High-balling sprinter Anders purchased by Widden Stud

*Aquis Farm to remain in the ownership of Moir Stakes-bound
Not A Single Doubt colt*

Anders

WIDDEN STUD

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Widden Stud has secured a controlling interest in high-balling speed machine Anders (Not A Single Doubt), the short-priced favourite to add a Group 1 to his record next week, in the latest move by Aquis Farm to cash in on its plethora of stakes-winning colts.

The deal, confirmed by Widden Stud's

Antony Thompson yesterday, will see the existing syndicate retain shares in the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained colt, a last-start winner of the San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m).

The dominance of that performance, in which the colt showed blistering speed to lead and win by three and a quarter lengths, backed up the demolition of his rivals in The Rosebud (Listed, 1100m) first-up when scoring by four and three-quarter lengths. Continued on page 2 >>

Yulong swoops on Tofane for Everest

Group 1-winning mare Tofane (Ocean Park) yesterday became the latest runner to secure a slot to contest next month's $15 million The Everest (1200m) at Royal Randwick. Tofane will take her chance in the world's richest turf race partnered with slot holder Yulong, and her trainer Mike Moroney is excited by the opportunity. "It's a big thrill for us to partner with Yulong on this," Moroney said. Morning Briefing page 5 >>

Thompson last night declared that Anders' profile was one that had served Widden Stud well for decades and was pleased to be able to partner with Aquis to stand the colt at the famous Hunter Valley farm.

"He's a very fast horse and a lovely physical and he's got a super pedigree and a horse we can really do a lot with. I think he'll be a great addition and we're really excited about him," Thompson told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"He's certainly done enough at this stage to earn his spot at Widden and everything's a bonus from here, but his figures and what he's shown so far gives us the indication that he's pretty special.

"We're happy to be involved with him through the rest of his racing career and then certainly his stud career. We've seen enough to know he's going to be a really exciting prospect and has what it takes to be a good stallion."

Anders, whose value is believed to have been placed at north of $10 million, is the $2.50 favourite for Friday week's A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Moonee Valley and is high up in calculations for the $15 million Everest (1200m).

The colt's spring campaign could culminate in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington on October 31 if he continues to maintain his stellar form which has stretched to four straight wins, two either side of a spell.

"He's been a special colt for us from the time we saw him (as a yearling). We always thought he was top drawer and he's proven that now," Aquis Farm's managing director Shane McGrath told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"He's going to Widden and there's no more iconic stallion farm in Australia and for Aquis and all the other owners associated with them, it's a privilege and we're really looking forward to the journey."

Interest had already been shown in Anders for a slot in The Everest from multiple parties, but Aquis could hold the ace hand if connections decided the colt should take on older horses in the $15 million race at Randwick on October 17.

McGrath revealed: "Prior to negotiations with Widden and a number of other major farms, we had three independent approaches in relation to the slot.

"As it is now, it's a job for Antony Thompson and Widden as they are the managing owners and we'll respect their decision and I'm sure he will make the best decision not only for Anders but the entire ownership group."

While a lot hinges on the Moir result, the late summer-autumn campaign of the Melbourne and Sydney sprint races, such as the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m), Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m), The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) and the T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), could all be considered.

A trip overseas for the King's Stand Stakes (Gr 1, 5f) and Diamond Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Royal Ascot next year could also be on the cards if Anders' form holds up.

"All those things are on the table. He's effective on all sorts of ground, he's got a very high cruising speed, so they do look like nice options for him in time, but we will work with Ciaran and David and map out a plan from there," Thompson said.

"At this stage, we'll look to the Moir and weigh up our options after that."

In recent months, Aquis Farm has sold down its holding in this year's star juvenile, the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt), and parted with Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Prague (Redoute's Choice) in another significant transaction.

Both colts, who were also part-owned by Phoenix Thoroughbreds, were purchased by Kia Ora Stud.

Aquis also has Holyfield (I Am Invincible), who won the Ming Dynasty (Gr 3, 1400m) at his most recent start, and Saturday's Dulcify Quality (Listed, 1500m) winner Mo'unga (Savabeel) racing under its banner. Both could be headed to Group 1 three-year-old races this campaign which would further boost their appeal as stallion prospects.

