Authentic Aussie Murphy the maestro behind Kentucky Derby success of S F Bloodstock

Field heaps praise on partner after Baffert colt causes Churchill Downs upset

Tom Ryan, Henry Field and Gavin Murphy

NEWGATE

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Henry Field has lauded the "extraordinary" Gavin Murphy, an under-the-radar country boy from central Queensland who prefers to keep a low profile, for the Australian investor's role in S F Bloodstock's second Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 1m2f) victory in three years.

The remarkable feat, which came in the relative afterglow of S F Bloodstock's record-breaking success in 2018 with US Triple Crown champion Justify (Scat Daddy), was achieved early yesterday when three-year-old colt Authentic (Into Mischief) caused a boilover in the 146th running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs.

It led to a jubilant Newgate Farm managing director Field, one third of the team who manages the S F Bloodstock operation alongside Murphy and Tom Ryan, passing the accolades to his US-based partners for the result.

“Any time you win a Kentucky Derby, or one of the world’s great races ... it’s an extraordinary thing but it’s quite an amazing thing with ... how fortunate we’ve been in that race and how S F Bloodstock has been as a group.

“The team works tirelessly to try and make good decisions on a daily basis and it’s wonderful when the rewards follow.

“Tom Ryan has acted as the racing manager of the horse in the States and he’s done a wonderful job working with Bob Baffert.”

But it was Murphy, a New York-based tax counsel to hedge fund tycoon George Soros, who Field reserved special praise for in the hours after Authentic upset short-priced favourite Tiz The Law (Constitution) in the US$3 million race.

“I can absolutely tell you that if it wasn’t for him this result wouldn’t have happened today and nor would S F Bloodstock and Newgate,” Field told ANZ Bloodstock News.

“He is a behind-the-scenes guy, but I can tell you in all sincerity I am not sure there would be many people with a brain for bloodstock like Gavin.

“On a global basis - and it doesn’t matter if it’s this (Australian) market, the US market or any market - he knows the bloodstock markets intricately and he is the quarterback that makes S F Bloodstock what it is.

“Gavin has got no arrogance, no hubris, he’s just a straight shooter and there’s no man that I know with greater integrity. Continued on page 4>>

"I can tell you that he has mentored myself and Tom Ryan over the past ten years. He is hugely successful in the financial industry, but I think he is one of the greatest bloodstock minds certainly that I have ever encountered ... and he is the most extraordinary partner to have in Newgate."

Murphy's demeanour and desire to stay out of the limelight, Field says, should not take away from the significant impact that he has had on the world bloodstock market which includes a shareholding in Hunter Valley farm Amarina which is operated by Craig Anderson.

Field unashamedly admits that he consults Ryan and Murphy, as well as fellow Newgate Farm partner Matthew Sandblom, almost daily about Field was at the 2018 Keeneland September Yearling Sales where in consultation with Ryan, Murphy and agent Donato Lanni, S F Bloodstock secured the colt for US$350,000 in partnership with Jack Wolf's Starlight West.

Two years later - and four months after the Kentucky Derby is normally run - Authentic became Hall Of Famer Baffert's sixth winner of the historic race. He also prepared Justify for S F Bloodstock, China Horse Club and WinStar Farm, and oversaw the racecourse career of American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile).

"Bob said to us all, Tom Ryan, Gavin Murphy and the whole team, 'now if we can buy the fast milers I will stretch them out to win a Kentucky Derby' and that's exactly what he did," Field recalled.

"He was a horse the whole team liked very much, but Donato Lanni really liked him and Gavin Murphy made it very clear that we weren't going home without the horse."

In June, Spendthrift Farm purchased a majority stake in Authentic, which came after the son of Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday) had won his first three starts including two at Graded level, and principal B. Wayne Hughes then partnered with MyRacehorse.com to sell 4200 micro shares in the exciting colt.

"I am not certain what their plans are, but they have bought a horse that has got a huge amount of speed and a huge amount of class. I am sure if they do decide to bring the horse to Australia, he's got the hallmarks of a horse ... who could succeed," he said.

