Coolmore digs deep for son of Kingman as colt funds dominate at Magic Millions

Buyers' appetites show no signs of relenting during another session of dynamic trade at the Gold Coast Yearling Sale

Lot 322: Kingman ex Florentina colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ\_NEWS

A colt born in the UK to southern hemisphere time by super European sire Kingman (Invincible Spirit) provided the benchmark on another extraordinary day of trade when selling for $1.8 million at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale yesterday.

Even the most bullish industry pundits and stakeholders did not predict, at least publicly, the insatiable appetite shown by buyers during the first two sessions of the seven-day auction, which resulted in four million-dollar lots being sold on Wednesday as the key metrics kept pace with the corresponding figures from the past two years.

While a colt by Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) broke the seven-figure barrier before midday, it was the son of Kingman who stole the show, his sale coming less than 24 hours after it was announced that the stallion's owner-breeder, Juddmonte Farms founder Prince Khalid Abdullah, had died aged 83.

Segenhoe Stud's Peter O'Brien, who offered the colt on behalf of his breeder Fairway Thoroughbreds' John Camilleri, knew the son of Kingman would be a sales-ring star in Australia.

"We knew he was going to sell well. We knew every one of the big buyers liked him, but you never expect them to sell that well," O'Brien said.

"He was a beautiful colt by one of the best sires in the world from a very good racemare. I'm delighted he is going to Coolmore, because he'll get every chance.

"The best colt I thought I'd ever taken to the sales was King's Legacy. James Harron was underbidder on the Kingman and Coolmore was underbidder on King's Legacy as a yearling. The same two people duked it out and I firmly believe this is a Group 1 horse."

The colt is out of Australian Group 3-winning mare Florentina (Redoute's Choice), making him a half-brother to the stakes-placed duo Villa Carlotta (Street Cry) and Fasano (Lonhro). He was offered as Lot 322.

"All credit to John Camilleri - it's a big swing to send a mare up there (to the northern hemisphere). She went to Dubawi first and that filly sold for 475,000gns at Tatts, then she went to Kingman, and came back pregnant to Kingman, and he was at foot," O'Brien said.

"He was born in England and came here to Australia about 12 months ago. John is a global thinker and he's got paid for it. Coolmore looked at him plenty of times and they complimented him this morning about his temperament. He is absolutely bombproof. He has a great mind and I can't wait to see him at the racetrack."

Coolmore's Tom Magnier, who also took home the $1.9 million Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) colt on day one, has faith in Kingman working in Australia.

"Segenhoe always

Lot 221: Not A Single Doubt ex Denmagic colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

has incredible horses at this sale, and we know what John Camilleri can breed," Magnier said.

"You know when you see that Fairway Thoroughbreds brand on the horse, you have to take it pretty seriously.

"We know everything about how well Kingman is going at the moment. We have got Calyx at the farm by Kingman, who is going well. All the boxes were ticked for us."

O'Brien is equally confident that Kingman can make his mark on Australian racing and breeding.

"The last time I looked he'd had three runners for three winners here in Australia. What I really liked about him was that he had two very good two-year-old winners in Japan two weeks ago and the Kingman's love fast ground.

"As I said, the bloodlines work and they should adore Australian conditions and there's no reason why he can't hit the heights he has worldwide in Australia."

Trainer Chris Waller will be the lucky recipient of the colt.

Meanwhile, Magnier also paid tribute to Abdullah.

"Obviously, it's a big loss to racing. Prince Khalid Abdullah was not only a gentleman, he helped shape our industry," he said.

"If you look back on some of the greatest breeders of all time, he's definitely one of them. The silks are famous worldwide and he has been one of the best.

"We have had Danehill and Frankel and Arrogate win in them. It's a huge loss for racing, but he's left a remarkable stamp on the industry."

Farnan partnership strike again

Earlier, Tony Fung and Phoenix Thoroughbreds, the partnership behind last year's Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner and soon-to-be Kia Ora Stud stallion Farnan (Not A Single Doubt), reinvested in another son of Not A Single Doubt in the hope of repeating the on-track success.

"We are obviously unabashed fans of the sire. We were fortunate enough to secure Farnan from the same sales ring, and he was able to win the Golden Slipper. At the end of the day, that's the dream, to get him back for these big races," Aquis Farm managing director Shane McGrath said.

"He's a straightforward colt. We liked everything about him and every time we looked at him he never turned a hair. He looks like he'll be early and hopefully lightning can strike twice for us."

The Torryburn Stud-consigned youngster, who was catalogued as Lot 221, is the first foal out of the Group 1-placed mare Denmagic (Denman). He will be trained by rising Sydney star Annabel Neasham.

"Most of these world-class sires, they tend to throw a type, and he was very much in that mould," McGrath continued. "He's come off a great farm and he was extremely well presented. There is plenty of competition there, which you'd expect from a quality colt."

"Hopefully he goes on to make the mare for the breeder."

Spendthrift Australia, the southern hemisphere arm of last year's Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f)-winning owner B. Wayne Hughes, was underbidder.

"I always thought, from the moment he was born, that he could make a million dollars but everything has to work out. He has come here and it has worked out and I am absolutely stoked," said Torryburn Stud manager Mel Copelin.

"Once I saw all the vetting come through, he'd certainly had enough inspections to be a million-dollar horse. He definitely has the best temperament and everyone can see that. He hasn't turned a hair."

Denmagic, who was purchased in 2018 from the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale for $350,000 by agent Ric Wylie, has a filly by The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) and was covered by Exceed And Excel (Danehill) this season.

MAGIC MILLIONS

Lot 328

Breeding: So You Think - Fragrance (Commands) colt

Price: $800,000

Buyer: George Moore Bloodstock

Vendor: Segenhoe Stud

George Moore made his only play of the sale yesterday when stepping in to secure a colt by So You Think (High Chaparral) for the same owner as Bauhinia Sprint Trophy (Gr 3, 1000m) runner-up Stronger (Not A Single Doubt), who was purchased from the corresponding auction in 2018 when realising $1.05 million to James Harron Bloodstock. Trained by Peter and Paul Snowden, Stronger won the Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) at the Gold Coast prior to being sold to Hong Kong, where he is now trained by Douglas Whyte. "The sale is really strong. We were expecting $500-600,000 and he went for $800,000," Moore said. "He is going to go to the same owner as Stronger in Hong Kong. They have a PPG permit through both his daughter and son, so that's what he is going to do. I'll only be buying the one horse." The colt is the third living foal out of an unraced sister to Group 1 winner Skilled (Commands) and Group 2 scorer Ambidexter as well as being a half-sister to Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner and champion Australian two-year-old Sidestep (Exceed and Excel). Moore continued: "We've had a bit of luck with So You Thinks. I bought Buddies and he ran in the Sprint in Hong Kong. He's probably a Group 3 horse up there and this colt is very similar. You don't want the big So You Thinks. He was really composed today. He has a really big hip on him, and carried himself well. He had 39 X-ray hits, which I've never heard before." would employ.

Lot 245

Breeding: Fastnet Rock - Dreams And Wishes (Galileo) filly

Price: $800,000

Buyer: Ciaran Maher Bloodstock

Vendor: Strawberry Hill Stud

Ciaran Maher, who went to $800,000 for an I Am Invincible filly on day one, was active again yesterday in order to secure a well-bred daughter of Fastnet Rock (Danehill), who is a three-quarter sister in blood to this season's VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Personal. "You don't see a lot of those fillies and she was probably the best filly in the sale, I thought," said Maher. "She has got a beautiful attitude and she has a great physical, a pedigree and a healthy enough price tag to match. She's out of a Galileo broodmare and we have Sneaky Five out of a staying-type mare and she has won over 1000 and 1100 metres, so she is just a nice horse and we are rapt to be able to get her." The Fastnet Rock-Galileo (Sadler's Wells) cross has produced 20 stakes winners from 89 runners at a 22 per cent strike rate, with the highest-profile in Australia being Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Unforgotten.