When questioned as to the reasoning for Aquis' decision to sell a controlling interest in another high-class colt - one of a number of an enviable crop selected at the 2019 yearling sales - McGrath said that it fitted owner Tony Fung's brief.

"The whole business mantra has always been to go and select well-bred colts with the potential to be stallion prospects and we've been fortunate that not only have we had Farnan and Prague but Anders as well," he said.

"The market has identified that the selection process and the systems we have in place is producing these horses. For the longevity of the market, they've got to be appreciative of what we've done and what we're trying to do."

Selected by McGrath and purchased in partnership with Ciaran Maher Racing for $670,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale when offered by Arrowfield Stud, Anders is a half-brother to the stakes-placed sprinter Battleground (Snitzel).

His dam Madame Andree (War Emblem) was unraced but further back in Anders' pedigree hails Grade 1 winner Exciting Story (Diablo), and Listed winners Strong Memory (End Sweep), Sweeping Story (End Sweep) and Diablo's Story (Diablo).

Not A Single Doubt, who was pensioned earlier this year for health reasons, is the sire of 73 stakes winners and has three sire sons, Aquis' Dubious, Newgate Farm's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Moir Stakes winner Extreme Choice and Squamosa who stands at Sun Stud in Victoria.

Yulong swoops on Tofane for Everest

Group 1-winning mare Tofane (Ocean Park) yesterday became the latest runner to secure a slot to contest next month's $15 million The Everest (1200m) at Royal Randwick. Tofane will take her chance in the world's richest turf race partnered with slot holder Yulong, and her trainer Mike Moroney is excited by the opportunity. "It's a big thrill for us to partner with Yulong on this," Moroney said. "Mr Zhang purchased our Group 1 winner Alabama Express earlier this year and he is just starting his stud career for him here in Victoria and I'm sure Tofane will do us all proud." Moroney said the five-year-old had come out of her first-up run in last Saturday's Bobbie Lewis Quality (Gr 2, 1200m) at Flemington in great shape. "I was more than satisfied with her effort under the circumstances," Moroney said. "She had top-weight, the race wasn't really run to suit so I thought for her to be beaten under half a length was an excellent run. She won the All Aged Stakes at Randwick in April after good efforts in the Galaxy and the T J Smith and she beat Gytrash home over 1200 metres in Adelaide last year so she deserves a crack at a race like The Everest."

12 for Dawn Approach

Former Darley shuttler Dawn Approach (New Approach) sired his 12th individual stakes winner when Winning Partner (5g ex Lady Frere by Johannesburg) landed yesterday's Balaklava Cup (Listed, 1600m). The Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained five-year-old was winning for the fifth time in 22 starts when beating Analytica (Shocking) by a length and a half.

Savatoxl (Kuroshio) was a further length and a quarter away in third. A $110,000 purchase at the 2017 Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale by McEvoy Mitchell Racing, Winning Partner is the third winner from three foals out of Lady Frere (Johannesburg), who herself is a half-sister to dual Listed winner General Peekay (General Nediym). Dawn Approach stood at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €10,000 (approx AUD$16,200) in 2020.

Inglis breeze-up videos online

Videos of this week's Seymour and Eagle Farm Ready2Race breeze ups - which has seen some of the fastest times of the past decade recorded - are now available to view online at inglis.com.au. The action was headed by a pair of Shaun and Tal Nolen's JCS Thoroughbreds two-year-olds, who both breezed up on the synthetic track at Seymour. A Vancouver (Medaglia D'Oro) colt out of the Quiet American (Fappiano) mare Anatole, listed as lot 176, topped the session, stopping the clock at a speedy 10.16secs, while their Unencumbered (Testa Rosa) colt out of Magic of Melbourne (Johannesburg), listed as lot 43 was just shy of that at 10.20secs. Breeze ups continue at Warwick Farm on Friday where 93 juveniles will be put through their paces, before the hit-outs head across the Tasman on Monday for the Taupo breeze ups. Videos of those breezes will be available on Sunday. Inspections for the Inglis Ready2Race Sale - to be held as a live auction at Riverside Stables - begin on October 16. ### Perseverance key to Kolding

Chris Waller is adamant George Main Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) contender Kolding (Ocean Park) is going as well as ever and just needs the right conditions to get back to winning ways. The eight-time winner failed to place in five starts in the autumn and again when he resumed to finish down the track behind stablemate Verry Elleegant (Zed) in the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) but he hinted at a return to form when finishing second behind all-the-way winner Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock) in the Tramway Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Randwick on September 5. "He's had genuine excuses. Wet tracks, wide draws, running left-handed and he was back to much better (last start)," the champion trainer said. "Nothing was wrong. That's what I figured out."