Into Mischief

SPENDTHRIFT

"B. Wayne is such an extraordinarily successful guy in his own right and it's wonderful from our team's point of view that he has made a big investment in Australia.

"He has surrounded himself with good people and we're as happy for him and the whole Spendthrift team."

Authentic's crowning victory adds to his success in the Haskell Stakes (Gr 1, 9f), his lead-up to the Derby. He has had six starts for five wins and US$2,871,200 in prize-money, with his only defeat coming when runner-up to Honor A. P. (Honor Code) in the Santa Anita Derby (Gr 1, 9f) in June.

Group 1 winners to clash in Run To The Rose

Farnan

SPORTPIX

Group 1 winning two-year-olds Farnan (Not A Single Doubt), Rothfire (Rothsay) and King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) are set for a Saturday showdown in a mouthwatering renewal of The Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200). The trio are likely to be joined by Peltzer (So You Think), Prague (Redoute's Choice) and Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) in the Rosehill feature which is certain to have a major impact on the betting for the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) later in the month. High Bowman will once again be on Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan, with Jim Byrne, who will be basing himself in Sydney, taking the ride on The Everest (1200m) bound Rothfire.

Valley gallop for
Russian Camelot

Leading Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) fancy Russian Camelot (Camelot) pleased connections when he warmed up for his return run in Saturday's Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in a racecourse workout over the weekend. The South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner took part in a racecourse gallop at Moonee Valley on Saturday morning with stablemate King Of Leogrance (Camelot) as trainer Danny O'Brien readies the four-year-old for his eagerly anticipated return to action at Flemington. "They had a really nice gallop, we've been really happy with them both at home," O'Brien's assistant trainer Ben Gleeson told Racing.com.

"Russian Camelot goes into next weekend very fit with a lot of improvement to come so we have no qualms about him seeing out the mile first up. Physically he looks amazing."

Big field for Makybe Diva

Russian Camelot looks set to face a number of high class rivals when he lines up in Saturday's Makybe Diva Stakes. Damien Oliver will be back on board the son of Camelot (Montjeu), who is in line to clash with, among others, Fierce Impact (Deep Impact), Gailo Chop (Deportivo), Master Of Wine (Maxios), Quick Thinker (So You Think) and So Si Bon (So You Think). Craig Williams will be reunited with last year's Melbourne Cup winner Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War), while Jay McNeil will be onboard Kings Will Dream (Casamento). Miami Bound (Reliable Man), Nonconformist (Rebel Raider) and Oceanex (Ocean Park) will have the option of either tackling the Group 1 contest or the 1700-metre Open on the same card.

Premiere next for Nature Strip

Chris Waller is pushing ahead as planned with Nature Strip (Nicconi), the beaten favourite first-up in Saturday's Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m). The six-year-old gelding, who was overhauled by The Everest (1200m) rival Gytrash (Lope De Vega) in the final stages of the race, sat outside Ball Of Muscle (Dubawi).

Nature Strip

SPORTPIX

"We could have probably put the acid to them mid stages but I think with the instructions being for Ball Of Muscle that lead at all costs had some relevance into how we rode Nature Strip, so don't be too concerned," Waller told Racing.com yesterday. "I think 1200 metres it's a more natural race for him, he can put the others under a bit of pressure and basically put pain into a race. He'll bounce out of this run, four weeks to the Premiere and then two weeks to The Everest then down to Melbourne for the sprint on the last day of Flemington."

Humidor to stay in Melbourne

A rejuvenated Humidor (Teofilo) will stay in Melbourne after returning to form in Saturday's John F Feehan Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley, his first start for trainer Chris Waller. "The plan was just to put him in races he'd be competitive in and I was thinking probably come up to Sydney for group 2 weight-for-age races like the Hills Stakes and the Craven Plate, but we won't we'll keep him down there (in Melbourne)," Waller said. "It will either be the Underwood over 1800m or the Turnbull - keeping him fresh might be the key." Humidor, who has had five trainers throughout his career, had not won since 2018 before his Valley success.

