They don't pay you for winning barrier trials, but a lot can hinge on the early season results for the heavily invested studmasters who have two-year-olds by their unproven young stallions hitting the track as the latest breeding year reaches its peak.

In Sydney this morning, two juvenile barrier trials will be conducted at Randwick, a precursor to the official two-year-old heats scheduled for the Kensington track in 13 days' time, and the progeny of a number of first season sires such as Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt), Shalaa (Invincible Spirit), Maurice (Screen Hero), and Divine Prophet (Choisir) will step out in public for the first time. Continued on page 2 >>

Negative result after Flemington Covid scare

Training at Flemington will go ahead as normal this morning after a staff member of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott's Melbourne stable was cleared of Covid-19. The champion trainer's Melbourne stable was closed yesterday as fears grew about the possibility of an employee, who had gone home sick earlier in the day, had contracted the coronavirus but Racing Victoria last night confirmed that a test for the illness had returned negative. Morning Briefing page 6 >>

Winning Rupert (Written Tycoon) and Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) are also represented.

In Melbourne on Thursday, a number of juveniles by first season sires, including Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Capitalist (Written Tycoon), Woodside Park's shuttler Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit) and Eureka Stud's Defcon (Choisir) will be represented in the jump outs scheduled at Sandown.

Arrowfield's Paul Messara, who plays on both sides of the fence as a studmaster and trainer, will be represented by a Shalaa colt he prepares Silver City who is in heat 11 over 740 metres.

"The Shalaa I obviously train, so I know a little bit about him. He's pretty straightforward but I'm not sure he'll show his best tomorrow," Messara said yesterday.

"I think he'll improve a lot for the outing because he's a very relaxed horse, so he hasn't really switched on yet but hopefully that will be activated tomorrow."

Messara's prediction that Shalaa could challenge for champion two-year-old sire by the end of the season may prove accurate with four two-year-olds by the sire also slated to jump out at Sandown, including an unnamed Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained half-sister to David Payne's VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) bound Montefilia (Kermadec) with stablemate Seasmit by the sire entered for heat seven.

Fellow Caulfield trainer John Moloney will unveil Shalaa filly Shalam and John Sadler will let Cheerful Legend off the leash in heat six.

"We've been getting very good feedback and we'd expect them to be early, good and two-year-olds given he was the champion two-year-old in Europe and won a couple of high-class Group 1s at two," he said.

"Shalaa has crossed beautifully with our stock out here in Australia, our local breeds with a bit of precocity about them, and with his speed over the top I can imagine plenty of them being around.

"I know Kris Lees, who I spoke to the other day, he told me his best two-year-old was a Shalaa and that was encouraging, so around the traps once again there's plenty of talk which is encouraging."

Fellow Arrowfield shuttler Maurice, dubbed The Beast from the East, has Maurice's Medad trained by Bjorn Baker in heat 11 at Randwick, while filly, I Love Lucy (Lee Curtis), is accepted for heat ten.

"We didn't dream that he would have horses at the trials this early. We thought he'd be a post-Christmas type of a stallion, just given his profile and the types of horses that he's thrown but obviously they're showing a lot of ability and speed," Messara said.

"I know Trent Busuttin has had a few Maurices who have had unofficial trials down at Cranbourne and he had a couple who cleared out and won trials by a big space, so I know he is very keen on them.

"The talk around town is very positive."

Eureka Stud's Black Opal Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Defcon (Choisir) will also be represented at the Sandown jump outs with the Maher and Eustace-trained Defcon One, an $85,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale graduate, entered in heat eight.

A colt by Woodside Park Stud shuttler Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit) named Telegraph, who was a $160,000 Magic Millions purchase by co-trainer Mick Price and agent Dermot Farrington, is in heat eight.

Woodside Park Stud chief executive James Price said two-year-olds who were capable of trialling and racing at this time of year were indicative of mature and professional horses.

"I think it's all part of when these buyers go to the yearling sales, it's not all just about the pedigree and physique, it's the horse's temperament and if they can cope with a yearling sale it generally translates to coping with stable life which is so important, particularly for these early two-year-old trials," Price said.

"Even to get to this point with trials and a race, you have got to have a pretty mature physical and probably even more important is a pretty mature mind, so it's very important, especially when we're only in early September."

The flow-on effect from an eye-catching trialler for studmasters standing the traditionally tricky fourth-season stallions can also help in attracting breeders this year.

"You only need one good trial performer and word starts to get around," Price said.

"Trainers start to talk to each other and talk to their owners. It's amazing how the phone rings, so we are a fairly fashion-driven industry, so if you've got the fashion and if that's a two-year-old trial winner or race winner at this time of year it will most certainly help bookings."

Edward Cummings will start Three Wise Men, a son of Divine Prophet (Choisir), in heat 11 at Randwick today and Aquis Farm's chief executive Tony "Tubba" Williams believes the signs are positive for the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner.

There is a chance, Williams says, that more Divine Prophets could be exposed in the coming weeks after hearing encouraging reports from trainers such as Will Clarken in Adelaide, Warrnambool-based Dan Bowman and Stuart Kendrick in Queensland.

"Two-year-old racing has changed dramatically in Australia from when I first started 45 years ago," Williams said.

Divine Phophet

AQUIS FARM

"There are not as many early races as there used to be and there's not as many young horses being pushed to get there early. We have evolved into getting closer to Christmas when the two-year-old races really crank up.

"Obviously, Divine Prophet is a horse I can see having a lot more coming through at the end of the year in November and December, but it is good to see he has one in this early trial and there are others out there who will trial early, so that's all promising."

Progeny of Newgate stallions step out

Newgate Farm has made its mark - and quickly - in the stallion ranks by acquiring the likes of 2016 Slipper winner Capitalist, Blue Diamond (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Extreme Choice, Coolmore winner Flying Artie and the former Bjorn Baker-trained sprinter Winning Rupert to go to stud in 2017.

Extreme Choice, who also won the 2016 A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m), sired a trial winner in New Zealand last week and has Chameleon Choice, a Kingstar Farm-bred colt trained by Matthew Smith, and the Sledmere Stud-sold, Lee Curtis-trained filly Avaricious in trials in Sydney today.

Extreme Choice

NEWGATE STUD

The Lloyd Kennewell-trained Abseiler will also compete in heat seven at Sandown later in the week.

"Extreme Choice has got a very small crop of 40-odd, so to have a trial winner already and two trialling on Tuesday is very encouraging," Newgate Farm principal Henry Field said.

