Magic Millions extends Gold Coast sale to seven days

Afternoon session to open January auction to cater for bigger yearling catalogue in 2021

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Magic Millions, which sets the benchmarks and market sentiment for the Australasian sales series each year, will conduct an expanded seven-day Gold Coast yearling sale in January as the company attempts to strike a balance between vendor and buyer demand.

The auction house yesterday announced that its 2021 showcase sale will have 1273 yearlings catalogued - 962 lots in Book 1 and 311 in Book 2 - with two sessions added to the schedule to accommodate the additional horses.

The Gold Coast sale will now start on Tuesday, January 12, with an afternoon session followed by three more full days of selling and the Saturday night auction bringing an end to the Book 1 catalogue. Continued on page 2>>

<< Continued from page 1 The Book 2 sale, to start at 2pm on the Sunday and three hours later than the corresponding session this year, will conclude on Monday, January 18, and incorporate a small Book 3 yearling and racehorse sale which has been brought forward by a day.

Importantly, the January 12 Surfers Paradise beachside barrier draw for the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m), which generates much interest and fanfare from racegoers and connections, will still take place, with the opening Book 1 sale session to start at midday to allow people to return to the complex before Lot 1 enters the ring.

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch cited client demand and customer comfort as one of the reasons behind the scheduling reshuffle.

“The increases to Book 1 are subtle. The numbers haven’t increased by much, but the length of the days are shortened,” Bowditch said yesterday.

“Selling was getting into the evening the past couple of years, so we thought by dropping an hour off each day and adding a few more yearlings into the catalogue would give us a reason to start on Tuesday.

“That way, it gives our buyers, vendors and visitors reason to come and enjoy the sale, an opportunity to look at a few more horses, but also to enjoy their time up on the Gold Coast.”

At this year’s sale, there were 888 lots in Book 1 and 177 yearlings catalogued in Book 2. The catalogue for the 2021 Magic Millions sale is expected to be released soon.

The idea of an expanded January sale had been floated earlier this year by some connected to Magic Millions as it became apparent the effect of the coronavirus pandemic would be long-lasting and would have ramifications for the 2021 sales series.

Magic Millions has vowed to adhere to all Covid-19 restrictions which are in place come January, but Bowditch can “see light at the end of the tunnel”.

“SELLING WAS GETTING INTO THE EVENING THE PAST COUPLE OF YEARS, SO WE THOUGHT BY DROPPING AN HOUR OFF EACH DAY AND ADDING A FEW MORE YEARLINGS INTO THE CATALOGUE WOULD GIVE US A REASON TO START ON TUESDAY - BARRY BOWDITCH

“Obviously we still have a little way to go, but we’re excited about the catalogue and we’re excited that we’ve got a huge race day,” he said.

To get people up here and create that vibe is something that we are very much looking forward to.”

One casualty of the rescheduling is the loss of the Magic Millions Polo, which has been postponed until 2022.

Sister to Solar Charged put on market

A full sister to the dam of Sunlight (Zoustar) is among the standout lots offered in Inglis Digital's November (Early) Online Sale, for which bidding has now opened. Soul Mama (Charge Forward), a winner over 1000 metres and the dam of multiple Hong Kong winner Hercules (Medaglia d'Oro), is offered by River Junction with a Better Than Ready (More Than Ready) colt at foot, that was born just 12 days ago. She is out of Danehill (Danzig) mare Soul Singer and is a sister to multiple two-year-old stakes winner Solar Charged (Charge Forward), the dam of triple Group 1 winner Sunlight, who recently sold for $4.2 million as a broodmare, as well as Sisstar (Zoustar) and stakes-placed juvenile Sheikha (Sebring). In total, 153 lots have been catalogued in the November (Early) Online Sale - 91 racehorses, 32 broodmares, 13 yearlings, 13 racehorse shares and four unbroken stock. Bidding closes from 3pm (AEDT) this coming Wednesday, November 11. To view the catalogue, register to bid or bid, click here

Australian, NZ Horses of the Year headline Flemington card

Today's Group 1 events at Flemington will feature reigning Horses of the Year from both sides of the Tasman with Nature Strip (Nicconi) to defend his title in the Darley Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m) while Melody Belle (Commands) will attempt to go one better in the Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). The last time the reigning Australian and New Zealand Horses of the Year stepped out on the same card was Cox Plate day in 2011 when Kiwi champion Jimmy Choux (Thorn Park) finished second in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) while his Aussie counterpart Black Caviar (Bel Esprit) won the Moir Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

Mugatoo made for Mackinnon

In a campaign that has stamped him as one of the country's premier middle-distance horses, Mugatoo (Henrythenavigator) will look to sign off with a Group 1 victory on the final day of the Flemington carnival. The Australian Bloodstock-owned import momentarily looked a chance in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) when he loomed on the corner before Sir Dragonet (Camelot) burst through the pack. He finished fourth and trainer Kris Lees says it might have been a different result had Mugatoo enjoyed a more economical run. "He'd have been right in the finish I think," Lees said. "As much as I could see he was still in the race I was expecting him to blow out late with the run he'd had, but he was very brave in defeat."