Crowds highly unlikely for Melbourne spring carnival

Racing Victoria is dissecting the state government's road map for the decrease of coronavirus restrictions and whether there are provisions that would allow small crowds to be on course for feature spring metropolitan race meetings. However, Premier Daniel Andrews in his media conference said the risk of having crowds on course was not worth it. "The events will still go on. The question is whether there will be people on site watching it," Andrews said. "That will be to the extent that it's safe. Compromising the strategy for a day at the races for 5000 people or 25000 people is not worth it. It's just not worth it. As much as I respect the contribution that sector makes, we have got to do it safely. Whilst we can give people a sense of crowds. We do want to have a specific look at a number of major events that are brand, jobs, it's all of those things. It's a little bit too early to have a definitive number and to be yes or no. The key point is to just work through that in a steady way, never compromising the strategy, never doing anything other than following the advice. I know people want certainty, particularly those who run those events. We are taking that off line if you like."

Geelong hopeful for crowds

Geelong Racing Club chief executive Daniel Salter has not given up hope that a small crowd could be on course for its feature race next month despite the Victorian government's announcement around Covid-19 restrictions yesterday. Premier Daniel Andrews said Geelong could be included in the metropolitan Melbourne Stage 4 restrictions if the situation worsens in the coastal region. The Geelong Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) is scheduled for October 21. "That seems to be the case, the light at the end of the tunnel is fading fast but we're still optimistic we might get a small number of people here on cup day," Salter told Racing.com. "We'll continue to work with the industry and the government and do whatever we can. It's going to be one of those years for all clubs; not being able to have crowds on your feature days is frustrating but we're in a much better position than a lot of people. The racing industry has done a terrific job and it's been great to be able to keep racing, but the spring and early summer isn't looking very encouraging at the moment."

No surgery for Dunn

Dwayne Dunn, who fractured his C6 vertebrae when his head was slammed into the barriers as the gates opened in race four at Moonee Valley on Saturday, will not require surgery to repair his severe injury. The Victorian Jockeys Association yesterday reported that doctors at Royal Melbourne Hospital had concluded that he will need to wear a soft collar around his neck for four to six weeks to allow the fracture to heal.

Snowden suffers fractures

Geoff Snowden sustained leg fractures when he was dislodged from his mount who subsequently reared over on top of him in the mounting yard prior to the third race at Moree yesterday. Snowden was taken to hospital and is likely to now be airlifted to Tamworth for surgery.

NEW ZEALAND

Tavi Mac on road to Hastings

Trainer Alan Sharrock had a smile on his face a mile wide despite being beaten in Saturday's feature event at Te Rapa, the Valachi Downs Foxbridge Plate (Gr 2, 1200m). Sharrock had just seen his underrated galloper Tavi Mac (Tavistock) push quality mare Avantage (Fastnet Rock) all the way down the Te Rapa straight before going under by just on a length after starting from the outside barrier. While Tavi Mac had race fitness on his side, having won two from two leading into the race, he certainly didn't have size or glamorous good looks with the horse affectionately dubbed 'Frodo Baggins' by his trainer and many supporters due to his lack of size and plain features. "He certainly went above how I expected, especially from that draw," Sharrock said. "I'm just so very proud of him as he never relented. She is a champion mare so there is no slur on my little fellow in running second and there was a margin of three to four lengths back to third so they did have it to themselves at the end." The runner-up placing guarantees Tavi Mac his place in the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) at Hastings in a fortnight, a race that Sharrock is eagerly awaiting.

Kiwi owners celebrate Humidor's victory

Humidor's (Teofilo) barnstorming finish to land victory in Saturday's Feehan Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley forced part-owner John Carter into a change of plans yesterday morning. Carter, who shares in the ownership of the eight-year-old with brother Mark and sister Rachel under their Jomara Bloodstock banner, spent a good part of his Saturday evening celebrating the win and was feeling the effects the next day. "I had a few things planned for this morning but that didn't eventuate as we celebrated pretty hard last night," Carter said. "Watching the race, it looked like it was set up for him and I was actually just hoping he wasn't going to disgrace himself. As it turned out it was a 12 out of ten ride by Damian Lane, it was just perfect as he rode him a treat. I think the ride won him the race as he was positive on him and the old boy showed just what he can do when he's right."

