Former Australian government minister Peter McGauran’s first foray into racehorse ownership could deliver him a maiden stakes win and send the value of his filly Rhapsody Rose soaring if she can win today’s $125,000 Boomer Bloodstock Calaway Gal Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Eagle Farm.

A $120,000 purchase from the Bhima Thoroughbreds draft by McGauran, the incumbent consular-general of Australia based in Houston, at the Magic Millions Yearling Sale last January, Rhapsody Rose led throughout to score at Doomben on November 14 at her second race start.

“She’s turned out extremely well. I have noticed from the time she was being broken-in, to cantering, jump-outs and trials, she wants to be a racehorse. Even when she was green and wobbling all over the track, she always had her head out and was trying to do the right thing,” McGauran told ANZ Bloodstock News from Houston yesterday.

“That’s half the battle. She’s determined and she will want to find the line and she has a long stride, which is of great natural assistance.

“She is going to be competitive and she is growing all the time. She is going to be an even better three-year-old, so Joanthan and I have a lot to look forward to.”

McGauran, who retired from politics in 2008 after 25 years as a member of Parliament, held key roles at Thoroughbred Breeders Australia, Racing NSW and, more recently, a four-year tenure as chief executive of Racing Australia before his consular posting.

Despite his interest in horseracing, it was only this year that he took the leap of faith into ownership.

“Chris Munce is a good friend and I’d always promised him a yearling and, as I am returning to Australia at the end of my term in January, he chose a horse for me at the Magic Millions with Arthur Hoyeau, who is a very good judge, and they bid $120,000,” he recalled.

“Then, lo and behold, the breeder was Jonathan Munz. He’s an old friend, so when he heard that I was the purchaser, he asked to stay in the horse. I said, ‘Sure Jonathan, I’m happy to have you in for ten or 20 per cent’ but he said, ‘oh no, I always retain 50 per cent’ and I welcomed that.

“Jonathan’s a delight and he allows me to manage the horse until such time that I make a wrong decision, even after consulting him.”

Rhapsody Rose is the first foal out of winning mare Ritzy (Medaglia d’Oro), a $500,000 purchase by Dean Hawthorne as a yearling for Munz, who is a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Fiveandahalfstar (Hotel Grand) and the Group 3-placed, Group 1-performed Wordplay (Fastnet Rock).

Indications from Munce are encouraging, suggesting to McGauran that Rhapsody Rose was maintaining her condition and remains well in contention for a spot in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at the Gold Coast on January 16.

“She’s just the perfect horse for a small-time owner such as myself in that she looks a picture, she’s grown and continues to grow. She’s got a great spirit, she has some natural ability, but how much, we’ll find out in due course, and I am very fortunate to be involved with such a beautiful animal.

Diplomat McGauran excited by his Calaway Gal contender Rhapsody Rose

“She goes back to the farm after any serious trial or run and the most she will do on the farm is on the water walker.

“He gallops her sparingly and she also spends time on the beach. She's quite fiery, she's professional, but she wants to run, so the beach calms her down. Chris has handled her development superbly.”

If the Star Witness (Starcraft) filly does clinch a berth in the Magic Millions race, McGauran will be watching the race in hotel quarantine.

He said: “My posting as consular-general concludes in January and I don’t exit quarantine until the 25th of January, so I will be watching it from the isolation of a hotel room in inner Sydney somewhere.

“She's forward enough, she's physically developed enough, the attitude's right and, if she remains perfectly healthy and fit, she will take her place barring an unexpected collapse in form.

McGauran, who could expand his bloodstock interests in the new year on the back of his immediate success with Rhapsody Rose, said Australia retained a reputation as a global racing industry leader.

“Australian racing is arguably the best in the world and that is widely acknowledged wherever you go, and really it is only complacency or internal divisions that can hinder the continued progress and success,” he said.

“The picture is very promising and the economics for an owner and breeder stack up like nowhere else in the world.

