Confidence high for Classic as Inglis keeps cap on numbers

'Riverside Stables opener the most underestimated sale on the calendar'

Deep Field - Raheights colt who made $380,000 at last year's Classic Sale

INGLIS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Sebastian Hutch believes the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale remains the quiet achiever of the Australian sales circuit and is confident the relative value and graduate success can continue in 2021 after releasing the catalogue for next year's auction.

Inglis last night revealed it had compiled a catalogue of 803 yearlings by 108 different stallions, including I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), Written Tycoon (Iglesia), Exceed And Excel (Danehill), Zoustar (Northern Meteor), Pierro (Lonhro), So You Think (High Chaparral), Fastnet Rock (Danehill), Dundee (High Chaparral), Savabeel (Zabeel) and Deep Field (Northern Meteor), for the three-day February sale.

Hutch, Inglis' general manager of bloodstock sales and marketing, said next year's Classic sale would appeal to a broad spectrum of local and international buyers.

LOT 1449 SELLING AT TATTERSALLS
DECEMBER MARE SALE

SELLING MONDAY, 30 NOVEMBER

"We feel this sale is the most underestimated sale on the calendar when you consider the results of the sale itself, and the success of the graduates on the racetrack in the past two, three and four years who have won the Golden Slipper, the Melbourne Cup, The Everest, the Blue Diamond, the Randwick Guineas, the Victoria Derby, etc, etc," Hutch said.

"It is a sale that people in any area of the market can go to and find the horse they are looking for, whether it's a colt who can go on and be a stallion, a filly with a good pedigree, trade horses or fun horses, it's a sale that you can go to and be confident that you will find what you want and at good value.

"The average price for a stakes winner out of the Classic in the past three years has cost $90,000 and that's really tremendous value when you consider some of the other sales and that the average cost of an Australian stakes winner is three times that much."

Past Classic sale graduates include this year's Everest (1200m) winner Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt), Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Shadow Hero (Pierro), Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War), Pippie (Written Tycoon), Castelveccchio (Dundeel), It's Me (Shamus Award), Sweet Deal (Casino Prince) and Rubisaki (Rubick).

Inglis decided against following the lead of its rival Magic Millions by increasing the size of its Classic catalogue, with 803 lots set to go through the Riverside Stables sales ring in February, to kick off the company's 2021 sales series.

The three-day auction, comprising a 620-lot Book 1 offering and a 183-lot Highway Session, starts on Sunday, February 7 at Inglis' Sydney complex adjacent to Warwick Farm racecourse.

The third running of the $2 million Inglis Millennium (1100m), a two-year-old race restricted to Inglis sale graduates, has been moved from Warwick Farm to Randwick on February 6 as the lead-in to a 220-lot day one session, which opens the Classic sale at 10am on the Sunday.

"Horses for yearling sales traditionally arrive on the complex really very early in advance of the sale and it gives plenty of time for people to work through the horses they need to see, whether it is the whole catalogue or a select number of them," Hutch said.

"Historically, Saturday afternoon at any sale isn't a busy time for inspections and we don't feel the races being at Randwick is going to compromise the sale.

"In fact, Randwick is such a superior facility that we feel it's a great place to be able to host the Millennium, which has produced a multiple Group 1 winner in its first year (Castelveccchio) and a very high-class horse in Prime Star in its second year. Then there's a race like the Inglis 3YO Sprint, which complements it nicely."

The 2021 Classic sale sees the return of Coolmore with a draft of 20 yearlings by sires such as Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock), Rubick (Encosta De Lago), American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile), Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) and Churchill (Galileo), while fellow major stallion farms Arrowfield Stud and Widden Stud also have significant drafts heading to Riverside.

New Zealand-based Wentwood Grange has a draft of six yearlings, including colts by Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) and the emerging Contributor (High Chaparral).

Victorian vendors will also have a presence at the Classic sale with Yulong (eight lots), Two Bays Farm (five lots), Woodside Park Stud (four lots) and Ultra Thoroughbred Racing (three lots) all presenting drafts.

Hunter Valley vendor Fergal Connolly of Valiant Stud has 16 yearlings by sires such as Shalaa (Invincible Spirit), Star Turn (Star Witness), Ocean Park (Thorn Park) and Nicconi (Bianconi) heading to the Classic sale and they have already started their preparation alongside his Magic Millions draft.