Caulfield Cup likely for Verry Elleegant

Verry Elleegant will again be in opposition against Kolding on Saturday as the five-year-old has her latest start on the path towards the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m). Another tilt at the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) had been under consideration for the mare but connections have now focused their attention on the October 17 contest instead. "With what has transpired with Aidan O'Brien coming and some of these other horses now running in the Cox Plate, it makes our decision so much easier," co-owner Brae Sokolski told Racing.com. "I'd say she's definitely going to the Caulfield Cup. The Cox Plate was looking a little bit shallow about four weeks ago but now with what Russian Camelot did last week and with the internationals now confirmed for the race, it has further galvanised our conviction that the Caulfield Cup is the right race this year. We thought with everything that's gone on this year that we were going to have an easier run at these big races, but it now looks as though they will be as tough as ever."

Mother hoping for back-to-back winners

Daniel Bowman believes Begood Toya Mother (Myboycharlie) is showing all the right signs to post a repeat performance of his heroics from last year and take out Saturday's Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield. In his final lead-up run 12 months ago, Begood Toya Mother finished sixth in the Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and was beaten 2.85 lengths. This year he produced the same result when sixth and exactly the same margin behind Behemoth (All Too Hard). Last year he started from barrier three and on Saturday it will be barrier four. There is, however, one big difference, as last year Begood Toya Mother carried 52 kilograms and on Saturday he will carry six kilograms more. "He needs to be as good and maybe a bit better than last year which I think he is," Bowman said. "He's a stronger horse but he's going to need to be with his extra weight. He's going super. He had his last gallop at Casterton on Tuesday and he's as good as he can be." The Warrnambool trainer was pleased with Begood Toya Mother's run in the Memsie Stakes when he was fired up after being taken on for the lead by Streets Of Avalon (Magnus). "I thought he was still going to run third with 50 metres to go but he just tired. That run really brought him on. I couldn't have him in better condition."

Apprentice Lewis German has declared himself fit to ride at Caulfield on Saturday where he is set to partner The Kosciuszko (1200m) favourite Front Page (Magnus) in the 1100-metre sprint. German suffered bruising to his right foot after he was dislodged from Miss Madec (Kermadec) at Wodonga on Tuesday. He did not ride for the remainder of that meeting, nor at Bendigo yesterday, but is seeking clearance to fulfill his mounts today and tomorrow before his Caulfield commitments. Front Page has won four of his six starts, including the Creswick Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Flemington in June. It is understood that German has told connections of the four-year-old he would be willing to quarantine in Sydney for 14 days before the October 17 race.

Kisukano to take on older horses

Kisukano (Bel Esprit) will take on her elders for the first time in her career when she lines up in Saturday's Pink Ribbon Cup (1300m) at the Gold Coast. The winner of six of her eight starts to date, Kisukano blitzed her rivals on her most recent outing at Eagle Farm on August 29 when setting a new track record. "She'll be out of her comfort zone going up against older mares for the first time and stepping up to 1300 metres," trainer Michael Nolan told racingqueensland.com. "I thought her last win was outstanding and it took a couple of days for her to get over it but she was entitled to after breaking the track record."

No Moir for Hustle

Brooklyn Hustle (Starspangledbanner) will bypass the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Moonee Valley on September 25 and instead contest the following day's Testa Rossa Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Caulfield, co-trainer Dean Krongold has revealed. "I think we are bypassing the Moir and stepping her up to 1200 metres and she will run in the Testa Rossa at Caulfield in two weeks' time," Krongold, who trains in partnership with Jason Warren, told Racing.com. "We think she is better suited to the 1200 metres and it looks like it's going to be a pretty strong Moir and she is going to need a lot of luck. She's an exciting prospect and we want to capitalize with her and then we can target her for a race like the Manikato, which she will be better suited to."