Media man Rodley scores Derby win

You could be forgiven for thinking New Zealand television presenter Aidan Rodley had found an oil well, synonymous with many of the world's leading racehorse owners, after he won the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) yesterday with Authentic (Into Mischief). Rather, he is a micro owner of the star colt, one of 4,200 people that took up an opportunity to obtain a hair in the tail of Authentic through their purchase of a US$206 share in the horse offered through online website MyRaceHorse.com. Founded by 43-year-old Californian Michael Behrens, MyRaceHorse.com has sold 70,000 shares in 47 horses in the last year and owns 12.5 per cent of Authentic, broken down into 12,500 shares that were snapped up by 4,200 individuals. "We literally own a hair in his tail and definitely didn't need to strike some home-town oil to afford the share we bought," Rodley said. "It all came about off the back of a syndicate we put together for a core group of mates that went through high school together. Over the last couple of years, we had grown apart a little, so we thought we'd get together for a few beers one day and look for ways we could stay in touch a little better."

ASIA

First for Mikki Isle

Arrowfield Stud's shuttle stallion Mikki Isle (Deep Impact) registered his first stakes winner yesterday when Meikei Yell (2 f ex Shiroinger by Harbinger) took out the Kokura Nisai Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Kokura in Japan. Sent out as second favourite on the yielding track, the Hidenori Take-trained Meikei Yell - ridden by the handler's cousin Yutaka Take after winning a newcomers race at the course last month - proved too strong for odds-on favourite Mondreise (Daiwa Major), scoring by a length and a half with a further four lengths to Fodla (Lord Kanaloa) in third. Meikei Yell is likely to be aimed at the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in December. It was also a first stakes winner as a broodmare sire for King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) hero Harbinger (Dansili), who continues to stand at Shadai Stallion Station in Hokkaido. Mikki Isle, who did not return to Arrowfield Stud this year due to Covid-19 flight restrictions, will have his first Australian two-year-olds this season.

80 for King Kamehameha

The late King Kamehameha (Kingmambo) made it 80 individual stakes winners yesterday when the regally-bred Bravas (4 c ex Verxina by Deep Impact) took out the Niigata Kinen (Gr 3, 2000m). The Yasuo Tomomichi-trained Bravas, sent out as second favourite, came with a late burst to defeat the free-wheeling Jinambo (Deep Impact) by a head with a further neck back to Sanrei Pocket (Jungle Pocket) in third. Bravas is the first foal out of the two-time Victoria Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Verxina (Deep Impact), who herself is a three-quarter sister to Japan Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) hero Cheval Grand (Heart's Cry). King Kamehameha died in August last year at Shadai Stallion Station.

INTERNATIONAL

39 for Dutch Art

Cheveley Park Stud's Dutch Art (Medicean) sired his 39th individual stakes winner when the lightly raced Starman (3 c ex Northern Star by Montjeu) landed the Garrowby Stakes (Listed, 6f) at York yesterday. Having just his third start, the Ed Walker-trained three-year-old beat favourite Dakota Gold (Equiano) by a length and three quarters, with Watan (Toronado) a further four and a half lengths adrift in third. The second foal out of the Montjeu (Sadler's Wells) mare Northern Star, Starman is a half-brother to the Group-placed winner Sunday Star. Dutch Art stood for a private fee in 2020.

Two for Goken

Haras de Colleville resident Goken (Kendargent) sired his second individual stakes winner when Go Athletico (2 g ex Byburg by Sageburg) struck in the Prix La Rochette (Gr 3, 1400m) at Longchamp yesterday. The Philippe Decouz-trained two-year-old was winning for the second time in four starts when beating Sealiway (Galiway) by a length. Favourite Naval Crown (Dubawi) was another neck away in third. Goken stood for a fee of €3,000 (approx AUD$4,900) in 2020.