"Inglis always puts together a good buying bench of trainers and owners for the Classic, so we are confident in taking nice drafts there," Connolly said yesterday.

"The Classic horses have basically joined on as an adjunct to the Magic Millions prep three weeks in, so they are currently getting worked and exercised at a lesser level, but on an upward incline and getting prepared for the sales."

Connolly is maintaining a positive outlook for the 2021 yearling sales series, confidence which is further fuelled by early interest from agents and trainers.

"Our bookings for on-farm parades have been higher than any other year so far," he said.

"We start parading on the farm from December 10, with a couple before that, and the books are full and things are looking good for next year."

Hutch also says a lot of positives can be taken from the 2020 Australian sales, particularly later in the year when conducted under the influence of Covid-19, and is optimistic that the robust nature of the market can hold up next year.

"The last six or seven months have been very challenging for everybody, but we have had significant exposure to it having had a number of major sales during the pandemic, which has been the catalyst for a lot of improvement and a lot of learning," he said.

"We have become even more familiar with the demographics of the buying benches at respective sales and we feel we've adapted to it very well."

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Pancho takes Kilmore Cup

The Chris Waller-trained Pancho (4 g Dissident - Novel Dancer by Written Tycoon) took out the Kilmore Cup (Listed, 1600m) yesterday under a confident ride from Craig Williams. Pancho, purchased for $165,000 by Laurel Oak Bloodstock at the 2018 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, had to wait 12 months for his second stakes success, having defeated Russian Camelot (Camelot) in the Batman Stakes (Listed, 1800m) last year, but did so with relative ease at Kilmore. Pancho loomed up on the outside of front-running Magna Bella (Magnus) at the 200 meters and pulled clear of his rivals to score by three-quarters of a length to Tavidance (Tavistock), with Black Sail (Savabeel) a length behind the winner in third. Williams, who picked up just one ride at the meeting for the second consecutive year, impressed the Waller stable with his performance. "Craig (Williams) comes to these meetings when he has good rides and he was keen to ride this horse today," Waller's stable representative Cameron Cooke told Racing.com. "He gave it a peach in the run and got the result. He is a consistent horse, obviously back in trip wasn't a concern today, Craig just punched forward. His run was good last start so he was always going to be a handy chance today."

Alligator Blood departs Vandyke stable

The owners of Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) and trainer David Vandyke have parted ways. Ezybonds manager, Allan Endresz, yesterday revealed on Facebook that Vandyke had told them to find a new trainer for the four-year-old gelding and the other 15 horses that were being prepared for the syndicate on the Sunshine Coast. Alligator Blood, who was stripped of his Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) win after returning a positive test to a banned substance, is currently being treated for a kissing spine, a back complaint, and is unlikely to race for at least six months. He finished well back in the Golden Eagle (1500m) in Sydney on October 31. In a social media post, Endresz suggested Alligator Blood would be trained either in Sydney or Melbourne when he returns from a spell.

Rodd to make Brisbane home

Michael Rodd's riding career will go full circle when he leaves Victoria and returns to Brisbane, 20 years on from his first apprenticeship in the city. Rodd returned to Australia from Singapore when the Covid-19 pandemic began to materialise and based himself in Victoria. However, due to his family location in Queensland and the competitiveness of the Victorian jockey rooms, the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m)-winning jockey has decided to return to Brisbane. "I haven't seen them (family) for almost ten months," Rodd told Racing.com. "They were in Singapore with me and when the virus took off there, I sent them all home (to Rockhampton) because I thought they just can't be here while this is happening and about two weeks later it hit Australia. To go back to Brisbane, I would have had to quarantine twice, and it was just a strange time, so I came back to Melbourne and I haven't seen them since then." Rodd rode for Mark Kavanagh and owner Lloyd Williams through the 2000s but a lot had changed since then and he struggled to gain enough competitive rides on his return to Melbourne. "I was away for five years and that was just enough time for my old contacts to find new jockeys, old trainers to find new jockeys," Rodd said. "The kids coming through have taken my place and it's just such a good group of riders; the Melbourne jockeys' room would be competitive anywhere in the world."

Racing Victoria examines crowd options

Racegoers could return to Victorian tracks in the not-too-distant future, with Racing Victoria set to explore crowd options as Covid-19 restrictions ease across the state. RV issued a statement on Sunday afternoon in response to the Victorian government's announcement: "RV notes the Victorian government's announcement today of a public events framework allowing for applications to be made for larger gatherings under Covid-safe protocols. RV, Country Racing Victoria and the Metropolitan Clubs will be discussing this announcement with the government over the coming days to best understand the framework and the opportunities it presents for Victorian racing."