Dalasan looks for Group 1 breakthrough

Dalasan (Dalakhani) will once again go in pursuit of an elusive elite level victory when he takes his chance in today's Mackinnon Stakes. The five-year-old was last seen finishing down the field in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) when he had a luckless run. "He never had any luck at Caulfield being wide for the trip and Pikey (Willie Pike), who rode him that day, said he wished he could have given him a better run," Leon Macdonald, who trains the seven-time winner in partnership with Andrew Gluyas, told Racing.com. "However, having said that, we both agreed that maybe the 2400 metres is right on his limit. The horse has done well since Caulfield, he actually lightened off a fraction after that run, but I'm pleased to report he has put that condition back on. His work has not been brilliant but that's just him because he's notoriously just a fair track worker. Dalasan's overall Flemington form is very good and from gate two with Jamie Kah aboard I doubt he is going to have too many excuses."

Bivouac primed for Darley

James Cummings reports Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) to be in fine shape ahead of his run in today's VRC Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m). The four-year-old returns to Flemington having beaten all bar Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) in The Everest (1200m) on his most recent outing and Cummings is predicting another bold show. "He's come through The Everest in sparkling shape and that contest is the benchmark for spring sprint form," the Godolphin trainer told Racing.com. "We've kept him up to his training at Osborne Park to keep him sharp and focused. He looks exceptional and we're confident he's tuned up for a peak performance."

Santa set for spring swansong

Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega) is another heading to the Sprint Classic off the back of The Everest for what is likely to be the eight-year-old's final run this preparation. "It's a good race but it's a race where you wouldn't know who could win it," Anthony Freedman, who trains the five-time Group 1 winner in partnership with his son Sam, told Racing.com. "He is not a horse you can be bullish about because he needs the race shape to go his way and that's just the race style he's got; it lends itself to being unlucky or to things going wrong more often than not. Luckily we have had things go right five times in Group 1s so hopefully it can happen again. We're just taking it race by race. He doesn't owe us anything, so we just want to do the right thing by him."

O'Brien to cap another fruitful Cup Carnival

The Joseph O'Brien team will attempt to plunder more spring carnival spoils before heading home to Ireland when Pondus (Sea The Moon) lines up in today's Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m) at Flemington, four days after Twilight Payment's (Teofilo) famous Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) win. "It has been unbelievable. To finish it off with another winner on Saturday would be fantastic," Mark Power, O'Brien's travelling foreman said. Pondus made his Australian debut in the Bendigo Cup (Gr 3, 2400m), striking interference early in the race when rival Super Girl (So You Think) broke down before he flashed home for second to Princess Jenni (High Chaparral). Power is happy with how Pondus has trained on since that luckless performance and expects the Listed winner to take benefit from the outing. "The incident that happened around that first bend, it was very unfortunate and it probably cost us a few lengths as well, so he was probably an unlucky horse from Bendigo," Power said. "He strips a little fitter for the run and his work has been good since."

True Self looking to find true self

Pondus isn't the only Irish-trained runner who will be lining up in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes, as last year's winner True Self (Oscar) will be attempting to defend her title having narrowly missed out on making the final field for the Melbourne Cup for the second successive year. "She won the race last year. So we are hopeful of a good run," David Casey, who has been overseeing preparations for the Willie Mullins-trained eight-year-old since she arrived in Australia, told Racing.com. True Self finished well down the field in the Caulfield Cup on her most recent run, but Casey expects her to have come on for that start. "A couple bits of work she has done since has really impressed me," the former jump jockey continued. "She was very good this week and freshened up good. I'd be hopeful. She's in very good form."

Blessing in disguise for Le Don De Vie

Le Don De Vie (Leroidesanimaux) is another who heads to the Queen Elizabeth having failed to get a run in the Melbourne Cup, although connections believe that may end up being to his benefit. "Plan A was the Melbourne Cup but we were probably always mindful we weren't going to get a run, particularly once we ran second in the Geelong Cup, so we set our sights on this and it looks like a really nice race for him," co-trainer Sam Freedman told Racing.com. "It may end up being a blessing in disguise given the horse's maturity. He's probably not seasoned enough for that sort of experience, but he is fit and ready for a 2600 metres at Flemington Saturday."