39 for Le Havre

Le Havre (Noverre) sired his 39th individual stakes winner when Glycon (4 g ex Glorious Sight by Singspiel) came out on top in a tight finish to the La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte (Gr 3, 2000m) at Longchamp yesterday. The Jean-Claude Rouget-trained four-year-old was winning for the fourth time in five starts when beating Villa Rosa (Doctor Dino) and Les Vertus (Shakespearean) by a short neck and a head. Le Havre stood at Montfort et Preaux for a fee of €50,000 (approx AUD$81,300) in 2020.

King rules in red-hot Moulin

Persian King (Kingman) roared back to form to lead home a star-studded line-up in yesterday's Prix du Moulin de Longchamp (Gr 1, 1600m). The Andre Fabre-trained four-year-old was registering his third elite level win, and his eighth in total, when holding on from the fast finishing favourite Pinatubo (Shamardal) to score by a length and three-quarters. Circus Maximus (Galileo) was another six lengths away in third, narrowly ahead of Siskin (First Defence) and Victor Ludorum (Shamardal), with Romanised (Holy Roman Emperor) last of the six runners.

Group race double for Kingman

Juddmonte's Kingman (Invincible Spirit) sired a second stakes winner on the Longchamp card when Chacknak edged out favourite Hurricane Dream (Hurricane Cat) in a bobbing finish to the Prix du Prince d'Orange (Gr 3, 2000m). Just a short head separated the pair as they crossed the line, with Grocer Jack (Oasis Dream) another length away in third. Trained by Fabrice Vermeulen, Chacknak now boasts two Group 3 successes.

Bar bags another Group race

Favourite Called To The Bar (Henrythenavigator) notched his seventh stakes race victory when successful in yesterday's Prix Gladiateur (Gr 3, 3100m) at Longchamp. The six-year-old beat Think Of Me (So You Think) by a length and a quarter, with Sublimis (Shamardal) another three-quarters of a length behind in third.

Namos strikes again

Namos (Medicean) landed his third Group 3 contest of the year when taking out yesterday's Baden-Baden Goldene Peitsche (Gr 3, 1200m). The Domink Moser-trained four-year-old beat Majestic Colt (Clodovil) by two lengths, that one getting the better of K Club (Kodiac) by a neck in their battle for the runner-up spot.

20 for Invincible Spirit

Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) registered his 20th Group or Grade 1 winner on Saturday when Digital Age (4 c ex Willow View by Lemon Drop Kid) took out the Old Forester Bourbon Turf Classic (Gr 1, 9f) at Churchill Downs. Digital Age led home a 1-3-4 for top American turf trainer Chad Brown and was the longest shot of his on the board, too, being sent off at 8-1. Ridden quietly early by Javier Castellano, Digital Age wore down long-time leader Factor This (The Factor) to win by three-quarters of a length with two and a quarter lengths back to Rockemperor (Holy Roman Emperor) in third, a head in front of stablemate Sacred Life (Siyouni). It was Digital Age's second stakes win on the Kentucky Derby undercard, having taken the American Turf Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) last year. Purchased for 325,000gns (approx A$622,850) at the 2017 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Digital Age has now won US$1,234,660 (approx A$1.7 million). Invincible Spirit stood for €100,000 (approx A$162,500) at the Irish National Stud this year.

Second for Majesticperfection

Former Airdrie Stud stallion Majesticperfection (Harlan's Holiday) celebrated his second Grade 1 winner when Bell's The One (4 f ex Street Mate by Street Cry) took out the Derby City Distaff (Gr 1, 7f) at Churchill Downs on Saturday by the smallest of margins, bringing up a first top-flight victory for trainer Neil Pessin. Ridden by Corey Lanerie, Bell's The One came with a late flourish to deny last year's Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) winner Serengeti Empress (Alternation), who led at a hot speed from the outset; the official margin was a nose. Sally's Curlin (Curlin) was three lengths away in third. Purchased for US$155,000 (approx A$213,000) at the Fasig-Tipton July Sales, Bell's The One has now earned US$790,040 (approx A$1.09 million). Majesticperfection stood at Airdrie Stud in Kentucky for seven seasons before relocating to Haras Rapetti in Uruguay in mid-2018.

