mile (Listed, 1600m) last month since switching to Petersen. He got the better of six-year-old Swedish Dream (Helmet), while his stablemate and former Scandinavian Champion Square De Luynes (Manduro) was third. Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit) stands at Windsor Park Stud where his fee this season is NZ$15,000.

Areion at the treble

Breaking out of the stalls before the start of the race did not do Sun At Work (Areion) any harm, for having been reloaded without getting very far, the game eight-year-old was quickly away too when the race started properly, and duly made every yard in yesterday's Grosser Wettstar Sommer Preis (Listed, 1600m) at Hannover under Renato Souza, who punched the air as the duo crossed the line. He was three-quarters of a length to the good of Ninario (Areion), with the winning sire also responsible for the third home Wonnemond (Areion), who was another length and a quarter back. Stewards held an inquiry into a very messy final furlong but Sun At Work was not involved having kept out of trouble on the front end. Areion (Big Shuffle) stands at Gestut Etzean where his 2020 fee was €12,500 (approx. AUD$20,500).

Dubawi's daughter springs surprise

Maamora (yellow silks)

SPORTPIX

Maamora (Dubawi) pulled off an upset in the Atalanta Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at Sandown yesterday, repelling her nine rivals in tremendously game fashion up the hill to score at 14-1 under William Buick. The winning margin over 2018 Classic heroine Billesdon Brook (Champs Elysees) was half a length. Third home Lavender's Blue (Sea The Stars) was extremely unlucky having been stopped in her run. Had she got clear she may well have repeated her success in the same race in 2019. Maamora was bred by Godolphin, who stand Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) at Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket. His fee this year was £250,000 (approx AUD$450,000).

Wind blows rivals away

Call The Wind (Frankel) ran out a facile winner of the Prix Kergorlay (Gr 2, 3000m) at Deauville under a cool Olivier Peslier ride, defeating Ashrun (Authorized) and Windstoss (Shirocco) with the minimum of fuss. The race has become something of an unofficial trial for the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), with previous Cup heroes Dunaden (2011) and Americain (2010) having used the race as their final European preparation before heading to Australia. However, the key runners with their sights set on Flemington in November all suffered disappointing days; Red Verdon (Lemon Drop Kid) was withdrawn at the start, the Australian Bloodstock-owned Collide (Frankel) made much of the running but faded late on to finish unplaced, whilst the OTI-owned San Huberto (Speightstown) was ultimately disappointing, never really looking dangerous. Call The Wind is a half-brother to Group 1 winners We Are and With You, both by Dansili, and his dam, In Clover (Inchior) has also produced Listed winners Incahoots and Dream Clover, both by Oasis Dream. Frankel (Galileo) stands at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud in Great Britain for £175,000 (approx AUD$320,000).

Call The Wind

Ebaiyra too good in Pomone

Ebaiyra (Distorted Humor) looked a stayer of some promise when taking the Prix de Pomone (Gr 2, 2500m) under a classy front-running Christophe Soumillon ride at Deauville yesterday. The filly showed plenty of tenacity to hold off the challenge of British raider Spirit Of Appin (Champs Elysees) and Grand Glory (Olympic Glory) by three quarters of a length with a further length back to the third. Ebaiyra broke her maiden in a Group 3 before finishing sixth in the Prix de Diane (Gr 1, 2100m); the form of that race looks exceptionally strong, with the winner, Fancy Blue (Deep Impact), subsequently winning the Nassau Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f). She is a half-sister to Listed winner Edisa (Kitten's Joy) and there's plenty of stamina in the pedigree as she's a granddaughter of a half-sister to Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2m4f) winners Enzeli and Estimate. Distorted Humor (Forty Niner) stands at WinStar Farm in Kentucky for a fee of US$50,000 (approx AUD$70,000).

Fort Myers the star attraction at first-ever Tattersalls August Sale

BY OLLIE O'DONOGHUE | RACING POST

The inaugural Tattersalls August Sale will take place at Park Paddocks in Newmarket from Monday to Wednesday, with the three-day auction having attracted 774 initial entries plus an additional wildcard.

With last year's Gimcrack (Gr 2, 6f) and Champagne Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) scorer Threat (Footstepsinthesand) among 167 withdrawn lots, top billing might instead fall to the regally-bred Listed scorer Fort Myers (War Front), Lot 387, one of five lots from Aidan O'Brien's Ballydoyle Stables.

The three-year-old War Front (Danzig) colt clocked up plenty of mileage in eight starts as a juvenile, when he landed the Star Appeal Stakes (Listed, 7f) under lights at Dundalk.

Fort Myers was also third in the Railway Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) and a highly respectable seventh in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (Gr 1, 1m) at Santa Anita, when beaten less than three lengths.