"Winning Rupert has got a sharp colt called Keith who Bjorn Baker is trialling and we've got a horse called Schwarzenegger by Flying Artie with Ciaron Maher who we couldn't sell as a yearling who is trialling on Tuesday as well.

"It's great when young stallions have that quantity of triallers at the first trials, it is only a small part of the equation but it is definitely a great indication that they are straight-forward and sound racehorses and are able to get there early."

But Field, regardless of the trial results, will not be jumping to conclusions.

"At the end of the day, the winning post is everything, but it is such an exciting time for all the studmasters when these stallions have their first runners and first triallers," he said.

"It's an exciting time and it's a little bit like waiting for Christmas morning to see what's inside the box."

Winning Rupert also has two juveniles jumping out at Sandown, the Mick Price and Mick Kent Jr-trained colt Media Empire, and an unnamed filly trained by Maher and Eustace out of Funlove (Shovhog).

The Maher and Eustace team also have an unnamed Capitalist filly out of Miss Tomb Raider (Snitzel) down to jump out, while Kennewell has a colt by the stallion out of Listed winner Golconda (Snitzel) having a hit out. The Sadler-trained Capital Legend (Capitalist) will also be tested on Thursday.

Flying Artie also has two colts jumping out, with an unnamed son of Canary (Hard Spun) (Maher-Eustace) and the Kennewell-trained half-brother to dual Group 2 winner Pure Elation (I Am Invincible) entered for heats.

“AT THE END OF THE DAY, THE WINNING POST IS EVERYTHING, BUT IT IS SUCH AN EXCITING TIME FOR ALL THE STUDMASTERS WHEN THESE STALLIONS HAVE THEIR FIRST RUNNERS AND FIRST TRIALLERS

Negative result after Flemington Covid scare

Training at Flemington will go ahead as normal this morning after a staff member of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott's Melbourne stable was cleared of Covid-19. The champion trainer's Melbourne stable was closed yesterday as fears grew about the possibility of an employee, who had gone home sick earlier in the day, had contracted the coronavirus but Racing Victoria last night confirmed that a test for the illness had returned negative. "As a result, the Waterhouse-Bott stable is free to resume normal training activities at Flemington (today), noting that the staff member in question will not resume duties until they have returned to full health," a Racing Victoria spokesman said last night. Earlier, the Flemington stable was placed in lockdown and the communal walker was closed for deep cleaning.

Fierce Impact ready for Makybe tilt

Two-time Group 1 winner Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) will return to the course and distance of his most recent top-level win on Saturday when he contests the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington. The Matthew Smith-trained Fierce Impact scored his first Group 1 win in the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield before he took the Cantala Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington. First-up this spring, he finished third to Verry Elleegant (Zed) in the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in what will be his only Sydney run this preparation as he plots a path towards the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m). "It was an excellent return to racing. It was good to see him come back in that manner as an older horse," Smith said. "His work has been good since, but it has been all preparation. He's been really good this preparation. For a seven-year-old stallion he's going about everything really professionally."

Camelot forward for Makybe

Russian Camelot

AKTINS PHOTOGRAPHY

Danny O'Brien says fitness will not be a concern when his South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Russian Camelot (Camelot) steps out for the Makybe Diva Stakes at Flemington on Saturday. The current Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) favourite will return for the first time since that breakthrough success at Group 1 level in May. "Fitness won't be any problem - the horse is more than fit enough," O'Brien told Racing.com. "It's just a matter of whether he can win a group 1 race at a mile I suppose. That's what he's got to get over. He was very good in group 1 class last time (SA Derby in autumn) but his last run at a mile was in a (Benchmark) 64. It's another thing entirely to win a mile weight-for-age race for him but he's a very talented horse and we're certainly not ruling it out."

Farnan early favourite for Run To The Rose

The Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200m) looms as the early race of the season with a strong group of three-year-olds set to battle around the Rosehill hairpin. Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) was the early favourite at $2.80 with TAB last night, although he is aiming to become just the fifth Golden Slipper winner in the last 20 years to win at their first run of the spring. He would also be only the second Slipper winner to win The Run To The Rose at the same course and distance as the juvenile feature, joining Pierro (Lonhro). Queenslander Rothfire (Rothsay), also a Group 1 winner, is second favourite at $4.50, while Up And Coming Stakes (Gr 3, 1300m) victor North Pacific (Brazen Beau) and San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) conqueror Anders (Not A Single Doubt) are at $5 and $7 respectively. The third of the Group 1 winners, King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice), is at $11.

Queenslanders
set for return

J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Rothfire (Rothsay), Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) hero Tyzone (Written Tycoon) and Group 1 performer Outback Barbie (Spirit Of Boom) will all step out for the first time since June when they run at Rosehill on Saturday. The Robert Heathcote-prepared Rothfire will make his Sydney debut in The Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200m), the Toby and Trent Edmonds-trained Tyzone will run in the Theo Marks Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m), while Tony Gollan's Outback Barbie will have her first Sydney run in almost two years when she lines up in the Sheraco Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). Jim Byrne will ride all three horses, with Gollan thrilled to get Byrne - Outback Barbie's regular partner - for the five-year-old mare. "Her work on Tuesday was terrific and she's coming along beautifully," Gollan said.

Pride's Everest hopefuls on show

Joe Pride hopes that Fasika (So You Think) and Eduardo (Host) can put their cases forward to be selected for the $15 million The Everest (1200m), but the trainer is letting both horses advertise themselves rather than spruiking their prospects. "She (Fasika) runs this week, he (Eduardo) runs the week after in The Shorts. They're not colts so they've got to do their talking on the racetrack," Pride said. "People know I want to get them in. If he knocks them off in The Shorts he is a logical pick for someone. There will be drop outs, there always is." Fasika resumes in this Saturday's Sheraco Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and geared up for her return with a trial win over impressive Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Gytrash (Lope De Vega). "She will most likely go there and then the (Golden) Pendant over 1400 metres," Pride said. "If she did go to The Everest, my plan would be to go there third-up, three weeks between runs. I like the idea of coming back slightly in distance with my horses, they really hit the line when I do it."

Gytrash straight to Everest

Trainer Gordon Richards has revealed his Everest (1200m) contender Gytrash (Lope De Vega) will head straight to the world's richest turf race on October 17 after his stunning win in the Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick on Saturday. "I tossed around a few ideas after his win on the weekend," Richards told Racing.com. "I initially had planned to run him in a fortnight in The Shorts or there is another race in four weeks but ultimately I'm comfortable going straight to The Everest without another run."

