He might not be signing under the Aquis Farm banner, but Hong Kong owner Tony Fung demonstrated his intent to remain a significant investor in the Australian industry with two seven-figure colts by Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) on the third day of the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

As the demand for blue-blooded youngsters continued at a record pace, putting the auction house on track to break the $200 million barrier across the seven-day run, Fung and Phoenix Thoroughbreds' Dubai-based Amer Abdulaziz Salman went to $1.8 million for an Emirates Park-bred son of Group 2-winning mare One More Honey (Onemorenomore). Continued on page 2>>

The duo earlier went to an even $1 million for a Baramul Stud-bred colt by the same pensioned Arrowfield Stud sire, a day after landing a $1.1 million son of Not A Single Doubt from Torryburn Stud.

So far, Fung and Phoenix have bought six out of the seven colts offered by Not A Single Doubt at this sale for a total of $5.19 million.

The attraction to Not A Single Doubt is more than understandable given their success with Group 2-winning sprinter Dubious and, more recently, Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) hero Farnan, as well as another powerful colt in Anders.

On their highest-priced acquisition to date, Aquis Farm managing director Shane McGrath said: "They are a limited edition, the Not A Single Doubt colts, and he (the $1.8 million colt) comes off a great nursery and is out of a very good racemare."

After McGrath successfully bid on Baramul Stud's Lot 529 from a corner table at the auditorium, bidding for the $1.8 million colt, who was catalogued as Lot 612, was left to Abdulaziz Salman, who was calling the shots online from Dubai.

"Unfortunately, he (Abdulaziz Salman) can't be here at the sale. Everyone in the industry likes to be part of the atmosphere and likes being part of the process," McGrath said.

"We've been fortunate that he's allowed the team to collect the list of horses. We just thought on a horse like this, it was nice for him to do the bidding.

"Each horse we have discussed, we have talked through what we wanted to spend on them."

Emirates Park general manager Bryan Carlson put the colt on the market from the opening $600,000 bid, noting the pre-sale interest had him confident of a big result.

"He was a lovely colt. Even back at the farm, he's been very popular, I didn't think he was going to make that much, but I knew he was going to make over a million," Carlson said.

One More Honey has a Zoustar (Northern Meteor) colt at foot and is in foal to Snitzel (Redoute's Choice).

The $1 million lot from Gerry Harvey's Baramul Stud also fitted "all the cliches", according to McGrath.

"He's a lovely, fast, sharp two-year-old and we hope he is back here next year," he said.

"He fits our profile of what we are trying to do. We've got great partners in Phoenix who are willing to back our judgment. The proof will be in the pudding on the racetrack."

Regarding Not A Single Doubt, who was pensioned in January 2020 and has 44 live foals in his second-last crop being offered to the market, McGrath added: "He leaves a great type, he's a phenomenal sire. There are only a handful of colts there, and we are keen to secure them."

"The market has shown there is a huge appetite for the stallion, and he's a huge loss."

The colt is the second foal out of the winning Medaglia D'Oro (El Prado) mare Medaglia Valore, while his second dam is the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and Group 2 winner Military Rose (General Nediym).

Built in the mould of his sire, a powerful sprinting type, McGrath says there is no reason to stray from a proven formula.

"We have had a lot of success in recent times from purchases out of the Magic Millions sale ring and it's nice to give a bit of money back to Gerry (Harvey, owner of Magic Millions and Baramul Stud). God knows he needs it," he joked.

Later, the partners also went to $750,000 for a last-crop son of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) from the stakes-placed winner Mount Zero (Northern Meteor), making him a three-quarter brother to this season's talented juvenile Mura Mura (Not A Single Doubt). He was catalogued as Lot 576.

Mura Mura runs in tomorrow's Magic Millions 2YO Classic.

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch, who like most industry participants was beaming over the continued strength experienced at the Gold Coast this week, recognised Fung and Phoenix's continued investment in the Australian industry.

Lot 576 Redoute's Choice - Mount Zero colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

"They have had a huge fill-up out of this sale. When you think about it, they bought Dubious, three years ago and two years ago they've taken home Farnan, Anders and Prague, so It works, doesn't it?" Bowditch said.

"They have bought some huge horses out of this sale which have been great on the racetrack, but they have also sold them well to stud. The recipe obviously works."

At the current rate of trade, Magic Millions is on track to break the $200 million barrier and another record sale, a possibility almost unthinkable only months ago.

There have been eight million-dollar lots across the three sessions so far at an average of $257,471, up more than $5,000 compared to the same stage last year.

The $180,000 median is holding steady, but the most stunning feature of the sale so far is the clearance rate of 88 per cent, a statistic that was forecast to drop year-on-year.