Breeding: Not A Single Doubt - Delphic (Street Cry) filly

Price: $550,000

Buyer: Nick Olive Racing

Vendor: Milburn Creek

Nick Olive trained a filly by Arrowfield Stud's brilliant sire Not A Single Doubt to Group 1 glory in the shape of Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Single Gaze and yesterday the Canberra-based horseman paid $550,000 for another daughter of the now pensioned stallion, the highest-priced horse of his career to date. "She was a lovely filly. The first foal out of the mare died (by Pierro) and they had a big opinion of him and the second one (State Capital) goes all right, too, but he hasn't raced yet. She was a lovely filly and she's by Not A Single Doubt, who is one of my favourite stallions and we won't be able to buy them again." Olive bought the filly on behalf of an undisclosed client. "We've done a good job with what we've got, so it's good to get a bit of backing behind you and get some nicer horses," he said.

Colts partnerships make mark on day two

Two other colt syndicates registered their first blows of the sale yesterday, with agent James Harron Bloodstock landing a Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) yearling for $1.15 million and a son of Capitalist (Written Tycoon) for $975,000.

The newly formed Victorian Alliance, led by Rosemont Stud's Nigel Austin, also went to seven figures for a Zoustar (Northern Meteor) colt after both outfits had missed out despite repeated attempts until a heated mid-to-late afternoon period of trade.

Harron's biggest play of the second session was on the Shalaa colt, who is the second foal from the former Rick Worthington-trained ATC Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) winner Honesty Prevails (Redoute's Choice). He was catalogued as Lot 382 and Ciaran Maher was the underbidder.

"Shalaa having a Breeders' Plate winner early in his career is very impressive," Harron said.

"He's a very special colt with lots of quality and he comes off a great farm in Arrowfield. He was one of our must-have colts and we are delighted to get him.

"It's a fantastic family and Honesty Prevails was a real star mare. Redoute's needs no introduction as a sire or a broodmare sire. It was a super result."

Continuing his support of young sire Capitalist, who sported his dark green and gold epaulette colours to win the 2016 Golden Slipper, Harron bought the second crop yearling, who is a brother to this season's Lloyd Kennewell-trained Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) placegetter Marine One.

He was offered by Newgate Farm, the home of Capitalist, as Lot 349, and is the third foal out of Listed winner and Group 1-placed Golconda (Snitzel).

"He was very much like his father: very sharp, very precocious and I loved the way he handled the sale," Harron said.

"He had a very good attitude towards everything. His brother, Marine One, has got some ability and has proven to be a handy horse.

"We've also got a nice Capitalist already on the team in Forbes, so that made us comfortable to have a shot in this guy.

"He's well-balanced, medium-sized, with a lovely depth of girth and just a really good, sharp, alert head. He's a very nice colt, and hopefully he can go nice and early."

Both of Harron's acquisitions will be broken in at Kolora Lodge in Queensland before joining the Anthony and Sam Freedman stable.

The Victorian Alliance, who has enlisted the assistance of agents Suman Hedge and the UK's David Redvers and Hannah Wall, helped provide Widden Stud with its second million-dollar yearling of the sale when the partnership went to seven figures for Lot 332.

The colt, who was bred by Widden Stud and Longwood Thoroughbred Farm's Michael Christian, is the fifth foal out of Western Australian Group 3 winner Fuddle Dee Duddle (Red Ransom).

Rosemont Stud general manager of bloodstock Ryan McEvoy, who raced Zoustar Group winners Zousain and Sun City, revealed the colt became a prime target some weeks ago.

"It feels like it's been a long wait and we are rapt to be able to secure this colt. He was our number one after being in the Hunter Valley in mid-December and he is as nice a colt as we have been able to inspect this week," McEvoy said.

"He is a sharper style of Zoustar and bred on a similar cross to Sunlight. He looks like a horse who will cope Continued on page 8>>

- JAMES HARRON

Lot 182

Breeding: Redoute's Choice - Condesaar (Xaar) filly

Price: $500,000

Buyer: Bahen Bloodstock/Matt Laurie Racing

Vendor: Rosemont Stud

Victorian trainer Matt Laurie stepped in early yesterday, securing the Redoute's Choice (Danahill) half-sister to dual Group 1-winning filly Yankee Rose (All American). The filly is also from the same family as Black Soil Bloodstock's star three-year-old Isotope (Deep Field), who is favourite for Saturday's Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m). "She's obviously got a really strong pedigree but she backs that up with her physique. She's a lovely, strong filly who is by a stallion who needs no introduction," said Laurie, who signed for the filly alongside Hong Kong-based agent Justin Bahen. "We are obviously hopeful that she can add to her pedigree with good racetrack performances, but she has a hell of a pedigree and she will be a good broodmare down the track either way."

<< Continued from page 6 with the work and we noted what a great attitude he had all week. We saw him every day and he didn't turn a hair, and I think that is important for a Zoustar.

"We had to stretch as is clearly evident in this sale. It is obviously a strong market, but we are over the moon to have this boy join our partnership."

A trainer has yet to be decided for the youngster, with the Victorian Alliance directors to make that call at a later date.

I Am Invincible filly joins Godolphin

Godolphin's selective buying strategy for 2021 also got underway on the second day, with the purchase of an I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) filly for $900,000.

Vin Cox, managing director of the Australian arm of the global racing and breeding empire, declared they were on their last legs when the price surged towards the million-dollar mark.

"We're delighted to be getting an I Am Invincible filly out of a very, very good racemare, off an outstanding farm," he said.

"We think we have bought a good horse, now we have to knock it into shape. She's just very athletic, a precocious type and she's got the pedigree. She's one of those fillies which is a rare commodity, let's hope she ends up being a very good racehorse.

"She has a pedigree that we can add to our bloodstock portfolio. They are the ones that we want to chase that improve our bloodstock profile."

Brisbane trainer Kelly Schweida, who has bought four yearlings so far, was underbidder.

The filly is out of Eloping (Choisir), a dual Group 3 winner who is also a sister to the stakes-placed Jesse's Girl and a three-quarter sister to Group 3-winning juvenile Of The Brave (Starspangledbanner). She is owned by Longwood Thoroughbred Farm's Michael Christian in partnership with Segenhoe.

The soon-to-be James Cummings-trained yearling filly is Eloping's second foal and she was catalogued as Lot 257.

"It is a huge result. She has been very popular during the week, but (the price) exceeded our expectations. She has gone to a great team in Godolphin and James Cummings, so we're delighted that she's gone to a really good home," Segenhoe Stud manager Brian Clarke said.

"She is out of Group 3 winner Eloping, who was a very fast mare, so she has a big residual value. I Am Invincible has got so many Group-winning fillies, so you're a great chance of getting a stakes winner when you buy one of those."

Eloping has a filly foal by Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) and she visited the Widden Stud stallion's own sire Snitzel in 2020.

The two days of strong trade at the Gold Coast was due to a strong domestic market, according to Cox.

"In any market over any period of time, it's the domestic market which is the guts of the market. There is just a huge appetite domestically to buy horses, whether it be syndicators, colt buyers, local buyers, or us as a global organisation looking to buy nice horses to add to our system," he said.

"As we know, there is a lack of international buyers, but it is great that our industry can stand up on our own two feet and really be as buoyant and strong as it has been."

Market shows no signs of slowing down

At the close of trade on the second day of the season-opening Gold Coast sale, the clearance rate for 330 horses sold was at 88 per cent, at an average of $258,202 and a median of $180,000, which is comparative or above compared to the 2020 and 2019 sales.

The circumstances this year are, of course, dramatically different but they appear, at least to this point, to have not affected the Australian bloodstock market.

"If it was solid yesterday. It was extremely solid today. The clearance rate is edging towards 88 per cent. The average hit $260,000 and is holding just underneath that. There is buoyancy at all ends, there are buyers that are walking away thrilled with their purchases," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said last night.

"Vendors are putting them on the market and once you get to the better end of the market, the colt funds, and even those here to buy fillies, are pinning their ears back and having a proper go."

There are some buyers who have lamented their inability to enter the market up to this point, but with five days of selling remaining, Bowditch believes there are plenty of opportunities for those wanting to invest.