Rupert Clarke for Tagaloa

The Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) is the next port of call for Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa), as trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young plot a path towards the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). Tagaloa finished third in the McNeil Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) fresh, when he was just caught after racing clear early in the straight. "I was a little disappointed he didn't win his first-up run because when you've got a horse of that ability, you just expect them to win and you want them to win everything especially with his value as a colt," owner Ozzie Kheir told Racing.com. "I thought after watching the replay that his run first-up was enormous. It was against the breeze there, he was three wide and stuck on really well finishing third. It took a lot out of him being his first run, so we decided not to go to the Danehill and give him an extra week. So we will go to the Rupert Clarke, it's a Group 1, he will get in first around 54 kilograms and have his chance there. We might look at riding him a little quieter than we have been. He's always had to do all the work and be on pace. We will look at that going into the Guineas with that being his grand final. From there we will assess, if he comes through that run and he still has gas in the tank then we will look at the Cox Plate if he is up to that level."

Racing Victoria calls for whip review

Racing Victoria (RV) yesterday announced that it was seeking to reform whip rules across the Australian industry before the end of the year in what is the strongest response by a governing body to the discussion around use of the whip. The current Australian Rules of Racing permit the use of the whip a maximum of five times in non-consecutive strides prior to the 100-metre mark, before essentially allowing a rider to use it unlimited times and in consecutive strides over the final 100 metres. Racing Victoria will seek a vote from the Racing Australia board in November with the intention of restricting use of the whip to between five and eight total strikes in a race, all in non-consecutive strides. "RV believes that the current national whip rules are no longer appropriate and not in the best interests of Victorian and Australian racing, both now and in the long-term," said RV in a statement, with chief executive Giles Thompson adding: "It is Racing Victoria's view that progress on whip reform is needed now, and that the industry nationally, acting in its best long-term interests, should continue to work towards a prohibition on the use of the whip for purposes other than to protect the safety of horses and jockeys. It is critical that jockeys are permitted to carry a whip to ensure their safety and jockey safety is something that we will always advocate."

Lack of consultation stuns participants

Reaction to the Racing Victoria announcement was mixed, but the Victorian Jockeys' Association (VJA) and the Australian Trainers' Association (ATA) both expressed concern that they had not been consulted about the proposed changes, nor had their members been given any advance notice that such an announcement was imminent. "It would have been nice given it does affect our group of people," Matthew Hyland, chief of the VJA, told Racing.com. "It's pretty clear cut as to what RV's position is but it would have been nice to have a heads-up on that and certainly to give our members and our directors some indication as to what was coming. There has been discussion around the whip ever since last year's Melbourne Cup. I had some meetings with Giles Thompson around that but over the past four or five months it hasn't been raised other than the whip penalty template, which was discussed and all the riders expected that was the new template we were working off and that was that but that's clearly not where RV were leaving it." Robbie Griffiths, ATA president, added: "As president, I have been extremely complimentary on how well our industry has dealt with Covid. How united and how strong we've been and so I am so disappointed we've had something dropped on us like this. What we want on any topic – and this is a big one – is the right sort of consultation. I am really disappointed they did this without consulting. I mean we consult on pretty much everything else. We know that any topic to do with a perception issue like the whip rule needs exhaustive consultation because it's in everyone's face."

Racing Australia hits out at RV

Criticism of the Racing Victoria announcement also came from an unlikely source with Racing Australia attacking the "breach of Board confidentiality" that came from Racing Victoria highlighting the process that had been undertaken to date. Racing Australia has over recent months established a Riding Protocols Advisory Panel (The Panel) with Principal Racing Authorities (PRAs) being represented. The first meeting of The Panel will take place this month," Racing Australia's statement said. "Prior to establishing The Panel, in July 2020 the Racing Australia Board met and consulted with a number of eminent trainers and jockeys. The purpose of The Panel is to provide comment/advice to the Racing Australia Board in relation to riding protocol matters to ensure positive outcomes are achieved for riders and horses and to foster ongoing confidence in the Australian thoroughbred racing industry. This national review will continue to run concurrent with the agreed position of the Racing Australia Board at its August Board Meeting notwithstanding the announcement by Racing Victoria today. The Panel will take into consideration the views of all PRAs when presenting its report to the Racing Australia Board for consideration. The Panel will provide an update at the next meeting of the Racing Australia Board in November 2020, the timeline of a final decision will then be determined by the Racing Australia Board. What is concerning is the breach of Board confidentiality. It is important that Racing Australia conducts a vigorous debate and won't condone any breach of Board confidentiality. Open and robust discussion cannot be undermined by a breach of Board confidentiality."

Libertini to trial

Forgotten mare Libertini (I Am Invincible) will return at the Randwick trials this morning ahead of a potential throw at the stumps for The Everest (1200m). The Anthony Cummings trainee looked to have the world at her feet after winning the Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and the Furious Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), as well as finishing third in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). However, she disappointed in the autumn and was spelled with a hind limb injury. Her return could come in The Shorts (Gr 2, 1100m) on September 19, where she would meet a number of Everest contenders.

Loos fined over strangles outbreak

Geelong trainer Danielle Loos has been fined $2,000 by Racing Victoria stewards after her charge Naval Envoy (Smug) raced at Moonee Valley on July 12 while positive for strangles. The positive strangles case was only detected in post-race testing after Naval Envoy finished last as the $3.80 second favourite. Naval Envoy had spiked a temperature early in his preparation, for which Loos sought veterinary advice, but when he developed an abscess - a common symptom of strangles - she did not seek veterinary advice. Loos was charged with breaching AR228 (a) as, by not seeking veterinary advice for the abscess, she was negligent in a manner that could have prejudiced the welfare of racing. No other horses tested positive for strangles.

Vale Keith Watson

Group 1-winning jockey Keith Watson died yesterday, drowning after his boat sank just off Broome in the early hours of the morning. Watson, who rode Heron Bridge (Tudor Bridge) to win the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington in 1984, was reported to have been sailing in the Kimberley region with three others, also from the racing community, over the past couple of weeks. Their vessel began to sink, and so the four men - all in their 70s - decided to swim to a nearby boat. In a statement, police said that only three of the men survived, with Watson's body found in the water. Racing and Wagering WA general manager of racing Charlotte Mills paid tribute to Mr Watson. "RWWA is saddened by the news of Keith Watson's passing and we extend our deepest condolences to his family and friends," she said. "Keith was a well-respected member of the racing community and was a leading jockey in WA for many years. His legacy is one that will always be remembered."