"The market's truly set now. It's buoyant, it's confident and it's real. The vendors are putting them on the market and buyers are having a proper go at all levels," Bowditch said.

"When you're selling a horse well at $80,000; selling a horse well at $500,000, through to the big numbers, it just gives buyers confidence to buy at all levels and that's what Magic Millions is all about."

Bowditch continued: "This is the best catalogue ever produced by us. The horses are solid all the way through - there's not a weak day, there's not a strong day."

"Will we have another million-dollar horse? I suspect so and I am confident that we will, but could I tell you which one right now? I'm not 100 per cent sure."

"I am just thrilled that under the circumstances of getting this sale through all the restrictions and all the trepidation that the buyers have shown up here in droves and supported this industry like it deserves to be supported."

Loving Gaby's sister joins Maher-Eustace stable

It took some intense and rapid negotiations but eventually the sister to dual Group 1-winning mare Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) was sold to her trainer Ciaron Maher and Nxt Level Syndication for $1.2 million.

As the filly's price stalled at $1.2 million, auctioneer Clint Donovan attempted to entice another bid from the buying bench but no one stepped forward, leaving her to be passed in and setting in motion the quick-fire response from vendor Kia Ora Stud and Maher.

Soon after, it was announced that the filly would join the stable of Maher and his co-trainer David Eustace.

"It wasn't straightforward - it was a bit awkward at the end there, but we're rapt to be able to get her. She's very much like her (Loving Gaby) and maybe a little bit stronger," Maher said.

"I didn't have much more left in me, maybe another five ($50,000). Hopefully she can be as good as her sister."

Coolmore, who paid $2.25 million for Maastricht (Mastercraftsman) carrying the million-dollar youngster at the 2019 Inglis Chairman's Sale, will remain in the ownership of the filly.

She is the third foal out of the Group 2-placed Maastricht, herself a half-sister to stakes winners Velocitea (Volksraad) and Weaponry (Declaration Of War), and was catalogued as Lot 500.

Maher would not rule out the filly being able to reach the racetrack sooner than her big frame suggests.

- SHANE WRIGHT

"Gaby was very big and raw and this horse has maybe got a little bit more quality, a little bit more strength, and the same sort of physical. She is quite tall," he said.

"Gaby came to hand pretty early for a big filly and this horse is well structured. If they have plenty of ability they can normally get there earlier than what you think."

Lot 500 I Am Invincible - Maastricht (NZ) filly

MAGIC MILLIONS

Kia Ora Stud's Shane Wright acknowledged that the selling of the blue-chip filly did not go as smoothly as expected.

"It's hard to speculate what these big horses are going to make. We thought that was a fair price. We were just testing the market," Wright said.

"The sale has been so hot this week. It's been amazing and congratulations to Magics for putting on such a show.

"Ciaron is the hottest trainer of two-year-olds in the country. She looks like a genuine two-year-old type.

"By this time next year, hopefully he will have built her own reputation and hopefully she won't be living off Loving Gaby's reputation any more. I reckon that will be the case."

Maastricht had an early November-born Justify (Scat Daddy) colt last year.

Victorian Alliance strikes again

The numerous colts syndicates attempting to land the next jackpot stallion prospect again dominated the marketplace and that was the case with the Rosemont Stud-backed Victorian Alliance.

On Wednesday, the group made its mark with a $1 million Zoustar colt and it did not stop yesterday, buying a son of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) for $950,000 from Coolmore.

The Alliance also signed for another colt by I Am Invincible for $400,000 from Yarraman Park Stud, as well as an Edinburgh Park-consigned son of Written Tycoon (Iglesia) for $300,000 on day three.

With the assistance of its retained agents Suman Hedge and the UK-based David Redvers, the partnership involving some high-profile Victorian breeders bought the first foal out of the stakes-placed mare Petition (Foxwedge), herself a daughter of New Zealand Group 1 winner The Party Stand (Thorn Park).

The colt went through in the closing minutes of the session as Lot 636.

"He was a horse we identified very early at the top of our list of colts to try and secure for our Victorian Alliance," Hedge said.

"He's by a champion stallion, out of a stakes-placed mare, a daughter of a Group 1 winner and he's a lovely physical.

"He looks like an early-running horse and that's the profile that us and a lot of the other colt buyers here are looking for."

The extreme demand is being fuelled by competition for colts who could be sold for over $40 million as stallion prospects should they achieve the desired level of racetrack performance.

"It is a very crowded market for colts. I think there's six or seven different syndicates trying to secure them and they're all looking for similar qualities in those horses," Hedge said.