Naracoorte meeting to be held tomorrow

Naracoorte will host their rescheduled meeting tomorrow as racing returns to South Australia a day earlier than previously planned. In a statement announcing the news yesterday, Thoroughbred Racing SA said: "TRSA wish to advise that the meeting previously scheduled at Naracoorte for Friday, November 19 has been rescheduled for Tuesday, November 24 at Naracoorte. Fields transferred from Friday, November 19 and scratchings reinstated." Five meetings in as many days will follow, with racing at Morphettville Parks, Balaklava, Port Lincoln, Morphettville and Strathalbyn.

Jones injured in Quirindi fall

Jockeys suspended after Ballarat Cup

Luke Currie and Billy Egan were suspended following Saturday's Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2000m). Currie was penalised for careless riding aboard the third, Game Keeper (Fastnet Rock), while Egan breached whip rules aboard Double You Tee (Written Tycoon), who finished sixth, beaten half a length by the winner Irish Flame (Zed). Currie was suspended for 11 meetings, beginning after this Saturday's fixture at Moonee Valley, which rules him out of the Pakenham Cup (Listed, 2500m) meeting on December 5. Meanwhile, Egan used the whip eight times on Double You Tee prior to the 100-metre mark, three more than permitted. Stewards suspended him for eight meetings and fined him $300. Egan's penalty started yesterday evening and concludes ahead of the Wangaratta meeting a week today.

NEW ZEALAND

Shezzacatch remains unbeaten

Shezzacatch (Savabeel) made it two wins from two starts when taking out a 1300-metre contest Awapuni on Saturday. An upset winner of the Sir Colin Meads Trophy (Listed, 1200m) at Hastings on debut, the Savabeel three-year-old showed her inexperience but appeared to benefit from the outing with a confident performance at Awapuni. The Guy Lowry and Grant Cullen-trained Shezzacatch took advantage of a gap in the home straight to take the lead at the 200-metre marker and kept on well to defeat Love For All (Love Conquers All) by a head, with Perfect Scenario (Iffraaj) the same distance behind in third. "She's really a nice filly with plenty of upside to her," Cullen said. "She's pretty much untapped and still learning, although I thought her racing manners yesterday were much better than when she had her first start. She travelled within herself and didn't overrace like she did on debut and found the line really well. Being a Savabeel we think she will likely go over a bit more ground once she has some more ringcraft under her belt. Her next start will be in the Eulogy Stakes back at Awapuni on December 12 then, all going well, we might have a crack at the Levin Classic at Trentham in January."

Bright future for Edit

Danielle Johnson

GETTY

The Shaun and Emma Clotworthy-trained Edit (Swiss Ace), who made it two wins from four outings with a two and a half-length success over 1200 metres at Pukekohe on Saturday, will be targeted towards the Stella Artois Championship Final (1500m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day, with the training duo keen to get him qualified for a start in the race as his next target. "There is a race at Ellerslie for him on December 10 at Ellerslie over 1300 metres, so if he went well there then we would press on to the Stella Artois on Boxing Day," Shaun Clotworthy said. Reflecting on Saturday's win in the hands of runaway jockeys' premiership leader Danielle Johnson, Clotworthy added: "He's still learning the game and he got caught on the post at his first two starts when he knocked off a little bit. We were conscious of not getting to the front too early on Saturday so Danielle made the decision to ride him a little colder and it has paid off. He actually got back a little further than we expected but he has done it easy enough and ran through the line really nicely. He gets there (the lead) quickly and probably was there too quickly in his previous races so it was a nice effort and he looks quite a promising horse."

Brown savours ride with Levante

Ancroft Stud owner Philip Brown is keeping his feet on the ground over the potential of exciting four-year-old Levante (Proisir). Brown and his wife Catherine share in the mare's ownership with several mates under their Sandringham Investments Ltd banner and when Levante took out the Haunui Farm Counties Bowl (Listed, 1100m) at Pukekohe on Saturday, it sparked a great deal of excitement among the syndicate. "Watching that run it certainly made me go 'wow'," Brown said. "She has done that every time she has gone to the races, come with that powerful run to win. Sometimes we have thought she just couldn't do it as she was too far back but she has found a way to succeed. She's very exciting and we're very happy to have her back doing what she does best. Despite the sale offers there have been from some of the best stables in Australasia, money can't buy the pleasure that this horse is giving us so we've just said she's not for sale. We're enjoying the ride, which is just marvellous."

