BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

For Gary Diamond, the official two-year-old barrier trials in Sydney is his favourite day of the year but because of Covid-19 the NSW prominent owner and breeder will not be at Randwick for the heats.

The G1G Racing and Breeding operation, run by Diamond's daughter Tracy Vogel, will be aiming for a remarkable fifth ATC Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) win in six years and this season there are ten potential candidates under the syndicate's ownership who have the chance to add to the record.

The duo appeared at last year's official two-year-old session on the Kensington track, with the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained King's Legacy subsequently clinching a significant stud deal after claiming the Inglis Sires (registered as ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) and ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) double.

At last year's official barrier trials, Diamond was represented in each heat by a total of 25 juveniles but this time a more conservative approach from trainers and connections has led to ten lining up on the Kensington track this morning.

Among them are colts by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), Fastnet Rock (Danehill), Deep Field (Northern Meteor) and Sebring (More Than Ready) as well as horses by first season sires Capitalist (Written Tycoon), Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) and Star Turn (Star Witness).

Diamond revealed that some of the Newgate Farm-China Horse Club colts could head to Melbourne for early two-year-old races while the Harron-led syndicate also spread its 2020 purchases among a few different trainers including Anthony and Sam Freedman in Victoria.

As for expectations today, Diamond is not getting ahead of himself.

"I have gone past getting nervous but my favourite day at the races is tomorrow," Diamond told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday from Queensland.

"I did contemplate going down for the trials and coming back and spending two weeks in quarantine, but when you see what some people are going through in quarantine I thought no.

"It's one of the fun days of the year, that particular day, and I am just so disappointed because of the coronavirus that I won't be there."

Capitalist, who completed the 2016 Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m)-Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) double, started the extraordinary Breeders' Plate streak for Diamond and six seasons later he has first crop two-year-olds by him at the opening trial session.

Diamond part-owns two of them, the $600,000 James Harron Bloodstock-purchased Magic Millions Yearling Sale graduate Kalashnikov (heat two) and the $550,000 China Horse Club, Newgate and Starlight Racing-selected Captivant who is accepted for heat ten.

Harron's colts syndicate also has Oblique (I Am Invincible), a $260,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale graduate, in heat eight and Star Turn colt Astrologer in heat ten. The latter was a $300,000 Magic Millions graduate from the Edinglassie Thoroughbreds draft.

The Newgate-China Horse Club partnership also has Revivalist, a $380,000 son of Arrowfield shuttler Shalaa, in heat six and the $825,000 Sebring half-brother to the Hawkes Racing-trained Masked Crusader (Toronado) who is entered for heat eight.

G1G Racing and Breeding retained a share in the Harron selected and raced Capitalist when he went to stud at Field's Newgate Farm, so the affection for that horse is obvious, but Diamond says type plays as much a role as pedigree in the horses he buys into with the respected pair.

"Basically you have a situation with Henry and James, they go out and look at the horses and then they look at the breeding," he said.

"They buy what they consider to be value for money and on type as well.

They don't just buy horses they've had something to do with, they're out there trying to get the best horses for their groups regardless of who they are by."

The advanced mental and physical capacity of the young horses is a big reason as to why the two-year-olds trialling today have made it this far so early in the season, but Diamond admits there is still a long way to go before these horses confirm their ability.

"They all mature at different points and trainers know when they're right, when they should go and when they shouldn't. Basically, G1G Racing and Breeding stays out of it to let the experts do what they do best," he said.

"With James and his horses, he keeps us up to date - and so does Henry - with what they're doing."

Diamond has owned enough horses to know not to get carried away by early September "talk" but remains hopeful of a strong showing today.

"At this time of the year, if you talk to trainers they've all got champions in the stables and they've all got Group 1 winners and Slipper winners," he said.

"And that might be an exaggeration, but ... in the next four to six weeks, those horses come out and tell you whether the hype was justified or not."

There are nine two-year-old barrier trials, to be held following a course proper open company heat over 850 metres headlined by Nature Strip (Nicconi). The first heat is set to jump at 9am.