IT'S THE START OF THE YEAR AND IT'S A PRETTY BUOYANT SALE HERE, SO YOU HAVE TO BE VERY AGGRESSIVE ON THE ONES THAT YOU WANT AND PUT YOURSELF OUT THERE IF YOU WANT TO GET THEM

"Everybody's landing on them and everyone's got money. It's the start of the year and it's a pretty buoyant sale here, so you have to be very aggressive on the ones that you want and put yourself out there if you want to get them.

"Fortunately, we have been able to pick up a couple of other horses which were under our projected budget and that probably smoothed over a couple of our other aggressive purchases out of the total that we've been able to get."

The prominent James Harron Bloodstock colts syndicate also continued its haul for 2021 yesterday by buying a Zoustar colt for $800,000.

Offered by Widden Stud as Lot 483, he is out of the unraced Lone (Sepoy), a half-sister to stakes winners Atmospherical (Northern Meteor), Gai's Choice (General Nediym) and Peron (Husson).

Harron also outlaid $800,000 for the Snitzel three-quarter sister to sprinting colt Anders and a sister to the stakes-placed Battleground. She was sold by Arrowfield Stud as Lot 503.

Almanzor colt with Russian Camelot similarities makes $800,000

Lot 470 Almanzor - Lazumba colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

Meanwhile, a Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) owner-trainer combination will reunite after a colt by Cambridge Stud's European champion shuttler Almanzor (Wootton Bassett), the surprise-package of the first season sires, sold for $800,000.

Danny O'Brien, who compared the colt on type to that of Russian Camelot (Camelot) as a yearling and prepared Cox Plate winner Shamus Award (Snitzel) for Sean Buckley, will train the horse after Baystone Farm's Dean Harvey identified and signed for him.

Harvey confirmed that Ultra Thoroughbreds' Buckley would have O'Brien take care of the horse during his racing career.

"He was faultless on type; Almanzor was a champion racehorse of Europe and the types I have seen by him this week have been fantastic," Harvey said.

"I think they are going to be versatile horses and he was one of the colts of the sale. We had to chase hard to buy him but eventually we won out.

"There was plenty of competition on him and that's what happens with nice horses - they sell like that."

Bred by Murray and Marg Hardy along with Mills Reef Winery founder Paddy Preston under their Sunlight Trust banner, the colt is the third foal out of the VRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) runner-up Lazumba (Sebring). She has a Written Tycoon colt at foot and is back in foal to the same sire. The yearling was catalogued as Lot 470.

"The colt was a beautiful, athletic type and that's what everyone wants to see," Cambridge Stud chief executive Henry Plumptre said.

The reception to the stock by Almanzor from the Australian buyers was a welcome one for Plumptre.

Inglis Classic to proceed as live auction

Inglis sales ring

INGLIS

Next month's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale will proceed as a live auction at Riverside Stables from February 7-9. The sale will be conducted with Inglis' CovidSafe plan in place, which allows for a range of hospitality options, while the auction house will continue to work with respective state government authorities to further develop protocols that will allow for the attendance of interstate participants. "The permit system now in place for travel to Victoria is a very positive development for those looking to participate in the sale," Inglis managing director Mark Webster said. "We are working with all the relevant authorities to ensure that as many people as practicable can attend the sale in a safe and responsible manner, and we will continue to liaise with buyers through the coming weeks. It is an excellent catalogue of horses for what year after year proves itself to be the best-value yearling sale on the calendar, and we are excited to get the 2021 Inglis Yearling Sales Series up and going with Classic on February 7-9." The 2021 Classic Yearling Sale, for which 803 yearlings have been catalogued, includes the progeny of 108 different stallions offered by 76 individual vendors. Prospective purchasers are encouraged to consider on-farm inspections of catalogued yearlings where practicable. On-site inspections are set to begin at Riverside on February 2. Click here for the contact details of vendors at the sale.

First for Maurice

First season sire Maurice (Screen Hero) took a long time to register a maiden winner in his native Japan, only hitting the scoreboard in mid-July before embarking on a remarkable run to almost claim first season sire honours in 2020. All indications suggest the Arrowfield Stud shuttler may be about to begin a similar run in Australia, with Balmaurice (2 g ex Bal Du Siecle by Danehill Dancer) giving the six-time Group 1 victor a first Australian winner yesterday. Balmaurice was a significant drifter, easing from $18 to $31, but the Rex Lipp-trained gelding was much too good for his rivals under Ben Thompson, racing clear for a two and a quarter-length win over equal favourites Reawaken (Kiss And Make Up) and Archdeacon (Better Than Ready). Bred and raced by Trevor and Diana Fraser, Balmaurice is the sixth foal to race out of Bal Du Siecle (Danehill Dancer), whose dam Buenos Aires (Rainbow Quest) is a half-sister to Might And Power (Zabeel). Bal Du Siecle has an American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile) yearling colt and a So You Think (High Chaparral) filly foal, while she is in foal to Encryption (Lonhro). Maurice, who is the 16th first season sire to have an Australian winner in 2020-21 and sits tenth on the early first season sires standings by earnings, did not return to Arrowfield Stud in 2020 due to Covid-19. He is once again standing at Shadai Stallion Station in 2021.