JPN: Fourth Grade 1 for Gran Alegria

Remarkable Japanese mare Gran Alegria (4 m Deep Impact - Tapitsfly by Tapit) secured her fourth Grade 1 victory when she took out the Mile Championship (Gr 1, 1600m) at Hanshin on Sunday. Sent off the 3-5 favourite on the back of her Sprinters Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) success at Nakayama on October 4, Gran Alegria powered down the outside under Christophe Lemaire to get the better of last year's winner Indy Champ (Stay Gold) by three-quarters of a length. Admire Mars (Daiwa Major) was a further neck back in third. Trained by Kazuo Fujisawa, Gran Alegria's sparkling record also features wins in the 2019 Oka Sho (Gr 1, 1600m), run over yesterday's course and distance, and the Yasuda Kinen (Gr 1, 1600m) at Tokyo on June 7. She is one of 47 top-tier winners by late Shadai Stallion Station breed-shaper Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) and is out of the Grade 1-winning Tapit (Pulpit) mare Tapitsfly. "She had a good break so we were in a good position," Lemaire said. "She's a lot easier to ride being a four-year-old and we had a good trip until the last turn where we weren't able to make our move to the outside smoothly for the run-in. I was a little worried but the way she exploded into gear in the last 150 metres just shows how powerful she is and I'm looking forward to another great season from her as a five-year-old."

HK: Dreamer makes it a perfect five

Frankie Lor's rising star Winning Dreamer (Deep Field) made it five wins from five starts when blitzing his rivals in the Class 2 Penfold Park Handicap (1200m) at Sha Tin yesterday. The son of Newgate Farm stallion Deep Field (Northern Meteor) came home a length and a half too strong for Duke Wai (Per Incanto) under Vincent Ho and the winning rider said post-race: "The handicap conditions made it easier for him and was helped with gate one, too. He's still a young horse so this race has helped him - his first in Class 2 - he just needs time to improve." Lor did not rule out a tilt at the four-year-old-only Hong Kong Classic Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) in January, but acknowledged that such a test may come too soon and could stretch Winning Dreamer's stamina limitations. "He keeps improving so I'm happy. In the straight, usually he can come past the horses quickly but because it's Class 2 now he needed time to pass the front runners. We need to look at the programme and see if we stick to 1200 or go to 1400 metres. It's exciting," he said. Winning Dreamer was purchased by Tartan Meadow Bloodstock and Mr Peter KS So from Book 1 of the NZB Karaka Yearling Sale in 2018, realising NZ$300,000 from the draft of Haunui Farm.

INTERNATIONAL

144 for Medaglia d'Oro

Jonabell Farm flag-bearer Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado), who shuttled to Australia for eight consecutive breeding seasons between 2010 and 2017, sired his 144th individual stakes winner on Saturday when North Dakota (4 c ex Starry Dreamer by Rubiano) took out the Red Smith Stakes (Gr 3, 11f) on the turf course at Aqueduct. Trained by Claude McGaughey, North Dakota ran fourth in the Sycamore Stakes (Gr 3, 12f) at Keeneland on October 15 and he built on that form when getting the better of Red Knight (Pure Prize) by half a length. Ziyad (Rock Of Gibraltar) finished a further head adrift in third. Bred in the purple, North Dakota is a half-brother to Grade 2 winner and leading sire War Front (Danzig) and dual Grade 2 winner Teammate (A.P. Indy) being out of the Grade 1-placed Starry Dreamer (Rubiano). Medaglia d'Oro, sire of outstanding race-mares Rachel Alexandra and Songbird as well as dual Grade 1-winning Spendthrift stallion Bolt d'Oro, will stand for a fee of $150,000 (approx. AUD$205,400) in 2021.

36 for Shanghai Bobby

Third in the Los Alamitos Futurity (Gr 1, 8.5f) behind Improbable (City Zip) as a juvenile, Extra Hope (4 c ex Lotsandlotsofhope by Tiznow) got off the mark in Graded company when he landed the Native Diver Stakes (Gr 3, 9f) on the dirt at Del Mar on Saturday. In doing so, he became the 36th individual stakes winner for Arrow Stud stallion Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday), a former resident of Ashford Stud who was sold to Japanese interests in 2018. Trained by Richard Mandella and ridden by Juan Hernandez, Extra Hope got the better of Midcourt (Midnight Lute) by a length, with a further two and a half lengths back to Combatant (Scat Daddy) in third. Shanghai Bobby is the sire of six Grade 1 winners in South America.