"Everyone will get a turn here. It's a huge catalogue and that's the beauty of this sale, and the beauty of Magic Millions," he said.

"We have a catalogue full of quality horses that the vendors decide to send here. If you keep your lists long, and you do your work, then you are going to be rewarded in the long run. Book 1 having a catalogue of 960-odd horses will do that and then following into Book 2

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Eustace delighted with Away Game draw

Co-trainer David Eustace believes Away Game (Snitzel) has every chance of becoming the first horse to complete the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m)-Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) double after the hard-knocking filly drew barrier three for the $2 million contest at the Gold Coast on Saturday. "As Glen Boss said yesterday from barrier three, she's going to look the winner in the straight but whether she'll see out the last 100 metres, that's the query," Eustace, who trains Away Game in partnership with Ciaran Maher, told RSN yesterday. "She'll give 110 per cent that's for sure. We've got huge faith in her. We'll make use of her barrier and she'll be there every step of the way." Away Game finished a neck behind Guineas favourite Isotope (Deep Field) in the Gold Edition Plate (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben on December 19 and Eustace believes his charge has improved ahead of the eagerly-anticipated rematch. "She was first-up off a long break. She's thrived since and her work since has been great," he said.

Cloud over Fake Love, Boomnova

Meanwhile, Away Game's stable companion and leading Classic hopeful Fake Love (I Am Invincible) will have to undergo a veterinary inspection this morning if she is to line-up at the weekend, with the juvenile having pulled a shoe at the beach yesterday. Guineas contender Boomnova (Spirit Of Boom) will also have to pass the vets if she is to have a chance of completing a four-timer on Saturday. The Chris Munce-trained filly, who completed a recent hat-trick with a short-head victory at the Gold Coast last weekend, needs one more runner to come out if she is to make the final field.

Gollan buoyant ahead of Isotope bid

Confidence is also high among the Tony Gollan camp ahead of Isotope's bid to justify favouritism in Saturday's Guineas following her draw in barrier seven. The improving three-year-old, who ran second in the Champagne Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) as a juvenile, secured her second Listed prize when taking out the Gold Edition Plate, having streaked away to a three-length success in the Mode Plate (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben a fortnight earlier. "It's a very hard race with a lot of quality horses and it'll take a genuine Group horse to win it and I'm hopeful Isotope can do it," Gollan told Racing Queensland. "I'm happy Isotope drew barrier seven and I'd like to see her race a bit closer than she did when she won the Gold Edition last time. She stepped away well that day but couldn't muster any speed but this time there's a lot of speed horses drawn under her."

Best is yet to come from Estrado

Gary Portelli is set to launch a three-pronged assault on Saturday's card at Rosehill, including Estrado (Stratum) in the Benchmark 78 over 1100 metres. The four-year-old was winning for the fourth time in 28 starts when securing a Canterbury handicap by three-quarters of a length last Friday, but the Warwick Farm trainer believes the best is yet to come from his charge. "She's just one of those horses that has promised so much and is now starting to deliver," he said. "Every preparation she's gone to a new level. She's been unlucky not to have won more races in town and she does race well at Rosehill." Estrado has finished second in both of her previous outings over Saturday's course and distance, while she will be joined at the meeting by stable companions Above And Beyond (Sebring), who will contest the Benchmark 78 over 1500 metres, and two-year-old debutant Hollywood Gossip (I'm All The Talk). "She's by a stallion I used to train and she's trialled nicely both times," Portelli said of the latter. "Barrier one will certainly help her get around in her first start. It's more of a look-see for her at the moment and then we'll work out what sort of horse we've got based on what we see."

Halvorsen to finish strongly on his return

Halvorsen (Magnus) will make his first start since finishing seventh in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) last February when he lines up in the Kensington Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington on Saturday and co-trainer Robbie Griffiths is looking for a strong-finishing effort from his five-year-old, who is being set for the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) and Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) in the autumn. "I'm really happy with how he has returned. He has come back a bigger and stronger horse as a five-year-old," Griffiths, who trains in partnership with Matthew De Kock, said of the three-time straight course winner. "He'll be the underdog against some in-form horses who love the straight, such as Fabergino and Prezado, who have been racing recently and are battle hardened, which will give them the upper hand. I'm thinking he'll be the black-booker from the race and he'll be the one everyone will be talking about as he'll get back and finish on strongly."

Arcaded impresses for Cummings at Caulfield

Godolphin trainer James Cummings secured his fifth individual two-year-old winner in Melbourne this season when Arcaded (Street Boss) made a striking impression with a three and a quarter length success on debut at Caulfield yesterday. Joining her stable companions Picarones (Shooting To Win), Paulele (Dawn Approach), Ingratiating (Frosted) and Anamoe (Street Boss) as winners, Arcaded firmed into a $26 chance with TAB for next month's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) having swept aside her eight rivals in the hands of Damian Lane. "She had a couple of trials in September and James and Reg Fleming decided she was a bit weak and needed time out," Cummings Melbourne foreman Sean Keogh said following the 1100-metre success. Keogh also confirmed the promising filly will now progress to the better juvenile races.

Thunderstruck goes down a storm for Price and Kent Jr

Mick Price and Michael Kent Jr saddled their sixth New Zealand-bred Melbourne metropolitan winner since November 25 when I'm Thunderstruck (Shocking) swooped late to make a successful debut in the $50,000 Neds Filter Form Plate (1200m) at Caulfield yesterday. Formerly trained by Daniel Miller, for whom he won a 1000-metre two-year-old trial at Te Aroha on July 9, I'm Thunderstruck was subsequently acquired by OTI Racing and transferred to his current stable, who have enjoyed a remarkable recent run with horses bred across the Tasman. Sent off the $2.60 favourite, the three-year-old arrived with a sustained challenge under Michael Dee, who told Racing.com post-race: "They were going awfully slow back where we were (in the field) so he's done an amazing job to pick them up. I thought that he was above average before coming here today, I had done both jump-outs on him leading into this and he's given me a nice feel each time. He is one that's certainly done that very greenly, he wanted to lay in, but he picked up sharply underneath me around the home bend. He's one that's certainly going to get 1400 to 1600 metres, which will be ideal for him as he was finding his best on the line and past the line."

Warwick Farm maiden winner provides timely MM update

Shivani's (Sebring) three-length success at Warwick Farm yesterday provided a timely boost ahead of her I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) half-brother going under the hammer in Saturday's session of the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Carrying the colours of Kia Ora Stud and trained by Team Hawkes, Shivani got off the mark at the fourth time of asking under Tommy Berry, building on her recent runner-up effort at Newcastle. Passed in as a yearling and retained to race by Kia Ora, Shivani is the second winner from Group 2 victress Villa Verde (Not a Single Doubt), who was bought off the track for $1.1million at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale in 2015. Her latest yearling, an August-foaled grey colt, is catalogued as Lot 934. Villa Verde has since produced a filly foal by More Than Ready (Southern Halo) prior to being covered by Piero (Lonhro) on October 30.

Jarvis chases back-to-back Cup wins

Local trainer Natalie Jarvis will be double handed when she goes in search of back-to-back wins in today's Moruya Cup (1435m). The $75,000 feature was scheduled to be run on January 4, but the meeting was abandoned after race five due to persistent heavy rain and lightning. Jarvis' representatives Hay Bale (Canford Cliffs) and Airfree (Wilful Default) would have relished the testing conditions on that occasion, but the trainer remains upbeat despite the prospect of a good surface this afternoon. "When the rain started falling through the afternoon at the January 4 meeting we really started cheering as both Hay Bale and Airfree both like heavy tracks," Jarvis told Racing NSW. "On Thursday they look like they will get completely different, much firmer track conditions. That's not a problem for Hay Bale, who handles all surfaces, but Airfree would have needed a softer track to be a winning hope." Airfree caused a boilover in last year's contest when winning by half a length at $26, while Hay Bale was last seen running a long-neck second in the Christmas Cup (1300m) on December 20.