Ballarat contenders for Matriarch

Matt Cumani is concerned about the presence of another pair of Ballarat-trained rivals when his One More Try (Dane Shadow) takes her chance in today's Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Flemington. The five-time winner will face the Archie Alexander-trained Chaillot (Testa Rossa) and Dan O'Sullivan's Affair To Remember (Toronado) as she chases a first win in almost two years, and they are the two opponents Cumani fears as the mare aims to end her losing run. "I was hoping Chaillot wouldn't go to be honest," the trainer told

Racing.com. "I thought she might skip. But those two are both exceptional fillies. I'm scared of them, to be honest, but we are not running away from them. We will give it a go and one of us will hopefully win."

Moore upbeat about Hodgson

Gary Moore is also bullish about his two-year-old Hodgson (Hinchinbrook) in the $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) at Rosehill. The two-year-old colt was a touch unlucky when finishing fifth to Captivant (Capitalist) in the Victory Vein (1000m) at Randwick on October 17 and Moore doesn't see why he can't take the next step. "It was an enormous run first up," Moore said. "He got baulked at the 500 metres, went wide, and finished strongly to only get beaten three-and-a-half lengths. He's got a gun draw on Saturday and I don't think the going will affect him. I think he'll run a really big race."

Shadow set for Classic

Brett Thompson is confident Amy's Shadow (Dane Shadow) will handle the rise in class and distance when she tackles the $125,000 Country Classic (2000m) at Rosehill. The five-time premier NSW central districts trainer believes his lightly raced grey is ready for a crack at the 2000-metre distance and he has no concerns about the mare handling the rain-affected going today. "We always thought she could gallop and we've wanted to get her over a bit more ground," Thompson said. "She's been very progressive this preparation. Every time we step her out, she steps up. She's a lightly built mare who floats over the ground and she's been on the heavy before."

Summer staying events for Honour

He didn't quite measure up to the best of his generation in the autumn but Chains Of Honour (Redoute's Choice) will be given the chance to make his presence felt in the off-season stakes races. The four-year-old was midfield in both the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) and ATC Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) after claiming the Grand Prix Stakes (Gr 3, 2206m) in Brisbane last summer. He resumes in the Kia Handicap (1800m) at Rosehill today with his trainer

Gerald Ryan optimistic the gelding is set for a fruitful preparation. "We got him back in at this time of the year to aim him at those summer staying races," Ryan said. "He is a lot more mature and a lot stronger than what he was in the autumn. If you look at all the trials he's had in his life and you look at his two trials this time in, they've probably been his best trials. I know he's starting off over a long journey first up but he won his first start ever as a two-year-old over 1600 metres. He won first-up this time last year over 1800 metres at Hawkesbury then went straight to 2200 metres in the Grand Prix."

Jack of all trades McGregor targets Rosehill

Adrian McGregor will attempt to build on his already impressive strike rate when the Cranbourne-based horseman saddles Approach Discreet (Dawn Approach) in the opening race at Rosehill. Purchased through an online auction for "a little bit over 10 grand" the five-year-old has more than paid his way for connections. He has managed two wins and three placings from just six starts for the stable, accumulating $75,000 in earnings. "I was looking to buy a couple of tried horses just to get going again and he popped up," McGregor said. "It helps when you find a handy one. If only it was that easy all the time." The wet weather in Sydney doesn't worry McGregor with the gelding having had eight runs on rain-affected going for three victories and four placings. "I actually sent him up there for the soft tracks," the former assistant to Colin Alderson and Jason Warren said. "With all the wet weather in Sydney and being a Benchmark 78, I thought it suited him down to the ground."

Isotope returns ahead of Millions tilt

Tony Gollan is hoping Isotope's (Deep Field) class edge will be enough to overcome a wide alley and top weight in her Magic Millions campaign opener at Doomben. Isotope has the dual burdens of 59 kilograms and the outside barrier in the eight-horse field for the Nat McCall Racing Handicap (1050m) but Gollan believes she can overcome those negative factors. "I don't like wide draws at the 1050 metres but I like it when I think I've got the best horse in the race and I think that's what I have on Saturday," Gollan said. "We'll be nice and positive from our gate and I suspect she'll find a spot in the first two pairs. If she does that she's going to be awfully hard to beat." Isotope has impressed Gollan with her performances in two barrier trials and a jump out in preparation for her comeback to racing. "We've got a nice long summer ahead, hopefully culminating in the Magic Millions Guineas and we've got plenty of time to get ready for that grand final," he said.