14 for Belardo

Haunui Farm shuttler Belardo (Lope De Vega), who will have his first southern hemisphere two-year-olds this season, sired his 14th individual winner yesterday when Lenny Belardo (2 c ex Tina's Spirit by Invincible Spirit) took out a handicap over 1200 metres at Pisa. Lenny Belardo got off the mark at his seventh attempt, having recorded two thirds and four fourths in his previous appearances this season. The colt defeated Ladyhawe (Dylan Thomas) into second, with Mr Bisso (Gutaifan) third in the six-runner field. Belardo has already produced five stakes winners in the northern hemisphere, with Rockfel Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) winner Isabella Giles the pick of the bunch. Darley recently announced Belardo would stand at Kildangan Stud in Ireland for an unchanged fee of €10,000 (approx. AUD$16,150) in 2021.

54 for English Channel

Calumet Farm stallion English Channel (Smart Strike) sired his 54th individual stakes winner yesterday when Unique Diamond (5 g ex Diamond Dilemma by Sinndar) took out the Premio Roma Vecchia (Listed, 2800m) at Rome. The five-year-old had nine wins from 30 starts entering yesterday's contest but had yet to breakthrough at stakes level, with a fourth-place finish in the 2019 Premio Unire (Listed, 2250m) his best previous effort in this company. Ridden by Germano Marcelli, Unique Diamond ended the drought by defeating Aldrovar (Lord Chaparral), with Fambrus (Oasis Dream) in third. Six-time Grade 1 winner English Channel stood at Calumet Farm, Kentucky for a fee of US$35,000 (approx. AUD$47,925) in 2020.

UK: December Sale gets under way at Tattersalls

Tattersalls

GETTY

A session of yearlings brings the curtain up on this year's Tattersalls December Sale and there are plenty of notable lots set to go under the hammer at Park Paddocks today. There were 173 youngsters catalogued before withdrawals, with this being the final chance to buy a yearling at public auction in 2020. Included among the offerings is an Australia (Galileo) colt out of an unraced half-sister to Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) hero Rekindling (High Chaparral). Offered by Norris Bloodstock, he is catalogued as Lot 143. Soon after, Roundhill Stud will present a filly by Belardo from the family of this year's Commonwealth Cup (Gr 1, 6f) hero Golden Horde (Lethal Force). She is catalogued as Lot 149. The auction begins at 11am, while the four-day foal sale starts at 10am on Wednesday. Read full reports from the sale in ANZ Bloodstock across the course of this week.

IRE: Hall of Fame trainer Sheppard to send jumps team to Ireland

Jonathan Sheppard

RACING POST

Jonathan Sheppard is set to break new ground by sending six of his jumping string to Ireland this winter, with the 25-time US champion trainer charting a path to the Cheltenham Festival with his dual Grade 1 winner Winston C (Rip Van Winkle). The American Hall of Fame trainer, who turns 80 next month and was born in the UK, has been based in the US since 1961 and was the first trainer to win the American steeplechase Triple Crown with Flatterer (Mo Baby). The bold move comes hot on the heels of a spectacular conclusion to the US jumps season in which Irish-born rider Ger Galligan clinched his first jockeys' title, partnering six winners for Sheppard from his last nine rides of the campaign for an unlikely triumph. Galligan is set to be involved in preparing the runners alongside assistant trainer Keri Brion, who will operate out of point-to-point handler James Doyle's stables in Wexford while Sheppard remains in the US. "We'd love to run Winston C at Cheltenham. He had some good form for Harry Fry and seems to have improved for getting faster ground in America," Galligan said. "He's won two Grade 1 races over here at Saratoga and there might be a race for him at Punchestown first."

Golden Sixty continues march to Hong Kong Mile

BY STEVE MORAN | HKJC_RACING

Golden Sixty (Medaglia d'Oro), Hong Kong's latest racing sensation, continued his seemingly inexorable march to December and Group 1 glory with his tenth consecutive win in yesterday's Jockey Club Mile (Gr 2, 1600m).

It was a win which came with such authority that even the prospect of stiffer international competition, in next month's Hong Kong Mile (G1, 1600m), may not be enough to end the winning streak of the Francis Lui-trained and Vincent Ho-ridden five-year-old.