11 for Curlin

Hill 'n' Dale Farms' leading light Curlin (Smart Strike) brought up his 11th individual Grade 1 winner on Saturday when Global Campaign (4 c ex Globe Trot by A P Indy) broke through at the highest level in the Woodward Handicap (Gr 1, 10f) at Saratoga. Sent off as the clear second favourite, the Stanley Hough-prepared Global Campaign lived up to the expectations his owners Sagamore Farm and WinStar Farm had long held for him, scoring by a length and three-quarters under Luis Saez. Odds-on elect Tacitus (Tapit) finished second, a length and a quarter in front of third-placed Prioritize (Tizway). "I'm more than satisfied. He beat a good horse. We're all excited. It's a great win. That's what the game is all about. You try to develop horses that will go on and be a sire, and I believe he'll make a good one," Hough said of Global Campaign, the half-brother to former Australian shuttle stallion Bolt d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro). Curlin stood for US$175,000 (approx A$240,000) in 2020.

Five for Liam's Map

Sophomore stallion Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) made it five individual stakes winners on Saturday when Rushie (3 c ex Conquest Angel by Colonel John), a one-time Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) contender, instead won the Pat Day Mile (Gr 2, 8f) on the undercard. Michael McCarthy's Rushie had finished third in the belated Santa Anita Derby (Gr 1, 9f), a race in which eventual Kentucky Derby winner Authentic (Into Mischief) was second - both finished behind Honor A.P. (Honor Code) - while he also finished third in the Blue Grass Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Keeneland at his most recent start. Instead of stepping up in trip, McCarthy decided to cut him back for the Pat Day Mile and it paid dividends as he defeated Sonneman (Curlin) by a length and three-quarters; Tap It To Win (Tapit) was a further half-length away in third. Rushie may now contest the Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9.5f), which will feature a number of Kentucky Derby runners. Liam's Map stood for US$35,000 (approx A$48,000) at Lane's End Farms in 2020.

78 for Ghostzapper

Ever-reliable sire Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) made it stakes winner number 78 on Saturday when Mystic Guide (3 c ex Music Note by A P Indy) took out the Jim Dandy Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Saratoga. Run on the same day as both the Kentucky Derby and the Pat Day Mile in this strangest of years, the Jim Dandy - usually a lead-up to the Travers Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) - instead served as a prep for the Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) in Baltimore next month. Just six runners went to post, with the Michael Stidham-trained and Godolphin-owned Mystic Guide second favourite behind Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) runner-up Dr Post (Quality Road). However, it was Mystic Guide who proved much the best, defeating Liveyourbeastlife (Ghostzapper) by three-quarters of a length in an exacta for the sire with Jesus' Team (Tapiture) a further three-quarters of a length away in third. Ghostzapper stood at Adena Springs Kentucky for US$85,000 (approx A$117,000) this year.

Eight for Treasure Beach

Treasure Beach

Florida-based stallion Treasure Beach (Galileo) brought up his eighth individual stakes winner on Saturday when Raymundos Secret (4 f ex Paulette Caveat by Greatness) took out the John C Mabee Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Del Mar. The Phil d'Amato-trained Raymundos Secret, who was sent off as favourite in the eight-runner field, led at even splits under Flavien Prat, kicking clear upon straightening. Market rival Lady Prancealot (Sir Prancealot) proved the main danger, charging home late, but she failed to catch Raymundos Secret by a neck; Catch The Eye (Quality Road) was a length away in third. Treasure Beach stands at Pleasant Acres Stallions near Ocala, with the Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) and Secretariat Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) winner commanding a fee of US$7,500 (approx A$10,300) in 2020.