Russian Camelot won't see two miles again

A second attempt at the Melbourne Cup does not figure in long term plans for Russian Camelot (Camelot) following his eighth-placed finish on Tuesday. "He will never run a 3200-metre race again," his trainer Danny O'Brien told Racing.com yesterday. "I think he ran as good as he could, but he didn't quite stay the strong two miles as it was on the day. He gave us everything he had and he came up short."

Heywood injured in Albury fall

Nick Heywood was yesterday taken to hospital for further examinations after being dislodged from his mount Barramundi Lad (Lucas Cranach) in the opening race at Albury. Heywood, who lost consciousness for a brief period, was reported to have sustained shoulder and rib injuries, which possibly require surgery.

NEW ZEALAND

Siblings to clash

Siblings Wekaforce (Showcasing) and Morweka will face off when the pair take aim at today's Pegasus Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Riccarton. The pair are both trained by Terri Rae for passionate syndicates that race under the banner of the Galloping Wekas, a group of lease owners put together by Les and Janine Wallace. Both Morweka and Wekaforce are out of Spera (Country Reel), who the Wallaces bred but leased to John Sargent, for whom she won four races and finished fourth in the Doomben Roses (Gr 3, 2020m) and fifth in the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). Wekaforce has been installed the $3.20 favourite for the 1000-metre contest and has been aided by a good draw (barrier three), while older sister Morweka is drawn alongside in barrier two and is a $9 prospect in a race that features proven Group performers Sensei (Dream Ahead) and Kiwi Ida (Squamosa). "The word from Terri is that they are both very fit and well. They will run their own races and have good jockeys on with Lisa (Allpress) riding Wekaforce and Matt (Cameron) on Morweka," Janine Wallace said. "We never imagined these fillies would be racing against each other. It wasn't planned but we have to treat them like individuals and give them the best opportunities. They have drawn alongside each other which is funny because they are usually in the stalls beside each other and in the paddock together."

Weatherley to make Riccarton impact

Sam Weatherley is making the most of his opportunities at present and heads to Riccarton today full of confidence. The 21-year-old has ridden a double at each of Awapuni, Te Rapa and Hastings on the past three Saturdays and hopes to continue that winning streak this weekend. "Things are going really well at the moment, but with the way racing is, you've got to keep the momentum up as it can all change within a heartbeat," Weatherley said. The Matamata hoop has a nice book of rides in Christchurch and has picked up the mount on the Stephen Marsh-trained Bourbonaire (Darci Brahma) in the Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). "I haven't had a sit on him but I've seen his races and seen what he's done and he has really impressed me," Weatherley said. "He all but won the Hawke's Bay Guineas and last start he chased home what will be the favourite on Saturday in Need I Say More. It looks like he'll run a strong mile so he's got that in his favour. We've got a tricky draw (11) but we should follow Need I Say More across and hopefully he can dictate from up front and we'll see who runs the stronger mile. Stephen seemed pretty happy with him when he talked to me yesterday and he's got the form on the board."

Synthetic track to be built at Riccarton

Preparations for construction of New Zealand's second synthetic track will begin at Riccarton Park Racecourse on November 30. The board of the Canterbury Jockey Club (CJC), the trustees of the Christchurch Racecourse and New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR) announced yesterday that work on the track would commence following the New Zealand Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) meeting. In May the government approved $20 million from the Provincial Growth Fund to construct two new synthetic tracks, one at Awapuni and the other at Riccarton Park. Following discussions between NZTR and the CJC, arrangements have now been finalised to allow construction to begin, with the new track expected to be operational by the start of August next year.

HK: Patient O'Sullivan hopes Chicken can Dance around the Valley

Hong Kong racing heads to Happy Valley tomorrow for the city circuit's sole daytime fixture this season and trainer Paul O'Sullivan is optimistic that his patience might be rewarded with Chicken Dance (Hinchinbrook) in the Class 3 Gloucester Handicap (1200m). The lightly raced five-year-old was one of Hong Kong's exciting young guns, winning back-to-back races as a four-year-old, but his career stalled when he injured a tendon last year, forcing an 11-month stint on the sidelines. "I don't know if he's come back quite as good, he's not attacking the line as well as I'd like but he's had nearly a year off, so he might take three or four runs before he really comes back to it," O'Sullivan said. "I'm hoping that there is a little bit more give in the ground and that he'll attack the line a little bit better this time; he's trialled around there, it's a day time meeting and he has a good gate so there shouldn't be too many excuses."