Golden Sixty, owned by Stanley Chan Ka Leung, recorded his 13th win from 14 starts and became just the fourth horse to win ten consecutive races in Hong Kong, emulating greats Silent Witness (El Moxie), Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) and Co-Tack (Top Role).

Victory in the December 13 showpiece would see him eclipse Beauty Generation and Co-Tack, whose winning runs came to an end at ten straight.

Silent Witness' 17 consecutive victories may be a distant and near untouchable target but the Australian-bred has made a habit of making history - being just the second horse to sweep Hong Kong's Four-Year-Old Classic Series and the first to win the Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) for all local connections since Hong Kong racing turned professional.

Golden Sixty, unbeaten in three runs this season, was capably and patiently ridden by Ho before launching an electric late assault to arrogantly condemn, by a length and a half, the modest pace-setting front-runners Ka Ying Star (Cityscape) and Southern Legend (Not A Single Doubt) to the minor placings.

Ho believes Golden Sixty is now well equipped to take on all comers in the Hong Kong Mile, which has enjoyed international Group 1 status since 2000.

"He felt really good and sprinted home really well," Ho said. "The main goal was to settle him as normal and to relax him and he hit the line strongly. He will always produce a really good last quarter. I was happy with how he raced, he's getting quieter and he knows what's going on now.

Golden Sixty

"He's more mentally mature and he's a really professional horse now. He's getting quieter behind the gate, just looking around, taking it in. I just wanted to get him settled first of all, I knew there'd be some pace on, which would suit him.

"Actually I think at the moment he's one of the best horses in Hong Kong. That's for sure. He'll be competing at Group 1 now and hopefully we will be winning next month. That was our main goal and main target from last season and these three races have been really good prep for him. He's got stronger each race and I'm really happy with how those races panned out for him."

Ho said he was grateful for the opportunity to be part of the team with a horse of Golden Sixty's quality.

"I've never been in a Formula 1 car but I feel like riding him is probably similar. He's a once in a lifetime horse for me. Lots of jockeys dream of having a horse like this and I'm extremely grateful to Mr Lui and the owner Mr Chan, who have supported me and trusted me and kept me on," he said.

Lui also noted that the gelding has matured since his four-year-old season and is hopeful he will measure up to his next assignment.

"I felt nervous before the race but, of course, passed the winning post everything was all right. I feel very happy that the horse can perform so well.

"You can see he's more relaxed and more mature now. At the moment he looks like a champion but we'll see what form the international horses bring," Lui said before reiterating his intention to run in December's Hong Kong Mile. The horse also has a Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) entry.

The international challenge may include Japan's Indy Champ (Stay Gold) and Admire Mars (Daiwa Major), who finished second and third respectively behind Gran Alegria (Deep Impact) in yesterday's Mile Championship (Gr 1, 1600m) at Hanshin. Admire Mars won last year's Hong Kong Mile.

Masterly Hot King Prawn seals a second Jockey Club Sprint

Hot King Prawn (Denman) will carry high hopes into the Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) in three weeks' time after shrugging off a wide passage and nine rivals to win the Jockey Club Sprint (Gr 2, 1200m) at Sha Tin yesterday, writes David Morgan.

The eye-catching grey was three quarters of a length too good for his opponents but scored with more mastery than that margin might suggest, leaving jockey Joao Moreira and trainer John Size satisfied that the six-year-old is in form good enough to perhaps snare a long-awaited first career Group 1.

"He's won with authority - not to disrespect the other horses in the race because some of those might improve as well but I just couldn't be any happier with him. He's going to December as an improving horse; he's a class horse, a quality horse, and we can go there with plenty of confidence - there's no doubt that that's the race we want to win," Moreira said after Hot King Prawn held off Computer Patch (Exceed And Excel) and the late-charging Rattan (Savabeel).

"He's got a little bit more mature and he hasn't been showing as much speed as early on in his career, but I just can't see that as a bad thing because all we want is to have a strong horse at the finish and he's proven to be that kind of horse today. He's one of a kind."

Hot King Prawn was the second home in a Size-trained one-two in the Hong Kong Sprint last term, with the now-retired champion sprinter Beat The Clock (Hinchenbrook) edging the win. The 11-time champion trainer expects to see further improvement when his current number one lines up for his third start of the campaign in next month's big race.