First for Brody's Cause

The Kentucky Derby undercard rarely features a two-year-old stakes race given its place early in the season, but the 2020 Kentucky Derby undercard also featured the start of the Road to the 2021 Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) as the Iroquois Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) awarded the first points that are used to select the field. Those 10 points went to Sittin On Go (2 c ex Set'n On Ready by More Than Ready), who gave freshman stallion Brody's Cause (Giant's Causeway) his first stakes winner. Sent out as one of the longest shots on the board, the Dale Romans-trained Sittin On Go never looked in much doubt, racing clear for a two and a half length success over Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow) with Super Stock (Dialed In) a length and three-quarters away in third. It was a fitting win, given Romans and owners Albaugh Family Stables also raced Brody's Cause, a two-time Grade 1 winner. Brody's Cause stood for $7,500 at Spendthrift Farm in 2020.

32 for Kendargent

Kendargent (Kendor) celebrated his 32nd individual stakes winner when Tokyo Gold (2 c ex Biancarosa by Dalakhani) came out on top in a tight finish to the Prix Haras de Bouquetot (Listed, 1600m) at Craon on Saturday. The Satoshi Kobayashi-trained juvenile beat favourite Ludo (Penny's Picnic) by a short head, while Avrilomanoir (Penny's Picnic) was another head away in third. Kendargent stood at Haras de Colleville for a fee of €15,000 (approx AUD$24,400) in 2020.

Hong Kong Sprint beckons as Perfect Match takes the HKSAR Chief Executive's Cup

BY DECLAN SCHUSTER | HKJC_RACING

Perfect Match (Not A Single Doubt) landed the spoils in yesterday's Class 1 HKSAR Chief Executive's Cup Handicap (1200m) and did so with plenty in hand and also with December riches in mind, as trainer Danny Shum confirmed the 2020 Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) as his long-term target.

"I am aiming him toward December, he will go to the Hong Kong Sprint," Shum said.

The Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) gelding bagged his eighth career win from 16 starts to push his rating (103 for this test) deeper into triple figures, enhancing his claims on the end of year HK$22 million sprint.

"I think for me, he is in really good form, he was the best looking horse in the parade ring – so I thought he had a good chance today."

French ace Alexis Badel agreed: "I'm glad for Danny (Shum) because the horse was very good looking today and he was fit and in very good form, he just proved it."

The way the five-year-old swept aside his smart rivals in the season's opening day feature by an easy length and a half will have put the sprint division's leading players on alert.

"It's early in the season and because he can handle 1400 (metres) I thought his class might be better than the 1200 (metres) horses today. I did worry when he was three-wide but maybe today it didn't hurt, the outside is the better part of the track," Shum said.

Perfect Match

Shum has a knack of producing winners on the first day, the handler has now won four of the last five editions of the season-opening feature and claimed doubles on opening day in three of the previous four years.

"I try my best every season, especially the first day. I love to get winners on the first day, as a local I always want to win on the first day," Shum said.

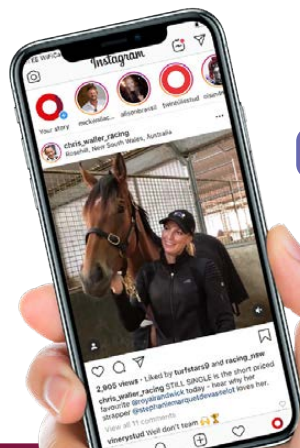

French ace Alexis Badel bagged the first win of his 2020/21 season and acknowledged the importance of striking early.

"It's very important in Hong Kong to pick up winners very quickly, it makes people happy and the form is there; you just get confidence and it's even easier to get the good rides, people give you support," Badel said.

"I think his best trip is 1400 (metres)," Badel said of Perfect Match, "so I was quite happy with the draw being a little bit awkward, because I didn't have to put much pressure on him to get his position and to make him travel. Of course I was stuck three-deep but I know my horse doesn't necessarily need cover."