This year he has contested the Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) and Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m) and finished third in the Meld Stakes (Gr 3, 1m1f) at Leopardstown on his most recent start.

The Coolmore homebred is out of the Irish 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) heroine Marvellous (Galileo), one of five Group 1 performers out of You'resothrilling (Storm Cat), along with Gleneagles and Vatican City, also both by Galileo (Sadler's Wells).

The Cherry Hinton Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) scorer You'resothrilling is herself a Storm Cat (Storm Bird) sister to the 'Iron Horse' Giant's Causeway.

Another standout lot is fellow stakes scorer Surf Dancer (Lope De Vega) (Lot 706), one of six lots from William Haggas' Somerville Lodge.

Surf Dancer was bought by his owners China Horse Club and Ballylinch Stud for

Fort Myers

PATRICK MCCANN/RACING POST

€260,000 at the Goffs Orby Sale, and won a valuable juvenile race at Chelmsford at two and the King Charles II Stakes (Listed, 7f) at York this July.

The three-year-old Lope De Vega (Shamardal) colt has an attractive pedigree as a son of the Listed-winning Beach Belle (Invincible Spirit), whose own dam is the Group 1-placed Beach Bunny (High Chaparral).

Consignments from Juddmonte Farms always rank among the highlights at this type of sale, Prince Khalid Abdullah's operation having sold the top-priced colt Jewel House (Dubawi) for 215,000gns at the 2017 July Sale.

Among the Juddmonte jewels on offer this week are the Group-placed Dawn Approach colt Georgeville (Lot 436) and the smartly bred fillies Narrate (Dansili) (Lot 442) and Sophistry (Make Believe) (Lot 445).

There are clues in the pedigree of dual winner Georgeville to suggest he may have more wins left in him, as he is out of the dual Group 3 winner Big Break, a Dansili full-sister to Royal Whip Stakes (Gr 2, 1m2f) scorer Famous Name.

The latter was known as the ATM machine in Dermot Weld's yard for winning 21 races - all stakes races bar his maiden win - and placing in a further 13 races in 38 starts.

Of the three-year-old fillies, Narrate is a Dansili full-sister to stakes scorers Runnymede and Stipulate and descends from Prix du Moulin (Gr 1, 1600m) heroine All At Sea (Riverman), while Sophistry is a Make Believe (Makfi) half-sister to Group 1-winning juvenile Epicuris (Rail Link) and from the family of French Guineas heroine Matiara (Bering).

The largest draft comes from The Castlebridge Consignment with 73 lots headed up by recent Listed winner Maystar (Mayson), Lot 360, a three-year-old gelding with a peak Racing Post Rating of 102.

The same vendor also offers the three-time winner and 94-rated To Nathaniel (Nathaniel), Lot 682, a three-year-old colt out of the winning Sea The Stars mare Too The Stars, meaning he is inbred 3x3 to Urban Sea.

The latest addition to the auction is the Archie Watson-trained Ocean Star (Lot 199A), a two-year-old Adaay (Kodiac) filly who broke her maiden by a resounding 11 lengths on her latest start after being stepped up to seven furlongs, and she too features among the Castlebridge draft.

Ocean Star was bred by John Banahan out of the New Approach mare Miss Wicklow and hails from the same family as Northern Dancer Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 12f) winner Forte Dei Marmi (Selkirk) and the Epsom and Irish Oaks placegetter Harlequeen (Canford Cliffs).

Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony said: "The Covid-related circumstances surrounding the decision to introduce a Tattersalls August Sale are well documented and we've been hugely encouraged by both the quality and quantity of entries.

"Originally pencilled in for two days, we've extended the sale to three days to accommodate the number of entries, and the catalogue has the strength and depth that will appeal to a wide cross section of buyers, both domestic and further afield.

Surf Dancer

"Despite the current challenges, our recent July Sale achieved a phenomenal 96 per cent clearance rate, which demonstrates the enduring appeal of sales of this nature at Tattersalls, and we've already received extremely positive feedback from our myriad overseas markets."

Excelling does just that at first Group raid

BY MICHAEL LEE | SGP TURF CLUB

Progressive sprinter Excelling (Manhattan Rain) was the main beneficiary from an earnest speed battle in and around him when he emerged the freshest horse on the scene en route to a well-calculated victory in the S$250,000 Merlion Trophy (Gr 2, 1200m) yesterday.

Trained by Lee Freedman, the six-year-old had steadily been scaling through his grades with four wins up to Class 2 level at Kranji, mostly scored in his favourite leading tactics.

But, somehow, most thought a stab at the elite class under weight-for-age conditions might be one bridge too far at this stage.

Hence the generous $130 odds, but most probably lengthened up further by the presence of Bold Thruster (Turffontein), the hot favourite of the annual Polytrack feature.