Waller stars to trial

A significant number of Chris Waller's team for the autumn carnival will continue their preparations for Group 1 assignments by undertaking a barrier trial at Rosehill tomorrow morning. The champion trainer is set to field all ten horses in the heat due off at 8.15am, with nine of those participants having either won, or placed, at elite level. They include Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Verry Elleegant (Zed) and star sprinter Nature Strip (Nicconi). Other interesting autumn pointers include the Team Hawkes-trained Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) in heat five at 8.55am, while All-Star Mile (1600m)-nominated duo Osamu (Exceed And Excel) and Global Quest (More Than Ready) will contest heat 13 at 10.15am for Annabel Neasham.

Legacy targeting Sydney autumn

Dual Group 1-winning colt King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) will be campaigned solely in Sydney this autumn after co-trainer Peter Snowden ruled out a return to Melbourne following a disappointing spring campaign. A winner of the Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) as a juvenile, King's Legacy failed to build on those performances in a four-start Melbourne campaign, running third in the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) but otherwise finishing no better than seventh. "I'm not sure what happened in Melbourne but hopefully he can regain his focus," Snowden, who trains in partnership with his son Paul, told Racing.com. "The Hobartville will probably be first up for him into the Randwick Guineas and then we'll see what happens from there, but he'll be in Sydney the whole time this prep for sure."

Johnny spelled and will miss autumn

Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Johnny Get Angry (Tavistock) has been sent back to the paddock and will miss the autumn carnival. Owner and trainer Denis Pagan said yesterday that the three-year-old pulled up "a little scratchy" after his work the previous morning and while not lame, Pagan said he wanted to err on the side of caution with the horse that delivered him with a fairytale

Group 1 win in the spring. "He owes me absolutely nothing this horse and I just don't want to take any sort of risk with him," Pagan told Racing.com. "I had every intention of running him this autumn as he went out (for a spell) and put on 35 kilograms and I thought he'd be right to go again. He'd been in work about six weeks but he's such a young horse and I'm hoping we can have him racing at four and five so I am going to look after him. I want to give him every chance to get to the best he can be. He's fully qualified for the Cups next spring and we'll just let him rest and focus on that."

Defibrillate heading to Adelaide Cup

Kiwi-bred horses have had a strong recent record in the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) and Patrick Payne is looking to extend that run in this year's renewal of the race with his in-form gelding Defibrillate (Shocking). The six-year-old has won two of his three starts this preparation, including the Lord Stakes (Listed, 1700m) at Caulfield on Boxing Day and the Lexus Handicap (2000m) at Flemington on Saturday. Payne was pleased with the win last weekend and said his charge has come through the run well. "The race worked out really well for him, he was ridden really well," he said. "The horse is a lovely horse to deal with. I appreciate Richy (Graham Richardson) sending him over. He is a really nice horse and I don't think that will be his last win. He came over in good form and he has been in good form all of his life really. That was his third run this preparation and he has pulled up fantastic." Formerly trained in New Zealand by his co-breeder and part-owner Graham Richardson, Defibrillate won two of his three starts on home soil before transferring to Payne's care, where he has won on a further five occasions. Victorious in his only stakes test to date, Payne is now eyeing some Group targets, including the Adelaide Cup in March. "There is the Adelaide Cup coming up and there are some beautiful Saturday races for him from now until then. We will just see how he goes. We will quietly head down that path," he said.

Rawiller injured in Bunbury fall

Brad Rawiller is facing up to a stint on the sidelines after he sustained a broken collarbone and punctured lung in a race fall at Bunbury yesterday. The 42-year-old was last night in hospital awaiting the results of scans on his neck. Rawiller went down in the second race on the card after his mount, Imprudent (Oratorio), stumbled about 200 metres from the winning post.

RV stewards defend Callow decision

Racing Victoria stewards yesterday defended their decision to question Noel Callow at Kilmore the previous day following a post on Twitter alleging alcohol and drug abuse. Chief steward Robert Cram said it was part of a stewards' job to follow up information, while admitting that social media did not always provide a credible source. "On receiving the information, stewards sought to clarify it with Noel at the racecourse," Cram told Racing.com. "From time to time things like this come up and sometimes stewards have to try and assess the veracity of the information and whether there is any credibility to it. I think unfortunately in this modern world with social commentary, these things can arise. It is a source of information but it's not always credible information." The Victorian Jockeys' Association is seeking a meeting with Racing Victoria's integrity department following the incident, where Callow was drug tested and put on a breathalyser before he went out and won on the favourite Diamonds'n'stones (Brazen Beau) in the second race on the card.

Nugent suspended for Kilmore ride

Teo Nugent has been suspended for nine meetings after being found guilty of careless riding on board runner-up Quantrell (Captain Gerrard) in the race won by Diamonds'n'stones. The stewards found that Nugent allowed his mount to shift in passing the 150-metre mark when not clear of the eventual third, Albanian Eagle (Dundeel), which was checked and lost its rightful running. Nugent's suspension starts at midnight on January 16 and expires at midnight on January 24. He will miss three metro and six provincial meetings.

Adkins to resume trackwork on Monday

Andrew Adkins will ride trackwork at Randwick on Monday as the Group 1-winning rider moves a step closer to resuming race riding following the injuries he suffered in a horror fall at Rosehill back in July. Adkins suffered a broken leg, collarbone and ribs, as well as a punctured lung, in the incident which resulted in Hugh Bowman picking up a six-week suspension. Adkins, who spent more than two weeks in hospital recovering from his injuries, hopes to be back in competitive action late next month.

NEW ZEALAND

Enzo seeks Telegraph three-peat

Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa) will jump from barrier three when he attempts to record his third victory in the Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m) at Trentham on Saturday. The Michael and Matthew Pitman-trained gelding won consecutive editions in 2018 and 2019, before finishing runner-up last year behind Advantage (Fastnet Rock). He will meet the talented mare again on Saturday, although connections believe he is a lot more forward than he was 12 months ago. "He just seems to thrive at this time of year," Matthew Pitman said. "Getting down to Waikouaiti certainly helps and he loves Trentham. He is better than last year when he did all that travelling. He went to Hong Kong and England, and then had to have a big break when he came back. That meant we were chasing to get his fitness where we wanted it to be. This year he is at a similar place to when he won both Telegraphs before. He is an eight-year-old now but he doesn't know that. If anything, he is stronger than when he won his first one. We are really happy with the horse."

Basarwa primed for Levin Classic

Guy Lowry reckons he has talented three-year-old Basarwa (Atlante) in the best condition possible going into Saturday's Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham. In two starts to date Lowry, who trains in partnership with Grant Cullen, has produced Basarwa for a debut win at Hastings and a second placing to race rival Invisible Spirit (Charm Spirit) at Trentham. "I'm happy with him," Lowry said. "He had a 1000-metre jump-out on January 5. He was only just beaten and hit the line really hard so he's fit enough. I'm as happy with him now as I was when he won his first race and when he ran second at his second start. He's been aimed at this and I know they have all probably been aimed for it, but this has been his target race since day one and he's ready to give a good account of himself." Bred and raced by Lib Petagna and the Perry Family Trust, Basarwa will be out to emulate his sire Atlante (Fastnet Rock) as a Group 1-winning three-year-old over 1600 metres in the same Petagna colours. Atlante, a NZD$200,000 Ready To Run Sale purchase at Karaka for Wairarapa bloodstock agent Bruce Perry, stood for two seasons at Waikato's Mapperley Stud before his death. "Basarwa is still a green and raw horse but I've got no doubt the mile will suit him better than 1400 metres. He was flat footed when they quickened the other day," Lowry continued. "He's worked up well and is really bright. I can't fault him. I'm just really looking forward to him running in it."