AUSTRALIA

Anders ruled out of Moir

Short-priced pre-post A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) favourite Anders (Not A Single Doubt) has been ruled out of Friday night's sprint with an elevated temperature. Late yesterday trainers Ciaron Maher and David Eustace confirmed the setback regarding the three-year-old colt, a winner of his four starts in NSW including his past two at stakes level. "Although not of serious nature, it is enough to miss his gallop at Moonee Valley (this morning) and, in turn, the Moir Stakes next Friday night," Ciaron Maher Racing said in a statement. "This is extremely disappointing ... as we felt the Moir was a race to prove his Group 1 ability." The Everest (1200m) and Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) remains on the cards for Anders, in whom Widden Stud purchased a controlling interest last week.

Waller ponders Rose start for Mo'unga

Dulcify Quality (Listed, 1500m) winner Mo'unga (Savabeel) could be a surprise runner in the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) this weekend, with trainer Chris Waller weighing up his options with the Aquis-owned colt. Mo'unga was originally expected to line up in the Gloaming Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) this weekend ahead of the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), but Waller said that the Golden Rose - on the same Rosehill card as the Gloaming Stakes - or even the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) next month could be his next run. "I don't want to lean anyone either way because there is no leaning at this stage but we've got a really good colt and I want to make sure he is ready for whatever we run him in," Waller told News Corp. "It's 33.33 per cent either way and we will decide on Monday morning where we nominate him. Obviously he is a horse that everybody is talking about because he is a fantastic horse and we want to get it right. I have got no doubt he is going to be the horse we are all talking about in the autumn."

Inglis Warwick Farm breeze-ups online

Last Friday's Warwick Farm breeze-ups for the Inglis Ready2Race Sale can now be watched, with the videos uploaded yesterday. The breeze-ups were conducted on the Warwick Farm polytrack, with a Deep Field (Northern Meteor) colt out of Canadian Listed winner Sugar Bay (Syncline) posting a record breeze of 9.95 seconds. That colt, Lot 135, is prepared by Blake Ryan, the largest vendor ahead of this year's sale. Breeze-ups will continue today at Taupo in New Zealand. To see the Warwick Farm breeze-ups, click here.

Golden Pendant farewell for Con Te Partiro

Saturday's Golden Pendant (Gr 2, 1400m) could be the final Australian start for two-time Group 1 winner Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy). The Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) had originally been programmed as her last race before she embarked on an ambitious trip to the Breeders' Cup meeting at Keeneland, where she will end her career before going through the Keeneland sales ring two days later, but trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott are leaning towards the Golden Pendant instead. She is likely to contest the Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 8f), where she could face Godolphin colt Pinatubo (Shamardal), but the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf (Gr 1, 10f) is another alternative.

'Felicia up to Group 1 level'

How Now Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Felicia (Unencumbered) is capable of measuring up against the top fillies and mares later in the season after breaking her stakes maiden on Saturday, according to rider Craig Williams. "She's got really good potential," Williams told Racing.com. "We saw her class at the end of her three-year-old career, it's always hard to know if they do improve but she really has. From now on there's some really good black-type options for a mare in form. I wouldn't be surprised to see her go to the Sangster next year and I also wouldn't be surprised to see her get out to 1400 metres." Felicia is expected to have her next start in the Northwood Plume Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) on Caulfield Guineas day, October 10.

McNeil picks up Caulfield Cup ride

Young gun Jye McNeil will be the man tasked with partnering current Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) favourite Orderofthegarter (Galileo) in the rich feature next month, owner Lloyd Williams announced yesterday. Damien Oliver partnered Orderofthegarter to win the Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) on Saturday, a race that grants ballot exemption for the Caulfield Cup, but the veteran rider is unable to make the light weight, opening the door for McNeil to take his first ride in one of Australia's big four features. Orderofthegarter is currently weighted on 50 kilograms, with Racing Victoria handicapper Greg Carpenter to announce any penalty today.

Vet check to determine Catalyst's future

New Zealand Group 1 winner Catalyst (Darci Brahma) is under a cloud after he pulled up lame when finishing last in Saturday's The Shorts (Gr 2, 1100m). Catalyst, who was having his first start as a four-year-old on Saturday, looked uncomfortable for much of the straight and trainer Clayton Chipperfield hopes that his star gelding can bounce back. However, he must first pass a vet examination. "We've got the vet coming around to do some x-rays to get to the bottom of it," Chipperfield told News Corp yesterday. "At the moment he is the same as he was yesterday. Bossy (Glen Boss) said he felt brilliant going around to the start and was happy with him in the running. He felt if he could sprint he would have been right there in the top three or four but obviously that never happened and when he went to let him go, there was nothing there." Catalyst is being aimed at the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m).