Further clearance needed for Love, Availabull to be examined

Fake Love

MAGIC MILLIONS

Connections of Fake Love (I Am Invincible) and Readily Availabull (Bull Point) face an anxious wait with the pair having to overcome further veterinary examinations before being given the all clear to take their chances in tomorrow's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m). The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Fake Love has received treatment after experiencing slight lameness in the near foreleg. The John Sargent-trained Readily Availabull was also showing similar signs of lameness in the near foreleg after arriving at the Gold Coast yesterday morning. The duo will have to undergo another inspection this morning before stewards make the call on whether they can run in the Classic. Fake Love, who won the Debutant Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield first-up in October, is a $15 chance with TAB fixed odds after drawing barrier 20, while Readily Availabull, the Magic Millions Clockwise Classic (1000m) winner at Ballarat, is a $23 outsider.

Edge to 'lap up pressure' in Classic

Alpine Edge

RACING PHOTOS

Trent Edmonds believes the traditional high pressure scenario in tomorrow's Classic will be ideal for unbeaten colt Alpine Edge (Better Than Ready). "The more high pressure event it becomes, the better it will be for him," Edmonds, who trains in partnership with his father Toby, said. "He'll relish a good, strongly-run 1200 metres and should lap up the pressure." Alpine Edge has impressed Edmonds with his progress since winning the BJ McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Eagle Farm on Boxing Day. "He hasn't gone backwards since the McLachlan win," Edmonds said. "We've left no stone unturned. It's grand final day and he goes there in really good shape." Edmonds believes Alpine Edge's adaptable racing pattern is another factor in his favour. "He's a versatile galloper. We rode him forward in the Phelan Ready then rode him off the speed in the McLachlan," he added. "I really love the way he took that run up on the fence the other day and he really attacked the line hard. He'll come into barrier six on Saturday, which is a fantastic gate for him."

First-time visor for Hipstar

Kelly Schweida is hoping a significant weight swing and a gear change will enable Miss Hipstar (Star Turn) to turn the tables on Swift Witness (Star Witness) in the Classic. Miss Hipstar was left trailing in the wake of Swift Witness when she finished third, beaten nearly four lengths by the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained filly in the Gold Pearl (1100m) at the Gold Coast last Saturday. On that occasion, Miss Hipstar also had the burden of top-weight of 58 kilograms, conceding four kilograms to Swift Witness, but she meets that filly on level weights this time round. Schweida has also removed the blinkers and added a visor to the gear of Miss Hipstar. "She found the line pretty good last weekend and meets the winner four kilos better at the weights this time," Schweida said. "I've taken the blinkers off and put a visor on just to try and eat into that margin she put on us the other day." Schweida believes the visor may help Miss Hipstar begin better in the Classic after she was tardy at the start of the Gold Pearl. "She was a bit slow out with the blinkers and I thought the visor would help her to see the other horses when she breaks from the gates," he said. "I felt a bit sick after the barrier draw when she came up with 19, but she deserves to take her place in the race."

Vella peaking for Snippets assignment

Group 1 winner Bella Vella (Commands) will line up in tomorrow's Magic Millions Snippets (1200m) with connections full of hope following a sparkling workout this week. "Her gallop here the other day was absolutely outstanding," the Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner's trainer Will Clarken told Racing.com. "She swung onto the right leg at the right time and she galloped as good as I've ever seen her." Bella Vella was last seen in action when finishing last of the nine runners in the Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) back in October, but Clarken said she has thrived during her break. "She came to the end of it (preparation in the Manikato) and it was a messy race and a forgive run, but her two runs before that were exceptional," he said. "She's travelled up here really well. She's carrying a little bit more condition than she did last prep and she's really thriving in the Queensland weather."

No call yet on jockey for Hastings

Connections of King Of Hastings (Illovethecity) will leave it as late as possible before confirming who will take the ride on the four-year-old in the Snippets. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained gelding only arrived in Queensland yesterday, having won at Randwick on Saturday. "He's had a really good week so we felt that he was fine to race on the back-up," Sam Freedman told Racing.com. "He's drawn a nice gate (nine) but we still need a jockey so hopefully we can find a decent one. Because we weren't always going to be running, we didn't really plan this far ahead. You don't hope that other people are forced to scratch but if they do, hopefully a decent rider becomes available." Jockeys without a ride in the race at present include Brenton Avdulla, Andrew Mallyon and Michael Dee, who was aboard King of Hastings for his maiden win in May 2019.