Beaufort provide international flavour at Karaka

While international buyers won't be able to be present at New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sales later this month, Beaufort Downs will ensure there is still some international flavour at Karaka. Beaufort Downs principals, Annabel Wigley and Olly Tuthill, will offer an eight-strong Book 1 Sale draft, including two yearlings out of mares the couple sourced in England. "These will be our first yearlings out of the mares we imported," said Wigley, who spent time in the United Kingdom representing New Zealand as a top-level eventer. "One of them is a Street Cry mare called Fiendish, we have got an Iffraaj filly (Lot 399) out of her. The other one is called Highly Valued, who is a High Chaparral mare, and we are offering a Per Incanto filly (Lot 442) out of her. It's pretty exciting we are offering the first foals out of them and they are lovely fillies, and we are really happy with the mares." Wigley is also buoyant about the quality of the rest of her draft. "We bought a few of the mares in Australia and we left them over there to get in-foal, so some of our draft are by Australian stallions," she said. "We have got a Lonhro colt (Lot 498) out of an Exceed and Excel winning mare. He is a nicely put together colt and he is the first foal out of her. We are pretty excited about him, he is just a ball of muscle really. We have got a lovely So You Think filly (Lot 344), and we sold a half-sister to her last year. This one is a really nice filly. The No Nay Never (Lot 395) is a really nice filly as well. We are really happy with all of our draft heading up to Karaka."

Derryn's first yearlings to go under the hammer

While Zed (Zabeel) continues to put Grangewilliam Stud's name in lights on both sides of the Tasman, the next generation gets its time to shine with Derryn's (Hinchinbrook) first yearlings going under the hammer at Karaka 2021. Derryn has proven to be a popular addition to the stallion roster at Grangewilliam, where he stands for a service fee of NZD$5,000. "He's been really well supported by breeders," Grangewilliam's Mark Corcoran said. "He served 105 mares in his first season, then 120 in his second. This spring he served just under 90. So he's going to have every chance, with some good numbers and some nice-quality mares in his books as well. It's really exciting to have his first yearlings about to go through the ring. He's a lovely horse himself, and he's passing that quality on to his progeny. He's really stamped them with his strength and athleticism." There are a couple of yearlings in particular that Corcoran will be watching closely at Karaka later this month. "My pick of his fillies at Karaka is one that's in Book 2 - Lot 894," he said. "She's out of a Bachelor Duke mare, Miss Isle, who's a stakes-placed half-sister to Ken and Bev Kelso's exciting horse Levante. I think she looks quite a lot like Levante, and she's got a lovely temperament and a great walk. I think she's an extremely nice filly. As far as his colts are concerned, I like Lot 500 in Book 1 - the colt out of La Petite. This colt's a half-brother to Lightning Jack, who won a couple of nice Guineas races in the South Island and placed in the Wellington Guineas. He's an outstanding colt."

INTERNATIONAL

UK: Amateur jockeys barred from riding

Amateur jockeys will no longer be permitted to ride in Britain from Saturday after the British Horseracing Authority yesterday released a number of changes to the race programme. The decisions have been taken by the racing industry's Covid-19 steering group which includes representatives from racecourses and horsemen. Amateurs are classed as grassroots sports participants and the new rules are in line with British government restrictions around the definition of elite sport, and the associated suspension of grassroots sport

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA'S IN-DEPTH PEDIGREE ANALYSIS

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA | @ANZ_NEWS

It's not often in racing that people are allowed two bites of the cherry. So when Widden Stud had theirs two years ago, they weren't going to miss out.

The results of their determination were shown – in rather spectacular fashion – at this week's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

In 2018, Widden were the under-bidders when the stakes-winning O'Reilly mare Bonny O'Reilly was sold for $825,000 at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. A year later, after the mare's new owner Damion Flower's fall from grace on drugs smuggling charges, Widden had the chance to buy her again – now in foal to Snitzel. This time, they would not miss out, though it did cost them $1.2 million.

In time, out came a magnificent brown colt, and on day one at the Gold Coast this week, he topped the charts when sold for $1.9 million – more than double the second-highest lot.

He's the first foal of Bonny O'Reilly, so there's a not inconsiderable amount of risk in that outlay, by the Coolmore-Chris Waller stallion syndicate. Bonny O'Reilly had 16 starts for eight wins – six at metro level – claiming a dash of black type in winning in Listed class at Doomben.

But there's a lot of historical strength in the pedigree – laced with a rich Waikato Stud heritage of Centaine, Pins and O'Reilly – and some very recent excitement as well.

Only three generations back in the female line, you'll find a coveted blue hen. Centaine mare Escada, who first raced as Centenaire in New Zealand, won four from 23 and was Group 3-placed for trainer Pat Hyland when second in Moonee Valley's 1996 Tesio Stakes. Her deeds and legacy at stud have far outweighed her performances on the track.

Lot 115: Snitzel ex Bonny O'Reilly colt

Her third named foal was sprinting star Glamour Puss (Tale Of The Cat), a multiple stakes-winning sprinter who raced in the Waikato Stud colours for Danny O'Brien. She took two Group 1s in 2005 in the Goodwood Handicap and Flemington's Salinger Stakes. The following year she was second in the TJ Smith Stakes (relegating Snitzel to third), before bowing out with an assault on the Royal Ascot sprint double – running seventh in the King's Stand behind Takeover Target, and 10th in what was then still known as the Golden Jubilee Stakes.

Two foals later Escada went to Carnegie and did it again, producing the outstanding Vision And Power, Joe Pride's gelding who took Sydney's George Ryder-Doncaster Group 1 double in 2009, having run second in the Chipping Norton a month earlier.

Back to her second foal, Escada had gone to O'Reilly, and produced the filly Rare Insight, a John Hawkes-trained winner of the Stan Fox Stakes in 2002. At stud, the excitement really started, with Rare Insight throwing the exceptional Steps In Time (Danehill Dancer), a multiple stakes winner, again for Joe Pride, including the Coolmore Classic at Rosehill in 2014.

Carrying on the family line into the present day, Rare Insight's unraced daughter Chanel's Choice (Redoute's Choice), is now the dam of Whimsical (Savabeel), who last month made it two wins from three starts in the Eulogy Stakes at Awapuni.

After Vision And Power, Escada twice went back to O'Reilly and produced Escadaire, a sprinting gelding who was a dual stakes winner in Perth, and Oh So Glam, who has thrown the multiple stakes-placed gelding Torgersen, by Pins.

And similarly, it was Escada's mating with Pins that produced a mare at the crux of this story, Pretty. While managing only a Ballarat maiden win, for Danny O'Brien, at stud Pretty was tried along a trusted path in this family by going to O'Reilly for her second named foal - Bonny O'Reilly - whose first foal made headlines on Tuesday.

Giving that colt's pedigree a hefty recent update have been Bonny O'Reilly's younger half-siblings, a pair of full sisters by Waikato's Ocean Park - Pretty To Sea and Evie Girl.

Pretty To Sea ran second in the Adrian Knox Stakes of 2018, before being exported to New Zealand where she won in Listed class a year later. Evie Girl won two of her six starts, at Moonee Valley and Mornington, this summer, before sadly dying from a suspected heart attack yesterday.

Pretty To Sea ran second in the Adrian Knox Stakes of 2018, before being exported to New Zealand where she won in Listed class a year later. Evie Girl has won two of her five starts, at Moonee Valley and Mornington, this summer.

Widden's owner Antony Thompson might not have planned Bonny O'Reilly's mating with Snitzel, but he's certainly a fan of it - in theory and in practice.

"It looked a good nick and an ideal mating," Thompson tells ANZ Bloodstock News. "O'Reilly mares work with most things, and they certainly seem to work with Snitzel."

Thompson cites two stars of last autumn from similar crosses - Group 2 winner Splintex (by Redoute's Choice's Snitzel out of O'Reilly's Acquired) and Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Shout The Bar (by Redoute's Choice's Not A Single Doubt out of O'Reilly's Drinks All Round).

The physicals also worked well with the day one sale-topper.

"He wasn't too big, which I think is good with a Snitzel," Thompson says. "He's got great quality, a really striking outlook, an incredible stride, and I guess it was the way he moved and handled himself that got everyone in. He looked like a lovely fast sprinter and he's got a stunning big Waikato pedigree behind him.

Antony Thompson

"Gary Chittick has really developed the family and Mark Chittick has taken that on. The success they had with Glamour Puss, right through Centaine-Pins-O'Reilly, it really says 'Waikato Stud' in this day and age. We were really thrilled to get into that family. Bonny O'Reilly is a really exciting mare to have at home in your paddock - a mare who could really develop into a blue hen for us."