"I was expecting the horses in front to stop because of the distance and my horse just relaxed, he was too good, I like this horse – he gave everything."

Moreira roars into action at season opener

By Steve Moran

Joao Moreira, winless on this day last year, made a roaring start to the 2020/2021 racing season with a winning treble at the opening meeting of the Hong Kong racing season at Sha Tin which also saw fierce riding rival Zac Purton, trainer John Size and his triumphantly returning contemporary David Hayes claim doubles.

Moreira, three times Hong Kong Champion Jockey, is used to red-letter days. This meeting did not provide another but a yield of three winners – including a heart-stopping victory on Excellent Proposal (Exceed And Excel) – was a more than satisfying day's work for the Brazilian maestro.

It certainly did not rival his 2017/2018 season start when he rode the first five winners on day one – and it pales into insignificance compared to his eight-win one-day hauls achieved in Hong Kong, Singapore and Brazil – but it was a dramatic improvement on last year's racing return when he had a rare winless afternoon with just two seconds from his ten rides.

Purton, four times champion and last season's premier jockey by a margin of nine wins from Moreira, matched his 2019/2020 start with the two wins.

"I'm happy, it's good to get on the board with three," said Moreira who is certain to again make a strong bid to claim a fourth jockey's premiership and thus match Purton's premiership tally.

Moreira was on song from the start, guiding the Caspar Fownes-trained favourite Joy Master (Rogano) to a strong finishing win in race one, the Class 5 Mount Parker Handicap. He then overcame the outside draw (14) to win on the John Size-trained Leap Of Faith (Sebring) who started unusually attractive odds of 12-1 for a Size-Moreira runner.

However, it was his last stride win on the Size-trained Excellent Proposal (Exceed And Excel) – in the Class 3 Sunset Peak Handicap – which conjured up images of just why Moreira is widely hailed as the Magic Man. His mount was jammed between horses with nowhere to go approaching the 300 metres and Moreira had to bide his time until the 150 metres before securing a clear path.

Metro Warrior

"I did think I wasn't going to get there," Moreira said of his ride on Excellent Proposal, "turning for home, the horse in front of him (Alcari) just wasn't going forward and came back on me and dragged me back a little bit. He showed he's a good horse having to deal with such a situation and was able to come back and still get there.

"What I would say about him is that he feels like one of those potential kind of horses. He has shown us he does have a lot of ability.

"Leap Of Faith is a horse with ability too. No doubt he's one of those horses John Size may feel comfortable, in the near future, to step him up in distance as he moves like a horse who could run a mile (1600 metres) or even further.

"I wasn't going into the race that confident about him because I thought he might need the run but I was very glad and proud to be wrong. Once again, it shows the Size style of training a horse, putting them away and giving them the time that they need pays off. I think that was the key to him winning today."

Size, like Moreira, failed to land a blow at last season's first meeting but the 11 times champion trainer has a reinvigorated team which may well carry him to a record breaking 12th title.

Purton combined with trainer Chris So to win the first section of the Class 4 Yi Tung Shan Handicap with Bright Kid (Show A Heart) and completed his and Hayes' double with a stands' rail hugging ride on Metro Warrior (Fastnet Rock) in the Class 3 Lantau Peak Handicap over the straight 1000 metres course.

Millard's strike-rate with stable newcomers further improved

Trainer Tony Millard further improved his already excellent record with acquisitions from other stables when Prince Of Gems (I Am Invincible) landed the Lin Fa Shan Handicap under Antoine Hamelin. The gelding had not raced for almost nine months but proved too strong in the 1000 metres Class 4.

"He's shown me a little bit in his work but not that much," Millard said, "I haven't really squeezed him because he's a little bit fragile. I kept him fresh, we know he's got the natural speed and luckily Antoine rode him a very good race because it wasn't a great draw.

"With the weight off his back he could pick up one in Class 3 now we hope but he's going to need to improve. It's nice to get these kind of horses and try to find out what's wrong with them. He had a couple of problems and we managed to sort them out and got a result today."