Redoute's Choice colt bursts into Guineas contention

Cambourne (Redoute's Choice) kept his undefeated record intact and the possibility of a start in next month's Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) alive, with an easy win at Bendigo yesterday. Co-trainer Mick Price stamped him as a "black-type horse coming soon" after the colt posted his second success when having little trouble accounting for his rivals to win over 1300 metres. Price, who trains in partnership with Michael Kent Jnr, now faces the dilemma of how to get Cambourne into the Guineas field. The meeting at Bendigo carried prize-money equivalent to a midweek metropolitan program, but Price doubted whether that would be enough to get him into a Group 1 race. His other option is to run Cambourne in Saturday week's Caulfield Guineas Prelude (Gr 3, 1400m) although he is concerned that starting him again in ten days could be too soon for the inexperienced colt. "He's a lovely horse with a great temperament and the more racing the better for him. He's going to make a beautiful 1600-metre horse," Price said.

Deniki holds on at Warwick Farm

The lightly-raced filly Deniki (Not A Single Doubt), a close relation to Group 2 winner Menari (Snitzel), fought back after being headed to land her maiden win at Warwick Farm yesterday. Having her third start, the Mark Newnhamtrained three-year-old showed good battling qualities to post a narrow victory over the more experienced Osamu (Exceed And Excel) in the Vinery Stallions Plate (1100m). "She got the job done and she beat a nice colt," Newnham said. "As long as she learns to contain that speed she is going to make a really nice filly."

Peel fractures hip

Brisbane apprentice Wendy Peel was preparing to undergo surgery yesterday afternoon after suffering a broken hip in an incident which occurred during the jump-outs the previous day. "One day you can be on the biggest high, the next you can be lying flat on your back in hospital with a broken hip," the rider tweeted.

Moor suspended

Daniel Moor was charged with careless riding and then subsequently cleared by the stewards at Wodonga on Monday - but still left the racecourse with a 12-meeting suspension. Moor was initially charged with careless riding for his ride on Raphael (Not A Single Doubt) in the fourth race on the card, however, after hearing all the evidence, the stewards could not be satisfied the incident could be attributed to carelessness on his behalf and withdrew the charge. Despite that, Moor departed Wodonga with a 12-meeting careless riding suspension that was handed to him after the completion of a deferred inquiry into a race run at Pakenham on August 31. The ban will commence following Saturday's Caulfield card and expire on September 30.

Pregnant Meech to return next year

Dual Group 1-winning jockey Linda Meech yesterday announced she intends to return to race riding next year after confirming she is pregnant with her first child. The winner of 1715 races was last seen in action on April 12 when completing a double at Stawell. Meech became the first female rider to win the Victorian jockeys' premiership when successful in 2018/19.

Magic Millions race named in honour of Subzero

The achievements of Subzero (Kala Dancer) will be recognised as part of the TAB Queensland Summer Racing Carnival, it was revealed yesterday, when Racing Queensland released details of this year's Summer Carnival, which will feature almost $20 million in prize-money and bonuses. Subzero, the 1992 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner who passed away last month, will have the $1 million Magic Millions Trophy (2400m) renamed in his honour. To be run on The Star Gold Coast Magic Millions Raceday on January 16, the 'Magic Millions Subzero' is set to provide a thrilling finale to this year's Summer Carnival as part of Queensland's richest raceday. "The TAB Queensland Summer Racing Carnival continues to go from strength to strength," Racing Queensland CEO Brendan Parnell said. "With 31 feature races, including the $10.25 million The Star Gold Coast Magic Millions Raceday, the eyes of the nation will be on Queensland this summer. We are looking forward to showcasing everything that is great about Queensland racing, and at the same time, honouring the feats of Subbie who will be dearly missed."

NEW ZEALAND

Mitigator's challenge not lost on McKay

Peter McKay is aware that Thorndon Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner The Mitigator (Master Of Design) will have to be at his very best if he is to add to his tally of wins in Saturday's Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) at Hastings. "It was good to get the Group 1 win last year and a Group 3 with him but once you are at that level, it's hard to stay competitive at that level," McKay said. "(Group 1 wins) are hard to get. Everything has got to be right on the day. You can't go in there expecting to be winning or running close because everything has to be going right, as we know." The six-year-old gelding, who also won the Eagle Technology Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Ellerslie last season, finished third at Taupo when resuming, carrying 61.5 kilograms, and sixth at Te Rapa last start under 62 kilograms. "I was very happy with his first-up run. His second run the other day, Opie (Bosson, jockey) said he knuckled a couple of times coming around the corner," McKay continued. "The track was moving under him and he wouldn't let down. He's pulled up really well. It was a nice lead-up. The 1400 metres on Saturday is probably not his pet distance but he has performed well at it in the past."