NEW ZEALAND

Strong backstory for Sweynesse's Only Words

A lease arrangement brokered by Novara Park

principal Luigi Muollo has allowed Sweynesse's former trackwork rider to share in his black-type success at stud. Muollo bred the Sweynesse (Lonhro) filly Only Words, who scored an impressive victory in Saturday's Wanganui Guineas (Listed, 1200m). She became the second stakes winner for Sweynesse, who was New Zealand's leading first season stallion in 2019-20 and has now begun his second season on the perfect note. After Only Words was passed in as a weanling at the Karaka May Sale, Muollo leased her to Te Awamutu trainer Clinton Isdale, who shares ownership with Asian World Racing Ltd. "It's turned out to be quite a special story," Muollo said. "Clint used to work for Godolphin, and he actually rode Sweynesse in trackwork during the time he was there. He rode a few good ones for Godolphin, but when we brought Sweynesse over to stand at Novara Park, he came to me and said he thought he was the best he'd ridden. I was quite stunned when he told me that. We've stayed in touch, and that's how the lease arrangement came about. For Clint to win the Wanganui Guineas with a daughter of Sweynesse is an amazing thrill for him and for me."

Princess Kereru retired

The Ken and Bev Kelso-trained Princess Kereru (Pins) has been retired after finishing 11th in Saturday's Foxbridge Plate (Gr 2, 1200m). The seven-year-old finished nine-and-a-half lengths in arrears of impressive winner Advantage (Fastnet Rock), a far cry from her best form where she was a Group 3 winner and was narrowly beaten into second in the 2019 Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). "She was going to stud this year anyway and has a booking to Almanzor," Ken Kelso said. "The plan was to race her and if her form warranted it to race her on in-foal. But it was a sub-par performance on Saturday, and we thought it best that she be retired now. She's probably done enough." Bred and raced by Paul Humphries and his sons Kevan, Richard and Michael, Princess Kereru won seven of 30 starts, with a further 10 placings. "It's just unfortunate that she didn't win the Railway, but she couldn't have done much better, she's Group 1-placed and a Group 3 winner," Kelso said. "She's also Group 2-placed and a Listed winner. She's been a bonny little mare and she's done us and the owners proud. She's a seven-year-old mare so it's time to look for a new career."

Russell enjoying winning streak with Hurry Cane

Thomas Russell's hands-on involvement with racing was cut short just over six years ago through a life-threatening injury, but the former jockey and trainer is still enjoying the thrill of the thoroughbred sport as a part-owner and jockey's agent. The 38-year-old Russell, who has been a tetraplegic since a trackwork fall, is co-owner of the in-form Hurry Cane (Nom Du Jeu), a decisive winner of the Foxton Cup (2000m) at Wanganui last Saturday, and he is agent for central districts jockey Leah Hemi. Last year, Russell experienced one of his biggest highlights as a jockey's agent when Hemi guided Dee And Gee (Darci Brahma) to victory in the New Zealand Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) and now his hopes rest on Hurry Cane providing him with an even bigger highlight in the same Riccarton feature on November 14. "It was a special win when Leah won it last year with what Terrill Charles had been going through," he said referring to the lengthy battle with cancer experienced by Charles, who trains Dee And Gee in partnership with her partner, Peter Corbett. "It would be a huge thrill if I can win it this year as an owner. I didn't have much luck with the few rides I had in it as a jockey. It'll be tough for Hurry Cane, but he's racing well."

INTERNATIONAL

First for Nyquist

On a weekend in which the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) was held in a foreign September slot, 2016 winner Nyquist (Uncle Mo) registered his first Grade 1 winner - and his second stakes victor overall - when Vequist (2 f ex Vero Amore by Mineshaft) took out the Spinaway Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at Saratoga on Sunday. The Robert 'Butch' Reid Jr-trained Vequist, who was beaten at her first start in a Parx maiden in late July, was having just her second start on Sunday and she started on the third line of betting. However, after tracking early leader Esplanande (Daredevil), the filly was asked for an effort by Luis Saez beyond the quarter pole and she raced away for an easy nine and a half length win. Esplanande held down second, with Lady

Lilly (Nyquist) in third, a further length and a half away. Retained by her breeders Swilcan Stable after she was twice passed in at the sales, prominent owner, Spyglass Entertainment co-founder Gary Barber, bought a controlling share in Vequist after her debut with the filly racing in his eye-catching pink and black colours in the Spinaway. Nyquist (Uncle Mo), who has his first runners on the track this season, stood for US$40,000 (approx A$55,000) at Darley's Jonabell Farm in Kentucky in 2020.

First for Not This Time

North America's leading freshman sire Not This Time (Giant's Causeway) brought up his first individual stakes winner in the best way possible, producing a Grade 1 winner straight out of the gates on Sunday. Princess Noor (2 f ex Sheza Smoke Show by Wilko) was incredibly impressive in winning the Del Mar Debutante (Gr 1, 7f) to cap a banner weekend for trainer Bob Baffert. The Saudi Arabia-owned filly, who was having just her second start, was sent out as odds-on favourite and never looked in any danger under Victor Espinoza, scooting away for a six-and-a-half-length success. Forest Caraway (Bodemeister) finished second, with Illumination (Medaglia d'Oro) a further two and a quarter lengths away in third. Princess Noor was sold for just US$135,000 (approx A$185,600) at last year's Keeneland September Yearling Sale, but she was pinhooked at this year's Ocala Breeders' Sales Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training in June. Her breeze-up was widely seen to be one of the best recorded in many a year and, consequently, Zedan Racing Stables' racing manager Gary Young purchased her for US$1.35 million (approx A$1.86 million). Not This Time stood for a relatively meagre US$12,500 (approx A$17,200) at Taylor Made Farms in 2020.

87 for City Zip

Umberto Rispoli's career-long wait to sport the Godolphin silks paid off handsomely at Del Mar on Sunday when Pixelate (3 c ex Speckled by Street Cry) took out the Del Mar Derby (Gr 2, 9f), giving the late City Zip (Carson City) his 87th individual stakes winner. The Michael Stidham-trained Pixelate, who was yet to win from his first five starts as a three-year-old, was still sent out as favourite with Rispoli the leading rider at the Del Mar meet so far. Racing handy, he was brought through with a late surge to grab Margot's Boy (Clubhouse Ride) by a head, with longshot Dominant Soul (Dominus) a length and a quarter away in third after leading. City Zip was euthanized at Lane's End Farm in 2017.