“The Americans are fascinated by our system of wagering levies and taxes and we’re the envy of the world in that regard.

“No one has been quite able to copy the Australian system, despite the best efforts and much discussion by racing jurisdictions.”

McGauran’s imminent return to Australia follows a three-year stint in the US where he has encountered the presidency of Donald Trump and the Covid-19 pandemic.

“And there’s also been civil unrest. It has been a fascinating and exciting time to be reporting on the United States in the past three years,” he said.

“There are many Americas. It is complex and vast and diverse and a great challenge for a diplomat.”

As for his own professional future, McGauran said: “I will be taking on some board positions of Australian and US companies. I am limiting myself to a US orientation that will bring me back and build on the political and economic experience and contacts that I have developed while I have been consular-general.”

“No one has been quite able to copy the Australian system, despite the best efforts and much discussion by racing jurisdictions”

Two for Flying Artie

Harlem Groove (2 c ex Harlem Shuffle by Oratorio), an $80,000 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale purchase by trainer Paul Perry, has provided Newgate Farm-based sire Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) with his second first crop winner after scoring at Scone yesterday. Harlem Groove, who had won a Newcastle barrier trial leading into his first-up victory, defeated The Storm In Me (Press Statement) by half a length in the Emirates Park 2YO Maiden Plate (900m). Super Hot (Outreach) was one and three-quarter lengths away in third. Goodwood Farm, who sold Harlem Groove, will offer a half-sister by Exosphere (Lonhro) as Lot 633 at next year’s Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. Flying Artie, who stands for $16,500 (inc GST) this year, is also the sire of Brisbane winner and today’s Calaway Gal Stakes (Listed, 1000m) runner Princess Bojack and the stakes-placed The Art Of Flying. Eleven Australian-based first season stallions have so far sired winners in the first four months.

No decision on Written Tycoon’s future

Christmas Cup would be Sweet for Smith
Matthew Smith is hoping Sweet Thomas (Dylan Thomas) can deliver the Christmas Cup (Listed, 2400m) to the North Pole when the veteran stayer lines up in today’s Randwick feature. Sweet Thomas sports the blue and white colours of Sydney entrepreneur Nick Sheehan, who races under the North Pole Pastoral banner. The former German galloper, who won the Stayers Cup (3200m) in June, returned to Smith’s Warwick Farm base following a strong-finishing fourth behind Carif (So You Think) in the Sandown Cup (Listed, 3200m) last month. “He just got too far back at Sandown but his run was outstanding,” Smith said. “It’s a bit of a concern coming back to 2400 metres as the horse has never won over the distance but he’s done really well since we got him back and he’s in great shape. It looks the right race for him but we need a few things to go his way.” Smith indicated the stayer would return to Melbourne after today’s assignment to run in the Bagot Handicap (Listed, 2800m) at Flemington on New Year’s Day.

Wilde thinking big with Tralee Rose
The Bagot Handicap is also a possible target for Tralee Rose (Tavistock) who will be looking to make it four wins on the spin when she faces 11 rivals on her return to Flemington today. The four-year-old kicked off her winning run at Warrnambool before scoring second-up at Flemington, both over 1700 metres. She then went to Sandown Hillside and won narrowly over 1800 metres. However, Symon Wilde believes the margin that day was not a reflection of the merit of her win. “It was a day where on-pacers had dominated and she went forward on a strong pace. She showed her ability to hang on and win. It was a great effort,” the trainer said. Tralee Rose will be up to 2530 metres today but Wilde said his main concern was not the longer trip but whether the latest win had taken too much out of her. “I’ve been happy with her work since and she seems happy in herself so there’s no signs it has.”