Redouble out for historic Cup double

Redouble (Redoute's Choice) will attempt to complete his own piece of Magic Millions history when the gelding aims to become the first sprinter to land the Magic Millions Cup (RL, 1400m) for the second time tomorrow. The Bjorn Baker-trained seven-year-old won the race in 2019 and finished second behind the Tony Gollan-trained Vega One (Lope De Vega) last year. Redouble was also nominated for the Snippets but Baker felt the longer trip was more suitable. "Redouble went close last year and is in good shape again," the trainer said. "He seems to thrive this time of the year and he likes the track. He's definitely not out of it again. He had barrier one when he won the Cup two years ago but he had the outside gate when he was beaten last year. This time he's got eight and you have to respect what he's done in the past." Baker will also be represented in the race by Edison (Fastnet Rock), who will be ridden by Ryan Maloney, while Michael Rodd partners Redouble.

Shaik second-up for Team Hawkes at Rosehill

Tommy Berry is looking forward to getting back on board Shaik (Sebring) when the three-year-old has her second start for new connections in a Benchmark 72 over 1300 metres at Rosehill tomorrow. Berry partnered the filly for the first time when she ran out an impressive winner at Warwick Farm on her first start for Team Hawkes on December 23. "She's a lovely filly, she performed really well in some good company last preparation obviously being placed behind North Pacific," Berry said. "She's come into the Hawkes stable from Brad Widdup's in very good order and she was a really good winner at her first run for the Hawkes'. She's definitely improved since the last run, so it's the obvious step for her to go back up to Saturday grade and this looks a nice race for her."

Twinstar out to continue hot streak

Emma and Lucy Longmire are hoping their recent winning run continues at Rosehill when the consistent Designer Dance (Master Of Design) lines up in tomorrow's Highway Handicap (1500m). Since Christmas Eve the twins, who race under the banner of Twinstar Racing, have had three winners from nine starters, with Designer Dancer being one of the most promising horses in their 30-strong team. The six-year-old has proven to be a consistent performer with two wins and eight placings from 16 starts. Robbie Dolan, who rode her last time out when finishing a close-up second in a Highway Handicap at Randwick on December 19, will be back in the saddle when she jumps from barrier two. "It's great to have Robbie back on board and we're very happy with that barrier draw," Emma Longmire said. "He probably can't really take full advantage of that barrier, but it should mean he can get into a position without doing too much work." It will be the first time the mare steps up to 1500 metres, but Longmire believes her racing pattern will be suited by the extra distance. "She's such a relaxed mare in the run and just switches off," the co-trainer continued. "It's her first time over more than 1400 metres but she has a really good turn of foot and we're confident she will run out the trip."

Alburq on black-type path at Flemington

Mike Moroney hopes Alburq (Rubick) can continue his rise towards stakes company when he contests tomorrow's 1200-metre Benchmark 84 down the Flemington straight. Alburq currently has one win from 18 starts, but Moroney is eyeing black-type handicaps for the four-year-old moving forward, with a tilt at the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 6 remaining a possibility. "He's pretty underrated," Moroney told Racing.com. "He's always given us the impression he's got black-type in him. Certainly we'll be looking for a lesser class than the Newmarket, but we'll throw a nomination in for a race like that. It's a handicap so those lightweight horses really have a chance. I'm not saying that is what we'll aim at; we'd like to run in any black-type race that's a handicap." Moroney offered Jamie Kah the ride on Alburq tomorrow, but with Kah set to partner the Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained Deep Dive (Deep Field), Alburq will be ridden by Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m)-winning apprentice Lachlan King, who can claim two kilograms.

Rawiller: scans reveal further injuries

Brad Rawiller faces a longer period on the sidelines than was first feared after further scans revealed the jockey has also sustained fractures to his back and ribs following a fall at Bunbury on Wednesday. The 42-year-old was initially reported to have suffered a broken collarbone and punctured a lung after his mount, Imprudent (Oratorio), stumbled and dislodged him in race two. However, the Victorian Jockeys Association released an update yesterday morning confirming the additional fractures. The incident comes a little more than two years after Rawiller broke his neck and collarbone in a fall at Cranbourne in 2018, an incident which ruled him out of race-riding for six months.

Moody celebrates metro double

Peter Moody posted his first metropolitan double since his return to training when Perennial (Per Incanto) and Diamonds In the Sky (Zoustar) hit the scoreboard under apprentice Will Price at Caulfield on Wednesday. "We took four to the races yesterday thinking they were all in the right race if luck fell their way and two of them delivered," the 56-time Group 1-winning trainer told Racing.com from the Gold Coast, where he is attending Magic Millions. Diamonds In the Sky now boasts a record of two wins, two placings and a fourth from her five starts, while Perennial has two wins and seven placings from her 12 starts. "We haven't got any delusions of grandeur, but they can slowly step through the grades I reckon," Moody added of the duo's future.