First US stakes winner for Vancouver

Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) has been having a strong season with his first northern hemisphere runners in the United States and the Coolmore stallion recorded his first American stakes winner - and his third overall - when Madone (2 f ex Indian Love Call by Cherokee Run) took out the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf (Listed, 1m) on Sunday. Trained by Simon Callaghan and ridden by Flavien Prat, Madone stumbled at the start but was patiently ridden by the Frenchman, before being brought wide into the stretch. She finished off strongly to take victory by a half length, remaining unbeaten from two starts. Nimbostratus (Wootton Bassett) was second across the line, a nose ahead of Ivy League (Medaglia d'Oro), but the placings were reversed after it was determined that Nimbostratus shifted out and caused interference approaching the final half-furlong. Madone has gone through the sales ring three times, fetching US$70,000 (approx A$96,200) as a weanling at the 2018 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, US$50,000 (approx A$68,700) at last year's Keeneland September Yearling Sale and then selling for US$125,000 (approx A$171,800) at this year's Ocala Breeders' Sales March Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training. Vancouver stands for A$30,250 (inc GST) at Coolmore Australia this year.

Melbourne Cup runner-up switches farms

After serving just 14 mares in his first season at stud, 2018 Melbourne Cup runner-up Marmelo (Duke Of Marmalade) has been transferred in order to give him a greater chance of success. Marmelo was based at Haras du Grand Courgeon in Lion d'Angers, but only served 14 mares at a fee of €3,500 (approx A$5,600). Next year, he will stand for €2,500 (approx A$4,000) at Ferme de Jalogny, north of Lyon.

New winners

Bobby's Kitten - Former Twin Hills Stud shuttler Bobby's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) sired his seventh individual winner when Mirage Mac (2 f ex Megachurch by Pulpit) made a successful debut to take out a seven furlong fillies' novice contest on the Wolverhampton all-weather on Wednesday's evening card. Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (Gr 1, 6.5f) winner Bobby's Kitten shuttled to Twin Hill Stud for one season in 2017, covering 42 mares for a fee of $16,500 (inc GST). He now permanently resides at Lanwades Stud in England, where he stood for a fee of £8,000 in 2020.

Shalaa - Arrowfield Stud's shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) scored a further three winners this week, taking his total to nine individual winners from his first northern hemisphere crop and four winners in the last eight days. Samrah (2 f ex Badee Ah by Motivator) is the latest of those after winning a 1600-metre maiden at La Test de Buch on Saturday, while Longlai (2 c ex Mojo Risin by Lope de Vega) won at Salisbury over a mile on Thursday to open his account. Last Tuesday King Shalaa remained unbeaten at Lyon with a second career victory over 1600 metres. Shalaa stands at Arrowfield for a fee of $33,000 (inc. GST) in 2020.

Curlin - Hill 'n' Dale Farms' leading light Curlin (Smart Strike) brought up his 11th individual Grade 1 winner on Saturday when Global Campaign (4 c ex Globe Trot by A P Indy), the half-brother to former Australian shuttle stallion Bolt d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), broke through at the highest level in the Woodward Handicap (Gr 1, 10f) at Saratoga. Sent off as the clear second favourite, the Stanley Hough-prepared Global Campaign lived up to the expectations his owners Sagamore Farm and WinStar Farm had long held for him, scoring by a length and three-quarters. Curlin stood for US$175,000 (approx A$240,000) in 2020.

Daredevil - Former WinStar Farm stallion Daredevil (More Than Ready) had his biggest day as a stallion on Friday when Shedaresthedevil (3 f ex Starship Warspeed by Congrats) led home a one-two for the sire in the Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) at Churchill Downs. The Kentucky Oaks, which was postponed from its traditional spot in May, saw Bob Baffert's Gamine (Into Mischief) sent out as odds-on favourite. However, after leading, she could only finish third as the Brad Cox-trained Shedaresthedevil caused a 15-1 upset. Shedaresthedevil won by a length and a half over the Kenny McPeck-prepared Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) with Gamine the same margin away as third. Daredevil was sold to the Jockey Club of Turkey last year, standing for 12,500 Turkish lira (approx A$2,300) at the Club's Karacabey Pension Stud in 2020.

Dream Ahead - Dream Of Dreams (6 g ex Vasilina by Dansili) made a deserved Group 1 breakthrough when he quickened nicely late on to land the Sprint Cup Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Haydock on Saturday and in the process provide his sire Dream Ahead (Diktat) with a fourth individual elite level winner. The Sir Michael Stoute-trained six-year-old was following up his romp in Group 2 company over seven furlongs last time out, while Dream Of Dreams has also finished second in each of the last two runnings of the Diamond Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Royal Ascot. He is the fifth foal out of the Dansili (Danehill) mare Vasilina, who herself is a half-sister to Group 1 winner Airwave (Air Express). Dream Ahead stood at Haras de Grandcamp for a fee of €12,000 (approx AUD$19,500) in 2020.

Majesticperfection - Former Airdrie Stud stallion Majesticperfection (Harlan's Holiday) celebrated his second Grade 1 winner when Bell's The One (4 f ex Street Mate by Street Cry) took out the Derby City Distaff (Gr 1, 7f) at Churchill Downs on Saturday by the smallest of margins, bringing up a first top-flight victory for trainer Neil Pessin. Ridden by Corey Lanerie, Bell's The One came with a late flourish to deny last year's Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) winner Serengeti Empress (Alternation), who led at a hot speed from the outset; the official margin was a nose. Purchased for US$155,000 (approx A$213,000) at the Fasig-Tipton July Sales, Bell's The One has now earned US$790,040 (approx A$1.09 million). Majesticperfection stood at Airdrie Stud in Kentucky for seven seasons before relocating to Haras Rapetti in Uruguay in mid-2018.

New stakes winners

Acclamation - Acclamation (Royal Applause) sired his 55th individual stakes winner when Testa (3 f ex Tecla by Whipper) edged out Fonthill Abbey (Dubawi) in a thrilling finish to Thursday's Prix de la Cochere (Listed, 1600m) at Longchamp. Just a short head split the pair as they crossed the line, while Alzire (Shamardal) was a length and a quarter away in third. Testa is a daughter of the winning mare Tecla (Whipper), who is a half-sister to French Group 3 winners Albisola (Montjeu) and Johnny Barnes (Acclamation). She was bred by Airlie Stud and Sonia Rogers, and was bought by Meridian International for €185,000 at the Goffs November Foal Sale. Acclamation stood at Rathbarry Stud for a fee of €35,000 (approx AUD$57,000) in 2020.