Vinnie after another Sydney win
Mornington trainers David and Coral Feek are hoping that I Am Vinnie (I Am Invincible) can record his third Sydney win when he tackles the Fujitsu General Handicap (1400m) at Randwick today. The six-year-old gelding ran an improved third placing in a Benchmark 84 Handicap (1400m) at Ballarat on November 21 after wearing blinkers for the first time. “We put blinkers on him for the first time in his career when he ran on Ballarat Cup Day and we found that he raced, much to our surprise, more on-pace than he normally does, which was a really positive thing for us,” Feek told Racing.com. “He was beaten two and a half lengths by Titan Blinders and, I don’t claim to be a form expert, but although he didn’t win, you’d consider that a career-best run. I think he’s going there as good as he’s ever been and we’ve targeted this race in particular from the start of this preparation.”

Baccarat Baby out to spoil Exhilarates’ party
David Vandyke is looking forward to seeing Baccarat Baby (Casino Prince) step back up in distance for today’s Just Now Quality (Listed, 1300m) at Eagle Farm as the five-year-old attempts to end a losing spell stretching back to October last year. The eight-time winner returned to action at the Sunshine Coast with a sixth-place finish over an inadequate trip last month, but her trainer was still pleased with that effort. “She wasn’t really suited over 1000 metres but it was still a great run,” Vandyke told racingqueensland.com. “Getting out to 1300 metres is a big plus for her and she likes Eagle Farm.” Baccarat Baby sits on the third line of the betting for today’s race, and it is the horse who heads the market Vandyke fears most. “I think she’s a good chance but the favourite Exhilarates will be very hard to beat as she gets good ratings in every race she goes around in,” he added.

Answers sought with Ilovethegame
Greg Eurell believes Ilovethegame (Ilovethiscity) can be in the mix in a wide open renewal of the Lexus Legends Plate (1400m) at Flemington today. The gelding is one of four runners in the nine-strong Benchmark 70 handicap who were vying for favouritism last night, a race in which he will step out to 1400 metres for the first time. “I’d be disappointed if he didn’t run a cheeky race,” the Cranbourne-based trainer told Racing.com. “Saturday should answer a few questions about what level we can aim for with him. He worked very sharply on Tuesday and has bounced out of that too so he’s ready to put in a big performance.”

Star Hills aiming for six straight
Star Hills (Magnus) will attempt to land his sixth consecutive victory – and his most significant to date – when the six-year-old takes his chance in today’s Christmas Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Morphettville. The gelding went wireless on his first four starts for his new connections after changing hands a year ago for around $30,000, but rediscovered the winning form he had shown for Allan Browell in Victoria when notchin a first success for Bob Richard on Goodwood Day back in May, and has not looked back since. “It’s a step up for him on Saturday but I couldn’t be any happier with him,” Richard told Racing.com. “I know he may be looked upon as a distance risk but I’m confident it won’t make any difference. He’s in a really good spot, the horse. He walks around like a proud animal and is an absolute gentleman to train.”

Kemalpasa connections eyeing All-Star
Dual Group 2 winner Kemalpasa (Magnus) is set to return late next month as connections contemplate their autumn options with the five-year-old. Co-trainer Richard Jolly has either the Australia Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Moonee Valley on January 22 or the Durbridge Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville on January 30 in mind as potential starting points for a campaign which could culminate in a tilt at $5 million All-Star Mile (1600m). “We put him in (the nominations). We aren’t sure if we are going to go there, but you’ve got to nominate for these things,” Jolly told Racing.com. “He’s had three weeks out, he’s back in work (now). We either go two ways, we can keep him to the shorter ones and aim him to the Newmarket or we stretch him out to give him a run over 1400 metres and then the All-Star Mile is on following one of those runs. You never know if you don’t have a go. But at this stage, it’s all up in the air. We have nominated him and we will see how he comes up.”
Murray Bridge to showcase new Magic Millions race day