Boulder Cup to Friar Fox

For the first time in two and a half years, Friar Fox (6 m Blackfriars - Pearlesque by Statoblest) scored a stakes win yesterday when she took out the Boulder Cup (Listed, 2105m) at Kalgoorlie. The Justine Erkelens-trained Friar Fox won the Natasha Stakes (Listed, 2200m) at Ascot in March, 2018, and while she won a 64+ handicap at Belmont in June last year, she had not tasted stakes success since. Sent out on the third line of betting at $5, Friar Fox defeated favourite Divine Shadow (Blackfriars) to win by just over a length, with a short half-head back to Major Mambo (War Chant) in third. Purchased for $14,000 by Erkelens from the 2016 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale, Friar Fox has now won $421,205.

Spring ambitions for I Am Invincible filly

Yesterday's Ballarat winner Capriccio (I Am Invincible) is likely to target stakes races in the coming weeks after she broke her maiden at start two yesterday. Sent out as favourite, the Daniel

Bowman-trained Capriccio dictated terms under Declan Bates, holding off the late surge of Ice Ice Baby (Reward For Effort) to win by a neck. "She probably wasn't really ready for the 1200 metres first-up but we had to come here with a bad barrier and a heavy track deterring us from the other races she was nominated in," Bowman told Racing.com. "She doesn't have the raceday experience, she was left out in front and it looked like she just floated late. The plan was to win today and then have a crack at some stronger races in the spring. There's a nice race on Cox Plate day for her and also at Caulfield in a few weeks."

It's Me puts Cavanaugh in spotlight

It's Me

SPORTPIX

Brett Cavanaugh hopes the emergence of talented mare It's Me (Shamus Award) can help boost the depth of his NSW country stable at Scone. It's Me made it three wins in succession with a brilliant performance in the TAB Highway (1000m) at Randwick on Saturday with bookmakers reacting to the victory by firming her into outright favourite for the $1.3 million Kosziusko (1200m). "We've been well supported in the Hunter, training for 24 or 25 farms and hopefully that grows a bit in the next couple of days. I actually sent a text to Harry Mitchell (from Yarraman Park) yesterday and said, 'surely you can send me one to train.' He texted me back saying, 'I don't have any Shamus Awards,'" Cavanaugh told RSN yesterday. "If you want to play basketball you go to the US and if you want to train racehorses, you go to the Hunter Valley because that's where all the stallions are. There's horses laying in the paddock who have got little defects which don't allow them, through x-rays or whatever, to get to the sales."

Earlier start to Moir meeting

The start of the night season at Moonee Valley on Friday night, featuring the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m), will be run earlier with spectators prohibited from attending the meeting. The first of eight races will be run at 5:15pm with the last at 8:45pm; the Moir Stakes will be the seventh race at 8:15pm, with races run at their regular half-hour intervals for night meetings.

NEW ZEALAND

Stakes double for Milan Park

If smiling were an Olympic sport, then Milan Park principal Tony Rider would most likely have had a gold medal hanging around his neck on Saturday evening. Rider was on hand at Hastings to watch two three-year-old fillies he bred and owns assure their future at his Cambridge-based breeding operation once their racing days are over with comprehensive victories in their respective black-type events on the day. Shezzacatch (Savabeel) took the Sir Colin Meads Trophy (Listed, 1200m) at her first start before Miss Aotearoa (Per Incanto) scored in the Gold Trail Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). "Guy (Lowry, co-trainer) had told me Shezzacatch had a lot of ability but was very green," Rider said. "He said he didn't know if she would get around the corners but he thought she was a good horse. He actually told me six weeks ago that I should put the filly on a plane to Australia as she would be one of the best horses he had had since Savvy Dreams and deserved her chance over there. He felt she would be very competitive over there but I said to him I wanted to win black-type with her here at home before we considered a move like that. With Miss Aotearoa, Jamie (Richards) was very bullish about her chances and I know he is keen to get her to the 1000 Guineas. I don't know his future plans for her, but on her breeding, I would think she could be an Oaks type of filly, as I can't see why she couldn't get out to a distance, but that will be Jamie's call."