Just two lots after Bonny O'Reilly's colt, Widden celebrated another windfall, through one of the richest female families in the stud book, when their I Am Invincible-Bonaria filly went for the day's second-top price of $975,000, to Busuttin Racing.

The line barely needs an introduction, springing from the Last Tycoon mare Decidity, who produced a host of stars including Legally Bay (Snippets), dam of Merchant Navy, Jolie Bay, et al. There are more recent updates too, with Legally Bay's half-sister Chatoyant throwing Godolphin two-year-old Paulele, who's unbeaten from two starts, and Legally Bay's daughter Bayrock throwing Hindaam, a Group 3 winner at Sandown in November.

Legally Bay's half-sister Bonaria (Redoute's Choice) won Flemington's Myer Classic (Gr

1, 1600m) in 2014, and two other stakes races to stamp herself as Decidity's finest racetrack product.

Bonaria's first foal to race, however, hinted at no great things in her career at stud. The son of Sebring fetched Widden $700,000 when sold to Shadwell Stud at Sydney Easter 2018.

Named Alkaamel, the gelding had three unplaced runs last year for the Hayes-Hayes-Dabernig stable before being sold on for $7,500, and was last seen running fifth in a Wyong maiden.

Thompson was confident of a vastly better product by I Am Invincible, and Tuesday brought a good dose of proof.

"Looking at her, she's just a really stunning filly," Thompson says. "She's got an amazing depth of girth, a great presence, an enormous amount of power. She looks a fair bit like another I Am Invincible filly, Loving Gaby, as just that big, strong fast type of filly."

"The Sebring gelding probably didn't have the same oomph as this filly. But certainly, I Am Invincible is doing a great job with his fillies."

"This filly is a daughter of a Group 1 winner who was by Redoute's Choice, and to have a filly with the pedigree she's got - there's so much happening in that family - she's not only an exciting racing prospect but has enormous residual value."

Focus on quality the foundation of Khalid Abdullah's breeding success

No expense was spared in achieving lofty ambitions for Juddmonte Farms

BY MARTIN STEVENS

Khalid Abdullah's Juddmonte Farms ranks as one of the world's most prestigious and productive breeding operations. It has few peers, with only perhaps the Aga Khan Studs and Coolmore able to match its strength in depth and achievements.

At the last count, Juddmonte had bred 113 individual Group/Grade 1 winners of 220 elite races, including 28 Classic winners. Its produce includes household names such as Frankel (Galileo), Enable (Nathaniel) and Zafonic (Gone West).

The seeds of such spectacular success were sown in the 1970s when the young owner, a scion of the Saudi royal family but self-styled with typical humility as 'Mr' Khalid Abdullah rather than 'Prince', recruited former Newmarket trainer Humphrey Cottrill to act as his agent in order to realise lofty long-term ambitions in racing.

Cottrill bought Abdullah's first four yearlings at Newmarket in 1977. None proved to be up to scratch on the track, but in the following year he and Jeremy Tree visited Keeneland and purchased a son of In Reality (Intentionally) for US$225,000. That colt, named Known Fact, took the Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) and was promoted to first place in the English 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) upon the disqualification of Nureyev (Northern Dancer) to become the first Arab-owned Classic winner in Britain.

Charming Native (Princely Native) had become the very first horse to carry the now instantly recognisable 'green, pink sash and cap, white sleeves' into a winner's enclosure when successful at Windsor in 1979. A month later, Abeer (Dewan) landed the Queen Mary Stakes (Gr 2, 5f) to notch the first of many Royal Ascot – and Group race – victories for Abdullah.

MARK CRANHAM

Another notable first was provided by Fine Edge in 1982. The son of Sharpen Up (Blade), a future runner-up in the William Hill Sprint Championship (Gr 1, 5f) (now Nunthorpe), was the owner's debut homebred winner. He hailed from a crop of foals produced by just nine broodmares, five of whom had been sourced from Gerald Leigh.

Abdullah was unstinting in his quest for the best when laying down the foundations of his racing and breeding empire, and during the late 1970s and early 1980s he made many big-money auction acquisitions and judicious private purchases of other breeders' stock.

"All the credit must go to Prince Khalid, who was prepared to invest very substantial sums in the best bloodstock, wonderful farms and excellent staff," trainer Guy Harwood once reflected in an interview. "He started with the best, and if the best was available, he'd buy it."

Under the guidance of James Delahooke, stud and racing manager from 1979 until 1985, future Coronation Cup (Gr 1, 1m 4f) and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) hero Rainbow Quest (Blushing Groom) was bought as a yearling at Fasig-Tipton for $950,000 in 1982, and the legendary Dancing Brave (Lyphard) was added to the team in the same location two years later for $200,000. The dams of both Rainbow Quest and Dancing Brave were eventually added to the Juddmonte broodmare band.

Another Kentucky yearling purchase of 1982 was the His Majesty (Ribot) filly out of Northern Dancer's (Nearctic) half-sister Spring Adieu (Buckpasser) at $350,000, while mares were procured from the nurseries of Jock Whitney, Herbert Schnapka and Robert Sangster, with the odd filly in training purchased along the way, including Epsom Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) runner-up Slightly Dangerous (Roberto).

The wisdom of those early acquisitions was borne out not only on the track, but also in the breeding shed. Mated with Known Fact, Slightly Dangerous produced the top-class miler Warning, while the same mare's liaison with Dancing Brave produced Derby winner Commander In Chief.

Slightly Dangerous, a Roberto (Hail To Reason) half-sister to the dam of Rainbow Quest, was an exceptional broodmare for Juddmonte, also producing US Grade 1 heroine Yashmak ( Danzig), Derby runner-up Dushyantor (Sadler's Wells) and Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) second Deploy (Shirley Heights), who features as damsire of one of the pre-eminent sires of the age in Dubawi (Dubai Millennium).

Dancing Brave experienced modest success as a sire with his early runners and was later sold to stand in Japan, but his third-last crop conceived in Britain included Commander In Chief and another Classic winner for Juddmonte in Wemyss Bight.

Irish Oaks victress Wemyss Bight was out of 310,000gns Tattersalls yearling purchase Bahamian, a Lingfield Oaks Trial (im 4f, Listed) scorer who was herself a daughter of Mill Reef (Never Bend) and the Classic-placed Sorbus (Busted). She produced Abdullah's multiple top-level winner Beat Hollow (Sadler's Wells) at paddocks.

Wemyss Bight's sister Hope, also by Dancing Brave, distinguished herself as a most important mare for Juddmonte by producing Oasis Dream (Green Desert) – a champion two-year-old and sprinter who has developed into a blue-chip sire, supplying 17 Group/Grade 1 winners including the outstanding racemare Midday (Midsummer) – and the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Zenda (Zamindar), who is the dam of the brilliant miler Kingman (Invincible Spirit), an exciting young sire who threw Abdullah's blisteringly fast Coventry Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) winner Calyx from his first crop of two-year-olds.

Rainbow Quest, meanwhile, supplied three superb talents in his first crop – Abdullah's first Derby winner Quest For Fame, the Irish Oaks winner Knight's Baroness and Arc laureate Saumarez. The stallion also gave Juddmonte their top-class talents Armiger, Raintrap and Sunshack, although his most important legacy was arguably as a broodmare sire, his daughters producing the likes of Kingston Hill (Mastercraftsman), Kris Kin (Kris S), Look Here (Hernando), North Light (Danehill) and Rakti (Polish Precedent), albeit for other breeders.

The His Majesty filly out of Spring Adieu turned out to be Razyana, who failed to get her head in front in her racing days but produced as her first foal the 2,000 Guineas third and Haydock Sprint Cup (Gr 1, 6f) winner Danehill. The son of Danzig (Northern Dancer) played his part in a rare questionable call made by Juddmonte, as he was sold at the end of his racing career to Coolmore – for the admittedly not insignificant sum of £4 million, according to reports – before setting a record for number of Group/Grade 1 winners, with 84 top-level scorers sired in a stellar dual-hemisphere stallion career. Of course that decision did not preclude Juddmonte sending mares to Danehill, and they did so with remarkable results.