The richest juvenile race in South Australia, the Magic Millions SA 2YO Classic (1200m) will become the centrepiece of a new feature South Australian race day at Murray Bridge on February 27. Open to two-year-olds sold at Magic Millions yearling sales, the $202,250 race was previously held on Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) day, but will be moved forward to increase its prominence in the lead up to the annual Adelaide Yearling Sale. Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said the changes would immediately elevate the status of the 2YO Classic, while also facilitating better outcomes for South Australian breeders at the Magic Millions Yearling Sale, held at its Morphettville sales complex across the two days immediately after the Adelaide Cup. “This is a brilliant outcome, not only for Magic Millions, but for the South Australian thoroughbred racing industry,” Bowditch said. “Having our Magic Millions SA 2YO Classic as a standalone SABOIS bonus day meeting, held at a venue that is fast becoming a rising star among Australian racetracks, will boost both the race itself, and the yearling sales – which of course play a crucial role in the industry’s health. The combined promotion of SABOIS and the yearling sale in the week leading up to Adelaide Cup Day will prove a boom for the industry and amplify breeding and ownership in South Australia.”

Addeybb and Elleggant head Queen Elizabeth betting

Addeybb (Pivotal) and Verry Elleggant (Zed), the first two home in last season’s Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), have been installed as the joint favourites for this season’s running of the $4 million contest. TAB opened pre-nominations markets on a number of races at the 2021 Championships yesterday, with the pair both made $6 chances for the Randwick race scheduled to take place on April 10.

NEW ZEALAND
Sharrock happy with Sinaraha

Trainer Allan Sharrock has his team flying at present and the New Plymouth horseman will be well represented at Awapuni today, in addition to sending quality mare Sinaraha (Darci Brahma) north for the Cal Isuzu Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Te Rapa. The last start Group 2 runner-up has the services of Opie Bosson and is rated a $6 second favourite in a market headed by Supera (Savabeel) at $2.70. “For two or three runs early this preparation I couldn’t get her travelling how I’d like to, but in the last three weeks she’s hardened off, her coat has improved and her work has been phenomenal,” Sharrock said. “Barrier two is a little bit of a concern as she has had a tendency of missing the start. She has had a bit of treatment for kissing spine in the last two weeks and I am hoping that will also assist her jumping away. If she could find a nice midfield position and it opens up, she will be hard to beat. Supera is clearly the best horse in the race, but that doesn’t always work out.”

Newman to ramp up training operation

Manawatu horseman Bryce Newman, who trained Gorbachev (Gorky Park) to land last year’s running of the Wellington Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) is looking to take his racehorse training operation to new heights. The accomplished equestrian has held a trainers’ licence since 1999 but has only ever had a handful of horses bound for the races. Newman, who “chases a few cows around” on his 550-acre property in Bulls, previously focused mainly on pre-training, whilst also juggling the rigours of training at elite level. “We used to do a lot of pre-trainers but in the last couple of years we’re turning more and more to training,” he said. “We’ve got our core clients who we still pre-train for. We were pre-training when I was still training, but I stopped that a couple of years ago. I’ve only been training seriously for two years but I’ve held my licence for a long, long time. Even when we started off with Gorbachev, we only had him and one other.”

Kennedy hopes to give Johnson a record

Terry Kennedy hopes one of his runners at Ascot Park today will provide a record-breaking moment for long-time friend Chris Johnson. Heading into the eight-race card, Johnson has a career tally of 2,450 victories in New Zealand – one short of the all-time record held by David Walsh. Johnson has rides in all eight races, including the Kennedy-trained runners Back Hut (Highly Recommended), Secret Sound (Towkay) and Ray’s In Command (Raise The Flag). “We’ve known each other since my riding days and we’ve been mates for a very long time,” Kennedy said. “He’s ridden a lot of winners for me over the years.” Both Secret Sound and Ray’s In Command are last-start winners, while Kennedy likes the chances of Back Hut in the World Solar Maiden (1400m). Although the three-year-old filly has yet to finish closer than fifth in her three-start career, she made up a huge amount of ground over 1200 metres last start. “I think Back Hut can win,” Kennedy said. “She was giving them about 15 lengths at the 600 metres last time, and she wasn’t beaten by much at the finish. I wouldn’t be surprised to see her go close.”