INTERNATIONAL

12 for Belardo

Haunui Farm shuttler Belardo (Lope De Vega) sired his 12th individual winner when Gold Family (2 f ex Modern Family by Excellent Art) made a successful debut over 1300 metres at Chantilly yesterday. The newcomer edged out We Get By (Brazen Beau) by a neck, with Allez Burrows (Goken) another length and three-quarters away in third. Belardo, who has sired Group winner Isabella Giles, Lullaby Moon and Elysium in the northern hemisphere, stands this season for $10,000 (+GST).

Ten for Bobby's Kitten

Former Twin Hills Stud shuttler Bobby's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) sired his tenth individual winner when Illustrator (2 c ex Amelia May by Dansili) took out a seven-furlong novice event on Newcastle's floodlit card on Friday evening. The James Tate-trained juvenile just edged out Super Over (Pearl Secret) by a short head, with Night Force (Dark Angel) four and a quarter lengths away in third. Bobby's Kitten now permanently resides at Lanwades Stud in England, where he stood for a fee of £8,000 (approx AUD$14,500) in 2020.

Five for Anodin

Haras du Quesnay resident Anodin (Anabaa) sired his fifth individual stakes winner when Hayzum (3 f ex Sheema by Teofilo) posted a well deserved victory in yesterday's Grand Prix du Nord (Listed, 2000m) at Chantilly. Having twice finished second in similar grade recently, the Elias Mikhalides-trained Group 1 performer was winning for the third time in nine starts when beating Shalamba (Zoffany) by five and a half lengths. Now We Know (Kendargent) was a neck further back in third. Anodin stood for a fee of €12,000 (approx. AUD$19,625) in 2020.

FR: Arqana breeding stock catalogue released

Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 12f) runner and Group 1 winner Donjah (Teoflio) is one of the highlights in a high-class catalogue for Arqana's Breeding Stock Sale next month. The four-year-old will bid to add to her Preis von Europa (Gr 1, 2400m) triumph at Keeneland today, facing the likes of Magical (Galileo) and Lord North (Dubawi), but she is also entered for the sale as lot 182 as part of Ecurie des Monceaux's strong consignment. The auction, which takes place from December 5 to 8 and offers a mixture of mares carrying to Europe's leading sires, plus 218 foals, will be restricted to professionals as a result of stricter coronavirus rules. US: Soumillon ruled out of Breeders' Cup after positive Covid-19 test Christophe Soumillon will miss his rides at the Breeders' Cup meeting after twice testing positive for Covid-19. The leading jockey received a positive result from a Covid-19 test that was administered on-site on Wednesday under the Breeders' Cup comprehensive health and safety protocols. A second test was immediately performed which confirmed the initial diagnosis. Among his rides, Soumillon was due to partner the Dermot Weld-trained Tarnawa (Shamardal) in the Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 12f) and Order Of Australia (Australia) for Aidan O'Brien in the Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 1m).

Oleksandra to fly Australian flag at Breeders' Cup

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

Oleksandra (Animal Kingdom), who left Australian shores as a three-start maiden in February, 2018, will join a rare group when she contests the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (Gr 1, 5.5f) at Keeneland tomorrow morning, Australian time.

The American end-of-season championship, the Breeders' Cup - marketed as the "world championships" by its organisers - has not had significant Australian representation since its inception in 1984, primarily due to its proximity to the spring carnival down under as well as logistical difficulties in shipping stateside.

In fact, only two horses have carried the (AUS) suffix in Breeders' Cup history - Strawberry Road (Whiskey Road), fourth to Lashkari (Mill Reef) in the inaugural Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 1m 4f) in 1984 before finding Pebbles (Sharpen Up) a neck too strong a year later, and Starspangledbanner (Choisir), tenth in the Turf Sprint in 2012.

Both were prepared in Europe at the time: Starspangledbanner by Aidan O'Brien, Strawberry Road by John Nicholls in 1984 and Patrick Biancone, who is now American-based but was training from France at the time, in 1985.

Therefore, the Team Valor-owned Oleksandra - prepared by American Hall of Fame trainer Neil Drysdale - will become the first Australian-bred horse to represent a local trainer in a Breeders' Cup race.

Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott were due to become the first Australian-based trainers represented at the meeting with two-time Group 1 winner Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy), but the mare was retired due to niggling issues. She will still be sold at the Keeneland complex on Tuesday morning, Australian time.

By Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) winner Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux) out of globetrotting South African mare Alexandra

Rose (Caesour), Oleksandra began her career with Bjorn Baker at Warwick Farm.

She contested three maidens, placing at Hawkesbury, Randwick and Newcastle in late 2017 before departing for California.

In the United States, she has had 12 starts for seven wins and three placings, with her career highlight coming at her most recent start when she posted a first Grade 1 success in the Jaipur Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Belmont in June. She also finished second in the Monrovia Stakes (Gr 2, 5.5f) at Santa Anita, a race which her dam won in 2008.

However, she emerged from the Jaipur with a fractured left front splint bone and has been in a race against time to make the Breeders' Cup.

"She's doing very well," Drysdale said. "She doesn't need speed because she's very fast. She worked in company behind another horse and started a half dozen lengths back and finished well.

"She's won down there (at Keeneland) and if it comes up a bit soft she doesn't mind."

The American morning line has Oleksandra rated as a 12-1 chance with Joel Rosario to take the ride. The race is scheduled to jump at 4:39am AEDT tomorrow morning.

Alexandra Rose produced a year-younger brother to Oleksandra, Macedonian Ruler, who was placed in two starts at Pakenham for Lindsay Park before also heading to the United States. Also trained by Drysdale, he finished eighth in a maiden at Santa Anita in June before filling the same spot in an allowance at Del Mar in August.

Since then, she has had only one further named foal, also by Animal Kingdom. The two-year-old, named Prince Alexander, is in training with his namesake Archie Alexander.

In August, Alexandra Rose produced a filly by Coolmore's Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy), while she was served by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) in late September.

Breeding barn beckons for Oleksandra?

Like Con Te Partiro, Oleksandra will go through the Keeneland November Breeding

Stock Sale on Tuesday morning, one of three Australian-bred mares to go through during Session 1. She will be joined by Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Houtzen (I Am Invincible), in foal to Curlin (Smart Strike), and last year's Kewney Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) runner-up Victory Kingdom (Animal Kingdom), who has had one North American campaign for promising stakes efforts at Saratoga and Woodbine.

Other Australian-bred mares to be sold later in the week include unraced Miracles Forever (Medaglia d'Oro), the first foal out of two-time Group 1 winner Miracles Of Life (Not A Single Doubt), in foal to Kantharos (Lion Heart); and stakes victor Scorpio Queen (Choisir), in foal to Mendelssohn.

New Zealand-bred Chintz (Savabeel), winner of the Rich Hill Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) at Ellerslie and the dam of Group 2-winning three-year-old Not An Option (Not A Single Doubt), is another star attraction, also in foal to Curlin.

The Fasig-Tipton November Sale, to be held on Monday morning Australian time, will also feature an Australian-bred mare in the form of Achieved (Street Cry).

The regally-bred mare, a half-sister to late Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Anthony Van Dyck (Galileo) and champion New Zealand sprinter Bounding (Lonhro), may not have the same racetrack exploits as her siblings, having finished fifth in two maidens at Wyong and Gulargambone.

However, she comes from one of the most sought-after families on the world stage and she is in foal to American Pharoah (Pioneerof The Nile).

Australian links at the Breeders' Cup

Oleksandra may be the only horse to carry the Australian tag, but there are a number of other starters with links down under.

This morning's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint (Gr 2, 5.5f) will see the Aidan O'Brien-trained Doncaster Stakes (Listed, 6f) winner Lipizzaner (Uncle Mo) bring the curtain down on a busy two-year-old campaign, having had seven starts before his American outing.

The colt is out of Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Irish Lights (Fastnet Rock), making him a half-brother to Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) runner-up Omei Sword (High Chaparral).

Three races later, former Moonee Valley Racing Club chairman Bob Scarborough will see his famous green, royal blue and yellow colours - carried by the likes of Light Fantastic (Daneshill Dancer), Marble Halls (Nassipour), Sleek Chassis (Flying Spur) and Hit The Roof (Maroof) - sported by Shane Foley aboard the Jessica Harrington-trained Oodnadatta (Australia) in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf (Gr 1, 1m).

The same race will also feature undefeated filly Madone attempting to give her sire, Coolmore's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro), his first Group or Grade 1 winner worldwide.

Tomorrow morning's Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 1m 4f) will see the Emirates Park colours carried by Mehdaayih (Frankel) as she seeks a first Group 1 win.