Melt heads to Ruakaka

RACING PHOTOS

Group 1 performer Melt (Ifraaj) will kick-off her spring campaign in the Harcourts Tai Tokerau Trophy (1200m) at Ruakaka on Saturday. The daughter of Ifraaj (Zafonic) has not been seen on raceday since her runner-up effort over 1200 metres at Tauranga last November and her trainer Nigel Tiley is looking forward to her return. "Melt had a nice break," he said. "She came back from Sydney and we gave her one start just to make sure she was happy. We put her aside while the tracks were a bit firmer. She was ready to go when we had to go into lockdown, so she just went out to the paddock and then went down to David and Emma-Lee Browne's to do a bit of work on the hills. She has come back in pretty good nick." Melt has a strong first-up record and Tiley is confident she will be able to retain that strike-rate on Saturday. "She races well when she is fresh. She has won first-up on a couple of occasions," he continued. "I will claim with her, so she will probably get in with 51 kilos, and with that on her back she will be competitive."

Talented Kelly Renee to break maiden

Kelly Renee (Vespa) will be looking to secure her maiden victory at Te Rapa when she contests today's SVS 3YO 1200. The Stephen Autridge and Kris Shailer-trained filly placed in four of her five starts as a juvenile, including the Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and the Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Autridge said she has matured as a three-year-old and he is expecting the daughter of Vespa (Elusive City) to improve from her first-up fourth placing last month. "She has matured a little bit," he said. "Every time that she ran as a two-year-old she got better, so we are hoping we are going to go through the same process this time. She hasn't had a run for a little while, so she will improve with it. It is the first time she has had a reasonable track (Slow 7) and a reasonable draw (8) for a while. I would like to think that she will be running in the first three."

National Breeding Awards cancelled

The 2020 Ebbett VW National Breeding Awards has been cancelled due to the Covid-19 pandemic. "We are all disappointed the event could not go ahead but we were left with little choice for obvious reasons," NZTBA council member Shannon Taylor said. "The organising committee had been trying to work around the different alert level scenarios. We'd already had a change of date and venue, but for the event to go ahead at the standard it deserved, we just couldn't operate within the time frames and uncertainty." Over the coming week the National Awards organising committee will work on a solution to present this year's awards to the individual Group 1 winners. Tickets will be fully refunded and ticket holders are asked to email nztbawaikatob@gmail.com with bank details for a refund.

ASIA

Inferno trials well

Inferno (Holy Roman Emperor) has pleased connections with a barrier trial ahead of a tilt at the Singapore Guineas (Listed, 1600m) on September 26. Inferno posted a dominant win at his last start in the Singapore Classic (Listed, 1400m) and, with a gap of one month between runs, trainer Cliff Brown decided a barrier trial would not do Inferno any harm ahead of his grand final next week. "There is a month between runs," Brown said. "As he is a lazy trackworker, I thought he'd get more out of an easy barrier trial. He did enough without doing too much, which is just fine. He was good, he was not out to break any record, and he still ran on well."

Lim hopeful of finding key to Takhi

Jason Lim is confident he is edging closer to finding the key to Takhi (Bahamian Squall) who will be chasing a second win when he lines up in Saturday's Class 4 race over 1600 metres at Kranji. "We may need to find out more about Takhi, but I get the feeling he may be a horse who will run a mile or above," the trainer said. "I used to run him in sprint races, but I think his first-up win over 1200 metres was also a sign he needs further. I think we got the right distance for Takhi now. He's also become more mature." Lim has high hopes for Takhi this Saturday and beyond. "He's drawn nicely in two. I think he's got a good chance this weekend. He's quite a progressive horse and without getting too ahead of myself, if he keeps going through his grades, I may look at a feature race for him when he is four years old next year. One race at a time, though, let's see how he goes this Saturday first."