HK: Happy Valley treble for Per Incanto
Little Avondale Stud’s Per Incanto (Street Cry) enjoyed a notable treble at Happy Valley on Wednesday - and it could easily have been four winners. Race two saw Vital Spring in front a stride past the post after flashing along the inner from second-last. In a crowded finish he was just a short head shy at the line. The John Size-trained Incanto Prepared was also well back rounding into the straight in race three but, with the help of some Joao Moreira magic, he got away from the fence upon straightening and burst through between runners to grab his second win of his last four starts. Moreira took no chances with Gouton Of Garo in the next, sending him straight to the front. Two lengths clear at the 200 metres, he had his opponents in trouble and Moreira was able to sit quietly to the line, clear by a length for the seven-year-old’s second win in his last three starts. Two races later Wood On Fire looked to have little chance when they started the run for home but he stormed to the finish, gathering in the leaders near the line for his maiden victory. Of the three winners only Wood On Fire was offered for sale as a yearling, fetching $75,000 at the 2017 Karaka Yearling Sale. His older brother is the Group 3-placed ten-time winner Cutting Up Rough. Their dam, Lutine Belle (O’Reilly) foaled the Group 3-placed ten-time winner Cutting Up Rough off a prolific Group 1 winners, Exultant (Teofilo) and Lys Gracieux (Heart’s Cry), in the 2019 Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Gr 1, 2000m), before staving off an unlucky Magic Wand (Galileo) in this race last year, and Matsuoka, who partnered him to both of his headline-making exploits in Hong Kong, will take the reins again. “There is no problem with him (Win Bright), he’s feeling himself,” the jockey continued. “Sha Tin racecourse and the climate in Hong Kong is very suitable for him, it’s a similar season, a cold season in December so it is easy to train him in Japan as well.”

HK: Tower Of London looks to boss rivals
William Buick will partner Godolphin’s Tower Of London (Raven’s Pass) for the first time in more than two years when the five-year-old lines up in tomorrow’s Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m). Although the Kazuo Fujisawa trainee is the only elite level winner in the field, Buick is aware his mount faces no easy task. “He looks very well, he looks like he’s travelled over very well. I think he’s fit and ready to go,” he said. “It’s a tough race, you have the other Japanese runner Danon Smash and the local horse Hot King Prawn who is going to be a hard horse to beat on home ground and Classique Legend as well, it’s a top-class sprint as you would expect.”

HK: Soumillon returns negative test
Christophe Soumillon moved one step closer to being free to ride in Hong Kong after returning a negative Covid-19 test yesterday, meaning he is able to end his quarantine period. However, Soumillon will take further tests starting from today in accordance with the Hong Kong Jockey Club’s protocol, meaning the earliest date he would be able to return to action is December 20.

US: Justify allowed to keep Santa Anita Derby after complaint is rejected
Justify (Scat Daddy), the unbeaten US Triple Crown winner, will not be disqualified from his win in the 2018 Santa Anita Derby (Gr 1, 9f) following a positive post-race drugs test after stewards dismissed a complaint against the result. Justify became embroiled in controversy after it emerged he had tested positive for the banned substance scopolamine following his Derby success. Officials at the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) concluded in 2018 that the failed test was the result of environmental contamination from jimson weed and did not disqualify Justify. A complaint was lodged last year by the connections of Bolt D’Oro (Medaglia D’Oro), runner-up to Justify at Santa Anita, who argued CHRB rules dictated Justify should be disqualified. However, following a hearing in October, CHRB stewards elected to dismiss the claims against Justify and his Bob Baffert-trained stablemate Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday), who also tested positive to dismiss the claims against Justify and his Bob Baffert-trained stablemate Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday), who also tested positive for scopolamine, saying the matter had been properly considered by the CHRB at a hearing in August 2018. In a statement, the stewards said: “After considering the evidence and testimony presented the complaints are both dismissed. The CHRB has already ruled on this matter, in executive session, at the August 23, 2018 CHRB meeting at Del Mar, and voted not to move forward with complaints.”