Beaten brigade to press on to Windsor Park Plate

Saturday's Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) may have been won by longshot Callsign Mav (Atlante), but for those in behind, there was plenty to take away from the race heading towards the second and third legs of the Hawke's Bay Triple Crown, the Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m). Runner-up Supera (Savabeel) will progress to both races, as will fourth-placed Jennifer Eccles (Rip Van Winkle) and Vancooga (Proisir), the latter recording the fastest final sectional of the contest. For trainer Jamie Richards, he was left to rue a gate issue with favourite Advantage (Fastnet Rock), who finished third. "She was a little bit fractious in the barrier and missed the start by a length or two which you just can't do against quality opposition in these big Group 1s," Richards said. "We've got a little bit of work to do but we can definitely fix that. She ended up in a good spot but had to come three and four deep to make her run which took its toll. Everything considered it was a very good run and a mile in two weeks should suit her nicely."

Trelawney's patience rewarded with Vamos Bebe

Vamos Bebe (I Am Invincible) made it consecutive wins on Saturday with victory over 1200 metres at Hastings, following a clear-cut maiden victory over the same distance at Avondale earlier in the month. Raced by Brent and Cherry Taylor of Trelawney Stud, the well-bred mare - out of Group 1 winner Hurtle Myrtle (Dane Shadow), making her a sister to Ming Dynasty Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) winner Holyfield - showed good acceleration to win for Danielle Johnson and looks a potential black-type prospect. "She's a lovely mare that we've had to take along quietly because she's had a few little issues," trainer Jamie Richards said. "But thank you to Brent and Cherry for entrusting her with us and giving her the time that she's needed. She's got a lovely pedigree and hopefully it's all in front of her."

Seven wins across three countries for Te Akau

Probabeel

SPORTPIX

It was another proud day for Te Akau Racing principal David Ellis as the multi-faceted operation recorded seven wins in the space of seven hours in three different countries on Saturday. Last season's champion trainer Jamie Richards saddled Vamos Bebe (I Am Invincible), Miss Aotearoa (Per Incanto) and Savy Yong Blonk (Savabeel) to win at Hastings, while Probabeel (Savabeel) won at Randwick, and in Singapore Te Akau's champion trainer Mark Walker notched wins with Brutus (Rubick), I Am Sacred (I Am Invincible), and Hidden Promise (Postponed) at Kranji. "It was incredible, really, and I'm not sure if that would ever have been done before," Ellis said. "It was a great day and a reflection of the quality of horses we're training and the dedication of the staff. Both Jamie and Mark won the training premiership last year and they're in front again this season. It's not easy to achieve these sorts of results and it makes both Karyn and I very proud."

Railway aim for New York Jazz

Trainer Stephen Ralph knows it is a big step up from an open handicap win at Ruakaka to the Sistema Railway (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day but he is confident he has the horse that can take that leap in versatile customer New York Jazz (Niagara). Ralph has tasted victory in Ellerslie's elite sprint having taken out the 2019 Railway with outsider Santa Monica (Per Incanto) and believes New York Jazz has a similar profile to that of his more illustrious stablemate at a similar stage in his career. "We have a lot of confidence in this horse and we think he has the ability to compete in some better races," Ralph said. "He is lightly raced for a five-year-old and only had his first start not much more than a year ago. He has won five races now but he's been pretty unlucky on more than one occasion and his sectional times compare well with the better horses. He's very similar to Santa Monica at the same stage of his career and once she made it into those bigger races, she won a Railway and was right there against the best."

ASIA

Ria Amelia takes Rose Stakes

Blueblood Ria Amelia (3 f Deep Impact - Ria Antonia by Rockport Harbor) returned to form at her autumn reappearance yesterday, taking out the Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Chukyo, a traditional lead-up to next month's Shuka Sho (Gr 1, 2000m). Given a terrific pace-stalking ride by Yuga Kawada, the Mitsumasa Nakauchida-prepared Ria Amelia - a daughter of the legendary Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' winner Ria Antonia (Rockport Harbor) - kicked clear to win by two lengths over longshot Musica (Epiphaneia), with Oh My Darling (Deep Impact) and Des Ailes (Deep Impact) charging home for third and fourth. It was a second stakes win for Ria Amelia, who won the Artemis Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) as a two-year-old but had disappointed in the first two legs of the Japanese Triple Tiara. Ria Amelia joined a sterling Rose Stakes honour roll that includes Daiwa Scarlet (Agnes Tachyon), Gentildonna (Deep Impact) and Nuovo Record (Heart's Cry) among others.