"I thought the run was okay, he's covered a little bit of ground and finished the race off quite nicely, I wouldn't expect any more. I think he's probably still improving and he'll be a bit better on international day," he said.

"He's six years old this season but sometimes our good horses can be that age and still do their best. Hong Kong is a place where mature horses can have an advantage sometimes. He had one start before the Hong Kong Sprint last season because he was coming back off a colic operation, so he was a little bit disadvantaged, so this time he's probably had a more comfortable preparation."

There is no guarantee Hot King Prawn will line-up as Hong Kong's prime contender in the Hong Kong Sprint, with newly-imported The Everest (1200m) winner Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) - trained by Caspar Fownes - being forwarded as the division's latest pin-up. Size, though, is not concerned.

Hot King Prawn

HKJC

"It's difficult to assess (Classique Legend) from here, we'll have to see him race in Hong Kong and we'll probably get a better guide then," he said sagely.

Size also gave an update on last season's Stewards' Cup (G1, 1600m) winner Waikuku (Harbour Watch), who will step out for the first time this term in the Hong Kong Mile.

"Waikuku has been doing okay. He's behind schedule obviously, but he'll have another trial and all being well he'll go into the race first-up," Size said.

Furore leads Cruz one-two in Jockey Club Cup

A classy win by Furore (Pierro) proved his second-up success over Exultant (Teofilo) was no fluke as he led home a one-two for trainer Tony Cruz in yesterday's Jockey Club Cup (G2, 2000m) at Sha Tin, writes Declan Schuster.

Furore ended a 19-month winless streak last start when he overhauled his five-time Group 1-winning stablemate in the Sa Sa Ladies Purse Handicap (Gr 3, 1800m) and he repeated the result yesterday, despite being sent off second favourite to Exultant again.

However, yesterday's clash was the pair's final for the calendar year and it served as a preview of the strong hand that Cruz holds ahead of next month's Hong Kong International Races.

"I'm glad they're not in the same race - Exultant will be in the Vase and Furore will be in the Cup," Cruz confirmed. "We'll go straight into the International Races with them - we are ready."

Joao Moreira had Furore in a forward position yesterday, following the third of Cruz's three, Time Warp (Archipenko), throughout the race before peeling out to hit the lead for a comfortable success with plenty left up his sleeve.

"Time Warp was drawn one, and Furore was drawn three, I said just follow him - everything all went to plan," Cruz said.

Moreira was delighted after recording his first Jockey Club success.

"He travelled very kindly, he had the cover that we were hoping for and the pace was quite genuine and when I gave him a clear run, they started to come back and he just kept running and showing his quality," Moreira said.

"He ran away to win very impressively and easily - I can say that he crossed the finish line with plenty left in himself, it gets me so excited for the big day in December.

"I have just done my job, which wasn't very difficult - good horses make jockeys' lives much easier and I just haven't got a word to describe the feeling of being on board such a nice horse leading up to the big day in December.

"I've been asked what the key about this horse is but there is no key, I just got on him at the right time, he's flying and he's shown how much class he has got and how well Tony Cruz has got him going at the moment."

One-time Derby aspirant Columbus County (Redwood) finished off nicely for third after switching for an outside run, while Dances With Dragon (Savabeel) was a further two and a quarter lengths behind in fourth.

Then followed: Magna Bella (AUS), Rainbow Thief (NZ), Power Scheme (AUS), Holbien (AUS), Delectation Girl (GB), Sikorsky (AUS), Haripour (IRE), Polanco (AUS) & The Closer (AUS), last.

Analysis: Pancho continued his recent consistent form with a good win here, his first victory since taking out the Connoisseur Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington in November last year. He settled in fifth place on the rails from his good barrier (2), improved to be third on the inner approaching the turn, set out after the leader (Magna Bella) on straightening, went to the front at the 100m and then went on to win well under a perfect Craig Williams ride. Favourite Tavidance looked most unlucky. He was slowly away, was last early on and only improved marginally, before looking for a split between runners nearing the turn. He was held up on straightening, went to the rails at the 100m and finished well when clear late for (0.75 lengths) second. Black Sail was sixth on the rails approaching the 600m, got through on the inner on straightening and kept battling on well to take the minor placing. Magna Bella went to the front and set quite a good pace before tiring over the latter stages for (2.2 lengths) fourth, while Rainbow Thief made good late ground after being well back to finish (2.6 lengths) fifth.