Dancing Brave

Success in the breeding shed continued to snowball, and Abdullah cemented his status as one of the world's foremost owner-breeders in the 1990s through the aforementioned Quest For Fame, Commander In Chief, Wemyss Bight, Raintrap and Sunshack, as well as the likes of All At Sea (Riverman), Distant View (Mr. Prospector), Reams Of Verse (Nureyev) and Toulon (Top Ville).

By 1999 Abdullah completed a nap hand of Classics when Wince – a daughter of Selkirk (Sharpen Up) who would subsequently produce the Yorkshire Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Quiff (Sadler's Wells) at stud – became his first 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner.

But arguably the iconic Juddmonte horse of the decade was Zafonic, the scintillating two-year-old talent who stormed to a wide-margin victory in the 2,000 Guineas. By Gone West (Mr. Prospector) out of Zaizafon (Mofida) – one of the mares acquired from Sangster – he looked to have got one as good as himself in his first crop in the seven-length Dewhurst (Gr 1, 7f) winner Xaar, although the son disappointed at odds-on in the Newmarket Classic.

Zafonic died in a freak accident in a shuttle trip to Arrowfield Stud in Australia aged only 12, although Juddmonte and other breeders found compensation in the horse's less talented and more inexpensively priced brother Zamindar, the source of homebred Group 1 winners Timepiece and Zenda and the Aga Khan's phenomenal filly Zarkava.

As the Juddmonte broodmare band matured, with those high-class fillies and their relations retired to reproduce and the more lowly achievers weeded out, momentum behind the racing operation grew in the new millennium.

Hasili – a French Listed winner by Kahyasi (Ile De Bourbon) out of Kerali, a daughter of another purchase from Sangster, Cheveley Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Sookera (Roberto) – gained immortality by producing five individual top-flight 1 winners, not including Dansili (Danehill), who was six-times Group/Grade 1 placed and atoned for that solecism by siring 21 elite winners as a member of the Juddmonte stallion ranks. Dansili and siblings Banks Hill, Cacique, Champs Elysees and Intercontinental were all by the discarded Danehill.

Another important family of recent times has been that descending from foundation mare Media Luna (Star Appeal), runner-up in the 1984 Oaks. Her daughter, the Park Hill Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 6.5f) winner Eva Luna (Alleged), produced Soviet Moon (Sadler's Wells), in a foal sharing arrangement with Coolmore. Soviet Moon – whose Group 1-winning brother Brian Boru raced for Coolmore as part of the same deal – delivered Abdullah's third Derby victor, Workforce (King's Best), who would also land the Arc.

It was a similar foal sharing arrangement with Coolmore that gave Juddmonte access to Sadler's Wells' great son Galileo, from whom Abdullah bred his masterpiece, Frankel. The third dam of the unbeaten dual world champion, now admired as one of the world's leading young stallions, was one of the mares purchased from Jock Whitney, Rockfest (Stage Door Johnny).

Frankel exemplified how quickly Juddmonte bloodlines have taken root and transmitted powerful tendrils. He is out of Kind, a daughter of Danehill, while Kind is out of Rainbow Lake, by Rainbow Quest.

Juddmonte-nurtured names proliferate in the pedigrees of other recent stars for the stud, too. Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Expert Eye is by outside stallion Acclamation (Royal Applause) but his first two dams are by the homebreds Dansili and Distant View; Calyx's dam is a daughter of Observatory out of a mare by Quest For Fame.

The extraordinary Enable has fewer Juddmonte stallions in her genealogy but her damline is firmly anchored in the stud's history, with her fourth dam Fleet Girl one of the few Schnapka broodmares still represented in the organisation's stud book.

The highest tribute that can be paid to Abdullah's triumph as an owner-breeder is that purchases of young stock have become rare, simply because they are so unnecessary; the home stallion squadron is second to none in strength in depth, containing as it does the proven Oasis Dream and exciting younger names Frankel and Kingman, while the broodmare herd is replete with high-achieving racemares, accomplished producers and relations to both.

The US branch of Juddmonte has gone to market in recent years, and found the champion and record North American-trained prize-money earner Arrogate (Unbridled's Song), although Abdullah's colt Tacitus – by Tapit out of homebred multiple Grade 1 winner Close Hatches (First Defence), whose granddam Silver Star is a Zafonic sister to Xaar – shows that the stateside breeding programme functions rather well too.

In its fifth decade of operation Juddmonte has defied repeated rumours of a wholesale dispersal although it has recently made rationalisations, streamlining the mare band to around 200 head and selling Abdullah's first farm at Wargrave in Berkshire.

Zafonic winning the 2,000 Guineas in 1993

It is still very much business as usual for the operation though and the central tenet of that business, authored by Abdullah, has been a laser-like focus on quality: quality racecourse performers, quality bloodlines, quality land for youngstock and quality staff for providing management, advice and stockmanship.

From Dancing Brave and Rainbow Quest through Zafonic and Xaar to Frankel, Kingman and Enable, Juddmonte have proved that quality begets quality.

Peter Ho registers 600th Hong Kong win as Baby Storm prevails for Joao Moreira

BY LEO SCHLINK | HKJC_RACING

Teaming with the prolific Joao Moreira, Peter Ho struck a David and Goliath blow for the smallest stable in Hong Kong by lodging his 600th career winner, prompting the veteran trainer to laud his former champions Mr Medici (Medicean) and Packing Winner (Zabeel).

Elated after Baby Storm (Redwood) won the Class 5 Wistaria Handicap (1650m) at Happy Valley, Ho reflected on the peaks and troughs of a career which include producing elite performers, contesting a Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) and also the challenges of competing against much larger yards.

Ho has 28 horses in his care – under half the maximum quota allowed for single-site trainers – while bigger operations, with bases at both Sha Tin and Conghua, can accommodate 70.

Posting his seventh victory for the season, 60-year-old Ho remains optimistic he can again rise to the prominence Mr Medici and Packing Winner once delivered.

“Everybody goes through the good times, the bad times,” he said. “I have to keep working - I enjoy my work.

“I love horses, every day I enjoy my work. I have no complaints - this is my favourite (job). I can’t get a better job.”

Ho campaigned Mr Medici, Hong Kong’s champion stayer in 2009/10, in the 2010 Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), finishing sixth behind Descarado (High Chaparral), and the 2010 Melbourne Cup, crossing in 10th place behind Americain (Dynaformer).

“I learnt so much from Mr Medici,” Ho said. “Hong Kong racing is the best and I’ve learned a lot here. Thank you to the Jockey Club for giving me the chance, the opportunities to learn from everybody, to learn from owners, learn from horses.

“Actually, I started in 1997 with seven horses – seven lame horses.

Baby Storm gets off the mark under Moreira

“Now, in 2021, I look back and I really appreciate the (fact) the Hong Kong Jockey Club looked after me so well.

“This (Baby Storm’s win) is a good memory for me. Joao did a good job and he deserved it.”

Paul O’Sullivan hailed Chad Schofield’s initiative after the jockey launched a decisive mid-race move before winning the Class 4 Verbena Handicap (2200m) on Victorious Seeker (Sebring).

“He’s like every jockey here in Hong Kong - they’re world-class, they take their opportunities where they see them,” O’Sullivan said.

“There was no discussion about those tactics before the race but if you look at the sectionals, they ran the first 1000 metres pretty quick and then naturally enough they buttoned off and as they did, he got going.

“He’s (Schofield) ridden the horse a few times – he’s a pretty one-paced horse – and I think the fact he knew the horse pretty well is why he made that decision.

“You’re a hero or zero when you make those decisions. He had enough experience to know that when he did take off, you keep going.”

The victory continued Schofield’s upward trajectory after Sunday’s success on Speed Fay (Hinchinbrook) at Sha Tin.

“Nice to get a winner for Paul, I haven’t had one for a while,” Schofield said.