INTERNATIONAL

89 for Galileo

Magic Attitude (3 f ex Margot Did by Exceed And Excel) became Galileo's 89th individual Group 1 winner when taking out the Belmont Oaks (Gr 1, 10f) on her USA debut, comfortably defeating Antoinette (Hard Spun) by two and a quarter lengths, with the same distance back to Neige Blanche (Anodin) in third. Magic Attitude is the second foal to race from Group 1-winning dam Margot Did (Exceed And Excel), who was victorious in the Nunthorpe Stakes (Gr 1, 5f) at York in 2011, and a sister to French Group

2 winner Mission Impassible, who also ran second in the QEII Challenge Cup Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) at Keeneland. Eleven-time Champion Sire Galileo (Sadler's Wells) stands for a private fee at Coolmore Stud in Ireland.

15 for Australia

Coolmore stallion Australia (Galileo) sired his 15th individual stakes winner when Epona Plays (3 f ex New Plays by Oratorio) landed the Denny Cordell Lavarack & Lanwades Stud Fillies Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 1.5f) at Gowran Park by a cosy-looking neck from Etnaya (Siyouni), with Cerro Bayo (Dansili) over five lengths further back in third. Owned and bred by Renzo Forni, Epona Plays is a half-sister to connections' Athasi Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) winner Dolce Strega (Zoffany) and Stakes performer Bumbasina (Canford Cliffs). Australia stands at Coolmore Stud in Ireland for €27,500 (approx. AUD$44,500).

69 for Awesome Again

There was a 69th individual stakes winner for Awesome Again (Deputy Minister) at Woodbine in Canada on Saturday when Count Again (5 g ex Count To Three by Red Ransom) took out the Singpiel Stakes (Gr 3, 1m1f), defeating Sir Sahib (Fort Larned) and Say The Word (More Than Ready). Count Again is a half brother to dual Bing Crosby Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Ransom The Moon (Malibu Moon). Awesome Again retired from stud duties in 2019.

Starship Jubilee shines in Woodbine Mile

Canadian Horse of the Year Starship Jubilee (Indy Wind) further enhanced her reputation by beating the boys in the Ricoh Woodbine Mile (Gr 1, 8f) at Woodbine. The seven-year-old was the oldest horse and only female in a field of eight for the Woodbine Mile, with 2019 Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9.5f) winner War of Will (War Front) sent off as the 2-1 favorite. However, the Kevin Attard trainee held off the game rally of multiple graded stakes winner March To The Arch (Arch) while securing her second Grade 1 win. Indy Wind (A P Indy) stands at Ohio Stallions for $2,000 (approx. AUD$2,700) in 2020.

Keeneland September Sale reaches midpoint

Keeneland marked the halfway point in its 12-day September Yearling Sale with yesterday's session highlighted by the sale of a colt from the first crop of Unified (Candy Ride) for US$450,000 to Three Amigos. Consigned by Four Star Sales, agent, the colt is out of Fay Na Na, by Majestic Warrior, and from the family of Grade 1 winner Klimt (Quality Road). Keeneland sold 239 horses on Saturday for US$18,364,200, for an average of US$76,838 and a median of US$52,000. Cumulative sales for the auction, which began September 13, are US$200,750,700 for 1,028 horses, for an average of US$195,283 and a median of US$130,000. The day's second-highest price was US$410,000 spent by Maverick Racing to acquire a colt by Violence from the consignment of Hidden Brook, agent. He is out of the stakes-placed City Zip mare Brinkley, a half-sister to Grade 2 winner Bound for Nowhere (The Factor). The colt also is from the family of champion Midnight Lute (Real Quiet).

Duca Di Como dominant at Bro Park

Duca Di Como (Clodovil) once again demonstrated his star quality when taking the Nickes Minneslopning (Listed, 1600m) at Bro Park in Sweden. The Catherine Erichsen-trained grey was sent off as red hot favourite and didn't disappoint, taking victory from Jazz Explosion (Red Jazz) and Red Hot Chili (Eishin Dunkirk), making all to win by at least ten lengths in a canter. This latest success took his record to eight wins from twelve starts, seven of those coming at stakes level. One of the most popular horses in training in Sweden, Duca Di Como may be aimed at some international targets in the coming months, according to his trainer.