Cup hopeful Finche set for autumn debut

Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) contender Finche (Frankel) is set for a jump-out at Flemington today ahead of his first autumn campaign in Australia. The imported six-year-old has finished in the top ten in the last three runnings of the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), but he has yet to race in the autumn having been sidelined in the early months of both 2019 and 2020. "For the past two autumn carnivals he had some little niggles but this time they've got him cherry ripe and I think the Australian Cup looks the race for him," part-owner Brae Sokolski told Racing.com. "I don't think any of the three big guns - Verry Elleegant, Sir Dragonet or Russian Camelot - are going towards it so if you look at his Turnbull runs over the same course, it's a good race for him." The Chris Waller-trained Finche has placed in the last two runnings of the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and Sokolski added: "He hasn't won a Group 1 but he's got a bit of a cult following because he's such a lovely horse and a genuine horse."

Bargain buy set for Ballina Cup

Six-time winner Sea Raider (Reset) will be out to enhance his terrific strike-rate when the bargain buy lines up in today's $65,000 Ballina Cup (1590m). Purchased by Gold Coast trainer John Gilmore for $10,000 at the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale in 2018, Sea Raider has so far won six of his 14 starts for prize-money exceeding $108,000. He was last seen running a two and a quarter-length third over 1400 metres at Eagle Farm on January 2. "I've always had the Ballina Cup in mind for him this prep and I couldn't be happier with him going into the race," Gilmore told Racing NSW. "His work on Tuesday was good and he is unbeaten in soft ground, so it will be another bonus if the Ballina track stays in the soft range. Friday's race will be the first time he's tackled a race beyond 1400 metres but I'm sure the 1590 metres at Ballina will be ideal for him."

Public back at The Valley today

The public will return to Moonee Valley today for the first time since the coronavirus pandemic struck. A maximum of 5,000 people will be permitted on track under the official guidelines, but a crowd of around 2,000 is expected for the eight-race fixture in line with the average for this type of meeting. "There are restrictions still there so it's still not your stock standard day or night at the races, but it is certainly getting somewhere back toward that," MVRC general manager - communications, Alastair Dwyer, told Racing.com. "From next Friday night we will start bringing back live music and the like, so it will start looking more like what people expect from a 'Friday Night Lights' perspective." General admission tickets, which usually allow patrons to spend the night on the lawn area, will instead be for grandstand seats today with tickets to be pre-booked at a cost of $10. As such, the lawn area will be lined with socially-distanced picnic tables.

Childs and McNeil to resume trackwork

Promising Victorian apprentices Tayla Childs and Logan McNeil have both been granted medical clearance to resume trackwork and are expected to return to race-riding next month. Childs, who fractured her ankle in a freak pre-race incident at Kyneton in October, confirmed the news on Twitter, while McNeil hasn't been seen in a race since May, having undergone surgery to repair significant damage to an injured foot. "I had my first day back at trackwork on Monday," McNeil told Racing.com. "It's been about seven and a half months since the accident so it was good to finally get back into the swing of things. It's still going to need a bit of time but it's feeling good. I didn't expect it to be this long at all but it just didn't recover the way we hoped. I'll have to wait and see how it progresses, we'll take it as it comes, but I'm hoping that I'll be ready to go in about a month."

Six-month suspension for apprentice Atkinson

Fellow Victorian apprentice Kayla Atkinson has been disqualified for six months on two charges relating to a positive urine sample. The 20-year-old, who is yet to ride in a race and has not ridden in trials since last March, pleaded guilty to two charges: providing a sample positive to a banned substance and to twice substituting her urine sample. Atkinson was suspended for six months on the first charge and disqualified for six months on the second, with the penalties to be served concurrently. A Racing Victoria stewards release said a urine sample provided by Atkinson after riding trackwork at Caulfield on December 7 was found to contain a banned substance under AR 136. "When directed to provide a urine sample, Ms Atkinson substituted her urine sample on two occasions," the statement read. Atkinson's penalty is backdated to December 7, meaning she will be free to reapply for a license on June 7.

Consecutive bans for Collett

Jason Collett received his second consecutive metropolitan suspension at Warwick Farm on Wednesday when he pleaded guilty to the charge of careless riding aboard the Clare Cunningham-trained Jungle Book (Animal Kingdom), who won the Benchmark 72 over 1600 metres. Collett, who was suspended for the same offence at Randwick last Saturday, admitted to shifting out at the 200-metre marker when insufficiently clear of Home Ground (High Chaparral), who was unplaced, resulting in that horse having to be steadied. Both charges have resulted in Collett being suspended from this Sunday until January 30.