Goffs planning repeat of online sale following overseas interest

Taramansour heading to Australia as records tumble

BY TOM PEACOCK | RACING POST

So much interest was received in Thursday's success story that was the virtual Goffs Autumn Horses In Training Sale that organisers will adopt the same approach for the Autumn Yearling Sale on November 17-18.

More than 250 people registered for online bidding and two lots surpassed the top price from last year's physical event. Goffs group chief executive Henry Beeby reported that 944 bids were placed online from 12 different countries, with 56 horses selling through the online platform and another six by telephone bidding.

Paso Doble (Dawn Approach) led the way at €125,000 (approx. AUD$204,175), with Tom Malone selecting him for a future jumping career with Paul Nicholls, while the more traditional buying method was chosen by Billy Jackson Stops for the €105,000 (approx. AUD$171,500) acquisition of Taramansour (Dansili), a maiden winner from the Aga Khan's draft who is bound for very different shores.

"He was for Matt Cumani in Australia," the agent explained. "I was terrified of an internet malfunction when it was for that sort of money,

- BILLY JACKSON STOPS

Taramansour

so I actually did it over the phone with [Goffs marketing director] Joey Cullen.

"Matt's having a great run, including a second in the Victoria Derby the other day, and we had a bit of luck with a horse called Future Score, who won the Cranbourne Cup.

"This horse is perfect for Australia, a Dansili three-year-old with form on decent ground. He had a similar profile to Crystal Pegasus, who was bought for Australia for 190,000gns last month, so at €105,000 I think he slipped a bit under the radar."

The average rose 24 per cent year-on year to €16,448 (approx. AUD$26,870), with turnover rising three per cent to €1,019,800 (approx. AUD$1.66 million), despite 13 fewer lots being sold, with such results in unprecedented times prompting the change of thinking regarding the upcoming yearling sale.

Beeby said on Friday: "While none of this ideal, it's a solution to the current Covid-19 restrictions in Ireland, and we're grateful for the positive reaction of vendors and buyers, who embraced the concept with huge enthusiasm.

"The 'Goffs Online' platform has proven to be an important asset since the pandemic outbreak and has been widely used in a supporting role at all our sales in the UK and Ireland. Yesterday's sale was the first fully online sale and we were very encouraged by the level of bidding activity via the user-friendly platform, which ran smoothly throughout.

"In advance of the sale, the key buyer information was available on the Goffs website, including videos, photos, vet certs, passports, heights and weights, and this type of content will become the norm for all Goffs sales going forward to maximise international participation."

BETTING FORECAST: 6-4 Gamine, 11-4 Serengeti Empress, 5 Bell's The One, 12 Come Dancing, Speech, Venetian Harbor, 16 Sconsin, 25 Sally's Curlin.

VERDICT If Serengeti Empress gets away from the gates cleanly the others will have her to catch - she's rapid - and she might be able to put them all away, but there are some good horses to challenge her. Gamine is possibly the most talented of all, but she's led early in every race so far and doing that will be difficult this time. She'll probably have to show a new dimension to her game and she's drawn more inside than ideal given the likely set-up. Most tempting is COME DANCING, whose 2019 form saw her go off joint-favourite for this race at Santa Anita 12 months ago. She disappointed that day but came good again in a Saratoga Grade 2 on her latest start and, if getting back to her peak level, she'll be in with a fair shout. Speech and Bell's The One look best of the late-running types. [Ron Wood]

BETTING FORECAST: 9-2 Leinster, 5 Got Stormy, Imprimis, 7 Glass Slippers, 10 Oleksandra, 14 Front Run The Fed, 16 Big Runner, Extravagant Kid, 20 Wet Your Whistle, Wildman Jack, 25 Bombard, Into Mystic, Texas Wedge, 33 Just Might.

VERDICT A competitive race. Big Runner will be hard to beat if able to get loose from gate 1 so he's tempting, but it looks like he'll have to work to see off Just Might in 2. Imprimis, Front Run The Fed and Leinster hold claims but TEXAS WEDGE, a big price in the early markets, is of most interest. Although he's struggled of late and is drawn 13, he's had excuses and in Florent Geroux he has a jockey who rides this track well, as he demonstrated when winning the only previous running of this race at Keeneland on a horse drawn 14. On that occasion Geroux was able to secure a handy spot before the turn and, in a race not loaded with early pace runners, Texas Wedge is quick enough to do the same. That's even before considering the horse's newly fitted blinkers. Consider also the trainer's remarkable knack of getting his sprinters to peak for this fixture, winning the last three runnings of this including twice having the one-two, and also winning the dirt Sprint twice in the same period. If Knicks Go gets his own way he'll probably be hard to run down but there is other speed in this race and ART COLLECTOR, who should get a stalking trip, may prove strongest come the line. Although this horse was only fourth in the Preakness, that can be excused on account of an interrupted schedule and, if back to the form of his win in the 1m11 Blue Grass here, a race that has worked out well, he'll be right there. Mr Freeze is another to consider. VERDICT Plenty have claims but TEREBELLUM looks just the type for this test, being a strong traveller with a blend of speed and stamina, and she can run to a high-class level. The same sort of case can be made for Starship Jubilee, so she's next best. [Ron Wood]