19 for Sepoy

Sepoy (Elusive Quality) sired his 19th individual stakes winner yesterday when Leopoldina (3 fex Lady's Art by Verglas) landed the Grosser Preis der Burckhardt Metall Glas (Listed, 1600m) at Hannover in Germany, defeating Lips Eagle (Gleneagles) and Nona (Pastorius). Leopoldina is the fourth foal to race out of Lady's Art, and a half sister to dual winner Lola's Theme (Iffraaj). She was a 15,000gns purchase for Gestut Idee at the 2017 Tattersalls December Foal Sale. Sepoy stands at Darley's Northwood Stud in Victoria for $7,700 in 2020.

Quian takes German St Leger

Quian (Mastercraftsman) came out on top after an extended battle with favourite Sommelier (Soldier Hollow) with Rip Van Lips (Rip Van Winkle) flashing home for third in the 136th Deutsches St Leger (Gr 3, 2800m), run for the 70th time at Dortmund. It was a fifth win in the race for trainer Peter Schiergen. This was Quian's second win at stakes level; he is the third foal of his dam, Quiana (Monsun), and a half-brother to French 1m4f winner Quibello. Quiana is a half-sister to triple 1m4f Group 1 winner Quijano (Acatenango) out of German 6f 2yo winner from the family of Authorized (Montjeu), Solemia (Poliglote) and The Gurkha (Galileo).

Moreira strikes 'Magic' six-timer at Sha Tin

BY DECLAN SCHUSTER | HKJC_RACING

Joao Moreira's brilliant best was on show yesterday at Sha Tin as he collected a superb six-timer which he capped with victory aboard the impressive Excellent Proposal (Exceed And Excel).

"I just hope that I can keep it up - it's not going to be an easy season," Moreira said.

Fresh off a Wednesday treble, Moreira brought his dazzling midweek form to Sha Tin but he took it up a few notches, three to be exact as he won six out of the ten races on today's card.

Despite leading the premiership table by six (with 14 wins), the 'Magic Man' was quick to quash any title talks though he does have one target in mind: December's Hong Kong International Races.

"It's just the beginning of the season, we have so much to look forward to and I don't want to put the premiership in my mind - I want to concentrate on these good horses and hopefully I am on board some nice ones when we get closer to December," Moreira said.

Now in his eighth season, Moreira has excelled with 959 Hong Kong wins to his name and is fourth on the all-time list. His 152 winners this season and last includes 15 trebles, three four-timers, three five-timers and one six-timer - which he took today.

His headline-making exploits on the track have also seen him bag an extraordinary eight wins in a day - a Hong Kong record - at Sha Tin on March 5, 2017. He's also ridden eight at single meetings in Singapore and his native Brazil.

Today the 36-year-old sealed his superb six aboard the John Size-trained Excellent Proposal in the Class 2 Cheung Shan Handicap (1600m) and the four-year-old did so in style, issuing a warning to those on a Four-Year-Old Classic Series trail.

"Only good horses can do what he's just done, to come from the widest gate and get stuck four-wide and still make it in good fashion," Moreira said.

The four-year-old was caught wide throughout after breaking from gate 14 but Moreira didn't panic, and the rising star responded to his urgings in the straight, coasting to a comfortable one-and-a-half length victory.

"He proved today that he can handle the mile and maybe even further. He seems to be the kind of horse which connections may have to start targeting the Hong Kong Derby with because he's the kind of horse who might run the distance," Moreira said.

While Excellent Proposal took the day's feature, it was in race six when Moreira turned miracle worker, taking section one of the Class 4 Shek Lei Handicap (1200m) from an improbable position aboard Scores Of Fun (Reward For Effort), who was badly strung up in the straight.

"I was hopeful I would get through - he's a promising horse," Moreira said. "We got held up in the home straight and I had to go for two gaps and the only one that came through was the second one and that proves that he has got heart - he came in between horses and got the job done."