INTERNATIONAL

20 for Pride Of Dubai

Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) sired his 20th individual winner when Malaysian (2 f ex Booker by Mastercraftsman) built on a promising debut to score at the second time of asking in a mile maiden at Cork yesterday. The Jessica Harrington-trained filly, who finished eight lengths behind subsequent Group 1 winner Shale (Galileo) on her first outing, beat the Lloyd Williams-owned newcomer Belmont Avenue (Zoffany) by a head, with Always Waitin (Tamarkuz) three lengths away in third. Pride Of Dubai stands for $38,500 at Coolmore Australia in 2020.

11 for Shalaa

Arrowfield Stud shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) sired his 11th individual winner when My Swallow (2 c ex Green Swallow by Green Tune) ran out a comfortable winner of a seven furlong novice contest at Sandown for the Sir Micahel Stoute and Ryan Moore partnership. Having his second start, the juvenile beat Bullace (Toronado) by two lengths, with Ebnzaidoon (Speightstown) another half a length away in third. My Swallow is a half brother to four winners, including Group 2 victor Yellow And Green (Monsun). Shalaa stands at Arrowfield for a fee of $33,000 (inc. GST) in 2020.

59 for Frankel

Frankel

JUDDMONTE

Juddmonte star Frankel (Galileo) sired his 59th individual stakes winner when Majestic Noor (3 f ex Nouriya by Danehill Dancer) registered the third victory of her career with a win in yesterday's John Musker Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 1m 2f) at Yarmouth. The John Gosden-trained filly was bouncing back from her disappointing effort when sent off favourite for a Group 3 race in France last time out, as she beat Black Lotus (Declaration Of War) by a length and a half. Festive Star (Golden Horn) was a further neck away in third. A 650,000 gns purchase at Tattersalls in 2018, Majestic Noor is the fifth foal out of the Listed winning Nouriya (Danehill Dancer). Frankel stood for a fee of £175,000 (approx AUD$310,400) in 2020.

25 for Kingman

Kingman (Invincible Spirit) was another Juddmonte sire among the winners yesterday when victory for Posted (4 f ex Time Away by Darshaan) in Sandown's Fortune Stakes (Listed, 1m) provided him with his 25th individual stakes winner. The Richard Hannon-trained four-year-old was winning for the third time as she defeated favourite Montatham (Showcasing) by three lengths. Lavender's Blue (Sea The Stars) was another half a length away in third. Posted is a half sister to five winners including Group 2 scorer Time On (Sadler's Wells) and Time Control (Sadler's Wells), the dam of Moyglare Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) winner Cursory Glance (Distorted Humor). Further back this is the family of Time Charter (Saritamer). Kingman stood for a fee of £150,000 (approx AUD$266,000) in 2020.

Vale Pat Smullen

Nine-time Irish champion jockey Pat Smullen has died at the age of 43 after suffering a relapse of pancreatic cancer. The winner of 12 European Classics, Smullen was diagnosed with the illness in March 2018. His initial treatment led to him being given a clean bill of health last year, however Smullen suffered a relapse in recent months and his condition is believed to have deteriorated last week. His family confirmed that he died in hospital in Dublin on Tuesday evening. A dual champion apprentice in 1995 and 1996, Smullen's career reached a glorious climax when he landed the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) aboard Harzand (Sea The Stars) in 2016. That triumph on the Aga Khan's homebred was achieved in partnership with his great ally Dermot Weld, for whom he succeeded Mick Kinane as stable jockey in 1999. Harzand went on to complete the Derby double when taking out the Irish (Gr 1, 1m 4f) equivalent. Smullen also won an Irish Derby on Grey Swallow (Daylami) with other big-race wins including two Irish

1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) victories and four consecutive Irish St Legers (Gr 1, 1m 6f). In total, he rode 1,892 winners in Ireland and Britain, and 25 at the highest level around the world. Smullen leaves behind his wife Frances, the Classic-winning trainer who is a sister of Aidan O'Brien's wife Annemarie, and their three children Hannah, Paddy and Sarah.