VERDICT It might be that Yaupon is simply too fast for these rivals but he's light on experience and his stablemate ECHO TOWN is a tempting alternative. The selection is quick enough to put himself into contention early, so if he can hold his position mid-race this time - and the blinkers should help - he could be a major factor. Those two go for last year's winning barn. C Z Rocket and Diamond Oops are others to consider. [Ron Wood]

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Kameko, 11-2 Uni, 8 Ivar, 8 Siskin, 9 Raging Bull, 12 Circus Maximus, Digital Age, Halladay, Safe Voyage, 14 Factor This, 20 Lope Y Fernandez, 25 March To The Arch, 40 Casa Creed, 66 Order Of Australia.
VERDICT This year's 2,000 Guineas winner Kameko lines up along with Irish 2,000 Guineas hero Siskin. Of those, the latter looks most likely to be suited to this sharp test but he's had an issue with the start so is a risky punting proposition. Lope Y Fernandez, third in the Irish 2,000, is another to think about. There's also last year's winner Uni. It's not clear if she's still the same force now but she's done enough to warrant serious consideration. Most appealing, however, is IVAR. He won at the top level on dirt and turf in Argentina and has quickly confirmed himself a high-class horse in the US, most recently winning a C&D Grade 1. Casa Creed, at big odds, is one more to look at. [Ron Wood]

VERDICT Two star runners in SWISS SKYDIVER and Monomoy Girl go head to head and the former is value at the forecast prices. If the summer contest and the others will be up against it, it should be said, Harvest Moon has potential so isn't completely dismissed, although it's a big ask for her. Ollie's Candy is capable of running well but she'll probably need the big two to underperform. [Ron Wood]

2019 (12 ran) Bricks And Mortar (9) Chad C Brown 5 9-0 11/8F Irad Ortiz Jr RPR114

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Magical, 3 Tarnawa, 7-2 Mogul, 7 Lord North, 10 Channel Maker, 12 United, 14 Arklow, 20 Mehdaayih, 33 Donjah, 40 Red King.

VERDICT If Magical runs to form there's a good chance she'll go one place better than at Churchill Downs two years ago, but she was below her best at Ascot last month. She wasn't well positioned that day and still showed plenty, but there are some tempting alternatives. Tarnawa has a mix of speed and stamina, and can run to a good level, so she looks the type. But at bigger odds, a punt is taken on MEHDAAYIH, who looks sure to be suited by this test. She hasn't seen out her two races this year, having looked threatening in both, but they came off three-figure day absences (her best performances have come off shorter breaks) and the latest was on testing ground. An athletic filly who has scooted around similar circuits, and under a top local jockey whose style should help her relax, plus getting Lasix, she could run a big race. Last year's runner-up Unkited could again go well and there's also Mogul to consider even if he doesn't totally convince. [Ron Wood]

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Improbable, 3 Tiz The Law, 9-2 Maximum Security, 11-2 Authentic, 7 Tom's D'Etat, 16 Global Campaign, 20 By My Standards, 25 Tacitus, 50 Higher Power, 66 Title Ready.

VERDICT There is no standout in this year's Classic, rather several with high-class credentials, but TOM'S D'ETAT (nap) can come out on top. He's the oldest horse in the field but was as good as ever when last seen in the summer. Although only third behind Improbable and By My Standards at Saratoga that day, he lost a few lengths with a bad stumble at the start, it was a steady run race and he finished fast for third. He was put away for this race afterwards and his form figures after 60 or more days off the track read 112111. The selection hasn't tried this far since runner-up in a maiden in 2016 but has seen out 1m1f well enough plenty of times to think this is within reach. He won a Grade 2 on his only start here and his trainer won this with Blame in 2010. This year's front-running Kentucky Derby winner Authentic is second choice although his stablemate Maximum Security, first past the post in last season's Kentucky Derby, also ideally wants the lead.