The Size trainee settled midfield on the rail and in the home straight had to duck and weave for an opening, which Moreira found at the 200 metre mark between a weakening Inno Legend (Nicconi) and Happily Friends (Requinto).

"It's a great training achievement, no doubt that the time off that John gave him he needed and it paid off today," Moreira said.

The Australian-bred PPG (Privately Purchased Griffin) extended his unbeaten record to two after his debut win at the tail-end of last season and was the first of a double on the card for 11-time champion trainer Size.

Moreira's six began on the dirt with Skye Supreme (Henrythenavigator) in the Class 4 Shek Yam Handicap (1650m) which was followed with success aboard a gallant Fabulous Eight (Dream Ahead) in the Class 4 Lei Muk Shue Handicap (1000m).

His fourth for the day came aboard the Frankie Lor-trained Armor Star (Dalghar) in the Class 4 Shek Wai Kok Handicap (1400m), the first of a double for his trainer.

"I thought today that no one could lead and win, the race lacked speed and I spoke to Joao and we discussed that if no one would lead, we would," Lor said.

Moreira also ensured Caspar Fownes' fast start to the new season continued with victory aboard The Rock (Dutch Art) in the Class 3 Kwai Shing Handicap (1400m).

Perfect three for Winning Dreamer

The Lor-trained Winning Dreamer (Deep Field) went to Sha Tin with a perfect record and he departed in the same manner, bringing up a hat-trick in the Class 3 Kwai Fong Handicap (1200m).

Having drawn gate 12, the youngster was up against it but a smart, positive ride from Vincent Ho got the New Zealand-bred across the field and from there he dug deep to nail a tough half-length score.

"Before the race I was a little bit scared, especially having drawn gate 12 for such a young horse," Lor said of the horse eligible for this season's Four-Year-Old Classic Series, should his trainer opt to direct him there.

"1400 metres should be no problem, but 1600 metres, well, we need to find out later," Lor said.

"He can relax, even in front, there were horses next to me and he still settled very well, he's actually a lot more relaxed at the races than at trackwork, he's quite nervous in the mornings," Ho said.

"He gave me a nice sprint and stayed on well in the finish," Ho said.

Winning Dreamer remains unbeaten

Callan gets on the board, Yiu takes two

Irishman Neil Callan secured his first win for season 2020-21 aboard the Ricky Yiu-trained Excellent Chariot (Jimmy Choux) in the second section of the Class 4 Shek Lei Handicap (1200m) which gave the reigning champion handler a double.

"Everyone just wants to get the first winner out of the way - I've been here long enough not to be panicking," Callan said. "I've been riding some nice races and I've been riding some nice horses but most of them just have not been ready."

The gelding broke cleanly to settle midfield before pouncing to the front at the 200-metre mark for a one-and-a-quarter length win.

"I think he looked like a versatile type when he was trialling last season, so I asked Ricky (Yiu) if I could I get on him this year and he stayed true to his word and let me do a little bit of work on him early.

"His trial was very good behind Thanks

Forever and Ka Ying Star and I knew that in the trial he gave me a nice comfortable feel, so I went in today very confident that he could win and I think he should be able to go on an upward curve," Callan said.

Today's win was Callan's 256th in Hong Kong and he suggested the four-year-old New Zealand-bred has a bright future ahead.

Trainer Chris So's solid start to the season continued as Tianchi Monster (Shocking) took the Lai King Handicap (1600m) under Vagner Borges.

"He ran well at his first run last year - he was only beaten by a little bit in Class 2 but now he's in Class 3 and even his first-up run was very good - the small field helped a lot today," So said.

Dylan Mo and Michael Chang bagged their first wins for the season after Charitydream made all on dirt in the Class 5 Tai Wo Hau Handicap (1650m).

Hong Kong racing continues at Happy Valley on Wednesday.

Analysis: Friar Fox followed her good second in the Coolgardie Cup (1760m) on September 6 with a smart win here, her second stakes victory and her seventh win from 28 starts. She travelled nicely in fifth place on the rails, tracking a solid pace, before improving coming to the turn. She found a gap on straightening and then finished gamely over the closing stages to score a good win. Divine Shadow settled just beyond midfield on the rails, switched deeper on turning for home and then came with a late run to claim second in a photo from the outsider Major Mambo who ran a bold race in the lead, only being caught nearing the post for third.