NEW ZEALAND

Tavi Mac steps into Seabiscuit role

Allan Sharrock is hoping his Tavi Mac (Tavistock) can provide the movie fairytale finish to tomorrow's Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m) at Trentham. "It's the old battler's tale. The little horse from humble beginnings up against the expensive Fastnet Rock mare, and she'll take some beating too," Sharrock said, assessing Tavi Mac's clash with four-time Group 1 winner Advantage (Fastnet Rock), the TAB's $1.65 favourite for the Telegraph. "It's the old Seabiscuit story. Just maybe?" Tavi Mac has won ten of his 15 starts to date but chased Advantage home when second in the Foxbridge

Tavi Mac

NZTM

Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Te Rapa last August and also in his only start at Group 1 level, when he finished sixth to her third in the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) at Hastings in September. "I can't fault him. He's glided through his last couple of wins," Sharrock said. "We've increased the intensity but he's loved it and he's right on top of his game at the moment. But he'll need to be to beat the mare. Look at the Foxbridge Plate. He swished his tail and made her work all the way to the line for her win that day. And he's improved out of sight since then. He's a far more polished racehorse now. But as we saw in the Railway, she's improved a lot since then too. But he's in outstanding condition for this. His coat has come back to me again. He's peaking again and his work suggests he's at his best."

Strike-rate standouts set for big day at Trentham

The stable of John Benner and Hollie Wynyard boasts the best strike-rate in New Zealand this season, and a quality group of runners at Trentham tomorrow could further embellish their impressive record. Benner and Wynyard have won 15 races so far this season having saddled only 44 starters. "We can't really complain, things have been going pretty well for us this season," Benner said. "We've got some nice horses around us, and now we're hoping for a big day on Saturday." The only thing missing from Benner and Wynyard's CV this season is black-type success, which they will hope to rectify with Bonham (Per Incanto) and Invisible Spirit (Charm Spirit), who will take on star northern colt Brando (Savabeel) in the Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m), as well as Titled (Exceed And Excel) in the Wellesley Stakes (Listed, 1000m). Bonham has tasted defeat only once in her four-start career, finishing seventh in the New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr

1, 1600m), while she posted a brilliant victory over 1400 metres at Awapuni last Saturday. "She pulled up sensationally well from last week's race," Benner said. "It was a relatively soft run for her in the end. They didn't run the race at a crazy tempo, she had a nice trip and she really only sprinted in the last furlong or two. She came through that run so well, we couldn't see any reason not to back her up this Saturday. Group 1 races are so important for lovely fillies like her, so we were keen to take a shot at it." As for Invisible Spirit, Benner said: "He's been super consistent. It might be a bit of an ask this weekend up against the big ones, but he'll definitely be a runner's chance. He's nicely drawn and has a good little record behind him. We won't be surprised if he runs well."

INTERNATIONAL

KSA: Saudi Cup entries revealed

In excess of 100 horses from nine different countries have been entered for the second running of the

USD$20 million Saudi Cup (1800m) at Riyadh on February 20. Nominations for the world's richest race were revealed on Wednesday and they include a strong US contingent, spearheaded by Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9.5f) winner Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil), Malibu Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) hero Charlatan (Speightstown) and Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (Gr 1, 1m) scorer Knicks Go (Paynter). Entries from Europe include the William Haggas-trained Addeybb (Pivotal), last year's Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) hero who subsequently landed the Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Ascot. He is one of 17 elite-level winners to have received a nomination, joining the likes of John Gosden's Mishriff (Make Believe), winner of the 2020 Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m) and an intended starter as a colt owned and bred by Saudi's Prince Faisal. There are more than 400 international entries across the two days of the Saudi Cup meeting, with Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) stalwart Prince Of Arran (Shirocco) again featuring among the nominations for the Long Distance Turf Handicap (3000m), a race in which he ran third behind the Call The Wind (Frankel) last year.

US: Danceteria second on American debut

The Australian Bloodstock-owned Danceteria (Redoute's Choice), who finished last in the 2019 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) won by Lys Gracieux (Heart's Cry), ran second on his American debut at Gulfstream Park on Wednesday. Contesting an allowance optional claimer, run over 1800 metres on turf and worth USD$53,000 (approx. AUD$68,000), the now Graham Motion-trained Danceteria was ridden patiently early before staying on powerfully in the straight to get within three-quarters of a length of all-the-way winner Phantom Currency (Goldencents), trained by Australian Brian Lynch. A German Group 1 winner, Danceteria was unable to show his best form during six Australian starts, last seen running a ten-length last of eight in the Hill Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Randwick on October 3.