“This horse, he just stays like a poor relative, really. He was out the back.

“They went pretty quick the first bit and when they slowed down, there was just no point me coming back with them because I was out the back last and he just mathematically had no chance from where he was.

“So, when the pace slackened, I just let him bowl right around the field. Once he got to the lead, it was just a matter of keeping him going. He was fit, well prepared. It was a good win.”

Moreira, on Baby Storm and Smiling City (So You Think), and Zac Purton on Handsome Bo Bo (Helmet) and Noble Birth (Per Incanto) split riding honours with a double each, leaving the Brazilian with a 68-49 lead in the jockeys’ championship.

Douglas Whyte was the most successful trainer at the meeting, logging a double with Simply Fluke (Keeper) and Smiling City.

Landmark dispersals continue strong trade at Keeneland January

BY MEREDITH DAUGHERTY
AND CHRISTINE OSER OF BLOODHORSE

The second session of Book 1 at the Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale was certainly one for the books on Tuesday. Bolstered by the addition of several farm dispersals, the atmosphere on the grounds was one of frenzied activity as horses changed hands for strong prices throughout the day.

A total of 247 horses from 318 offered changed hands for gross receipts of USD$23,319,400 (approx. AUD$30,078,000). The median was USD$40,000 (approx. AUD$51,595) and the average was USD$94,411 (approx. AUD$121,796). The 71 horses that did not sell represented an RNA rate of 22.3 per cent.

During the 2020 session, 225 horses were sold for receipts of USD$17,007,300 at an average of USD$75,588 and median of USD$40,000. The 78 that did not sell represented an RNA rate of 25.7 per cent.

The belle of Tuesday's ball was most certainly Sam-Son Farm, which sold 21 mares through their dispersal for receipts of USD$6.73 million (approx. AUD$8.69 million). That number would make the historic Ontario farm the leading consignor on the day. But while its success in the ring was certainly a testament to the sheer quality of the farm's breeding stock, the auction was still an emotional moment for the staff, as they slowly learned to say goodbye to nearly half a century of top-level breeding and racing.

"The business of the game and just trying to get everything ready, we've worked so hard to do this we haven't really given ourselves time to absorb it all," said Sam-Son Farm manager David Whitford. "There's a lot of pressure to do things right, especially for the family. They've been in the game for 50 years and we don't want to mess that up."

"There's a great legacy there, and we felt the pressure of doing that. I wasn't there when the mares loaded up on the farm to come down here. My staff back at the farm...it might be hitting me right now. It'll be bittersweet for sure."

Danceforthe Cause sells for USD$925,000

From buyers, to consignors, to general onlookers, the praise for Sam-Son Farm and its legacy continued throughout Tuesday's session.

"They've spent a life's work building these families and I'm sure it's mixed emotions for a lot of the guys working there," said Elliott Walden of WinStar Farm after signing the ticket on Lot 588, a USD$310,000 (approx. AUD$400,000) Tiznow (Cee's Tizzy) mare named Dancing Fancy out of Canadian champion Dancethruthedawn (Mr Prospector).

"Dave Whitford, I talked to him yesterday, it's like seeing his kids go. He takes some solace in the fact that they're going to good homes and he can still cheer them on and the whole team can. They've done a great job over a number of years and they have a lot of nice mares."

"Great respect to them (Sam-Son Farm)," said John Sikura of Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa, who purchased two Sam-Son mares from the same family (Lot 598 and Lot 637), for receipts of USD$1.43 million (approx. AUD$1.85 million).

"Bidding as an opportunist to get in those pedigrees, but also a tribute to (Sam-Son founder) Ernie Samuel and all the people that put Canadian racing on the map. I'm a Canadian and proud that I grew up in the era of (E P Taylor's farm) Windfield."

"Sam-Son Farm is as good and successful as anybody in the world doing what they did. For me it's really sort of a claim of heritage and a chance to get involved in things that I think could really be important in the future, and breed to horses that we stand and have access to, and hope to revive those pedigrees, and be significant either on the track or in the sales ring."

The highest price for any Sam-Son mare on Tuesday came in the form of Lot 587, Danceforthe Cause, a ten-year-old daughter of Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat) and already a proven producer. Offered in foal to Lane's End's Twirling Candy (Candy Ride), the bay is a daughter of Dancethruthestorm (Thunder Gulch) and a sister to stakes winner Grand Style.

Danceforthe Cause's second dam is Sam-Son Farm's illustrious mare Dance Smartly (Danzig), winner of the 1991 Canadian Triple Crown who was named champion two-year-old, three-year-old and Horse of the Year in Canada, as well as champion three-year-old in the United States. The late Dance Smartly was also a half-sister to Grade 1 winner Smart Strike (Mr Prospector), who twice earned the leading sire title in the US during his 18-year tenure as a Lane's End stallion.

Say the Word (More Than Ready), Danceforthecause's first foal, won the 2020 renewal of the Northern Dancer Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 12f) at Woodbine and has been stakes-placed on the turf on four other occasions. Her second foal, Rideforthecause (Candy Ride), won the 2020 Canadian Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Woodbine.

"I thought she was a really beautiful mare," said bloodstock agent Alex Solis, who signed the ticket for Danceforthecause on behalf of Gainesway Farm. "She has great balance and obviously she's been a great producer already. I think this is the best Sam-Son family there is and with Dance Smartly as the second dam and Smart Strike is right there on the page, I thought she was a very exciting prospect. The price, I thought, was fair. The mare is ten years old, so I thought it was very fair. The right horse always brings a lot of money."

Slightly further down the purchase line, bloodstock agent Nobu Araki was finally able to walk away a winner when he purchased Sam-Son mare Mythical Mission (Giant's Causeway) for USD$575,000 (approx. AUD$741,500) on behalf of Shimokobe Farm/Polo Green Stable.

Consigned as Lot 754, the daughter of Giant's Causeway is out of the Miswaki (Mr Prospector) mare Misty Mission, a half-sister to Canadian champion Comet Shine (Fappiano). Mythical Mission is also a sister to two-time Canadian champion Irish Mission and a half-sister to stakes winner French Beret (Broad Brush). Mythical Mission was offered in foal to Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile).

Mythical Mission

"We bid on ($925,000) Regal Glory (Lot 403)," said Araki. "We liked her but couldn't get her. This was the second mare for us today. Of course, American Pharoah is good in Japan. We bought the mare because of her family and her physical. I wish Mr Shimokobe could come into town but, of course, a lot of Japanese buyers couldn't come."

"The mare will stay here in the US. Shipping is not until next month but she'll have the baby by then. Then she'll be bred to something else and ship back to Japan. But she will foal here."

Sharing the top price for the day was Lot 403, Regal Glory (Animal Kingdom), who was consigned by Lane's End, agent for the complete dispersal of the estate of Paul Pompa Jr. Out of the More Than Ready (Southern Halo) mare Mary's Follies, three-time Graded stakes winner Regal Glory was purchased by Peter Brant's White Birch Farm and will return to training with Chad Brown.

The Pompa dispersal saw 20 horses sell for receipts of $4.037 million (approx. AUD$5.21 million).

"The power of the dispersals was obvious today with nine of the ten top prices going to the dispersals," said Keeneland's director of sales operations Geoffrey Russell. "It was bittersweet but we appreciate the trust they put in us to put this on today."

"The opportunity - especially with the Sam-Son dispersal - to get into these mares has been limited over the years. The same is true with the mares of Mr Pompa. They come from strong female families and as Shannon (Arvin, Keeneland president and CEO) said, breeders are looking for 'blue skies' ahead and they have to have the product to produce yearlings to sell."

As for the short yearlings, the top seller was Lot 660, a filly from the first crop of Lane's End stallion City Of Light (Quality Road), who was purchased by Larry Best's OXO Equine for USD$400,000 (approx. AUD$515,832).

Bred in Kentucky by Baumann Stables, Aaron Sones, and Eric Crawford, the filly is out of the Bernardini (A P Indy) mare I'll Show Me, a half-sister to champion and 2008 Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) winner Proud Spell (Proud Citizen).