Freedman was about the only one who believed, and when jockey A'Isisuhairi Kasim, Freedman's new blue-eyed boy, took a drop instead of capitalising on his barrier number one to vie for the lead, that turned out to be the manoeuvre that would upend all his rivals at the business end, including Bold Thruster.

As Excelling settled into his ground-saving bubble onto the fence, almost two-thirds of the field were jostling and punching out for position at a cracking pace, with Zac Kasa (Reset) just a peg off the helter skelter.

Stablemate Augustano (Hard Spun) took up the leading role in the back straight but was immediately besieged by three speed chasers spread abreast, Surpass Natural (Elvstroem), My Dreamliner (Dream Ahead) and – to his backers' and connections' horror – Bold Thruster facing the breeze the widest.

The order and frenetic pace varied little to the home turn where Louis Beuzelin decided it was time to leave that nightmarish trip behind on the favourite.

The French jockey pushed the throttle to

Excelling

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

the max, but Bold Thruster, probably softened up by that wide trip burning precious petrol, could not quite draw clear. Surpass Natural was still in the mix but after the last-start winner rolled out, a gap appeared that Excelling dived through in no time.

Having economised all his horsepower during that soft run in transit, Freedman's protégé was full of running when set alight by A'Isisuhairi.

In two to three bounds, he shot one length clear, but Surpass Natural and Bold Thruster did not throw in the towel so easily as they whacked away and did nibble at the lead a little, but they were in the end both beaten fair and square by an excellent sprinter.

Bold Thruster lunged to claim the first prize for minor placings half-a-length away, beating Surpass Natural by a head, leaving to the imagination what could have been the final result if he had swapped barriers with the winner.

Luck is often a part of such equations in horse racing, even off the tracks before horses set hoof in a race, as Freedman recalled after Excelling gave him his sixth Group success at Kranji.

"I would like to pay tribute to Constance Cheng. I bought that horse for her but she decided not to take him, and that's when I found other owners for him," said Freedman.

The Australian Hall of Fame trainer was certainly in a thankful mood as he continued heaping praise to the high heavens.

"I'd also like to thank Shane Baertschiger. He's the one who told me I'd be mad not to run Excelling in the Merlion Trophy, thanks Shane!" he added in a nod to last Sunday's Kranji Mile-winning trainer (Aramaayo).

On the way the race unfolded, the master tactician revealed it was always the intention to ride the former two-time Australian winner (Gosford and Kembla Grange, both over 1200m, when prepared by Joseph Pride) colder in spite of being drawn in stall one.

"He had the winkers on to focus him up, but I didn't know if they would work," he said.

"We actually raced him held up for a run before and he nearly won last year (fast-finishing third to Fame Star in a Class 3 sprint race)."

A'Isisuhairi, who was capturing his second Group feature after he won the Stewards' Cup (Gr 2, 1600m) aboard Siam Blue Vanda (Echoes Of Heaven) earlier in the year, said his confidence kept growing during the race.

"Mr Freedman actually didn't like barrier No 1. He told me he'd leave it to me, but he would prefer I jump and get cover," said the Malaysian hoop.

"I didn't want to go forward as I know Augustano would roll forward. When I saw the speed battle in front, with Bold Thruster caught four wide, I was happy my own horse was travelling relaxed.

"Bold Thruster is such a good horse that he can kick again, though, but all I needed for my horse was to see daylight at the right time. The way he was travelling, if I could get the run, I believe he could kick home.

"I knew he was super fit as Mr Freedman knows how to get his horses ready. He told me he was quite happy with his condition before the race.

"As soon as I found the gap, he quickened through nicely, but I was a bit worried when I saw Bold Thruster on the outside.

"I asked myself, 'will I get this race?', but luckily, my horse kept going. I had just won my second Group two race for the year.

"My aim has always been to win at least one Group race (a statistic he has proudly maintained since his first full year as an apprentice jockey in 2013 - Trudeau in the Group 2 EW Barker Trophy) per season, and I won two now.

"In terms of wins, I set a target of 15 wins and I've hit it today. It's all about opportunities, I've been riding some nice horses lately.

"If I keep getting the same support, my next target is to win the local champion jockey title."

That award was introduced last year with Benny Woodworth the first recipient on 69 winners, with A'Isisuhairi some gap away in fourth place on 18 winners.

Woodworth still leads this year on 16 winners, but while it's too soon to speculate,

A'Isisuhairi Kasim

with A'Isisuhairi snapping at his heels one winner behind, the momentum might have swung a little in favour of the Kelantan-born jockey this year.

With that fifth win in ten starts, Excelling has seen his stakes earnings shoot past the S$300,000 mark for his lucky connections.