Racing and breeding giant make move for Rich Hill shuttler

Vadamos

COOLMORE

Coolmore have flexed their might once more as the 2021 northern hemisphere breeding season gets underway, with the purchase of Rich Hill Stud shuttler Vadamos (Monsun) from Tally-Ho Stud in Ireland.

The French-bred son of Monsun (Konigsstuhl), whose big race wins included the Prix du Moulin (Gr 1, 1600m) at Chantilly for trainer Andre Fabre, ended his on-track career with two fourth placings in the 2016 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) behind Winx (Street Cry) and the Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington before retiring to stud. He will stand for a fee of €6,000 (approx. $9,400) this year.

In an encouraging start to his stud career, Vadamos recorded 14 individual two-year-old winners from his first northern hemisphere crop, while the Karl Burke-trained Spycatcher finished a close-up second to subsequent Criterium de Saint-Cloud (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Gear Up (Teofilo) in the Acomb Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at York.

at Rich Hill Stud from a fee of NZ$15,000, Vadamos has produced one two-year-old to race so far ahead of the 2021 Karaka Yearling Sale which begins on January 24, where he'll have 30 yearlings go through the ring across Books 1 and 2.

"Vadamos is a smashing looking horse who has made an excellent start with his first runners and we're delighted to get him," said Coolmore representative, Albert Sherwood.

The strength of Swift Witness' (Star Witness) victory in the Aquis Gold Pearl (1100m) last weekend can be measured by the fact that she has firmed into $3.90 favouritism for tomorrow's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m).

This is despite the fact that, on paper, she has almost five lengths to find on her Wyong conqueror She's All Class (I Am Invincible), the $4.20 second elect for tomorrow's $2 million feature.

Racing in the Mystery Downs colours of Francis and Christine Cook, Swift Witness had held her ground on debut in the Magic Millions Wyong 2YO Classic (RL, 1100m), but she showed a tremendous amount of improvement when she stepped out last weekend.

Ridden by Glen Boss, she sat handy before drawing clear for a dominant three-length success over first-starter Glorious Ruby (Your Song) with favourite Miss Hipstar (Star Turn) a further three-quarters of a length away in third.

"It was good to see the improvement with the blinkers, we came up here thinking she had the ability to be here and deserved a spot in the (Magic Millions 2YO Classic) field so it will be good to see her take her place," Bott said.

"It was a bit of an ask for her to have her first race in the Wyong Magic Millions, she got a little bit lost there but she still found the line strongly.

"Today she was a bit reactive to a few horses shifting out but once she really balanced up and got focused on the task, we were able to see a nice turn of foot.

"It wasn't easy with what happened pre-race (with the race pushed back after apprentice Justin Huxtable was kicked by a pony) but she handled herself remarkably well, she went back to the stalls and was nice and relaxed."

SHE WAS A BIT REACTIVE TO A FEW HORSES SHIFTING OUT BUT ONCE SHE REALLY BALANCED UP AND GOT FOCUSED ON THE TASK, WE WERE ABLE TO SEE A NICE TURN OF FOOT

Now, attention turns to tomorrow with Bott seeking his first Magic Millions 2YO Classic to add to Waterhouse's four with Assertive Lad (Zeditave), Excellerator (Marsday), Dance Hero (Danzero) and Driefontein (Fastnet Rock).

Since Bott joined the partnership, the pair have had five runners with Czarson (Stratum) the best performer, finishing fourth in 2019. However, last year saw subsequent Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) finish tenth for the stable.

A $260,000 purchase from the Widden Stud draft at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Swift Witness is the second stakes placegetter out of Taylor's Command (Commands), joining Gosford Guineas (Listed, 1200m) runner-up Terminology (Star Witness).

Intriguingly, Terminology finished fourth to Jonker (Spirit Of Boom) in the Magic Millions lead-up at Wyong before finishing second to Sunlight (Zoustar) in what was the precursor to the Aquis Gold Pearl, meaning that Swift Witness has a similar profile but has managed to go one better at each of her two starts.

Terminology failed to gain a start in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic itself - she was second emergency - but she did manage to win the $250,000 Magic Millions Maiden Plate (1200m) a year later.

Taylor's Command, a Seymour winner who was tested at stakes grade in the Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m), is a half-sister to Group 2 winner So Pristine (Zabeel) and Restored (Red Ransom), winner of the Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Listed, 2000m), a Singapore Group 1.

It is also the family of six-time Grade 1 winner Theatrical (Nureyev), sire of Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Media Puzzle and Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) hero Portland Player among many, as well as other top-flight victors like Paradise Creek (Irish River), David Junior (Pleasant Tap) and Bobby's Kitten (Kitten's Joy).

Taylor's Command has a first Star Witness (Starcraft) colt that will be sold just a couple of hours after the Magic Millions 2YO Classic, while she produced another filly by the sire in 2020. She was again served by Star Witness in November.