Brody's Cause - The Kentucky Derby undercard rarely features a two-year-old stakes race given its place early in the season, but the 2020 Kentucky Derby undercard also featured the start of the Road to the 2021 Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) as the Iroquois Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) awarded the first points that are used to select the field. Those 10 points went to Sittin On Go (2 c ex Set'n On Ready by More Than Ready), who gave freshman stallion Brody's Cause (Giant's Causeway) his first stakes winner. Sent out as one of the longest shots on the board, the Dale Romans-trained Sittin On Go never looked in much doubt, racing clear for a two and a half length success over Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow) with Super Stock (Dialed In) a length and three-quarters away in third. It was a fitting win, given Romans and owners Albaugh Family Stables also raced Brody's Cause, a two-time Grade 1 winner. Brody's Cause stood for $7,500 at Spendthrift Farm in 2020.

Dandy Man - Happy Romance (2 f ex Rugged Up by Marju) continued her upward trajectory as one of this year's leading juvenile fillies after a third consecutive win and a first at stakes level in winning the Dick Poole Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Salisbury on Thursday. The Richard Hannon-trained daughter of Dandy Man (Mozart) ran on strongly to give her sire a 15th individual stakes winner, defeating Alcohol Free (No Nay Never) by three-quarters of a length with a further two lengths back to Scarlet Bear (Kodi Bear). Happy Romance, winner of the valuable Goffs UK Premier Yearling Stakes (6f) and Weatherbys Super Sprint Stakes (5f), is a fourth winner from four to race for Rugged Up (Marju), who is a half-sister to stakes winners Meiner Eternal (Tamayuz) and Warsaw (Danehill Dancer), while this is also the family of Prix Morny (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Silca's Sister (Inchinor). Dandy Man, also the sire of this year's Royal Ascot-winning two-year-old filly Dandalla, stood for €15,000 (approx AUD$25,000) at Ballyhane Stud in 2020.

Dark Angel - The progressive Top Rank (4

c ex Countess Ferrama by Authorized) posted win number five in just his sixth start when showing good battling qualities to make a winning debut in stakes company to take out the Superior Mile Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at rain softened Haydock on Saturday. The James Tate-trained four-year-old bounced back from his surprise defeat at York last time as he found plenty late on for rider PJ McDonald to defeat My Oberon (Dubawi) by a length and a half, with the heavily supported favourite Khaloosy (Dubawi) the same margin away in third. Top Rank's victory took his sire Dark Angel's (Acclamation) tally of individual stakes winners to 65, and also put him in the reckoning for a tilt at next month's Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Ascot. The winner is the third foal out of the Authorized (Montjeu) mare Countess Ferrama, who herself is a half-sister to the Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Indian Haven (Indian Ridge). Dark Angel stood at Yeomanstown Stud for a fee of €85,000 (approx AUD$138,000) in 2020.

Dutch Art - Cheveley Park Stud's Dutch

Art (Medicean) sired his 39th individual stakes winner when the lightly raced Starman (3 c ex Northern Star by Montjeu) landed the Garroby Stakes (Listed, 6f) at York on Sunday. Having just his third start, the Ed Walker-trained three-year-old beat favourite Dakota Gold (Equiano) by a length and three-quarters, with Watan (Toronado) a further four and a half lengths adrift in third. The second foal out of the Montjeu (Sadler's Wells) mare Northern Star, Starman is a half-brother to the Group-placed winner Sunday Star. Dutch Art stood for a private fee in 2020.

Declaration Of War - Declaration Of War (War Front) sired his 30th individual stakes winner when Fire At Will (2 c ex Flirt by Kitten's Joy) broke his maiden tag with victory in Wednesday's With Anticipation Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Saratoga. Wet weather meant the race was switched from the turf to the main track, but the switch of surface was no issue to Michael Maker-trained juvenile as he scored by half a length. Former Coolmore shuttler Declaration Of War now stands at JBBA Shizunai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥2,300,000 (approx AUD$30,000).

Frankel - Juddmonte's star Frankel (Galileo) sired his 57th individual stakes winner when Kalahara (2 f ex Desertiste by Green Desert) made it two wins in four starts by bagging the Prix d'Arenberg (Gr 3, 1000m) at Longchamp on Thursday. The Christophe Ferland-trained juvenile beat US raider Wink (Midshipman) by a length, with Livachope (Goken) a further two lengths away in third. Frankel stood for a fee of £175,000 (approx AUD$320,000) at Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket in 2020.

Ghostzapper - Ever-reliable sire Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) made it stakes winner number 78 on Saturday when Mystic Guide (3 c ex Music Note by A P Indy) took out the Jim Dandy Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Saratoga. Run on the same day as both the Kentucky Derby and the Pat Day Mile in this strangest of years, the Jim Dandy - usually a lead-up to the Travers Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) - instead served as a prep for the Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) in Baltimore next month. Just six runners went to post, with the Michael Stidham-trained and Godolphin-owned Mystic Guide second favourite behind Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) runner-up Dr Post (Quality Road). However, it was Mystic Guide who proved much the best, defeating Liveyourbeastlife (Ghostzapper) by three-quarters of a length in an exacta for the sire with Jesus' Team (Tapiture) a further three-quarters of a length away in third. Ghostzapper stood at Adena Springs Kentucky for US$85,000 (approx A$117,000) this year.

Goken - Haras de Colleville resident Goken (Kendargent) sired his second individual stakes winner when Go Athletico (2 g ex Byburg by Sageburg) struck in the Prix La Rochette (Gr 3, 1400m) at Longchamp on Sunday. The Philippe Decouz-trained two-year-old was winning for the second time in four starts when beating Sealiway (Galiway) by a length. Favourite Naval Crown (Dubawi) was another neck away in third. Goken stood for a fee of €3,000 (approx AUD$4,900) in 2020 at Haras de Colleville in France.

Include - Airdrie Stud veteran Include (Broad Brush) brought up his 55th individual stakes winner on Friday when Sconsin (3 f ex Sconnie by Tiznow) comfortably took out the Eight Belles Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Churchill Downs on Friday. The Greg Foley-trained Sconsin, who began her career at Ellis Park last year, had won a Churchill Downs allowance in May and had been in the placings at her last two runs in black type races before taking out the Eight Belles on Friday. Last of the five fillies in the early stages of Friday's contest, she pulled out four wide under James Graham and bloused past her rivals, defeating Four Graces (Majesticperfection) by two and a quarter lengths with outsider Never Forget (War Front) a length and three-quarters away in third. Now a 23-year-old, Include continues to produce stakes winners year after year. He stood for US$7,500 (approx A$10,300) in 2020.