Fellowes in no hurry to find Arran jockey

Charlie Fellowes is in no rush to decide which jockey will ride dual Melbourne Cup placegetter Prince Of Arran (Shirocco) this spring after Michael Walker informed him he would be riding another English stayer, Dashing Willoughby (Nathaniel), instead. Prince Of Arran was ridden by Walker six times over the past two springs for two wins but he explained to Fellowes that he had a long-standing relationship with Dashing Willoughby's owner Sir Owen Glenn and was committed to riding that horse. "The one thing I thought I didn't need to worry about was a jockey," Fellowes told Melbourne radio station RSN. "It's very sad Michael can't ride him as he can take a huge amount of credit for our success here." Fellowes said he had already been contacted by numerous Australian jockeys and he would put them on a list but he was not in a hurry to make a decision. "There's not likely to be any European jockeys and there's question marks whether Sydney jockeys will be available," Fellowes continued. "I'll see who is available and then work out who can suit the horse the best."

Skyward enters quarantine

John Messara believes Skyward (Camelot) is a "live chance" for this year's Caulfield Cup - as long as he makes it into the field. The northern hemisphere four-year-old entered quarantine in Newmarket yesterday having finished fourth, beaten just two and three-quarter lengths by Cup topweight Anthony Van Dyck (Galileo) on Sunday, on what was his final start for Fabrice Chappet before joining Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young. "We were very pleased with his run in the Prix Foy," Messara told Racing.com. "The run shows he can quicken up, we know he can stay and he drops six kilograms coming to Australia off that run in the Prix Foy so over that distance it should equate to four lengths and on that basis he wins the race (Caulfield Cup)," Messara continued. "He's a progressive horse. He's acquitted himself well again and if he travels well to Melbourne I think he's a live chance in the Cups." Entry into the Caulfield Cup is Skyward's greatest obstacle. He sat 63rd in the elimination order last Thursday and Messara said that should Skyward fail to gain a start in the Caulfield Cup, the Geelong Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) is under consideration.

Yearlings by Camelot and Lope De Vega feature among 784 lots for Arqana-Osarus

The Arqana-Osarus October Yearling Sale has been restructured as a result of the coronavirus pandemic, with 784 lots selling over five days and in three designated parts. Starting from October 19 at 11am and concluding on October 23, no fewer than 89 vendors are due to sell yearlings, by stallions such as Camelot (Montjeu), Dream Ahead (Diktat), Lope De Vega (Shamardal) and Night Of Thunder (Dubawi). Among the sale's top-class graduates is the seven-time Grade 1 winner Sistercharlie (Myboycharlie), Prix Jean Romanet (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Audarya (Wootton Bassett) and the Classic-placed The Summit (Wootton Bassett). Ecurie des Monceaux sold the top two lots at Arqana's Select Sale and among their draft is a No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) half-brother to the Group 1-placed Mythical

(Camelot), listed as lot 80, and a Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) filly out of a half-sister to Sea The Moon (Sea The Stars), listed as lot 174.

Classic-placed Mageva among Group class recruits to Arc Sale

French 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) third Mageva (Wootton Bassett) is among the collection of 23 horses, including black type three-year-olds and promising juveniles, to have been announced as the initial entries for Arqana's 2020 Arc Sale. The event takes place on October 3, the eve of the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m), across Paris at Saint-Cloud racecourse. Along with Mageva, the noteworthy three-year-olds include recent Prix de Lutece third (Gr 3, 3000m) and Listed winner Measure Of Time (Gleneagles), the Group 2 winner Kalifornia Queen (Lope De Vega) and the consistent Chachnak (Kingman). Smart juveniles include Coeursamba (The Wow Signal) and the unbeaten San Isidro (Power). The online catalogue, will be further enhanced up until the sale with additional lots.

A genuine Cups contender has emerged from the spring pack for Highclere, in what's been a busy period for the team, both on and off the track, as new additions to race in the two-tone blue add further strength to a formidable line up.

Belvedere a major player for Cups

Kicking off on the turf, and it's the Bart Cummings next for Lord Belvedere, who further outlined his credentials as a genuine Cup contender after continuing his superb form, backing up wins in June and July with another hard-fought victory over 2500 metres at Flemington on Saturday.

The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained seven-year-old was allocated 50.5 kilograms for the Melbourne Cup earlier this month, and will earn ballot-free access to the race with victory in the Bart Cummings.

Global Gift hits the ground running

Shares in Highclere's Global Gift were snapped up quickly following this column's previous installment, and that investment was immediately rewarded as the five-year-old struck over a mile at Bendigo.

"It was a fantastic win. He's going to give his owners a lot of fun and hopefully a lot of prizemoney," said Highclere Chairman Harry Herbert.

progressive, despite getting stuck in the Moonee Valley mud on his latest start.

"I think he's a very bright prospect for us. He got stuck in the ground when he ran at Moonee Valley and we put a line through that."

Magic Millions target for Edison

Edison, who soared to two consecutive victories for Bjorn Baker during July, will target the lucrative Magic Millions meeting in January, as he seeks to give his owners further on-track excitement. He is being targeted at the $1 million Magic Millions Cup (RL, 1400m).

"He was fantastic winning twice for Bjorn Baker last preparation. He's back in work and we're going to target the lucrative races up at

Durston and Great House add strength to Australia team

There are two exciting additions to the Highclere Australia line-up, with two-time winner Durston and recent Tattersalls purchase Great House heading Down Under. Durston, who Herbert expected to leave all before him this year in the UK, joins with a big reputation and will be one to watch as we head into next year.

"Durston has arrived, and is the capable hands of Ciaran Maher and David Eustace. They are absolutely thrilled to bits with him," said Herbert. "When you see the physical horse, it's easy to get excited, he's an absolutely cracking individual."

"This year we thought we'd carry all before us, but he had a couple of tiny issues and we stopped to get those right."

"We'll see where we are next year but I very much hope he's a Melbourne Cup horse in the making. I think he could go round the tracks in Australia very well. He'll be very versatile. He's got the speed for us to go shorter but we'd be very hopeful he'd stay the Cup trips."

Great House was a standout for Herbert in the Tattersalls online sale, not only for being an exceptional physical specimen, but also given his birthdate. Great House was a December 28 foal, making his a year out for racing in his native Ireland.

"I was talking to Donnacha O'Brien and this horse really stood out. He's a really interesting one. A beautifully-bred son of Galileo, with a wonderful pedigree and a wonderful looking horse. But the real googy here is that he's a December 28 foal which puts him completely out by a year. He's racing as a four-year-old when he's a three-year-old.

"He sold very quickly, almost a record I think, he's such an impressive horse. For the job we want him for, he's going to go down there to Chris Waller as a very lightly raced horse with genuine ability who will start off a low mark and hopefully work his way up."

Vida Rose offers a shrewd investment for owners

Out of a half-sister to dual Group 3 winner and Golden Slipper placegetter Tulip, with the dam herself a Group 3 winner, Vida Rose offers a terrific opportunity to buy into one of the most exciting pedigrees in the stud book. A three-year-old daughter of Champion Sire Fastnet Rock, the sire of classy fillies Advantage, Unforgotten and Atlantic Jewel, among a long list of others, patience will be the key to unearthing the full potential of this Lindsay Park-trained three-year-old.

"She's a lovely filly. All that family do well later, as three-year-olds up," enthused Herbert. "A real scopey filly who I'm really looking forward to."

"She's a very well bred filly. There are just a couple of shares left in her, which will be an excellent investment as you'll always have the pedigree."

"She will need time - The Lindsay Park team have raced all the good ones from that family - and they're just being patient with her."

Analysis: After racing consistently without winning in recent starts in Victoria, Winning Partner returned to South Australia and succeeded in recording his fifth win and his first stakes victory in 22 starts when scoring here. He settled nicely towards the rear of the 16-runner field before improving between runners nearing the turn. He took a split at the 200m, hit the front at the 100m and then went on to win well. It was also a good ride by Barend Vorster. Analytica raced in about ninth place, between runners, found a gap on straightening, challenged at the 200m and then battled on well for second. The top weight Savatoxl raced outside the leader (Peloton), briefly hit the front at the 200m and then battled on well to take the minor placing, with Peloton holding on for fourth after leading until halfway down the straight. Analysis: Deniki, a three-quarter sister to the talented Group 2 winner Menari (Snitzel), indicated potential to progress to better things with a narrow but good first-up win in smart time here. After a quick beginning, she went to the front, but then raced a bit keenly in the lead. She was challenged (by Osamu) nearing the home turn, then showed gameness in fighting back to win in a photo. Osamu tracked the eventual winner, challenged her strongly in the straight and after quite a battle, he failed by only a short-head for second in a good performance, with the filly Newsreader holding on for third after being handy all the way.