Invincible Spirit - Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) registered his 20th Group or Grade 1 winner on Saturday when Digital Age (4 c ex Willow View by Lemon Drop Kid) took out the Old Forester Bourbon Turf Classic (Gr 1, 9f) at Churchill Downs. Digital Age led home a 1-3-4 for top American turf trainer Chad Brown and was the longest shot of his on the board, too, being sent off at 8-1. Ridden quietly early by Javier Castellano, Digital Age wore down long-time leader Factor This (The Factor) to win by three-quarters of a length with two and a quarter lengths back to Rockemperor (Holy Roman Emperor) in third, a head in front of stablemate Sacred Life (Siyouni). It was Digital Age's second stakes win on the Kentucky Derby undercard, having taken the American Turf Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) last year. Purchased for 325,000gns (approx A$622,850) at the 2017 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Digital Age has now won US$1,234,660 (approx A$1.7 million). Invincible Spirit stood for €100,000 (approx A$162,500) at the Irish National Stud this year.

Kendargent - Kendargent (Kendor) celebrated his 32nd individual stakes winner when Tokyo Gold (2 c ex Biancarosa by Dalakhani) came out on top in a tight finish to the Prix Haras de Bouquetot (Listed, 1600m) at Craon on Saturday. The Satoshi Kobayashi-trained juvenile beat favourite Ludo (Penny's Picnic) by a short head, while Avrilomanoir (Penny's Picnic) was another head away in third. Kendargent stood at Haras de Colleville for a fee of €15,000 (approx AUD$24,400) in 2020.

King Kamehameha - The late King Kamehameha (Kingmambo) made it 80 individual stakes winners on Sunday when the regally-bred Bravas (4 c ex Verxina by Deep Impact) took out the Niigata Kinen (Gr 3, 2000m). The Yasuo Tomomichi-trained Bravas, sent out as second favourite, came with a late burst to defeat the free-wheeling Jinambo (Deep Impact) by a head with a further neck back to Sanrei Pocket (Jungle Pocket) in third. Bravas is the first foal out of the two-time Victoria Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Verxina (Deep Impact), who herself is a three-quarter sister to Japan Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) hero Cheval Grand (Heart's Cry). King Kamehameha died in August last year at Shadai Stallion Station.

Kurofune - Pure white filly Sodashi (2 f ex Buchiko by King Kamehameha) gave Kurofune (French Deputy) his 35th stakes winner on Saturday when she took out the Sapporo Nisai Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Sapporo. Sodashi is the first foal out of Japanese cult heroine Buchiko (King Kamehameha), who attracted attention for her unusual colour throughout her racing career - she was officially listed as white, but was splashed with brown across her body, while her mane was dark too. While Buchiko flirted with stakes company on the track, her first-born looks likely to develop a cult following of her own, both for her colour and her talent, especially after taking the Sapporo Nisai - a race that has produced winners like Jungle Pocket (Tony Bin), Admire Moon (End Sweep) and Logi Universe (Neo Universe). The Naosuke Sugai-trained Sodashi defeated Uberleben (Gold Ship) by a neck with Bathrat Leon (Kizuna) a length and three-quarters away in third. Kurofune served his last book of mares in 2018 at Shadai Stallion Station.

Le Havre - Le Havre (Noverre) sired his 39th individual stakes winner when Glycon (4 g ex Glorious Sight by Singspiel) came out on top in a tight finish to the La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte (Gr 3, 2000m) at Longchamp on Sunday. The Jean-Claude Rouget-trained four-year-old was winning for the fourth time in five starts when beating Villa Rosa (Doctor Dino) and Les Vertus (Shakespearean) by a short neck and a head. Le Havre stood at Montfort et Preaux for a fee of €50,000 (approx AUD$81,300) in 2020.

Liam's Map - Sophomore stallion Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) made it five individual stakes winners on Saturday when Rushie (3 c ex Conquest Angel by Colonel John), a one-time Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) contender, instead won the Pat Day Mile (Gr 2, 8f) on the undercard. Michael McCarthy's Rushie had finished third in the belated Santa Anita Derby (Gr 1, 9f), a race in which eventual Kentucky Derby winner Authentic (Into Mischief) was second - both finished behind Honor A.P. (Honor Code) - while he also finished third in the Blue Grass Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Keeneland at his most recent start. Instead of stepping up in trip, McCarthy decided to cut him back for the Pat Day Mile and it paid dividends as he defeated Sonneman (Curlin) by a length and three-quarters; Tap It To Win (Tapit) was a further half-length away in third. Rushie may now contest the Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9.5f), which will feature a number of Kentucky Derby runners. Liam's Map stood for US$35,000 (approx A$48,000) at Lane's End Farms in 2020.

Lope De Vega - Former shuttler Lope De Vega (Shamardal) sired his 73rd individual stakes winner when Angel Power (3 f ex Burning Rules by Aussie Rules) made a successful cross channel raid to take out the Prix de Lioncourt (Listed, 2100m) at Longchamp on Thursday. Trained in Newmarket by Roger Varian, the filly notched her third win in six starts when she beat Extreme Fast (Le Havre) by three-quarters of a length. Chorba (Olympic Glory) was another length and a quarter away in third. Angel Power's dam Burning Rules (Aussie Rules) is an unraced half-sister to Blue De Vega (Lope De Vega), winner of the Killavullan Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at two. Lope De Vega, who shuttled to Australia between 2011 and 2014, stood at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland for a fee of €100,000 (approx AUD$162,500) in 2020.

Mastercraftsman - Former Windsor Park shuttler Mastercraftsman (Daneshill Dancer) sired his 72nd individual stakes winner when Paths Of Glory (6 g ex Pacific Rim by Singspiel) made a winning return to action to take out Friday's Wyong Cup (Listed, 2100m). The European import has now won six of his 13 starts, two of those victories coming in Australia. A €60,000 purchase for the China Horse Club at the Goffs Ireland Orby Sale in 2016, Paths Of Glory won four times for Newmarket-based Hugo Palmer before heading to the southern hemisphere. The son of Group 2 winner Pacific Rim (Singspiel) is a half-brother to La Hara (Dansili), a dual winner in the US. Mastercraftsman stood at Coolmore in Ireland for a fee of €25,000 (approx AUD$40,750) in 2020.

Mikki Isle - Arrowfield Stud's shuttle stallion Mikki Isle (Deep Impact) registered his first stakes winner on Sunday when Meikei Yell (2 f ex Shiroinger by Harbinger) took out the Kokura Nisai Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Kokura in Japan. Sent out as second favourite on the yielding track, the Hidenori Take-trained Meikei Yell - ridden by the handler's cousin Yutaka Take after winning a newcomers race at the course last month - proved too strong for odds-on favourite Mondreise (Daiwa Major), scoring by a length and a half with a further four lengths to Fodla (Lord Kanaloa) in third. Meikei Yell is likely to be aimed at the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in December. It was also a first stakes winner as a broodmare sire for King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) hero Harbinger (Dansili), who continues to stand at Shadai Stallion Station in Hokkaido. Mikki Isle, who did not return to Arrowfield Stud this year due to Covid-19 flight restrictions, will have his first Australian two-year-olds this season.

New Approach - Former Darley shuttler New Approach (Galileo) sired his 55th individual stakes winner when the Godolphin-raced Ziegfeld (3 c ex Maid To Dream by Oasis Dream) took the step up in grade firmly in his stride to take out the Prix Millkom (Listed, 1600m) at Le Teste de Buch on Saturday. The Andre Fabre-trained three-year-old made it three wins in four starts when beating Charlesquint (Showcasing) by a length and a half, with Rodaballo (Lope De Vega) another half a length away in third. New Approach stood at Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket for a fee of £30,000 (approx AUD$54,500) in 2020.

Pride Of Dubai - Another of Coolmore's young sires enjoyed a successful week as Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) sired his fourth individual stakes winner and second in Europe when Fancy Man (2 c ex Fancy by Galileo) posted a comfortable victory in Saturday's Ascendant Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Haydock. The Richard Hannon-trained juvenile, who was winning for the second time in three starts, had little difficulty, winning by three and a quarter lengths. Pride Of Dubai, who is represented in Australia with Group 3 winner Bella Nipotina, stands at Coolmore for a fee of $38,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

Sepoy - Darley's Sepoy (Elusive Quality) sired his 18th individual stakes winner and his fifth in Britain when Mighty Gurkha (2 c ex Royal Debt by Royal Applause) bagged the Sirenia Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Kempton on Saturday. The Archie Watson-trained juvenile was soon sent into the lead by Adam McNamara and the duo just did enough to cling on from Cloudbridge (Hard Spun) for a nose win. Favourite Mystery Smiles (Mehmas) was a length away in third. Now the winner of two of his five starts, Mighty Gurkha made amends for a disappointing effort when well beaten as a short-priced favourite in a Group 3 contest in France on his most recent outing. The winner is the first foal out of the unraced Royal Debt (Royal Applause) who is a sister to the Group-placed winner Dance And Dance, and also a half-sister to Hong Kong Listed winner Rewarding Hero (Exceed And Excel). Sepoy stands at Northwood Park for a fee of $7,700 in 2020.

Showcasing - Former Haunui Farm shuttler Showcasing brought up stakes winner number 43 on Saturday when Perth horse Showmanship (5 g ex Khales by Don Eduardo) scored his first stakes victory in the Bendigo Bank Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Moonee Valley. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained, Bob Peters-owned Showmanship was having his second start in Melbourne having won at Caulfield first-up and took his record to seven wins from eight starts overall. Showcasing last shuttled to Haunui Farm in 2017; he stood at Whitsbury Manor Stud in the UK for £55,000 (approx A$100,000) this season.

Soldier Hollow - Soldier Hollow (In The Wings) sired his 45th individual stakes winner when Sommelier (4 c ex Simply Red by Dashing Blade) came out on top in Saturday's Steher Cup (Listed, 2800m) at Baden-Baden. The Markus Klug-trained four-year-old scored from All For Rome (Holy Roman Emperor) and Calico (Soldier Hollow). Soldier Hollow stood at Gestut Auenquelle for a fee of €30,000 (approx AUD$48,800) in 2020.

Sweynesse - Novara Park Stud's Sweynesse (Lonhro), last season's champion first season sire in New Zealand, registered his second stakes winner on Saturday when Only Words (3 f ex Jungle Pago by Darci Brahma) took out the Wanganui Guineas (Listed, 1200m). The Clinton Isdale-trained Only Words settled midfield in a four-deep line on the heavy track and was one of the first to come under pressure, sent very wide on the course. However, she stayed on strongly to win by a half-neck. Sweynesse is standing at Novara Park Stud for NZ$6,000 this season.

Treasure Beach - Florida-based stallion Treasure Beach (Galileo) brought up his eighth individual stakes winner on Saturday when Raymundos Secret (4 f ex Paulette Caveat by Greatness) took out the John C Mabee Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Del Mar. The Phil d'Amato-trained Raymundos Secret, who was sent off as favourite in the eight-runner field, led at even splits under Flavien Prat, kicking clear upon straightening. Market rival Lady Prancealot (Sir Prancealot) proved the main danger, charging home late, but she failed to catch Raymundos Secret by a neck; Catch The Eye (Quality Road) was a length away in third. Treasure Beach stands at Pleasant Acres Stallions near Ocala, with the Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) and Secretariat Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) winner commanding a fee of US$7,500 (approx A$10,300) in 2020.

Uncle Mo - Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) filly Girl Daddy provided her sire with his 65th individual stakes winner and in the process guaranteed herself a berth in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (Gr 1, 8.5f) with a victory in the Pocahontas Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at Churchill Downs on Thursday. Trained by Dale Romans, Girl Daddy was winning for the second time in as many starts as she beat favourite Crazy Beautiful (Liam's Map) by two lengths, with a gap of three and three-quarter lengths back to the third-placed Alexandria (Constitution). Bred in Kentucky by the China Horse Club, Girl Daddy is out of the stakes-winning mare Cara Marie (Unbridled's Song). She was a $500,000 purchase at the 2019 Keeneland September Yearling Sale from the Bluewater Sales consignment. Uncle Mo stood at Coolmore's Ashford Stud for a fee of US$125,000 (approx AUD$171,500) in 2020.

Vancouver - Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) brought up his first Australian and US stakes winners this last week, for his third stakes winner overall. Night Raid (3 f ex Raid by Pins) took out the Atlantic Jewel Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Moonee Valley on Saturday, while Madone (2 f ex Indian Love Call by Cherokee Run) took out the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf (Listed, 1m) in America on Sunday. Night Raid, a $160,000 purchase by Sheamus Mills Bloodstock and Mick Price Racing at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, entered Saturday's contest off a seven-length Tatura maiden win and was sent out as $3.50 favourite. Madone, who stumbled at the start at Del Mar but was patiently ridden by Flavien Prat, took victory by a half-length, remaining unbeaten from two starts. Vancouver, whose first stakes winner was South African Group 2 winner Mount Pleasant, is standing for $30,250 (inc GST) at Coolmore Australia this year.

Beautiful day @glennhavenracing as we reflect on a great weekend headlined by our graduate and very own princess DAME GISELLE landing the Group 2 Furious Stakes for @snowdenracing1 & @tommyberry1991. She brings great joy and excitement to us and our partners @china_horse_club and hopefully this is just the beginning of her Spring. We would like to thank all those who have played or still play a part in her story Pictured Below >>
